

Fall and Winter Footwear AT KIRKWOOD'S.

In order to meet the demands of our customers we have had a lot of Ladies' and Children's genuine calf shoes made to order...

JOHN F. KIRKWOOD, ELLICOTT CITY, MD.

GEO. F. SLOAN & BRO. LUMBER.

SHINGLES, LATHS, DOORS, SASH, BLINDS. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. Full Stock. Low Prices.

414 LIGHT ST. WHARF, BALTIMORE.

FINE FRUIT, SHADE & ORNAMENTAL TREES.

EVERGREENS, SHRUBS, ROSES, VINES AND PLANTS AT LOWEST PRICES.

J. W. PURUCKER, 40 E. PRATT STREET, BALTIMORE, MD.

GUNS, RIFLES, PISTOLS, AMMUNITION

AND A FULL LINE OF SPORTING GOODS. TRAPS and TARGETS always on hand.

LOOK! LOOK! LOOK!

300 CARRIAGES & WAGONS 300 AT UNHEARD OF PRICES!

WAGONS. ORDER WORK A SPECIALTY.

L. P. HASLUP, 1420-1422 W. Baltimore St. BALTIMORE.

MT. AIRY STEAM ROLLER MILL.

HIGH GRADE FLOUR. Made from choice wheat selected from Frederick, Carroll, Howard and Montgomery Counties.

S. J. Radcliffe & Son, Ellicott City, Maryland.

Coal, Lime, and GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

WILLIAM CORSE & SONS, Office-240 N. Calvert Street, Baltimore.

RED STAR CORN AND BUNION PLASTER.

W. H. TUTTLE & CO., 304 North Howard Street, BALTIMORE.

MRS. HETTY GREEN'S HARD DAYS' WORK.

The richest woman in America—Her Economics, Her Loves and Her Hopes. The average woman would like to be the richest woman in the country.

But if that average woman had to do what the richest woman in the country does to make and retain her wealth she would probably resign her ambitions after a very brief trial.

Hetty Green in the richest woman in the country. She has something like $500,000,000, on which she will have to pay an income tax of $20,000,000 a year.

Mrs. Green doesn't wear good clothes. It is doubtful if she has a piece of jewelry worth $2.

She has a husband, daughter and son, but they live apart from her and each other.

She has but one thing besides her sixty millions, and that is an absorbing ambition to better her son the richest man in the world.

But her wealth is piling up at a fabulous rate. She doesn't spend $500 a year on herself, and the sum she allows to other members of the family do not aggregate $10,000 a year.

Mrs. Green's day is a harder one than the average $5 a week shop girl. She begins to work earlier and keeps at it later than the poorest paid and hardest worked woman in town.

Moving about is almost a mania with her. Sometimes she lives in New York at cheap boarding-houses, then she will skip over to Brooklyn, and again she will skip over to the city.

When Mrs. Green is living at the Pierpont street house she is up every night at 6:20 o'clock. She sleeps in a little 6x8 back bedroom, with nothing grand in the way of furniture.

Her husband, Edward H. Green, luxuriates at the Union Club. Her daughter, Miss Sylvia Howland Green, a young lady of twenty-nine, spends much of her time with Miss Anna Leary at the latter's Fifth avenue home.

Hetty's son, Edward H. R. Green, a shrewd young man of twenty-seven years, spends most of his time looking after the country looking after his mother's interests.

But Hetty, the owner of all the wealth is content to live in a $7-a-week room and work for her servants.

Mrs. Green says, with some pride, that she can dress herself in five minutes. Judging from results, her friends say she can do it in one-third of that time.

It is not often that there are more than two or three buttons on Mrs. Green's shoes. She is her own hairdresser, and washes such trifles as stockings, handkerchiefs, etc., in her own room.

Her dress is a nondescript affair in faded black, consisting of a frayed and a lace-trimmed jacket, a skirt, and a corset. It is a "safe" thing.

She owns what is called a "false front." It is a gray-black patch of hair which Mrs. Green, in her haste, slips on every morning.

She gives no trouble to the people in the house, as she waits on herself and isn't at all prodigal in the use of china.

She has a "safe" thing, a key, which she carries with her. It is a key to the kitchen range and begins to read the morning paper. This is a luxury that she cannot give up.

Right here it must be said that Hetty is not a speculator. She owns bonds, mortgages, solid stocks of conservative concerns and kindred securities are her favorites.

She has a great admiration for Russell Sage, mainly because Russell lunches in the Western Union Building daily, a thing that he can do free of charge, as he is director of that institution.

At eight o'clock Mrs. Green leaves the boarding-house, invariably by the back way. She has a great fear of anarchists and robbers, and it is this peculiarity that has forced her into so many eccentricities in the way of dress and living.

