WILL FIGHT THE TRUSTS. "The trusts must go" is the keystone of an organization which though comparatively new, already claims members as the American Anti-Trust League. The executive committee of the league held a meeting in Washington last week. The league, which has a full set of national officers, thus sets forth its object: "The purpose of the American Anti-Trust League is to arouse the only power on earth that is stronger than the power of money in public life. That power is the patriotic impulses of the people. The little finger of that power, when awakened, is stronger ten thousand times than the influence of all the bilrifices of the fathers call us to action. If these trust combinations are allowed to go on they can plunder each of us into poverty. No man knows how soon the fear of hunger for his wife and family will strike while the fire of liberty yet burns. The American Anti-Trust League is nonpartisan. We call all American freemen to council. If a Democrat or a Populist himself to be a subservient tool of this great corporate power, then all the united power of the men of the American Anti-Trust League will be used to crush him and drive him from public ure. life. We will adopt the tactics of our enemy until we have created a legislative, judicial and executive power in sympathy with the public welfare. And we call upon every American citizen who loves his country and the great principles of popular government better

The lynching of Same Hose, a colored man by burning, in Georgia, some months ago, was horrible enough to shock the return to the land without an acceptance sensibilities of quiet communities of their theories, and at one time the throughout the country, and we were hardly prepared for a repetition of so unhardly prepared for a repetition of so uncivilized act, yet that is just what has again taken place in Georgia. The crime of the negro was the same, that of outrage. The unfortunate beast was literally hacked to pieces before he was allowed the privilege of dying. Any one who has ever lived in a section will see. where life was felt to be insecure can understand the necessity of meting out to offenders swift punishment, but few would care to acknowledge that the horrible affairs that have taken place so recently in Georgia is an American char-

DEMOCRATIC PARTY EAGER FOR THE STRUGGLE.

At the National Social and Political Conference, in session in Buffalo, N. Y., recently, where social topics and politics were ably discussed, Mr. Geo. Fred Williams paid the following tribute to the Democratic party:

"The leadership in the Democratic definite purpose to undo the evils and injustice which capitalism has foisted upon the republic. In the history of our country there has been no greater opportuni ty for the radical schools to influence a great political party. No party has shaken off so completely the domination of those who seek to profit by the perversion of our laws and institutions. It is true that those who would take part in Democratic leadership must accept the decision already made upon the monopo-

It is clear that millions of the Democratic constituency are satisfied that the control of the monetary system of the world and of this nation is the most potent form of monopoly and the most dangerous instrument of injustice and oppression. The two great parties will solve the problem one way or the other. To absorb them seems impossible. A new party of reform is equally impossible, but 6,500,000 voters have already an organization to do the work. The Republican party proposes by immense campaign funds and the power of monopolistic organization to maintain its supremacy. To divide its opponents in to make its path clear. They who would do this take upon themselves a fearful responsibility; they may be the most efficient instruments in the destruction of our institutions. Petty personal emotions, dyspeptic pessimism, reckless bigotry, stolld indifference to results, these may scuttle the ship of reform, but this ship is the Democratic party, newly built, stanch and seaworthy, which will carry the people's cause to a safe harbor. "The Democratic party now tenders its splendid organization of 6,500,000 voters to the cause of reform. If this convention is inspired mainly with the purpose to suppress monopoly in its various forms, it needs no argument to demon strate that these 6,500,000 voters constitute the largest anti-monopolistic army which the world's history has developed. That this army is solidly opposed to monopoly appears not only from its platform of principles; in 1896 all the monopolistic forces separated from the party and passed over to the enemy as if some powerful solvent were working by chemical

"GOING BACK TO THE LAND." EDITOR TIMES:

