THE SCHOLARSHIP BUSINESS,

Senator Day Thinks He is Not Standing on Imaginary Ground and Sticks to the Text. The Howard County School Board, Messrs. Selby, Devries and Shreeve, again Tuesday deliberated on the still unsettled question involving the selection of the Kirkwood. free scholarships to St. John's and Western Maryland Colleges and the confirmation of a teacher for the higher classes at the Ellicott City Graded School. Senator George D. Day, who, it is claimed, has jurisdiction in the naming of these scholarships, met the Board by appointment when it was thought the matter would be disposed of, but the solution has not yet by any means been Shooting Affray.

A shooting affray, which will probably result in the death of a man named Chas. Anderson, colored, occurred at a negro cake walk near Cooksville, Howard county, last Saturday night. John Burton and Anderson became involved in a dispute, when the former, it is alleged, drew a revolver, and fired two shots at the latter, one taking effect in the shoulder and the other in the stomach. Dr. J. Walter Simms is attending the wounded man. Burton, who is said to be from Virginia, disappeared after the shooting. Sheriff Pickett was apprised of the occurrence Monday while attending Court and steps were at once taken to apprehend Burton and to bring the facts of the case before the attention of the grand jury. Burton is still at large.

TWO BOYS RESCUED.

Savers.

A thrilling rescue of two youths named Hughey from drowning was made at Betterton, Md., on Monday by P. C. Gor man, of the United States special treasury agent's office at Baltimore, and his nephew, Stephen W. Gambrill, of the Baltimore bar. These gentlemen spent several days at Betterton, fishing and bathing, with a family party from Laurel, including Mrs. Gorman and Stephen Gambrill, of the War Department, Washington.

There was a large crowd there on Labor Day from Baltimore and Philadelphia. The Hughey boys were accompanied by their mother. Their home is in Philadelphia. In the afternoon they went bathing, although neither could swim. Weer had charge of the funeral. The funeral of the late T. John Bowie took place Monday A. M. from Grasslands his late residence, near Annapolis Junction. The attendance was very large. At 10 o'clock services were held at the house by the Rev. Mr. Gray, Archdeacon of Annapolis, of Elkridge, assisted by the Rev. John Rose, of Florids, formerly rector of St. Philip's Parish, Laurel, and of the Protestant Episcopal Church o All Saints, at Annapolis Junction, of which Mr. Bowie was a member. The funeral was attended in a body by King Solomon Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of Sav age, Robert Morang, master, Mr. Bowi having been a prominent member of this lodge. The Masonic ritual was read at the grave. Interment was made in Trinity Episcopal churchyard, on the Washington pike, in Howard county. The active pall-bearers were from King olomon Lodge, and the honorary pallbearers were Col. William S. Powell, Lloyd E. Dorsey, Robert Wells, Plummer A. Clark, John King and Col. George W King. Among those at the funeral were R. V. Hall, of Beltsville; William Cronmiller, of Laurel; Dr. Washington si. Tuck, of Annapolis; Dr. N. E. Dorsey Arthur L. Jones, of Baltimore; H. Clay Mullikin, Alphonso Latchford, David A. Brady, W. Leonard Brady, George Stevens, Harry Dudley, J. Winslow Jones, Parke Willey, James Haslup, Charles Haslup; Col. Washington Bowie, deputy surveyor of the Port of Baltimore, and Mrs. Bowie, and a large concourse of relatives and friends and neighbors. The funeral director was Maj. William Mil-stead, of Laurel. Mr. Bowie was one of the most promi nent men in his section of the State. He died on Saturday morning, at 10.30 o'clock, after a few days' illness of gastritis. He was attended by Drs. Thomas inthicum and Samuel Anderson. GODFREY.
