ANTI-GORMANISM A "FAD." for men to straighten themselves up and with a dramatic pose say, "The ticket is all right but I can't stand Gormanism Gorman must be downed."

For what? The answer is never given. Notwithstanding Mr. Gorman has kept the state Democratic through the most trying times and twice rendered; the party and the country distinguished service, these men would deliberately court a tyranny which, if once in control, would remain as an enduring monument to their folly and simple-mindedness.

We conjure all Democrats to stop and think. What is the matter with Mr. Gorman at this time? Did h not surrender everything for a good ticket? Were not the primaries every where throughout the State fairly conducted? Did not the "regulars" everywhere insist upon a free and fair expression of the party's will And what is the matter with the result What is the matter with Mr. Hurst? The Sun says Mr. Gorman favored his nomi-Hurst should be opposed. Mr Gorman fore there must be something bad in Presbyterianism. Mr. Gorman neither chews tobacco nor drinks whiskey. According to the Sun's mode of reasoning tobacco and whiskey must have some in-

Are you not aware it is important that the state go Democratic? If you think otherwise give us a potent reason why it should not. "A prophet is not with out honor save in his own land." All over this broad domain the masses are beginning to regard Mr. Gorman as having been in advance of his party as to the actual needs of the country in one of the most perplexing crises that the country has been called upon to go through. Mr. Gorman worked for a policy he thought would do the most good and now every day the wires are throbbing with announcements of returning prosperity. Thousands of bushels of wheat in the past ten days have gone from Howard county to market and sold at a very material advance over last year; the woolen mills everywhere throughout the country are humming with life; the output of the coal fields was never more encouraging; the iron industry has phenomenally revived scores of other industries that have been dormant for years are running on full time with increased pay to the operaives. The people at large would be justice if they did not soon seek to dis- a campaign, being the reservoir and procover the hidden force which has sent this thrill of renewed life to almost every section of the country.

The Democratic press of the state was averse to making Mr. Gorman an "issue." It desired in the interest of harmony that there should be a free and unquestioned expression of the party's will at the primaries. That expression was given and because the party refused cure dyspepsia, indigestion, habitual to "down" Mr. Gorman we instantly constipation, and sick headache. the substratum of truth to rest upon The county press has taken up the gauntlet thus thrown down and time will tell whether the guerilla tacties of the Baltimore Sun and News, or the solid tramp of the organized Democracy will preyait.

Amidst all this, in proof of our asseveration, comes the intelligence that Mr. Gorman, has been invited to take charge of the presidential campaign next year. The great leaders of the party have seen in Mr. Gorman such qualities as a leader as to render him transcendently important in a canvass requiring the most mature judgment, the broadest and keenest comprehension and the most indefatigabie vigilance.

It seems like a travesty upon consistency to see a part of the Democracy of Maryland pouring forth invectives ngainst Mr. Gorman while the party at large is willing to trust to him the delicate work of directing a national campaign in which the very destinies of the party are involved.

It is not very clear to the people just what the Sun and News want, except to eliminate Mr. Gorman from the politics of the state. Elect Mr. Lowndes, they have as much said. What then? Who will take charge of the yast Democratic "horde" which has so long ruled the state. Will not some other "boss" arise and assume the reins? Will not the same old conditions remain? Is the horde of negroes, who when by the aid of independent Democratic voters they will have lifted Mr. Lowndes into office be any better than the Democratic horde who would elect Mr. Hurst?

If we are to submit to the judgment of 'heelers" at the polls we prefer the white heelers to that vast irresponsible crowd of negroes who have ever shown themselves to be the mere fetish worshipers of Lincoln and the plastic tools of any ambitious Republican who would run every Southern States upon the half Puritan, half devil principle.

The personnel of the ticket is exceptionally strong, in fact one of the strong est and unassailable that has been pre sented to the people in many years. Al three of the gentlemen named are men of the highest character and above re-proach. * * * He (Mr. Hurst) has highly respected business men. Owing to the brave fight which Senator Thomas Hayes had made for reassessment there was a strong feeling for him in the counties, while Hon. Spencer C. Jones, of Montgomery, had many friends and admirers. But Mr, Hayes had the misfortune to have the entire city delegation, with the exception of a single delegate, opposed to his nomination at this time. Though these city delegates were to a man regular Democrats in full affiliation with the regular organization of the party and united in their opposition to the recalcitrant element led by the Baltimore Sun, they did not think the nomination of Mr. Hayes would be a strong one at this time. Mr. Hurst possesses qualifications that will enable him to make an aggressive campaign; and when elected will disharge the duties of his high office with skill and credit. Mr. Hurst is in favor of a reassessment but was opposed to the llayes bill. He was an enthusiastic supporter of Judge Fisher for the comination and in accord with the sentiments that Judge Fisher represented, but when that gentlemen gave public expression to views that killed his chances, Mr. Hurst withdrew his support, and ultimately accepted the nomination him-There was no crystalized sentiment in The nomination of Hon. In business circles no man stands higher in Baltimore than Mr. H. * * * Upon the question of reassessment he stands squarely upon the platform adopted by the convention, though last year he op posed a reassessment because he thought the time unpropitious. Upon all other declarations of the convention he stands, and he will be as firm in adhering to them as he has been houest and straightforward in business affairs.

Princess Anne Marylander. Mr. flurst was opposed, some time ago, to reassessment, but "wise men sometimes change their opinions-fools never do." We see that Mr. Bernard Carter, when nominating Mr. Hurst, stated that he had it from Mr. Hurst's own lips that he was in favor of reassessment. We believe Mr. Carter that he had this assertion from "Mr. Hurst's own lips." If Mr. Hurst said it to Mr. Carter, we believe he told the truth as there is no one who will say that Mr. Hurst is not a man of the highest integrity, honor and truth.

Ocean City is the natural and almost only watering place for Baltimoreans and Washingtonians. It is situated on "Sinepuxent Beach," which point is the nearest on the Atlantic Coast to the Gulf Stream, except Cape Hatteras. The air at Ocean City is remarkably dry, and the mean summer temperature is from 74 to 77. It is the best resort for bathing, fishing and gunning.

To reach Ocean City take steamer Cambridge, from Pier 4, Light Street Wharf, Baltimore. Connection is made three days each week at Salisbury between steamer Tivoli, leaving Pier 3, Light Street Wharf, Baltimore Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 5 P, M., and the railroad.
