THE DEMOCRACY PREPARING TO WIN everywhere throughout our state the synonym of a living principle as decply rooted as any hickory tree now flourishing in the alluvial bottoms of Tennessee. The tariff question is practically settled for a number of years to come and as the heat and choler which was engendered in the Democratic ranks through the failure of an ideal bill to pass, has abated, the state of mind is quite different to that of last fall when the elections

The Democrats who are willing to because things have not gone in the party as they would have liked them to go are getting fewer or fewer. There is a disposition everywhere in the Democratic party to hold on to the vantage ground which they still occupy. With President Cleveland at the helm of State, having commanded the confidence and respect of the country through his stubborn resistance to the inroads of all forms of political heresy, he will stand as a rock against further Republican aggression in the direction of laws to suit the favored few and the volume of other reckless legislation they would pour on the country if they had a chance

There is a disposition everywhere to honestly and fairly settle all differences at the primary elections and go into the fight next fall with a full determination In the words of Patrick Henry they do not propose to lie supinely upon their backs hugging the delusive phantom of hope that something will turn up and thus allow the Republicans to step into power in this State. There may be rings and wheels within wheels, but does any one pretend to tell us that a Republican ring in Maryland would improve matters? The truth is the Republicans once in power we would see a condition rule. The financial affairs of our State have been admirably conducted. And so they have in Baltimore city when compared with other large citics, but how long could we expect this state of things to exist under Republican rule?

The Baltimore Sun and News could be better employed than the work they have been engaged in, that of inciting resistance to men who if they would withdraw support from the party it would be left as a ship floundering in the sea without rudder, compass or captain. These papers may yet see how impotent their captious policy has been, for we believe the "regulars" will win and he who isn't Democrat enough to be called regular is a mere camp follower looking for spoils without having been to the front when most needed.

The murder of Miss Sallie Dean a few weeks ago in Caroline county, is exciting the attention of the State as being one of the most fiendish and uncalled for murders that has ever occured in our commonwealth. A child of fourteen years, she was ruthlessly assaulted while on her way to school, her throat cut from ear to ear and her body dragged to an obscure spot and concealed. All this was done in the morning hours in plain sight of dwellings. The man charged with the crime is Marshall E. Price whose workshop is nearby the scene of the tragedy. Circumstantial evidence is strongly against him and he will be tried girl, and they both will sail for England during the first week in May. He has partly confessed the murder and tried to implicate Ulysses G. Corkran, a neighbor, but the authorities refused to 1891. Entwistle waited for Miss Clegg give credence to Price's statements and Corkran has been discharged. The people of Caroline county are determined that there shall be no miscarriage of justice in the matter.

The supreme court of the United time to post yourself on the "tariff ques-States is in a muddle-apparently hopelessly divided as to the constitutionality of the income tax law. The New York Sun advises the President to set aside the law and call an extra session of Con-

Bowel Complaints AYER'S PILLS

Received

The Laurel Democrat has placed at its nast-head the name of Hon. Thomas G. Hayes as candidate for Governor. It is very natural for The Democrat to do this as Mr. Hayes is the logical candidate in the light of the sturdy position he has occupied on the question of re-assessment. To some re-assessment is about as objectionable as the income tax, yet who can successfully deny the justice of either under present conditions? In our State many persons, notably among the farmers, are languishing from hard times and high assessments, whilst the general government has war expenses on hand and very much curtailed resources. The wealthy can easily pay while the multitude have trouble making ends meet. Mr. Hayes is clearly in the interest of the people and will make a strong candidate. It is stated that he would be weak in Baltimore, yet we are told that his andidacy is being favorably received by the unselfish Democracy of the city.

Cable dispatches announce that negoiations between Japan and China are nearing consummation. As far as can be learned China has accepted the following demands from Japan: Independence of Corea, cession of the island of Formosa, cession of the stronghold of Port Arthur with contiguous territory, a war indemnity of $200,000,000 in gold or its equivalent in silver, and other minor demands including railway privileges and similar concessions to Japanese and foreign capitalists.

All fair-minded people, regardless of polities have united in condemning the scandalous utterance concerning the intemperance of President Cleveland made by Rev. Dr. Lansing, a Methodist preacher, at Salem, Mass., recently. The statement was widely published and of so grave a character that it called forth stinging rebuke from Mr. Cleveland. Dr. Lansing attempted to make an apology but it was so offensive that Mr. Cleveland refused to accept it.

Mr. Edward Phelps, the newly elected mayor of Laurel, Md. has treated the enterprising citizens of that place to an inaugural address. It is full of vim and broad views on local necessities.

