Prevention better than Cure.

For the Prevention and Cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS. Prepared (only) by H. L. E. E., 56 Maiden Lane, New York.

THIS Medicine has, for ten years past, been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West-Indies, and the southern of the United States, particularly in Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Beaton, Wilmington, Charleston and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons in each of the above places has been adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature, speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy found on mere assertion could do.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these pills, taken once every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative—and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases extended, desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by all persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid action—so restore and amend the appetite—produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds, which are often of fatal consequence. A dose never fails to remove a cold, if taken on its first appearance. They are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—acidity at the stomach and head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured, and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Certificate of Mr. William Devoney.

During the last few years, I have been in the habit of using Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, whenever colds, head-aches or costiveness have rendered me uneasy; and in these cases a single dose has uniformly removed my ailment, and has generally been found sufficient to remove every symptom of cold, if taken on its first appearance. Induced by the benefit received, I have for many years past recommended them to every of my friends, and I have the pleasure to inform you, they have invariably succeeded, in removing the above complaints. Yours, &c.

HAMILTON'S

Celebrated Worm-Destroying Lozenges, Which there is reason to believe, have, within ten years past, cured upward of two hundred thousand persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or fulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocuous, and a mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body, but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is food or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, (greenish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and most strengthening that can be used on any occasion.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will not only prevent the formation and breeding of children, but a dreadful disease, which commonly destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is like wise the most and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number of men in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Cases of Cures, selected from thousands, the authenticity of which any person may ascertain, either by letter or personal application; not being confined to Europe, nobody knows who—but at home.

TAPE-WORM.

Mr. Samuel Fuller, inn-keeper on the Hartford, ten miles from Baltimore, began about 12 months ago, to be grievously afflicted with a tape-worm, which increased in size and strength, so as to excite the most horrid sensations by its writhing motions and intolerable pains, resembling the gnawing and tearing of his bowels, which deprived him of his necessary sleep, and caused such dreadful apprehensions as cannot be described but by one in a similar situation; his appetite declined rapidly, and with that his strength so that he was unable to attend to any business; when he heard of some excellent cures performed by Hahn's Worm Lozenges, he took a large dose, which brought away about 4 yards of worm in possession of H. Lee; but a few days of his pains soon convinced him that this monstrous reptile had recovered its first vigor. Application was made for more of the medicine, with advice, from which resulted the total expulsion of his formidable enemy, in sev-ral pieces, which he supposed to be six or eight yards more. A few weeks have since elapsed, and Mr. Fuller is now in perfect health. The above facts are well known to a numerous circle of his neighbors, and he himself will gratify any who may wish to make further inquiries on the subject. Although Hahn's Worm Lozenges produce such powerful effects, when necessary, yet they are perfectly innocent and mild in their operation on the human body, even when taken in large doses as Mr. Fuller will testify. Their peculiar mildness is abundantly evident in the following cures of patients.

Letter from Mr. Henry Ackerman, brick-layer, in Magazine-street, near Broadway, New-York. It would be ungrateful were I to withhold my testimony in favor of Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges. I had been between 5 and 6 years past much indisposed, and latterly often tormented with severe griping and pains in the bowels, troubled with offensive breath, with violent fevers, fits, and other obvious symptoms of worms; but frequently hearing your Worm Lozenges recommended in cases similar to mine, I determined on a trial of them, as my last resource. The first evacuated twelve or thirteen feet of a tape worm, two other doses were taken, which brought away a quantity of matter broken like skins and pieces of worms. I suppose the tape worm, voided at different times, must in the whole have exceeded 40 feet. The almost incredible benefit I received from this medicine, induced me to give a dose to a child of mine who was pining and sickly; it produced the same good effect in this instance, expelled a worm of a different kind, from nine to twelve inches long, and at the same time restoring a good state of health.

HENRY ACKERMAN.

Dr. Hamilton's Grand Restorative, Which the inventor confidently recommends as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief, and permanent cure of various complaints which result from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavorable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any destructive intemperance, the unskillful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad habits, &c. And is proved by long and extensive experience to be absolutely unparalleled in the cure of nervous disorders, consumption, lowness of spirits, loss of appetite, impurity of the blood, hysterical affections, inward weakness, violent cramps in the stomach and back, indigestion, melancholy, gout in the stomach, pains in the limbs, relaxations, involuntary emissions, seminal weaknesses, obstinate pleuris, fluor albus, (or white) imposthesis, barrenness, &c. &c.

By using Lee's Sovereign Ointment, The proprietor informs these persons and families who are suffering under this disease (against the infection of which no person is safe) that if this ointment is used at night on going to bed it never fails to perform a cure by the following morning, as thousands who have used it during the last ten years can testify. The peculiar excellencies of this infallible remedy for the itch, ever, or other, are the certainty of the cure by a single application; the ingredients being so innocuous as to be applied with perfect safety to the tenderest infant; and its being not only free from any offensive smell, but equally agreeable with the pleasantest pomatum.
