THE WORLD'S GREAT EXHIBITION. Quite a number of Howard county people returned from the World's Fair during the past week, most of them pretty well worn out, but all satiated with sight seeing at the greatest exhibition ever conceived and carried into execution by man.

The exhibition is a compilation, as it public conscience lowered. were, of the World's progress up to date. Any similar show of antiquity had it ever been attempted would have paled into insignificance when compared with the display at Chicago. While the ancients were experts in art, cunning workmanship and architecture, they knew comparatively little of scientine discovery and the realms of modern thought have opened out so wide and wonderful that were an ancient to come to life and see what is to be seen at the Chicago fair he would concede to the gods what properly belongs to man. Even Ben Franklin when he succeeded in harnessing lightning hadn't the remotest conception that he was capturing an agency which would astonish the world with the multiplicity of uses it can be put to-uses that the most fertile dreamer of by gone days would not have dared

All of the mechanical arts have ad ranced and now an idea has but to be conceived and every necessary appliance seems to be at hand to put it into execution. Watches are made with puzzling rapidly and in a degree of perfection forth with such dazzling rapidity and so excellent quality that the untutored mind is ready to attribute it some occult power. The unscientific mind nowadays is able to look upon much that he does not understand and it is almost impossible to explain it to him. He sees the whirring dynamo turning out electricity in such volumes that a city railway sys tem is supplied with abundance of powe to keep scores of cars in motion or the stiffest grades, and he doesn't know how it is done, and the electrician him self will admit that he is working with an agency he is not more than hal acquainted with. Not only has modern thought succeeded in bringing to perfection the most intricate and delicately constructed machinery for the manufacture of every article of daily use but the triumphs in the direction of ponderous construction have been equally as great. We have but to stand before the ponderous gun and be amazed; see the modern crane pick up its many tons and shift it from ship to wharf and vice versa as easily as a giant would pick up an infant, and wonder what next. Some of us who remember the old forge look with pleasure and astonishment at the modern trip hammer and see with what thunderbolt. The Bessemar process

TRUE AS PREACHING. Mr. John R. Lemmon, of Frost, Ohio, in forwarding us his subscription makes use of a sentiment when he speaks of THE TIMES as a "respected and always Democratic paper, contending and battling for the just rights of a free people in a free country, through a party whose doctrines are safe to follow." True. And the work of any Democratic paper is to scatter to the winds the ingenious methods by which the Republican party has deceived the people on questions affecting their best interests. We are passing through a crisis in our national affairs. A crisis because the country is in such a condition that the masses express themselves as quite disqualified to outline a policy to be pursued which will ensure justice and equality to all. But the people have been wise enough to entrust the affairs of government with a man of brain, blood and not live to see a full repair of the demoralization occasioned by Republican rule. A part of that demoralization consists of bribery, monopoly, centralization

Thus is continued a series of railroad accidents which began several months ago and have continued with painful regularity. Nearly every one of these accidents have occurred through the lack of vigilance of some one upon whose fidelity to duty the safety of the train depended. In the case of Tuesday's accident without apparent cause the engineer allowed his neglecting to reverse his engine ere he proceeded to save himself. Was he asleep? No one will know. All we know there has been an epidemic of accidents, especially heartrending to those called upon to suffer. LOTS OF MONEY NOW.

The national banks of New York city are receiving so much money at present from country banks that they are in a quandary oanks to retire the extra circulation they took out during the stringency. The Fourth National Bank, of New York has withdrawn $500,000 of government bonds deposited to secure circulation, surrendering the equivaits own notes. Several other banks contemplate the same action. So much gold coin has come into active circulation since the money stringency set in that a greater part of the daily settlements of clearinga handred miles an hour, an accomplishjouse balances are in gold. Scenes of Wildest Excitement Upon the

There are four methods by which silver may be used as money. They are: First, a fixed standard for silver as now in use in this country of making fiat dollars regardless of their value; third, the coinage of silver on a basis of parity in intrinsic value between silver and gold; and fourth, the infusion of gold intion but at every step one's eye is delight- trinsic value without being too unwieldy

The only practicable method of making silver an acceptable and stable money is its adoption as money, at a fixed standard of value, by all the leading nations of the brought out his life-like ideals on world. That would assure uniformity canvas. Those who have seen the fair of value for the silver coin in every country, and it could be used largely as a substitute for gold in the commercial no value beyond its value as builion in any other country than our own, and our silver certificate, which simply represents the silver dollar, is valuable to our own people only because it is flat money and made a legal tender by the government. When we shall have entirely absolved ourselves from the free silver insanity and closed our gates against making the United States the dumping ground for the silver of the world, the other leading nations interested in silver will have equal interest with us in solving the silver problem on a stable basis, and it doubtless will be speedily accomplished.

