WHY PEOPLE READ ADVERTISEMENTS Whilst there is no nonor that advertisements in the newspapers are read with interest by most people still you will now and then hear people say: "I never read advertisements." Such people although they are few and far between really don't know what they miss. Advertisements are practically educators, for they tell the people in a business way what is going on in the commercial world. They give the market value of almost every article in daily use. They frequently describe in the most minute manner the fashions of the daythey often tell you what is the correct thing to wear and so on.

It is only the live pushing and "bargain giver" business man who uses the columns of the newspapers to tell the public what he has to offer. His offer is generally worth knowing. His goods are usually bright, new clean goodsup to date goods-and he advertises to get a quick sale so as to clear his countthat are in season.

The people of the nineteenth century They don't like back numbers. They trade where the goods are new, fresh and in style. In nine times out of ten the advertising merchant is the one who has the latest, newest and most presentable goods, and the cheapest. You ask why the cheapest? Because good advertising means quick sales, fair profit, pleased customers and increased trade. On the of Charles county. The matter was de-other hand the wordant pladding alone cided Tuesday by a vote of 1,732, against Mary L. Moore...... other hand the merchant pledding along in worn ruts must necessarily have slow saies, unreasonable profits and eventually dissatisfied customers and decreasing trade. Why? Because he is out of date. he is a back number, he is not progressive. When the live advertising merchant has a bargain he tells you of it through the newspapers. If you don't read the advertisements you don't hear of big bargains. You may go to some other store and pay twenty-five per cent. more for the same article.

Then again if only to familiarize yourself with prices a perusal of the advertising columns will well repay you, for every person who is up-to-date ought get the most value for their money. Be up to date; read the advertisements. It

Attention is called to numerous excellent advertisements in THE TIMES.

For spectacular enects and dramatic situations Howard county probably leads the van-of the counties in Maryland. We have had all sorts of surprises, political, social, murderous and otherwise, but nothing equals the announcement of Mr. Chas. K. Dorsey who has permitted us to say that he is no more a Democrat and on both feet has landed squarely within the lines of the Republican party. Mr. Dorsey belongs to a family which has always been Democrats of the old school, and his "flop" is considered quite remarkable. This determination on the part of Mr. Dorsey, it is thought, will greatly complicate Mr. McGuire's position as an independent candidate for State's Attorney, as it is said the former will be nominated by the Republicans

The Howard county Republicans have called their primaries for Saturday, June 15, and their county convention for Monday, June 17th. As candidates for the House of Delegates J. Frank Oldfield, R. V. Thompson and Robert H. Hughes are mentioned, and for the State Senate N. R. Henderson is said to be the probable nomince. The clerkship nomination will be likely to go to George D. Day, and the sheriffalty to Greenbury John-

And a good appetite go hand in hand. With the loss of appetite, the system cannot long sustain itself. Thus the fortifications of good health are broken down and the system is liable to attacks of disease. It is in such cases that the medicinal powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla are clearly shown. Thousands who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla testify to its great merits as a purifier of the blood, its powers to restore and sharpen the appetite and promote a healthy action of the digestive organs. Thus it is, not what we say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story and constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine. Why not take Hood's Sarsaparilla now?

M. R. T. P. Barnett, Deputy Co. Clerk, Cambridge, Md., says: "For the past six years I was troubled very badly with constipation. I was induced to give a trial, and found them to work like a charm in curing that trouble.' They really never fail.

The Silver Lane In a Sulshell. The three speeches delivered by Secreary Carlisle on the silver issue at Covington. Memphis and Bowling Green, will be accepted as text books in the discussion of the money question for all time. Taking the three together there is no volume extant on the money issue that so clearly, so fairly, and so conclusively presents the wisdom of maintaining honest money. In his Bowling Green speech delivered on Saturday, he presents the silver issue in five terse sentences so clearly that the wayfaring man cannot fail to understand it. The five sentences which thus ! cover the whole dispute are as follows: 1. There is not a free coinage country in the world to-day that is not on a silver basis.

2. There is not a gold standard country in the world to-day that does not use silver money along with gold. 3. There is not a silver standard country in the world to-day that uses any gold along with silver. 4. There is not a silver standard country in the world to day that has more than one-third of the circulation per capita that the United States has. 5. There is not a silver standard country in the world to day where the laboring man receives fair pay for his day's

Here are five stubborn facts which none will venture to dispute, and no refinement of argument or theory can overthrow them. They show conclusive-ly the effect of the silver standard in every country where it has been adopted. and show also that there can be no use of gold as currency where the silver standard is accepted. Especially should the workingmen of the nation study these five reasons given by Mr. Carlisle which present the whole ssue in a nutshell. The fact that in no silver country are workingmen paid living wages, is conclusive against the interests of the industrial people being identified with the free silver craze. Philadelphia Times.

A mausoleum which Christian Henrich of Washington is erecting on the grounds of his country home, near Hyattsville is said to be the most unique structue of the kind ever erected in this section of the country. Built of large blocks of granite, it is 38 by 27 feet in area and 19 feet high. Its gate is of bronze, and four angels in bronze ornament the corners. A superb stained window lights the mausoleum, whose interior is inscribed in Mosaic Scripture texts.

