Intelligence Office. The convenience of such an establishment in a large city like this, can be readily appreciated, from the inconvenience which attends the want of it. Moved by this consideration, the subscriber informs the citizens of Baltimore, that he will immediately open a general Intelligence Office, at the corner of the Fish Market and Marsh Market, in the house lately occupied by George W. Miller, where he will provide himself with means of procuring places for servants, and servants for places; of giving information respecting animals strayed; and of furnishing intelligence relative to rare and unusual articles of merchandise or traffic; together with such other articles of intelligence as interest the farmer coming to market, the citizen resident in town, or the stranger who may come hither by land or water. Terms will be cheap and accommodating. Persons wishing to have their animals branded, may have it done with any letter or letters, on the shortest notice, by NATHAN COBB. June 15

Baltimore County, ss. On application to me the undersigned in the recess of the court as a justice of the sixth judicial district of the state of Maryland, in writing of Abraham Lincoln and Henry Millard, solvent debtors of Baltimore county, stating that they are in actual confinement, and praying the benefit of the act for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms in the said act and supplements prescribed; a schedule of their property, and a list of their creditors, on which, as far as they can ascertain them at present, being annexed to their petition—and being satisfied me by competent testimony, that they have resided in the state of Maryland, for the two years immediately preceding the time of their application; and being both taken the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up their property; and having given sufficient security for their personal appearance at the county court of Baltimore county, to answer such allegations as may be made against them by their creditors. I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said Abraham Lincoln and Henry Millard be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of the order to be inserted in some one of the public newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months successively, before the two next sessions of the court, they give notice to their creditors to appear before the said county court at the court house of said county, on the 17th day of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause if any they have why the said applicants should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements as prayed. Given under my hand, this twenty-fifth day of August, 1810. ZEB HOLLINGSWORTH, esq. Baltimore county, ss.

Baltimore county, ss. On application to the subscriber in the recess of the court, as chief judge of the sixth judicial district of the state of Maryland, by petition in writing of Sater T. Walker of Baltimore county, stating that he is in actual confinement, and praying the benefit of the act of the general assembly of the state of Maryland, entitled, "An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein mentioned, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on which, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said Sater T. Walker having satisfied me by competent testimony, that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland, immediately preceding the time of his application; and the said Sater T. Walker having taken the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property, and giving sufficient security for his personal appearance at the county court of Baltimore county, to answer such allegations as may be made against him; I do therefore appoint Middleton B. Magruder his trustee, and do order and adjudge that the said Sater T. Walker be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the public newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months successively, before the third day of October next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said court, at the court house of said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause, if any they have, why the said Sater T. Walker should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements. Given under my hand this seventh day of June, eighteen hundred and ten. JOSEPH H. NICHOLSON, esq. Baltimore county, ss.
