THE ORPHAN'S COURT will meet on the first and third Tuesday of every month for the transaction of business. ISAAC SCAGGS, Register of Wills.

(Continued from first page) any time of day or night I happen to think of it and often let it run down, while you are well as my religion teaches and never abuse it and wind it up just at the same hour every night and put it in a place where it will not suffer from the violent changes of atmosphere which watch will last the longer? Common sense answers. Now, the human body is God's watch. You see the hands of the watch, oh so must it be, and I cannot postpone to an intermediate state reformation which ought to have been effected in this state. Experience tells me that this is the last of him. When a man dies, that is the last of him. Do not worry about what you are to do in another state of being. You will not do anything. "There is something that tells me that death is not the appendix, but the preface, to life. There is something that tells me that death is not the end of the world, but the beginning of a new world. My power to think says 'forever,' my affections say 'forever,' my capacity to enjoy or suffer, 'forever.'"

Peace Now and Hereafter. Well, you defeat me in my three experiments. I have only one more to make, and you defeat me in that I am exhausted. A mighty One on a knoll back of Jerusalem one day, the skirts filled with forked lightning and the earth filled with soldiers of darkness, turned his pale and agonized face toward the heavens and said: "I take the sins and sorrows of the ages into my own heart. I am the expiation of the sins of the earth and heaven and hell, I am the expiation." And the hammer struck him, and the spears punctured him, and heaven thundered. "The wages of sin is death," "the soul that sinneth, it shall die." "It will by no means clear the guilty." Then there was silence for half an hour, and the heavens were drawn back into the scabbard of the sky, and the earth ceased to quiver, and all the colors of the sky began to shift into a rainbow woven out of the falling tears of Jesus, and there was red as of the bloodshedding, and there was blue as of the bruising, and there was green as of the heavenly foliage, and there was yellow as of the day dawn, and along the line of the blue I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of red I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of yellow I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of green I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of blue I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of red I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of yellow I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of green I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of blue I saw the words, "I was bruised for your iniquities," and along the line of red I saw the words, "I was
