Elsewhere in this issue will be found an "indictment" of the Republican party for the kind of rule it has foisted upon the people of this State. It is issued by authority of the Maryland Democratic Editors' Association, and in the series of articles to follow our readers may anticipate a summary of misrule quite startling, in that the insincerity, the shameless debauchery of voters and the deliberate appeal to the lowest instincts of an irresponsible element, by the leaders of the Republican party, will be fully exposed. The committee appointed by the Association to do the work have collated abundance of material and instead of abuse there will be a dignified statement of facts for the consideration of those who heretofore have been inclined to listen to the specious cry of "good government," so lustily proclaimed in times past by the Republican managers.

We learn from the Progress here, the recognized organ of the Republican party in Howard county, that Messrs. Walter S. Black and R. C. Pindell positively state that they will not accept any place on the Republican ticket to be nominated Tuesday next. The Progress also states that Senator Day utterly scorns and spits upon the asseveration that he desires to succeed himself in the legislature. Is the Republican ship sinking that no one wants to stay aboard?

Hon. W. B. Peter, Democratic nominee for State Senator, has had occasion of late to traverse the several districts of the county, and reports a wonderful unanimity among Democrats and believes the ticket will be elected by a large majority. PUBLICATIONS.

SATURDAY EVENING POST .- "New York Under Tammany Rule" is the title of an informing article which Frank Moss, Counsel for the Mazet Investigat-ing Committee, has written for The Saturday Evening Post, of Philadelphia. After summarizing the notorious methods of Tammany rule, whereby the leaders enrich themselves at the expense of the taxpayer, and run the city of New York as "wide-open" as any Western mining town. Mr. Moss accounts for the helplessness of the law-abiding majority and suggests a means for the overthrow of the Croker regime. This article is one of a series dealing with the municipal affairs of great American cities. It will appear in The Saturday Evening Post of September 9. Youth's Companion.-The Youth's Companion for the week of September 7th is a "Story Number." It will contain five complete stories, the authors being among the most gifted of American writers of short stories. The number also contains the usual careful selection of miscellany and the regular weekly health article.

Remarkable Rescue. Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treat ed for a month by her family physician but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Herdruggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. Mr. Clary was in the house sleeping as, Congressmen Mudd and Pearre, and and was awakened by the crackling of the other Republican State leaders, took part in the city campaign and plead for the election of Malster. They knew of the ing mill $5,000, with the following apincompetency and worse of the Malster proximate insurance: Mill, $3,000; creamadministration. They knew the Malster ery, $700; granary, etc., $7,000. machine was merely an aggregation of spoilsmen. They knew that it was dominated by the worst elements of the party | had $250 in currency in the house, and it in the city. They knew that Malster's is supposed that this, besides other artisuccess meant a continuation of incompetency and corruption in city affairs; a continuation of police disorganization and Negro crime and disorder; a continuation of high taxation and debt augmentation, but all this did not concern them. It did not concern them that Baltimore's trade and growth were suffering on account of high taxation, increasing debt and insecurity of person and property, partisan success was their object, that the favored few-the Allegany Ring and its satellites-might continue to fatten on public office. They believed, and so declared, that the salvation of the party in the state depended upon the suc-Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and also party in the state depended upon the success of the Malster machine, and they some testimonials stating how some wonwent to its rescue.
