J. B. Morrow, - - Business Manager. Governor Brown is hard at work on his message. As the coming legislature promises to be an unusually important one to use the phrase of a Yankee we may expect "something solid." The Governor will have several knotty problems to deal with notably a new assessment bill. Doubtless the Governor by this time is posted on every phase of the question and will be able to make some practical suggestions.

The preachers of New York have now started upon a crusade that will be wished God speed by every one-the abolishment of the unsanitary and overcrowded tenement houses of that city. In asmuch as one of the wealthiest churches in that town is said to derive a large income from houses of that class it is entirely proper that the reform should be undertaken by the other churches.

If members of the C. A. R., will generally obey the order issued the other day by the commander-in-chief of that organization there would soon be no fraudulent pensioners. He asks them to examine the roll of pansioners in their immediate neighborhoods, and to report all frauds discovered. This is a good opportunity for the display of real pa-

Poor Kansas: She's always having trouble of some kind. Just now an army of tramps has invaded the State, because of the Governor having declared the vagrant law to be unconstitutional.

Judging from the recent vote in the House, Democratic members of that body do not believe their constituents are hankering after a compulsory National bankrupt law.

. Perhaps the Maine people do not intend to allow Mr. Blaine to join the grand army of those who-deserved-butdid-not-get monuments, but at this writing it looks the other way.

The number of Republican back-numbers who have brought themselves to the surface since the State elections is as-Tonishing, but their labor is wasted; they will never feed at public expense again.

Democratic kicking against the Wilson tariff bill continues to occupy a conspicuous place in Republican papers, but it is searcely heard of in authentic news from Washington.

George Gould is receiving a surprisingly large amount of sympathy on account of that alleged attempt to blackmail him. Can it be possible that he is paying cash for some of it?

That Brazilian revolution has clothed itself in royal purple at last and it is now a fight to the finish between that color and the plebeian blue of the Re-

It looks to a man up a tree that the laws and regulations providing for the payment of speed bounties to ship-builders could be overhauled without injury to public interests.

High Praise for Stieff Planos. Charles M. Stieff, piano manufactur er, has secured one of the higest awards at the World's Fair, receiving both a medal and diploma, and an excellent report. This speaks well for this old-es-tablished Baltimore institution. Their factory is among the best equipped in the United States, and the instruments they make are world-renowned, having been before the public for over fifty years. At various times have they been awarded first premium, including the Centennial, in 1876; Paris, 1878; Massachusetts Charitable and Mechanical Association, 1881; the Atlanta Cotton Exposition, 1881, and New Orleans Exposiion, 1884-1885.

Standard Literature Away Down. It is really remarkable to observe the prices at which good literature can be secured nowadays. The Baltimore 'News" however, sets all other records at naught by offering to its patrons the choice of 150 standard and popular novels, elegantly printed and bound in ornamental cloth for 20 cents each under certain conditions. The conditions, naturally, are such as to boom the circulation of that enterprising journal. Five differently numbered coupons from the daily edition of the "News," or one from

During the week of December 18th. the famous Cleveland Minstrel Company, comprising some of the brightest lights of the burnt cork profession, will appear at Ford's Grand Opera House in a most delightful minstrel performance. Many departures from the regular minstrel programme are made, this being especially noticeable in the first part, Spain in the time of Columbus. An amusing song and dance was given by Barry and Spaun, and musical performance by Messrs. Howard, Russell, Tenny and Talbert was repeat edly encored. The programme concludes with an exhibition by the French Quad rille Dancers. Arthur Heft rendered several selections on the violin, and the different members appeared in several

That is the great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore it requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. Hanging by its silvery chain and tied with dainty white silk cord and tassels, All Around the Year holds forth great enticement to the appreclatively curious to look within for the fruits that the dif-

They have quaint little figures, in all sorts of attiudes, that give piquant significence to the verses selected as their companions The scenes are full of life and sweetly pictured beauty, and often with some little humor therein. The individuality of the illustrations is what specially catches the eye and makes one involun tarily seek to interpret the full connec between word and Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston Mass. A like order has never with the 20 cents. Only one Sunday before been made, and if past ratios be maintained it means considerably more than half a million circulation for the December Cosmopolitan.