Prosperous Factories.

It ought to add greatly to the cheerfulness of the country to see that the l'ribune is disposed to take a highly hopeful view of the condition and prespects of manufacturing industries which as some supposed, would surely fall into a condition of complete decay if any neasure of tariff reform were adopted. Far from being of this opinion, the Tribune asserts with emphasis that Fall River manufacturers are prospering in a gratifying way. It says that sales are unusually large, that there is less than a week's production on hand, and that the demand for wide fabrics is too great to lemand for wide fabrics is too great to be met for some weeks to come.

In addition to all these evidences of prosperity under the revised tariff, it declares that at Fall River "within the last two weeks more than half a dozen corporations have paid quarterly dividends ranging from 11 to 2 per cent, and none of them are reported as going behind." In support of these auspicious facts. we have on the same day a telegram frem Lawrence that in the woollen mills at Haverhill, Andover, North Andover and Franklin Falls wages which were cut last year have been restored by the manufacturers without waiting for a demand -this in fulfillment of a promise that the restoration should be made as soon a business became prosperous enough to warrant it

Clearly the croaking prophesies of the warlocks of calamity are out of date at Democracy Is Advancing.

The ebb tide of Republicanism has set in. The elections held on Monday and Tuesday throughout the country testify to the fact that the people hav wearied of the party of high taxes and race prejudice and are throwing off the shackles that have bound them to it. In those impregnable Republican strongholds, Ohio, Iowa and Michigan, the Republican vote shows a marked falling off, while the poll of Democratic votes gives evidence that a new vigor has been in fused into the party, a new enthusiasm characterizes the voters and everything augurs a determination to recover the advantage lost in November last and if possible make inroads upon the enemy's lines. In a few localities, notably in Chicago, the Republicans are triumphant by increased majorities, but this has been due almost wholly to local causes, producing apathy on the part of the Democrats, or unwonted activity among their opponents. Wherever distinct party ssues were presented the Democrats show an access of strength.

Devotion to a Lover. Henry M. Entwistle, who was sentenced to fifteen years in prison in 1892 at Lowell, Mass., for shooting Maria Clegg with intent to kill, has been released from prison through the efforts of the latest, best and cheapest. in a few days, where they will be married. Entwistle was in love with the young woman, but her father objected to the match. On the afternoon of October 6, outside the Massachusetts mill and fired four shots from a revolver at her. He intended to kill himself, but was prevented. After a long illness the young woman recovered.

Written for THE TIMES. Bring bright blossoms to spread Where lies His sacred head; Wreathe them in Horal bands Around His lacerated hands. And let trailing garlands neat Descend around His pierced feet. Bring crocus and pansles in their richest Hyazinths and narcissus in their swectes perfume; Bring tillies and roses, the fairest of easter tide, Entwined with bleeding-heart around Hi wounded side, And bind in rich garlands with the passion vine, Violets and sweetest flowers of every clime.

For the cross on which He lay Is treasured in the skies to-day; To hide its deathly prin s, We twine with living tints We twine with fiving thits
Of flowers of spring whose birth
From out the sepulchral earth
Proclaim the awakening dawn
That gave birth to easter morn;
Preclaim, The Lord is risen From out His tomb like prison. And with Him to the skies Their sweet incense shall rise. O cross of most wondrous story, With all thy unfading glory Hast added that of easter morn, When from death life was born-

Sweet flowers now we spread About thy most glorious head, And trail bright garlands notil they meet Around thy foot in holy fragrance sweet. Founded on earth thou reachest up to the skies; ee our hopes and prayers and praise rish:
Penitential tears around thy base we shed.
White eternal glories g ther around thy head

FORD'S GRAND OPERA HOUSE. Easter Week – Hoyt's Masterpiece-"A Texa

Steer". None of Mr. Hoyt's many successful productions has enjoyed more popular favor than 'A Texas Steer." The laughable comedy which will be the Easter attraction at Ford's Plays in which fun is the object aimed at and attained are always welcomed by our business-driven amusements seekers. People nowness-driven amusements scekers. People nowa-days seem to want to go to the theatre to forget for the time the cares that beset them during their waking hours. No man of the century has better succeeded in giving the public this respite from care than Chas. H. Hoyt, for ten years his bright comedies have been seen with pleasure and laughed at immoderately.

"A Texas Steer" is a succe-sion of laugh-produeing action, lines and situations, and at the same time tells a pretty story and deals with the keenest satire with the politics of the day.
Amid the hilarity of the play Mr. Hoyt's deft pen has managed to put in touches of the truest and tenderest pathos. The play will be given here with an unexcelled cast.
