Chairman Wilson and his Democratic colleagues on the House Ways and Means committee should consider the abuse they are getting from Republicans, because of the tariff bill, the very highest praise that could have been bestowed upon them. It is certainly regarded as such by all other good Democrats.

A large number of more or less prominent men would be willing to pay liberally for the power to recall hastily expressed opinions on the Hawaiian policy of the administration and yet a goodly percentage of the same men will "shoot off" their mouths just as prematurely at the first opportunity.

W. K. Vanderbilt evidently isn't feeling the hard times. He has just started, with a party of friends, for an extended eastern cruise in his new steam yacht. The estimated expense of the voyage is $100, 000.

The number of employees of the Agricultural department has been reduced five hundred since Secretary Morton took charge. That is in accordance with Democratic ideas of economy in public expenditures.

There are some Republicans who seem to have an idea that the Presidential campaign is already on. Better turn off some of the pressure, boys. You haven't fuel enough to keep it up three years.

The Democratic party might 'go farther and fare worse than it would by following the advice of Gov. Fishback, of Arkansas, and making Adlai Stevenson its next Presidential candidate.

Gov. McKinley says the voice of patriotism alone should be heard, which is all right enough; but he makes the mistake of confounding himself with patriotism which is all wrong.

Edwin Gould is going to move from New York to New Jersey to escape the payment of taxes on personal property. How philanthropic these millionaires are.

The writers who have to abuse Minister Willis for what he is doing without having the slightest idea of what he really is doing have a task envied by none.

The Wilson tariff bill is all right, notwithstanding the Republican protest, against it. In fact, that howl is enough of itself to convince any doubting Democrat that the bill is all right.

Men prominent in all lines of trade and industry believe that the scare is over and that from now on things will steadily grow better.

It would be an excellent thing if the professional labor agitator could be muzzled, if not permanently, at least until there is greater demand for labor.

The newest political party will have to find better endorsers than Mrs. Lease and Jerrry Simpson before it is taken seriously by the country.

Those who thought the National Democratic platform of 1892 a meaningless document now realize how badly they were mistaken.

It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a believer in a protective tariff to be a good Democrat.

Powderly has been at the head of the Knights of Labor so long that it will probably go very hard with him to have to go back to working for his living.

Failure to get a desired office is a "mighty poor" excuse for a man's changing his politics; such an excuse indicates the absence of political principles.

The Hawaiian tempest in a teapot has simmered down until it is away below the boiling point.

Ex-boss Clarkson hitched himself to the tail of the McKinley kite with reckless alacrity.

If New York City really wants rapid transit the whole matter should be turned over to Chicago men.

THE TARIFF BILL.

WOOL, COAL, LUMBER, SALT AND IRON ORE ON THE FREE LIST.

A Pure Democratic Reform—Scope of the Measure as it Will Reach Congress—The Tariff on Sugar Reduced—No Duty on Woolen manufactures Higher than 45 Per Cent.—A Radical Change from the McKinley Idea.

After weeks of preparation, involving an exhaustive study of the subject from a Democratic point of view, the new tariff bill is at last completed and was Monday morning given to the public.

The bill is purely a Democratic measure. It is the work of the Democratic members of the committee, who have jealously guarded its details, even from their Congressional associates. It was not until Monday that the Republican members of the committee were made acquainted with its contents, while their knowledge of the measure during the last fortnight has been gained wholly from the printed accounts in the daily press. Whatever criticism may be made of the measure from an economic or party standpoint, it must be admitted that Mr. Wilson and his associates have given their best thought and study to the work in hand.

The great strain under which Mr. Wilson has labored for the past fortnight was painfully apparent. His face was pale and haggard, and his general appearance was that of a man suffering from mental and physical overwork. While the other members of the committee have no less conscientiously applied themselves to their several duties, they have not shared the responsibility which alone fell upon the chairman, and the effect of their labor is not so apparent. They are all glad that the bill is completed, however, and in the interim, before it is taken up for discussion in the House, each will give himself a brief season of rest.

