OUR JANGLING STATESMEN. Congress has adjourned and the country has uttered an audible sigh of relief.

THE DETROIT FREE PRESS says: "These are times when those of the McKinley tariff school should be in high feather."

THE DEBATE OF AGRICULTURE. The Halifax (N.S.) Morning Chronicle, quoting the census, says: "While the farming population of the four original provinces of confederation in 1851 was 1,271,000."

THE FARMERS AND PROTECTION. The New York Herald talks this wise: "Though we in the United States have recently lowered our 'protective' tariff somewhat, it is still inordinately high and presses with most unequal and disastrous weight upon agriculture."

IT IS THIS THAT REVEALS A FREE PEOPLE. It has ever been so, and such evils are often not cured except by blood and fire.

IT MAY BE THAT UNITED STATES CONGRESS some day will measure up to exigencies and meet the wants of the people in a prompt and business-like manner without a baptism of blood, but it will be only when patriotism and an unselfish desire for the general good becomes paramount.

COULD OUR REPRESENTATIVES AT WASHINGTON hear the expressions of disgust and disappointment from many of their plain but sensible constituency after a long and fruitless session of debate and exhibition of incompetency, doubtless some who have not would "buckle up" to the work.

ONE THING IS SURE REPUBLICAN ASCENDANCY is no assurance that congress will do any better. They, too, are bound to be haunted by the specter, figures of Populism, Silverism and McKinleyism.

WHEN POPULIST DEMOCRATS who live from the everglades of the South and the plains beyond the Mississippi will come to their senses we may expect a better day and we think the time will not be long delayed when they will see the ruin they have wrought in their party.

THE PINE FORESTS OF THE SOUTH. Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser. "The pine forests of the South are attracting the attention of capitalists of the North. The pine districts of the North are pretty well exhausted, while in the South the forests are still in their virgin state."

THE SINGERS WILL INCLUDE Marie Tavy, Nora Bernine Humphreys, H. Vandenhoff, Mena Thon, Dore, Sophia Roman, Rosa Scott, A. G. Guller, Patsy Clark, Joseph Witt, William Martens, William Hamilton, Will Schuster, S. H. Dudley, H. S. Keady, Martin Paule, etc.

THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY does not plead before us in court, notwithstanding he was the case because he leads a simple Christian life. Charles Klein and Harrison Grey Fluke, the authors of "The District Attorney" have been congratulated on all sides for the things they left undone. In the first place, they have written a very interesting play of American life of to-day. In the next place, they accomplish a legitimate success without resorting to throat-worn methods. Their work would stand out in the hands of a less accomplished company than was provided by Mr. T. F. Henry French for its exhibition, but with the excellent artists therein employed, the notable qualities of the play are seen in very best form.

Baltimore is to have the rare treat of hearing the most distinguished violinist in the world on Wednesday afternoon, March 20th. When Ysaye, who has obtained special permission from the King of Belgium to visit the United States, will appear for a single concert at the Harmonium Academy. This will be the musical event of the season and although occurring in Lent, society will undoubtedly lend its presence to the occasion.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only wish I had known of this remedy long ago," he says. "I have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by A. C. TAYLOR, Elliptic City, Md., and W. R. RUPP, Md. City, Md.

Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills. A trial, and found them to work like a charm in curing that trouble.