The Chicago Farmer's Voice is one of he leading agricultural papers of the country. In its issue of July 1st, page 48, it gave an editorial under the above neading. It said: "Silently there is going forward a revolution which must sooner or later send back to the land the vast army of the unemployed, who are feeding upon the husks of an ungenerous world. To open wide the door of opportunity to them involves the most important economic problem of the times." Has the average citizen of lioward ever heard tell of this "revolution" and this "problem?" Well, I am the leader of this revolution and the solver of this problem, and can quote papers all the way from Hearst's Examiner of San Francisco to the Providence Journal in Rhode Island in proof

In 1895 the editor of the Baltimore the South—read one of my revolutionary articles in the Worcester (Mass.) Spy and issue my article was his leading one. Its tor an immense editorial in his issue of Commission, when, in answer to a call for suggestions for relief from labor troubles, he laid before them his longin every state and territory. colony companies large and small." As some of The Times correspondents have disputed the existence of papers at a distance from which I have quoted on other subjects, I trust this nearby Baltimore Magazine's existence may not be likewise disputed. Hardly a week passes lions of all the trusts and combines of over my head that my friends do not send the land. Since writing the above, the Mormon Deseret Semi-Weekly News, of Salt Lake City, of July 18th, comes to hand with an account of Commander Booth-Tucker's address in that city a few days before. He said the army was experiment ing with farm colonies for poor people n California, Colorado and Ohio. The News says: "Commander Booth-Tucker thought that in this colonization scheme laid the salvation of the problem of the poor, and he hoped to see the day when this nation would take it in hand. The government could set aside $50,000,000 a year and provide 500,000 people with homes on this plan, and eventually there would not be a man in all this land with out a home." It will be seen that thus far the Salvationists have my idea; but party has but one requirement, viz: a they were by no means the first ones to talk about it in this country. I and my co-workers had educated the people up to it and I have even been obliged to defend old General Booth himself from prominent papers that ridiculed and condemned him when he first broached it in this country. In some of the details the Salvationists are wrong, and unless they allow themselves to be corrected they Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill. makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Herdruggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and at ter taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was .- Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at Dr Isaac J. A REPLY TO MR. LIVESEY Several weeks ago we asked your Sykesville correspondent the following nuestion: "What reform of our schools would you suggest other than the slow development that has brought them to reply in your issue of July 8 was that they should be slowly abolished." I would like to remind Mr. F. B. L that abolition of an existing institution can not be a reform of that institution. because when abolished it ceases to exist. The gentleman has failed either purposely or inadvertently, to catch the true spirit of reform. A reformer-now I do not of sale. mean a pessimist who is the bane of any community, never being satisfied with himself and unceasingly criticising others-a reformer, I say, deals with -except in the case of Mrs. M. No doubt every subscriber to THE TIMES read with much sympathy how this test is fit to be the bearer of a great her children "were assaulted and insulted by a crowd of ruffians on their way from school," and how their clothes were soiled and packages destroyed or hoarseness. Sold by Dr. I. J. Martin's people died from sunstroke during the recent "hot snap," therefore the sun is a curse and not a blessing. The fact is that the ruffians, so called, were inherently bad and this, added to the "home training" so zealously advocated, is the real explanation of the somewhat insignificant incident. "The main objection to the public school," says the correspondent, "has come to be that it creates an after dependence upon the State." Here again the writer shows inexcusable ignorance of facts. Statistics-I refer the gentleman to U.S. Senator Chandler's speech on immigration-prove that the majority of those dependent upon the State are foreigners or are of foreign extraction. Further, these foreigners are generally uneducated, thus refuting the argument that dependence upon the State is the consequence of education.

The correspondent seems to have forgotten his knowledge of logic. He makes a particular statement and then deduces a general conclusion therefrom. Southern Farm Magazine—the finest in What does the very small percept of uneducated yet "strong and honest" mountainers amount to when placed bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. wrote me to give him one. exercised by England? Again, the writer says that "health takes precedence of education" among the mountaineers. It should among all people. But let us not forget that a knowlege of the laws of health is a part librium by getting the surplus masses knowledge is obtainable only through and parcel of education, and that this the ability to read and write.