We have proved the utter insanity of he present silver system of the United We have drained our country of gold. We have dishonored our currency at home and abroad. We have impaired public credit. We have lost $90,000,000 in the purchase of silver, and to-day we are in the midst of a money panic solely because of our phantom money which has brought us into the contempt of all the world. It is needless to discuss the present silver dollar of this country as one of the measures to be considered in the future

We could maintain silver as money by putting into the silver dollar sufficient silver to nake it equal in intrinsic value to a dollar in gold. That has not been practicable even when the present silver dollar was equal to gold, as it is too bulky for general circulation. We have hundreds of millions of these dollars iron. The fourth and last method by which silver may be used as a circulating medium would be to infuse sufficient of the government in the hands of a few, gold into a silver dollar to make it worth senatorial seat-buying, the resources of fully 100 cents in gold without increasthe great consuming class languishing, ing its present size, or possibly by even reducing its present size. The practical solution of the silver question would therefore seem be an international agreement by which it shall be given a fixed value as money, by which it would be accepted in all the countries of the world. RUSHING TO THE STRIP.

Cherokee Outlet. Scenes of wildest excitment were enacted Saturday at the opening of the sixmillion acres of land in the Cherokee strip. There were 150.000 boomers on the edge of the promised land waiting to lives met the returning pilgrims on their engage in the mad rush Arkansas City, Kan., being the favorite point. Fully 25,000 persons were encamped there, and all wanted to go in the first train, which could carry only 2,000. In the scramble for places on the roofs or platforms of cars scores of men and women were ininred. The boomers were no respectors of sex and the women had to take their chance with men in the crush. Many of them were injured and had their clothing torn off, and as they were compelied to give way envied their sisters who had donned male attire. The railroads used every piece of rolling stock on wheels, and a man counted himself transactions between the different luck, who could get a corner of a cattle nations. Our present silver dollar has car where he could not be crowded out. But the railroads carried only a small part of the crowd. From all along the border there was a rush of men and women-on horseback, in wagons and tion to duty. Of the whole batalion, every kind of conveyance known to the frontier. Even the bicycle was not over looked in the race. But with all the precautions taken by the government to keep the people out of the strip before the hour fixed for the start, the "sooners" were plentiful and the fleetest racers found on arriving at the coveted spots that men who had sneaked across the border in the night and remained hidden in the brush were first on hand to claim the land. The centre of the crush was Perry and the choicest sites here were secured by men who rode horseback across the ten miles of country from the border. Their fleet steeds outstripped the railroad, which ran its trains very slow. These men claimed ail the lots about the land office and the public well. Soon the last of the trains pulled in and the scramble for land continued with increased vigor. The quarter-sections about the town had all been taken, but in every direction lines were being run and additional towns laid out to be called North Perry, South Perry East Perry and West Perry. By 2 o'clock fully twenty thousand men and women of all nationalities and colors were on the site of what all hope will be a great city, without food and without water.

The first man to ride into Perry from the South was W. C. Ramseyer, of Eldorado, Kansas, and he staked a corner lot at 12.28. He says a large part of the town site was taken by "sooners" when he arrived. Carl Craig, of Guthrie, made the run in 25 minutes and staked a claim adjoining the town site, worth $5,000.

Eight Lives were lost in the rush for the Cherokee Strip, many persons were seriously injured, and the suffering entailed is incalculable.

Been in the Market 25 years. MIXED READY FOR USE.

Annapolis, March 29, 1888.—Mr. C. P., Knight, Baltimore, Md.: Dear Sir.—Your favor of the 2th inst. requesting me to express my opinion of the Liquid Enamel Paint made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Company. More than 6 years ago I bought the above paint to paint my dwelling at Catonsville, Baltimore County, Maryland, and it is with unfeigned pleasure I can say it is in every respect all you claim for it.

Yours truly, John Hubber. OFFICE, CALVERT & LOMBARD STS., BALTI NORE, Dec. 18, 1880. C. P., KNIGHT, Esq., Bal timore: It gives us great pleasure to certify to the good qualities of your Liquid Enamel Paint, made by the New Jersey Enamel Paint Co. After using the old style paint for a number of years, we were induced to try your paint by those who had used it. We have now been using it some six or seven years, both for inside and outside work, and it gives entire satisfaction.

Yours respectfully,