She has a great admiration for Russell Sage, mainly because Russell lunches in the Western Union Building daily, a thing that he can do free of charge, as he is director of that institution.

At eight o'clock Mrs. Green leaves the boarding-house, invariably by the back way. She has a great fear of anarchists and robbers, and it is this peculiarity that has forced her into so many eccentricities in the way of dress and living.

She has a great admiration for Russell Sage, mainly because Russell lunches in the Western Union Building daily, a thing that he can do free of charge, as he is director of that institution.

At eight o'clock Mrs. Green leaves the boarding-house, invariably by the back way. She has a great fear of anarchists and robbers, and it is this peculiarity that has forced her into so many eccentricities in the way of dress and living.

She has a great admiration for Russell Sage, mainly because Russell lunches in the Western Union Building daily, a thing that he can do free of charge, as he is director of that institution.

At eight o'clock Mrs. Green leaves the boarding-house, invariably by the back way. She has a great fear of anarchists and robbers, and it is this peculiarity that has forced her into so many eccentricities in the way of dress and living.

She has a great admiration for Russell Sage, mainly because Russell lunches in the Western Union Building daily, a thing that he can do free of charge, as he is director of that institution.

At eight o'clock Mrs. Green leaves the boarding-house, invariably by the back way. She has a great fear of anarchists and robbers, and it is this peculiarity that has forced her into so many eccentricities in the way of dress and living.

WOMEN WHO REPULSED RED MEN.

A Tale of the Frontier at the First Great Sioux War. John Sullivan, perhaps better known as "Broncho John," was in town the other day.

He was talking over a conversation with the old days of Julesburg and Laramie. "Did you know," he said, "that the first great Sioux war was all over a new milk cow?"

Along in 1868 two butchers who were living in Laramie lost a cow. The beast was traced to an Indian village which was pitched near old Fort Laramie.

There was a young lieutenant at the post who tried to reach the cow for the butchers, but the Indians claimed that the animal had been killed and eaten.

The second valley was far more serious, for it laid a half-dozen braves on the grass. The Sioux outnumbered the troops ten to one.

The troops were quickly turned into a charge. The soldiers were cut down almost to a man. Then, not appealed by the revenge they had wreaked, they marched toward the post, which they confidently believed was at their mercy.

Meanwhile, however, word of the battle and the approach of the thoroughly indignant and red-headed general, who was practically defenseless.

Less than a score of women, a few sick soldiers and nine or ten children were there to meet the savage enemy.

Some of the women were armed with their own knives and other weapons. They were dressed themselves in buckskin, and wore their hair in braids.

They could reach the hills the soldiers, at the command of the young lieutenant, first a volley over the heads of the scampering redskins.

The second volley was far more serious, for it laid a half-dozen braves on the grass. The Sioux outnumbered the troops ten to one.

The troops were quickly turned into a charge. The soldiers were cut down almost to a man. Then, not appealed by the revenge they had wreaked, they marched toward the post, which they confidently believed was at their mercy.

Meanwhile, however, word of the battle and the approach of the thoroughly indignant and red-headed general, who was practically defenseless.

Less than a score of women, a few sick soldiers and nine or ten children were there to meet the savage enemy.

Some of the women were armed with their own knives and other weapons. They were dressed themselves in buckskin, and wore their hair in braids.

They could reach the hills the soldiers, at the command of the young lieutenant, first a volley over the heads of the scampering redskins.

The second volley was far more serious, for it laid a half-dozen braves on the grass. The Sioux outnumbered the troops ten to one.

The troops were quickly turned into a charge. The soldiers were cut down almost to a man. Then, not appealed by the revenge they had wreaked, they marched toward the post, which they confidently believed was at their mercy.

Meanwhile, however, word of the battle and the approach of the thoroughly indignant and red-headed general, who was practically defenseless.

Less than a score of women, a few sick soldiers and nine or ten children were there to meet the savage enemy.

Some of the women were armed with their own knives and other weapons. They were dressed themselves in buckskin, and wore their hair in braids.

They could reach the hills the soldiers, at the command of the young lieutenant, first a volley over the heads of the scampering redskins.

The second volley was far more serious, for it laid a half-dozen braves on the grass. The Sioux outnumbered the troops ten to one.

The troops were quickly turned into a charge. The soldiers were cut down almost to a man. Then, not appealed by the revenge they had wreaked, they marched toward the post, which they confidently believed was at their mercy.

Meanwhile, however, word of the battle and the approach of the thoroughly indignant and red-headed general, who was practically defenseless.

Less than a score of women, a few sick soldiers and nine or ten children were there to meet the savage enemy.

Some of the women were armed with their own knives and other weapons. They were dressed themselves in buckskin, and wore their hair in braids.

They could reach the hills the soldiers, at the command of the young lieutenant, first a volley over the heads of the scampering redskins.

