SCHOOL BOARD LOSES.

Suit Against the Fidelity and Deposit Company.

The decision in the long-peopling case of the State, use of the Board of County School Commissioners of Howard county against J. E. Hill and the Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland by the Court of Appeals on Saturday last in overruling a motion for reargument puts at final rest this interesting suit. The suit was instituted to recover a sum of money, aggregating about $1,300, which had been used by a former School Board of the projected great railroads to be the Board's order. State's Attorney Jo seph D. McGuire was engaged as com-sel by the Board, with whom he enter that a contract to take the case of a contingency. The case was tried in Bal of the defendants, and was then taken

At the last meeting of the School Board Mr McGuire called upon the Board for the necessary amount of court expenses due for the prosecution of the suit. To this request, however, he met with strong opposition from Commissioner Devries, who is the only member of the present Board who was serving on the old Board when the contract was made. Mr. Devries said he was opposed to the suit from the first, believing it to be groundless. He further said that as Mr. McGuire had taken the case upon a contingency, it was no more than right that he should bear at least a portion of the expenses. After a considerable interchange of opinion the Board passed am order for the payment of a part of the expense account, leaving the unsettled portion open for future consideration.

Occurring at such an early hour, sufficient aid in fighting the blaze was unavailable, and the flames met with little opposition.

Shamrock was known as one of the most picturesque places in Howard county. Mr. Cottman estimates the loss at $10,000, which is fully covered by insurance.
