

THE LOCAL NEWS FIELD.

Farmers' Institute. The Farmers' Institute meetings held in Ellipton City this week were not as well attended as their importance seemed to justify.

At a meeting of the institute on Thursday night the matter was practically all on the table. Acceptance of the propositions as stated by Mr. Logan would involve additional expense on the part of the institute.

At a congregational meeting of the Presbyterian Church here Wednesday night the annual report of the church was heard and the old board of trustees re-elected.

The trustees are: Jas. Holden, C. F. Rappaport, S. J. Radcliffe, Dr. M. G. Sykes, Joseph H. Holmes, John F. Kirkwood, John M. Bone, C. F. Fisher, A. B. Johnston, Mark McElroy, James G. Gether and J. B. Morrow.

Mr. Logan has been appointed a member of the Howard County School Board, vice Hon. Grosvenor Hanson, member of the House of Delegates, re-elected.

Thursday morning Mr. Edward Von Alstede, of Elkhart, N. Y., told how to treat an old orchard, and gave much that was useful on fruit growing generally.

Although the resolutions presented by the Howard County Teachers' Association on the 10th ult. are almost ancient history, we give them below, having come to us last week.

Resolved, That the intolerant persecution of Dr. L. M. Shipley, the Examiner of Public Schools of Howard county, is calculated to impair his usefulness, therefore be it

Resolved, That we the teachers of said county in meeting assembled, do protest against the methods employed by the Board in their treatment of Dr. L. M. Shipley, and that we hereby declare that we will not cooperate with the Board in any such course.

Resolved, That we do hereby express our disapproval of the course of the Board in the case of Dr. L. M. Shipley, and believe that the schools would suffer by the change; and we do hereby desire to express our confidence in the ability and integrity of Dr. L. M. Shipley in the proper prosecution of his duties as Examiner; and be it further

Resolved, That the course of Dr. Henry Branch deserveth the most disapprobation for the prosecution of Dr. L. M. Shipley before the State School Board without producing a single charge to prove the charges, and we further return our thanks to the said State Board of Education for their verdict in the case—The charges are unjust.

Local and Miscellaneous.

An electric firm in Baltimore through their agent, Mr. James Logan, have made a proposition to the City Council that if permitted to wire the town they would put in a new electrical plant and furnish a better lighting service than we now have.

At a meeting of the council Thursday night the matter was practically all on the table. Acceptance of the propositions as stated by Mr. Logan would involve additional expense on the part of the city.

THE HOUSE OF CORRECTION.

The Needs of the Institution as Recommended by a Committee. The special committee, composed of Superintendent William D. Slack, Walter H. Swindell, State Treasurer Thomas J. Shroyck, to whom had been referred the matter of determining upon such improvements at the House of Correction as were deemed absolutely imperative, has partially completed its labors.

Perhaps the one of the greatest importance is the suggested enlargement of the building. The accommodations there are entirely inadequate to meet the requirements of the prison. This can be readily understood when it is known that even at the present time the House of Correction contains 310 prisoners; and yet there are but 232 cells.

Worse than that, not long since the institution was crowded with 489 inmates, and these, too, had to be distributed over the same limited number of overcrowded cells. That necessitated in some instances more than two convicts in a cell. The feasibility of such a condition is entirely too obvious to admit of argument.

Because of this ever-increasing evil, the enlargement of quarters is absolutely imperative. To accomplish what is needed, the General Assembly will be asked to grant an appropriation of a building fifty by one hundred feet. In order to reduce the achievement of this plan to a minimum cost, the superintendent proposes to have the bricks made by the convicts at the institution. The manual labor of an unskilled convict will be needed in the course of building, which will also be furnished by the institution.

ISOLATION OF FEMALE CONVICTS. The presence of such a building would not only obviate another evil, which is a source of anxiety to the superintendent. It will enable the removal of the women convicts from the main building, and complete isolation and seclusion from the men.

Another advantage which the addition of a new building would provide would be the supplying of several greatly-needed workshops. Already the convicts have been put to work. They have been taught to make brooms and cover demijohns with basket work. Very recently the superintendent introduced the industry of door mat making. Other lines of useful labor would further be added if proper quarters could be had in which to conduct them.

Such a building would provide this desired space, and it is the design of the superintendent thus to utilize it. He will inaugurate the new building, which has been put under the supervision of Mr. William Keigler, of Baltimore, spent several days during the holidays with his family, and returned on Monday.

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION.

It seems like a propitious time to agitate the good roads question in and about the city of the "Globe Quarterly Review." There are a good many progressive citizens in the county willing to "take the bull by the horns" and see what can be done in the matter.

The first district has been organized and active after a number of meetings and a thorough discussion of the question in the various townships. They have solved the problem. They have decided to seek a consensus of opinion through a county convention, as will be seen by the following: The first district has been organized and active after a number of meetings and a thorough discussion of the question in the various townships.