The second volley was far more serious, for it laid a half-dozen braves on the grass. The Sioux outnumbered the troops ten to one.

The troops were quickly turned into a charge. The soldiers were cut down almost to a man. Then, not appealed by the revenge they had wreaked, they marched toward the post, which they confidently believed was at their mercy.

Meanwhile, however, word of the battle and the approach of the thoroughly indignant and red-headed general, who was practically defenseless.

Baltimore and Ohio Time Table. IN EFFECT NOV. 18, 1894.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

Table with columns for Baltimore to Ellicott City, Ellicott City to Baltimore, and Baltimore to Washington.

PATAPSCO FLOUR.

1871... ONE HUNDRED & TWENTY-FIRST YEAR. MELL, A. BALLOTT CITY, MD.

Makes the most NUTRITIOUS BREAD. It is Perfection in Flour, and all American brands in Europe.

Ask your grocer for PATAPSCO SUPERLATIVE PATENT, PATAPSCO FAMILY PATENT, PATAPSCO GROUND RYE, PATAPSCO BALDWIN FAMILY.

C. A. GAMBRIEL MFG. CO., Proprietors, Office, 211 Commerce St., Baltimore, Md.

ECKERT'S HOWARD HOUSE, ELLICOTT CITY, MD.

Reopened and refitted. Accommodations for PERMANENT & TRANSIENT GUESTS. Cuisine unexcelled and APPOINTMENTS FIRST CLASS in every particular.

Christian Eckert, Proprietor. NEW CABINET and C'PENTER SHOP. CABINET WORK Neatly Done. FURNITURE * REPAIRED.

D. R. McCAULEY, Office and Shop: ELLICOTT CITY, MD. Baltimore and Ellicott City Supply Co.

FRESH FISH, Produce, Groceries, etc. ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY DELIVERED. J. C. ZIMMERMAN, Manager.

E. WANGEMAN'S DINING ROOMS, 17 N. HOWARD ST., BALTIMORE. Diners 35 cents, from 12 to 3 o'clock.

CHAS. H. SCHOTTA, Practical Horseshoer. ADDRESS: PATAPSCO FLOUR MILL OFFICE.

FREEBURGER, PHOTOGRAPHER. ELLICOTT CITY, MD. KAVANAUGH'S OLD STAND, East of the Bridge.

GEO. MUHL, Wholesale and Retail OYSTER HOUSE, 231 South Howard St., BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.

A. T. SLOVER & CO. People's Steam Laundry, 310 N. Howard St. BALTIMORE, MD.

GANZHORN'S RESTAURANT, LATE O'BRIEN'S, e S. LIBERTY ST., BALTIMORE, MD.

C. H. ROLOSON & CO.

THE BELLE CITY FODDER AND ENSILAGE CUTTERS. We have secured the agency for these Cutters, and take great pleasure in presenting them to our friends and patrons as the KING OF CUTTERS. THEY HAVE MANY POINTS OF MERIT OVER ALL OTHERS. REQUIRING ONE-THIRD LESS POWER TO DO ONE-THIRD MORE WORK.

They are built with three shape knives, the Convex, as shown above, the Concave and Straight. We will send this Cutter to any responsible party, subject to their approval.

C. H. ROLOSON & CO., successors to ROLOSON BROS., 1900 to 1910 Frederick Ave., Baltimore, Md.

STONEBRAKER'S LINIMENT

Twenty-five Cents. THE MOST EFFECTIVE EXTERNAL REMEDY. SOLD EVERYWHERE.

WERNER BROS., DEALERS IN LUMBER, HARDWARE, GRANITE, LIME, CEMENT, HAIR, BRICK, BUILDING PAPER, GENERAL BUILDING MATERIAL AND AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

ALBIN SEIDEL, 661 West Baltimore Street, Baltimore, Md. MANUFACTURER OF MATTRESSES, WOVEN WIRE, SPRINGS AND BEDDING of every description.

WM. REISINGER & SON, Outfitters and General House-Furnishers, NO. 612 COLUMBIA AVENUE, BALTIMORE. BEST BARGAINS IN FURNITURE, CARPETS, OILCLOTHS, MATTINGS.

WM. REISINGER & SON, Full Line of House-Furnishing Goods. We sell Lower for Cash than any other house, and on easy, Weekly and Monthly Payments.

BALTIMORE, CATONSVILLE AND ELICOTT CITY EXPRESS, JAS. H. GATHER, PROPRIETOR. Leaves Ellicott City daily at 7 A. M.

J. L. BALDWIN, PLUMBER and GASFITTER, Catonsville, - Maryland. All orders by Mail or Telephone will receive prompt attention.

"THE TIMES" Circulates in 1,500 Homes. Everybody reads it! The Neighbors read it! As a rural advertising medium it is unexcelled.