It may be stated in this connection—and the statement is made at the request of Chairman Wilson—that there is no truth in the report that President Cleveland has offered to provide Mr. Wilson with a lucrative judicial appointment if he should be defeated for Congress next autumn, as a result of placing coal on the free list. Mr. Wilson has had no consultations with Mr. Cleveland regarding the bill. He called at the White House a few weeks ago and in a brief interview with Mr. Cleveland explained to that gentlemen the lines upon which the measure would be framed. He was not seeking advice, nor was any advice tendered to him. It was purely an act of courtesy on the chairman's part, and was so understood by the President. Nothing was said at that time, or since, concerning Mr. Wilson's political future, which, as he himself explained, is something wholly distinct and apart from his functions as chairman of a committee appointed to revise the tariff in conformity with the party pledges of a year ago.

THE SUMMARY OF THE BILL.

The following summary of the bill has been prepared by Representative Bryan of Nebraska:

"The bill just completed puts wool, coal, lumber, salt and iron ore on the free list, and reduces the tariff on sugar ⅛ to ¼ of a cent per pound; it also provides for the extermination of the bounty by degrees.

The woolen goods schedule does not take effect until July 1, 1894, although the remainder of the bill takes effect March 1, 1894.

As a rule, the tariff has been made lowest upon the cheaper goods of necessary use and left highest upon the more expensive articles. The wool schedule will perhaps attract most attention. We have left no duty higher than 45 per cent. on manufactures of wool, and that only on ready-made garments, the average being less than 40 per cent. The cheaper quality of blankets and flannels are only taxed 25 per cent., and the lower grades of carpets only 20. We have applied a gradual reduction to the woolen schedule, so that at the end of five years the highest duty will be 40 and the average near 30 per cent.

Very material reductions have been made in the cotton schedule. We have placed iron ore on the free list and made a large cut all along the metal schedule; the duty on steel rails is reduced more than 50 per cent. Free lumber will be great a benefit to the people of the prairie States, and free salt will give to those who need salt for their cattle or for curing meat the same advantage which has been secured heretofore by the means of rebate to those who cured fish. Agricultural implements have been placed upon the free list in order to enable the farmer to better compete in foreign markets and because many of our agricultural implements are being sold abroad to-day cheaper than at home.

AT THE CAPITOL.

The members of the committee were slow in reaching the Capitol. Mr. Bynum of Indiana was the first to put in an appearance. He was followed a little later by Messrs. Tarsney, Montgomery, Turner and Wilson. In the meanwhile the corridors in front of the committee room began to fill with newspaper men, representatives of some of the protected industries and others interested in tariff legislation.

At 11.20 o'clock there were present in the committee room Messrs. Wilson (the chairman), Mr. Tarsney, Mr. Breckinridge, Mr. Bynum, Mr. Turner and Mr. Bryan (Democrats) and Messrs. Reed, Burrows, Dalzell and Hopkins (Republicans).

CHAIRMAN WILSON'S STATEMENT.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Mr. Wilson, the chairman of the committee, prepared the following statement, which was given out this morning with the bill:

"The Democratic members of the Committee on Ways and Means have felt as none other could feel the momentous responsibility resting upon them and the surpassing magnitude, difficulty and delicacy of the duty assigned them of framing a tariff bill for a nation of 70,000,000 of people.

"The bill they were called on to reform is a vast and labyrinthian system of class taxation, the culmination of 80 years' control of the taxing power by a few great interests, gathering on to their train a host of petty toll-gatherers.

"It was carefully framed to prevent, as long as possible, what its author called "any monkeying with the tariff," by which he meant any successful effort of the people to undo or to lessen the bounties which its beneficiaries were permitted to write therein in their own words and their own figures. It transferred to the free list proper and fruitful revenue articles, where most of the taxes paid by the people were received by their government, and greatly increased the rates on those articles where all or most of the taxes paid by the people went into private coffers. And it was burthened about by many defenses, chief among which are a swept and garnished Treasury and a swollen and colossal scale of permanent expenditure. Such are the conditions that confronted us at the threshold of our work.

THE RESULT OF LONG, PATIENT TOIL.

"The committee have welcomed information and counsel from every trustworthy source, and while they do not expect their bill to escape just criticism in all of its details, they do present it to the country as the result of months of patient; anxious toil, and of an honest desire to discharge their duty, purged of all taint of local and personal favoritism or prejudice.

"Its main features are two. First, the adoption, wherever it seemed practicable, of ad valorem instead of specific duties; secondly, the freeing from taxes of those great materials of industry that lie at the basis of production.

