I have taken a two doses of your Anti-Bilious Pills, and I am quite relieved from that sickness of the stomach, fullness, &c. which has troubled me for so long time. I shall recommend them to all my friends in similar cases.
G. C. COLLINS.
Balt. July 13, 1810.

Messrs. Mich. Lee & Co.
The high opinion I have of your Bilious Pills, and a desire to make known their utility for the benefit of mankind, I wish you to publish the following:
For two months past, I have been afflicted with violent sickness, at the stomach, an inclination to vomit, and loss of appetite—my taking two doses of your Pills, I am restored to a perfect state of health. I wish I could my wife to try them, which was attended with the same good effects, being now able to attend to her domestic concerns. In my opinion, his medicine is unequalled in stomach and bowel complaints, not being attended with that griping pain, common to other medicines.

LEE'S
Worm-Destroying Lozenges.
THIS Medicine, which is as innocent and mild as it is certain and efficacious in its operation, cannot injure the youngest infant, should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain, or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal diseases.
Messrs. Mich. Lee & Co.
Observing that a son, six years of age, was troubled with difficulty in breathing, (soon after frequent rising in his throat) restlessness at night, loss of sleep, &c. From those symptoms I was confident, he had worms, and having procured a box of Lee's Worm-Destroying Lozenges, the first dose expelled twenty-three large worms, which gave him immediate relief—He now enjoys a good state of health, and I believe I can from experience say that Lee's Lozenges are the most efficacious remedy for worms now in use.
THOMAS PETERS,
of the late firm of Peters & Johnson.
Baltimore, July 1, 1810.

Messrs. Mich. Lee & Co.
A child of Mr. Henry Grimes, near Mr. E. Her's hall, was for upwards of 18 months afflicted with sickness, which appeared to proceed from worms, the symptoms were restlessness at night, debility, pain in the legs, loss of sleep, &c. After having the advice of an eminent physician, and trying a variety of medicines without success, the afflicted parents were advised to try Lee's Worm-Destroying Lozenges, which I expelled during the operation of the medicine, a great quantity of large worms, some of which measured 12 inches—the child now enjoys a good state of health.
Baltimore, June 8, 1808.

LEE'S ELIXIR.
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, catarrhs, asthma, sore throats, and approaching consumptions.
Messrs. Mich. Lee & Co.
You are at liberty to use my name in the recommendation of Lee's Elixir, as from repeated trials I have found it an excellent remedy for colds, &c. &c.
RICHARD BARRY
Balt. June 23, 1810.

Messrs. Mich. Lee & Co.
I was attacked with a most violent cold, a severe cough and pain in the breast, which continued to grow worse; during which my appetite failed, and my voice altered so much that it was with the utmost exertion I could pronounce a single sentence louder than my own. Some of my friends having observed to me that my good health could be restored by the use of Lee's Elixir, I procured a bottle from Messrs. Warner and Hanna, which I accordingly did—and to those persons unacquainted with the merits of this medicine, it will appear astonishing that three doses should remove the pains in my breast, and the use of one bottle restored me to perfect health.

LEE'S
Infalible Ague & Fever Drops
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
A person can testify of their being cured by these drops after the bark and Lev. by other medicine has proved ineffectual, and not one in a hundred has had occasion to take more than one, and numbers not a half a bottle.
Messrs. Mich. Lee & Co.
I think it my duty to inform you, that from experience I am convinced your Ague Drops is an infalible remedy. My little son was violently affected with a Ague and Fevers. The advice and attendance of an eminent physician failed—I was next advised to try the quantity air, which also failed, and it appeared to that drew him, impossible for him to recover.—When Mr. George Hays advised me to try Lee's Ague Drops (observing that they had cured him) A bottle was procured and given according to the directions, which effected a speedy cure, and he has not had a return thereof since.

ON application to me the subscriber in the recess of the court as an associate judge of the sixth judicial district of the state of Maryland, by petition in writing of Robert Curtis, of Baltimore county, stating that he is in actual confinement, and praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms in the said act and supplements prescribed; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and having satisfied me by competent testimony, that he has resided in the state of Maryland, for the two years immediately preceding the time of his application; and having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the county court of Baltimore county, to answer such allegations as may be made against him by his creditors:
I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said Robert Curtis be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the public newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months successively, before the twenty-seventh day of October next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court at the court-house of said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of said day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause if any they have why the said applicant should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements as prayed. Given under my hand this ninth day of July, 1810.