Nine of the decendants of Robert Brooke, of England, who settled in Mary land with his ten children in 1650, made a pilgrimage about the middle of this month to Della Brooke, near the mouth of the Patuxent, in St. Mary's county where their ancestors landed. They found a substantial brick house built about a hundred years ago by one of the name, and, on a high hill commanding a magnificent view, they discovered the ruined walls of the original home, which Return Judge, Louis A. Lambert had been destroyed by fire.

HE DECEIVED THE PEOPLE

And is in the Penitentiary for a Year. At Atlantic, Iowa, on May 7, C. M. Ailor alias "Crip." Ailor, was convicted of deceiv ing.the people by selling a worthless combound, which he represented to be Hood's Sarsaparilla, and was sentenced by Judge Macy to one year at hard labor in the Iowa State Penitentiary. Ailor's methods were those of a traveling fakir. He has been travel-ing through Missouri, Nebraska and Iowa, making stands of a day or more in each town, making stands of a day or more in each town, representing himself as an agent under salary from C. I. Hood & Co., and selling his concoction at one dollar or fifty cents per bottle, giving with each sale various other worthless articles. Citizens of Griswold, Iowa, became suspicious and ascertaining from a druggist that Ailor's compound was not Hood's Sarsaparilla, but merely colored water, had him arrested. Three indictments were found against him, the jury convicted him after only thirty minutes deliberation, and he was sentenced as above. This incident suggests the wisdom of purchasing medicines only of reputable dealers whom you know. Hood's Sarsaparilla is never sold by pedlers, and such offering it should be at once reported to the authorities, or to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.—Lowell Morning Citizen.

Nose Breathing Was Impossible. BALTIMORE, March 13, 1895. Dear Sir: It has been on my mind for some time to make to you some acknowledgment of skitful treatment. It has been delayed be cause I wanted to be assured that the removal of the masal polypus, with which I was afflict ed, was permanent. It has been about two years since you removed the obstruction, which physicians had told me was "the larges on record," and I believe it was very large, because, before it was removed, I could neither sleep, eat nor breathe with any com-

Although the growth was not attended with any pain, yet I was miserable, and my health suffered through the annoyance. At this vriting the conditions the entirely eat without gasping for breath, I breathe freely through both nostrils. Can sleep with my mouth closed, and my health generally is better. In short I feel as though I have taken a fresh start. After the thorough examination you gave me a short time ago, you assured me that there was no indication whatever of a return of the polypus, and I am sure you are right, for there is no symptom whatever of its return.

You can use this if you wish, and if you design to refer to me any one enforce as desire to refer to me any one suffering as I did, you are at liberty to do so. I will very willingly and cheerfully tell all who come of the thorough cure you effected in my case. Very respectfully and gratefully,

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE FOR JUNE OPENS with a dramatic presentation of the three epochs in the history of Chicago-Before the Fire, After the Fire, and To-day. The author, Melville E. Stone, has long been associated with the growth of Chicago as the owner and editor of a great newspaper, and he writes with the fullest knowledge of the men and material conditions that have made the new Chicago. The illu-trations, which on facing pages show Chicago as it was before the fire and is now, are from exactly the same points of view, and give in the the same points of view, and give in the most striking manner a vivid idea of $5.00 apiece, from registered stock. what the growth of Chicago has been. The illustrations of to-day are from original paintings and not from photographs. They represent Chicago as it never before has been pictured. Robert Grant's paper in "The Art of Living" series this month discusses the problem that, while the pressure of modern life has become very intense, how shall a man or woman select and reject what is most important, in order that life may cease to be a succession of small incidents and unsatisfatory in its details? This is one of Mr. Grant's most pertinent discussions.

FORD'S GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Week of Jane 10th-First Production of an Original Comedy-Drama, in Three Acts-A Colonial Cavalier-A Romance of Maryland During the 18th Century. of Maryland During the 18th Century. The history of Maryland, rich in the romance, chivalry and bravery of its 15 00 first families amid the turbulent strife 12 50 of Colonial times, boasts no prouder name-none more distinguished in acts of loyalty or more determined in the right under all circumstances than that

In making its most distinguished and loved representative, Charles Carroll, the iero of a charming romantic play, under the title of "A Colonial Cavalier, the dramatist has found a subject of great interest and attractiveness to all Mary landers, to whom the name is an associa tion of glory and independence. The career of Charles Carroll was particularly interesting in its romantic surroundings. In placing A Colonial Cavalier upon the stage, Manager. Ford has determined to make all the sur roundings worthy the subject. The costumes will be picturesquely beautiful, the quaint, old-fashioned gowns of the ladies contrasting beautifully with the military and civilian dress of the gentlemen of that period. The scenic effects are studies in realism, being painted from nature by the celebrated scenic artist, Chas. S. Getz. of Baltimore. Only matinee Saturday. Twenty-five cents admission to all parts of the house, 50 and 75 cts, reserved.