"Specific rates of duty are objectionable for these reasons. They frequently conceal a rate of taxation too enormous to be submitted to if expressed in ad valorem terms, as the duty of 8 cents on a hundred pounds on salt in bulk, which amounts to over 80 per cent. on a common necessary of life.

"They always bear heavily on the common article used by the masses and lightly on the expensive article consumed by the rich, as a tax of $30 on all houses would be little or nothing on the great mansion and very high on the humble home. And, contrary to common belief, specific duties lead to greater frauds in administration, for counting and weighing at the custom house are done by the cheapest and most easily corrupted labor, while ad valorem rates are assessed by the best paid and most responsibe appraisers. The ad valorem system has worked well in practice is essentially the fair system because it is a tax upon the actual value of an article, and was declared by Mr. Clay himself to be in theory and according to every sound principle of justice entitled to the preference and vindicated by long trial.

A LARGE FREE LIST.

"The boldest innovation of the bill is its large free list of raw materials. Taxes upon production are double wrongs. They gather and cumulate on the customer of the finished product. They hurt labor by narrowing the market for what it produces. Coal and iron are the foundations of modern industry. Material progress is measured by the amount of their consumption. No other country can supply them as abundantly or cheaply as we can. No possible competition can interfere with our own producers, a few miles in the interior of the country. Remoteness from the sources of supply is in itself enough disadvantage to any section of the country, without further burdens in tariff taxes. Until taxed ores, coal, lumber, wool and other fibers must immensely stimulate production in certain parts of our country. The thin edge of American manufactures has entered every country.

With release from taxes upon their materials there is no limit to the growth of foreign trade. This will more than compensate to the home producers of raw material who, tariff or no tariff, control all the interior of the country, for any apprehended loss of markets anywhere along the seaboard. Its incalculable advantage to labor is apparent. In every great line of manufactures, we can produce in six to nine months enough for our home market. We can get rid of our surplus only by foreign trade. As long as we have taxes on the materials of industry we cannot build up the trade. Hence the other alternative of trusts to keep down production to the home market. The workingman can see whether his interest is with a system that respresses production and robs him of employment or with a system that gives natural and healthy play to production and emancipates him from trusts and like combinations of capital.

THE SALIENT CHANGES.

"As to the details of the bill, I will briefly recapitulate the salient changes of the several schedules. In the chemical schedule we have transferred to the free list quite a number of articles used in manufacturing, the most important of which is sulphuric acid, one of the corner stones of all chemical industry.

"The duty on castor oil is reduced from 85 to 35 cents per gallon, and the duty on linseed oil, which was secretly raised to 32 cents by the Conference Committee on the McKinley bill, after each House had openly voted for a lower duty, we put at 15 cents a gallon.

"Pig lead is reduced from 2 to 1 cent a pound, and lead paints are correspondingly reduced.

"The McKinley bill increased the duty on opium prepared for smoking to $12 a pound in the vain hope of lessening its importation. The custom-house officers on the Pacific coast declare that this increase of duty has simply placed in the hands of smugglers the bringing in of opium to the demoralization of the custom service, and the loss of over $250,000 revenue. The duty proposed is believed to be collectable and will put the traffic under government control and supervision.

"In the pottery schedule substantial reductions are made. Plain white ware is dropped from the high schedule in which it mysteriously crowded itself. Decorated ware is reduced from 60 to 45 per cent. Undecorated from 55 to 40.

"In common window glass, where close combinations have kept up the prices to consumers, under the shelter of duties averaging 100 per cent. a reduction of more than one-half has been made in all the larger sizes. There is no doubt that these rates will permit a very healthy growth of the industry here.

"In plate glass reductions are made, the largest sizes from 50 cents to 30 cents per square foot. Of silvered from 60 to 35 cents.

FREE IRON AND STEEL ORE.

"In the iron and steel schedule we began with free ore. The discovery of the immense deposits of Bessemer ores in the lake region and of foundry ores in Alabama has rapidly swept us to the leadership of the world in the production of iron and steel, and brought near at hand our undisputed supremacy in the great field of manufacture. The use of steam shovels reduces the cost of mining to a point where the wages paid 'natural labor' are irrelevant. Pig iron we reduce from $6.72 per ton, which is from 50 to 90 per cent., to a uniform duty of 22½ per cent., a rate somewhat higher in proportion than the rest of the schedule because of cheap freight rates on pig. it being a favorite freight on Westward voyages. Steel rails we reduce from $13 44 per ton, now 75 per cent., to 25 per cent.

