pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion could do.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the intentor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these pilts, taken once every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bisous fevers, will prove an infallible preventative—and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed despectic, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with some hyall persons in every either in a raped to earry off superfluous bile, and prevent its morbid objections—to restore and amond the appetite—produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds, which are often of fatal consequences. HAMILTON'S

Celebrated Worm Destroying Lezenges, Which there is reason to believe, have, within ten years past, cired upward of two hundred thousand persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or founces in the stomach and bowels.

mach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title, so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary, a perticular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is mild in its operation. ration that it cannot require the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the bo dy, but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or oftensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all pross humors and eruptions, feverish and billions complaints, and are the sufest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion

TAPE-WORM. Air. Samuel Fuller, inn-keeper on the Hartford, ten miles from Baltimere, began about 12 months ago, to be grievously afflicted with a tape-worm, which increased fast in size and strength, so as to excite the most horrid sensations by its writhing motions and intolerable pains, resembling the gnawing and tearing of his howels, which deprivcd him of his necessary sleep, and caused such dreadful apprehensions as cannot be described but by one in a similar situation; his appetite decised rapidly, and with that his strength, so that he was unable to attend Mr. Samuel Fuller, inn-keeper on the Hart to any business; when he beard of some excellent cures performed by Hamilton's Worm Lozenges, he took a large doss, which brought away about 4 yards (now in possession of H. Lee); but a rerewal of his pains soon convinced him that this monstrous reptile had recovered its hist vigour. Application was made for more of the medicine, with advice, from which resulted the total expulsion of his formidable enemy, in several pieces, which he suppoped to be six or eight yards more. A few weeks have since elapsed, and Mr. Falter is now in perfect health. The above facts are well known to a numerous circle of his heighbors, and he
