ed the Spaniards of Encies of Peru or the rac htes could, after centeries of death, ravial the world, they would be amply grantled for the craelties they suffered from:
Cortes and Pizarro, by the horrid ravages of the French in the Penninsula.—
The fate of Charles the fourth, and Ferdinend is not very much unlike that of the shoriginal princes of the southern part of the American continent Cortez seized Montezuma in his palace, and Pizarro followed the example in relation to the reigning Inca. Bonaparte imitated these plundering conquerors, and laid violent hands upon the whole royal family of Spain, bearing them off from Madrid to captivity in France.

With respect to the essential iniquity these several transactions, we see no of these several transactions, we see no farricular difference. The one party be-lied and the other Spaniards, and the other Spaniards, and the other spaniards, and the should decide that the fate of the Indians was the worse, because their stbjustion and Massacre was not so immedistely (if at all) necessary for the consolidation of the power of the then sovereign of Spain.

GENERAL WASHINGTON TO SIR AR-THUR YOUNG.

In a letter on agricultural affairs, written by General Washington to Sir Actions Young, is the following paragraph:

" The more I am acquainted with agricultural affairs, the better I ani plea sed with them; insomuch, that I can no where find so great satisfaction as in those innocent and useful pursuits. In Indulging these feelings, I am led to reflect how much more delightful to an undebauched mind, is the task of making improvements on the earth, than ai! the vain glory which can be acquired from ravaging it, by the most uninterrupted career of conquests. The design of this observation, is only to shew hew much, as a member of human soci ety-lefeel myself obliged by your labors to render respectable and advantageous an employment, which is more conge nial to the natural dispositions of man kind than any other."

FROM GIBRALTAR. Arrived yesterday, schooner Industry, capt. Harris, 31 days from Gibraltary, c.pt. H. has furnished us with Gibraltary where to the 21st July, but they and counts from Span and Portugal make o mention of the reported battle be tween the French and Postugues; they however confirm our previous ac counts of the French armies in Spainof the continued and successful incur sions of the Spanish peasantry-and of the increasing hatred which is manifest ed against the French in every quarter.

A.Spanish genderman arrived at Gibral. ear from the environs of Sevule states that the French were attacked rear ou side from the 1st to the 6th of July, by ivisions of Ballesteros and Cepon, with great success; that great numbers of dead and wounded were seen carrying into Seville; and that when he came away, the ficing of camon and musquet The piners #10 ry was the continued sigle, that king Joseph had re urned to Madrid, and had dismissed from his His gua ds all the Spaniards who had been employed about his person.

FROM ALICANT, July 1. There is no news of much importance here, except that the French who were going towards Torrosa, have retired to Lerriu, whose they left a small garrison and sie go e to I stragona; from whence a considerable body of troops have merched, supposed towards Marid, to repair their losses in Castine and N ver This place is putting in a most te spect hie state of detence; and it is though that in a short time the works will se in such a situation as to be able to give the enemy a great deal in do. should they attempt to a tack us, of which there
