WEST FRIENDSHIP. A Merry Expedition on Straw—Other Items of News. WEST FRIENDSHIP, Sept. 16.—One of the most enjoyable strawberries of the season fell this place on the 11th inst.

The early morning threatened to usher in an inclement day, but about 8 o'clock the clouds and fog dispersed making the most beautiful day of the fall.

The party went via of Henrytown and the old soapstone quarry, and arrived at Georgetown, having gone there to attend the funeral of a deceased relative.

After indulging in a sumptuous repast the party again boarded their conveyance and returned via of Elbersburg and Gov. Brown's beautiful residence, where some enjoyed the shady nooks of the old mansion.

Members of the Coopersville orchestra were present and at frequent intervals furnished music for the pleasure of the stragglers.

All agreed that the outing was a success, and departed hoping to experience another such one in the future.

The members of the party were: Miss Adella Knock, Sallie Porter, Eva Leeman, Carrie and Mertie Hobbs, Mary Jones, and Mrs. J. C. Taylor.

On the 12th inst. Rev. E. Shipley and wife tendered an all-day picnic to the McKendree Sunday school in the grove adjacent to the school.
