DEWEY DAZED.

The country this week was stirred from its centre to the extreme limit of its borders over the announcement that Admiral Dewey had deeded his recently acquired home to his wife. Protests in every conceivable shape and from all parts of the country rained upon Dewey so fast that the only difference between him and Billy Patterson, somewhere down in the Carolinas, is, Billy didn't know who hit him but Dewey did. Everybody felt like getting a whack at the hero and when he recovered consciousness the matter was rectified at almost lighting speed—Mrs. Dewey had the property transferred to Dewey's son. Dewey's explanation to an associate press reporter is, that he really though the was doing a gracious act by gifting the home to his wife and thought the nation would so view it. So far the Admiral has not proved a good land-lubber. It was a perilous undertaking to pass the Corregidor guns and enter a habor supposed to be filled with torpedoes, to meet a hostile fleet, but the fusilade of adverse public opinion unnerved Dewey and he sought at once to amend the error, as far as it was in his power to do so. Dewey has learned that a hero must be circumspect as well as anybody else.

WARFIELD FOR CONGRESS.

"If the Democracy of the Fifth Congressional district is in search of a candidate for Congress, whom the logic of recent events points toward as the strongest man in the district, we know of no safer selection than Mr. Edwin Warfield, of Howard county. As the defeated Gubernatorial candidate in the recent Democratic primaries Mr. Warfield has exhibited every assurance that he is of the "tried and true" type. His eminent executive ability well fitted him for the honor to which he aspired and he will yet be called upon to steer the ship of state. At the same time it will not detract from his Gubernatorial chances to beat Mr. Mudd. History may repeat itself, and a seat in congress may prove a steppingstone to higher honors."—La Plata Times-Crescent.

How the Congressional Districts Voted.

At the recent election four of the six congressional districts of Maryland gave Democratic majorities. The First district, composed of the Eastern Shore, except Cecil county, gave a Democratic majority of 2,500, an increase of nearly 1,600 over last year. The Second, composed of four wards of Baltimore city, all but two districts of Baltimore county, and the counties of Carroll, Harford and Cecil, a Democratic majority of 4,198, against a Republican majority of 376 last year. The Third district, Baltimore, a Democratic majority of 3,294. The Fourth district, Baltimore, a Democratic majority of 3,035. The Fifth district, composed of a part of Baltimore city and the counties of Anne Arundel, Howard, Prince Georges, Charles, St. Mary's and Calvert and two districts of Baltimore county, which gave Sydney Mudd nearly 3,000 majority last year, gave Lowndes 279 this year, while the Republican majority in the Sixth district, composed of Montgomery, Frederick, Washington, Allegany and Garrett counties, which elected Pearre last year by about 4,500 majority, gave Lowndes 621.

Garret A. Hobart, Vice-President of the United States, died at 8.30 o'clock Tuesday morning at his home in Paterson, N. J. Mr. Hobart was taken ill with an attack of grip in January of the present year, but accompanied the President on his trip to the South in that month, his physician going with him. On April 11 he was reported to be seriously ill. It was announced April 20 that he was not up much. He went to Long Branch, but did not improve. On September 19 he was removed to his home in Paterson.

If the Republican policy is continued, it is only a question of time when shipbuilding will become a lost art in this country. Official figures show that a smaller percentage of our imports and exports last year were carried in American vessels than ever before. Something ought to be done, but Hanna's subsidy scheme isn't it.

Col. Bryan's intended speaking tour of New England appears to be arousing considerable anxiety in the minds of Republican editors. Keep your clothes on, brethern, the winter is almost upon us.

The reckless use of ammunition by the Boers, in their bombardment of Ladysmith and Kimberly, indicates that they have plenty of it, which shows that Oom Paul prepared for war in time of peace.

Perhaps the Philadelphia papers which criticise election methods elsewhere have forgotten the maxim warning those who reside in glass houses.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by Dr. I. J. Martin's Sons.

PRESENT DAY THOUGHTS.

BY "GROSVENOR."

Written for THE TIMES:

A LAYMAN'S THANKSGIVING—For the truth that neither men nor nations can live unto themselves, but that having gotten wisdom they must pass it on in order to get from it the greatest gain; for the recent proving to ourselves that we have been one hundred years in a crucible of testing to show whether fit or unfit to lead others into fuller life and greater freedom; for all hearts that are now solemnized to search within our national heart for weakness and evil to purge it and then to go the way of Thy bidding, we thank Thee, Thou Ruler of nations.

For all our countrymen who at their various posts are doing their own tasks, finding no excuse for themselves in the neglects of others, seeking no reason to lay down heavy burdens because of others who bear lighter ones; for all who understand that not all are called to the same work, but that each by doing his own well makes for the united grandeur and progress of the nation; for all those who have vision enough to see that no public task is so small as to be unimportant in its effect, we thank Thee, Thou Distributor of burdens.

For all the unnumbered thousands of our women who make this a nation noteworthy for homes where peace reigneth and progress is the watchword; for all mothers who lay themselves upon an altar of sacrifice that to their children may be given a better intellectual start than they themselves received; for all mothers who realize that each child has from birth a different endowment and therefore needs a different training; for all wives who understand their husbands and thus enjoy the true union; for all ideals of gentleness imparted to men by women, we thank Thee, Thou creator of sex.

For all those who dare to pay but little heed to the crashing noises of evil in the world, knowing that quiet forces do not vaunt themselves; for all those who have ears keen to heed the still, small voice of good in the world and who have faith that it shall be audible to all of a later age when all attempt to do all that they ought; for all who are discontented with the world as they find it and who give their discontent form by striving after better things, we thank Thee, Thou Inspirer of upward effort.

For our widespread Country with a population drawn from every corner of the globe as if to test the elasticity and the strength of our free institutions; for the strange restlessness of our people as they move hither and thither, doing away with sectional distrust; for our increasing influence among the nations of the earth; for our never failing harvest of good and great men, followed in Thy watchful Providence by a seed-time of men equally good and great; for all that we are and all that we hope to be, yet are not but strive for, we thank Thee.

Editor Riley, of the Annapolis Record, has made out a schedule of reforms he would like to see the Democrats of Anne Arundel county adopt—First, legalized primaries; second, the Australian ballot in the primaries; third, the Crawford county system in making nominations. A friend in need is a friend indeed. That is exactly what Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is. It is the mother's help when she is suddenly awakened in the night by the ominous husky cough, and labored breathing, of her babe. It is the safe resort of the youth or adult when he has "caught cold" and there is coughing and irritation of the mucous membrane of the throat. It allays the irritation and cures the cold.
