

and such as the court was imperiously called upon to visit with a heavy hand.

It was much to be lamented, that a man who had the experience of the defendant, should, after all that passes in life so constantly before his eyes, grow worse; and as he increases in years, increase in malignity. It was also to be lamented, that the numerous examples made of traitors, had no effect upon him; but that knowing the fatal consequence of such conduct, he still perseveres in spreading the poison of most destructive malignity through the nation.

Sentence on William Cobbett. The sentence of the Court is, that you Wm Cobbett, do pay a fine to the King of 1,000l. that you be imprisoned in His Majesty's goal of Newgate for the space of two years; that at the expiration of that period, you enter into recognizance to keep the peace for 7 years, yourself in the sum of 3,000l. and two sureties in the sum of 1,000l. each.

His Lordship then proceeded to pass the sentence of the Court on the other three prisoners:—T. C. Hansard to be imprisoned in the King's Bench prison, three months, and to give security to keep the peace—himself in 400l. and two securities in 200l. each.

Sweden is torn to pieces by intestine evils. The Marshal of the kingdom has fallen a sacrifice to the vengeance of the populace, on a supposition that he abetted the intrigues of France, to place the country under the dominion of Denmark; as the Swedes have the most rooted hatred for the Danes, which nothing can eradicate.

The destiny of Holland is fixed, and it is now doomed to be governed by the military myrmidons of the French chief; to whom, however, the people are expected to give unavailing resistance.

The basis of a cartel for the exchange of prisoners, has been agreed upon. The last dispatch to Mr. Mackenzie communicated to him the terms upon which our government have acceded. This intelligence was brought by Mr. Wye, the Messenger who arrived last night at Malaga.

Letters of the 26th ult. from Gibraltar assert, that the Regency of Cadiz, feeling themselves secure from the attempts of the French to subdue that place, have deemed it expedient to send 5000 men to Algiers, with a view to cut off, if possible, the retreat of the French from the part of the peninsula.

The same letters state, that the inhabitants of Madrid have several times attempted to extricate themselves from the oppression of the French in that city; but owing to the enemy's force being very great, without any kind of success.

The brave general O'Donnell, partly from the severity of his wounds, and partly from disgust has resigned his command. The French had been repulsed in an attack upon Miguenza, and Gen. Dyle left Tarragona with a reinforcement of 2500 men, and a large supply of provisions for that place.

We have received letters from our squadron off Toulon, to the latter end of May. The enemy's fleet had been repeatedly reconnoitred by the Unity frigate, and ascertained to consist of 17 sail on the line, 4 of which were three deckers, and carrying admiral's flags, and apparently ready for sea.

Ship Nixon, Ross, 20 days from Port Lucea, (Jam) with 650 puncheons of rum, and ten hhd's molasses. Left the schr Brothers, Shore, of Philadelphia, under seizure.

The Unity, Voltaire, and Alacrity, were chased off Toulon by two sail of the line and a frigate; but it blew hard at the time, and the enemy soon returned to port, followed by our vessels, who greatly outalled them.

Many foreign papers, and a great number of private letters have arrived, the contents of which, in their substance, will be found in another part of our paper. The principal interest of the foreign papers, are the loose hints which they contain of the active execution of the league between the emperors Francis, Napoleon and Alexander. It is not usual with the foreign editors to speak out upon these heads: the liberty of the press is still more narrow in France than in England, and the government has its eye and its attention every where.

The treaty with the Prince Regent consists of upwards of 70 articles, and is of prodigious length. In one respect, the Portuguese negotiators seem to have misunderstood their interests. Numerous privileges are given to the native ships both of Great Britain and Portugal, but those of Portugal are restricted to such vessels as are built either in Portugal or the Brazils, which limitation does not comprise any more than two-fifths of the shipping property of the Portuguese.

Admiral Somers has received orders to release all the Swedish coasters which he had detained, and henceforth not to molest the Swedish coasting vessels, be their cargoes what they may.

An article from Semlin says, that the Russian envoy had made overtures to the Servian council, for entering into the court of St. Petersburg.
