Intelligence Office.
The convenience of such an establishment in a large city like this, can be readily appreciated, from the inconvenience which attends the want of it. Moved by this consideration, the subscriber informs the citizens of Baltimore, that he will immediately open a general Intelligence Office, at the corner of the Fish Market and Marsh Market, in the house larely occupied by George W. Miller, where he will provide himself with means of procuring for servants, and servants for places; of giving information respecting animals strayed; and of furnishing intelligence relative to rare and unusual articles of merchandise or traffic; together with such other articles of intelligence as interest the farmer coming to market, the citizen resident in town, or the stranger who may come hither by land or water.
Terms will be cheap and accommodating.
Persons wishing to have their animals RE-DEEMED, may have it done with any letter or letters, on the shortest notice, by
