THE SITUATION. As the heat of the present political fight in Maryland waxes hotter it evident that the Democratic party is buckling down to business. A great many see clearer than they did. In Baltimore City they are returning to the "fold" by the hundreds and there is every assurance that the city will give its normal majority-from five to fifteen thousend. Mr. Gorman is not only making a brave defence but has successfully attacked the source of all this troable-the Baltimore Sun. Mr. Gorman has shown that the Sun has power to do mischief, but not to defeat the Democratic party for selfish ends. The spirit of Andrew Jackson doubtless stands amazed at the spectacle of a part of the Democracy attempting to defeat the candidates of a regularly constituted state convention. There is no just cause for opposition or the objections raised. Mr. John E. Hurst stands par excellence among men. He is the product of men having the best interests of the commonwealth at heart, yet every distortion of fact has been resorted to, and every spacious reason has been flung to the breeze by the Sun paper and News to convince the people that the state convention was the sum and essence of iniquity assembled to perpetuate a grinding tyranny. Whatever may have been the shortcomings of our state government in the past thirty years the people have enjoyed a safe conservatism which has secured for us the confidence of the entire country, whether it be in monetary affairs or in such laws as opened up to each citizen the path of preferment.

Nothing but a political degeneracy could account for the loss of the state to the Democrats at this juncture. The Democratic party has gotten the country well on the way in the direction of tariff reform after one of the most memorable struggles in our political history. To jeopardize this vantage ground, as far as Maryland is concerned, would indicate a lack of fealty to what we have so long insisted upon as a tenet of our political

The truth is, it is the same old struggle between the selfish greed of the wealthy and the people. A fear that the Demo cratic party may yet pass a reassessment law, savoring of the features of the Hayes' bill, is the original and stimulating cause of the opposition to the regular ticket, and there is no question about it

If THE TIMES office exchange fiend will give us due notice of his intentions we will in advance procure such papers as he may want and leave them on our table duly labeled. The annoyance of having to send to Baltimore for copies of papers that have disappeared from our office is well nigh insufferable. We hope our friends will save us from a trial in court for assault with intent to kill.

The item, "Reducing the majority," on our editorial page last week, credited to the Easton Democrat, should have been published as coming from the Easton Ledger.

The best friends of President Cleveland are those who are endeavoring to keep Maryland in the Democratic line.

Week of Oct. 21st. E. E. Rico's Attractive Revision of "1492." The popular extravaganza, with new masie, novel spectacular features, a splendid company, brilliant costumes and continued merriment. Walter Jones to you, touching certain matters in as "The Tramp." "1492" a merry burleswhich the colored voters have a deep que of vast and varied attraction, with its witty and elever libretto, its tunefully catchy music, and its comedy will be presented at Ford's week of Oct. 21st. How to vote-"1492" is thoroughly "up to date," its pretty music is constantly being hummed, and the bright sayings, the witty of paper the size of a postal short phrases, that it originates find universal tongue. Since the day of Evangeline Mr. Rice has reigned supreme in the field of burlesque. Col ville was not so mighty in his day, nor did his famous folly company ever achieve such success as has any one of the Rice organizations. The Lydia Thompsons, the Eliza Weathersby, and Pauline Markham's glorious Queens of burlesque in their days, have been suc ceeded through the art of Rice, by equally regal substitutes who reign supreme in the merry kingdon of ex-travaganza. "1492" this season is stronger and better than ever.