As the pool which has kept up prices so many years in this country seems now disorganized, the other producers will soon need protection more against Mr. Carnegie at Pittsburg and Mr. Sirling at Chicago than against foreign producers.

"The residue of the schedule vary from 25 to 30 per cent., wood screws being put at the latter figure. Beams and girders are 35 per cent., because of the waste in cutting beams and the variety of lengths and size, and also of the frequent necessity of changing the rolls in making beams and girders, because of the irregular quantities and lengths, and sizes of order.

THE TOBACCO SCHEDULE.

"In the tobacco schedule those rates were sought which would bring most revenue. The present taxes of $2 and $2.75 a pound on wrapped leaf have blotted out many small establishments and actually impaired revenue. We make the rates $1 and $1 25 per pound on wrapper leaf, and 35 cents and 50 cents per pound on filler tobacco, unstemmed and stemmed in each. Manufactures of tobacco are put at 40 cents. Cigars are reduced from $4.50 per pound and 25 per cent. ad valorem to $3 per pound and 25 per cent, which is believed to be the most productive revenue rate and is higher than the law of 1883.

Live animals are put at 20 per cent. Barley is reduced from 30 cents per bushel to 20 per cent., which is about 12 cents.

"Breadstuffs, of which we are immense exporters, are made free, except when imported from countries putting duties on our like products, in which case the duty is 20 per cent. French vegetables, fruits, eggs and like food products are untaxed for the benefit of our own consumers—largely the working people of the cities.

"Salt in bulk is free; in packages the salt is free, but the covering dutiable at rates prescribed for like arcticles.

A Perfect Cure

Mr. Joel H. Austin is a man very highly esteemed by all who know him. He is now pension attorney at Goshen, Ind., and was for 20 years a Baptist missionary minister. He says: "I suffered years with swelling of my limbs, at times very painful, especially at night. I could not sleep. I have taken six bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and for weeks there has not been any swelling of my feet and limbs. I have also suffered for years with catarrh in the head, which was working down into my lungs. Since trying Hood's Sarsaparilla the pain in my head has stopped and I am positive of a perfect cure." ### McKinley on McKinleyism.

Govenor McKinley was recently the guest of the Home Market Club at Boston, and made a speech which shows that he has learned nothing since 1890. In that year he passed a tariff bill that strangled commerce in various articles to death and hobbled it greatly in others. He also, as leader of the House, passed the Sherman silver bill, and later the wasteful dependent pensions bill. Under the combined effect of these three bad bills the country is now suffering. The bad times predicted by the opponents of these acts are now upon us. They are felt everywhere, yet Mr. McKinley has the hardihood to tell us that we suffer not from past, but from future legislation—from an apprehension of coming tariff reform and lower duties. He calls upon Republicans and Democrats to unite in maintaining the system which has failed lamentably under a trial extending through three disastrous years. The spectacle is not very edifying. The country, however, including Massachusetts, knows the value of the Governor's sophisms.—Balto. Sun.

Photography in all its branches, including Crayon, Oil, Pastel, Water-color, &c., &c. Special attention given to the copying and enlarging of old pictures.
SPECIAL!
Your attention is specially called to the
—ILO-COLODIO—
Photography which we are now making. It is the latest discovery in photography, and although the cost of production is greater than the old process, yet we do not ask any greater price for them than we did for the old albumen pictures.
SATISFACTION GUARRANNTED IN EVERY INSTANCE.

ROLOSON BROS.
THE BELLE CITY FODDER AND ENSILAGE CUTTERS.

We have secured the agency for these Cutters, and take great pleasure in presenting them to our friends and patrons as the KING OF CUTTERS.
THEY HAVE MANY POINTS OF MERIT OVER ALL OTHERS, REQUIRING ONE-THIRD LESS POWER TO DO ONE-THIRD MORE WORK. THEY ARE BETTER FINISHED THAN ANY OTHER CUTTER ON THE MARKET, ARE STRONGER, MORE DURABLE, AND CAN BE RUN AT A GREAT SPEED.
They are built with three shape knives, the Convex, as shown above, the Concave and Straight.
We will send this cutter to any responsible party, subject to their approval, or on trial with any other cutter providing the customer buys the machine doing the best work.
Call and examine them, or send for a Catalogue.
