" Art. 1. The du y of fifty per cent. to which colonial produce in Holland is subject, by our imperial decree of the | 9th of July, 1810, is to be paid within the first 15 days of September.

The payments may be made in bonds, with sufficient security, taken for the amount of a third of the duty, at three, at six, and nine months Those who are not disposed to avail themselves of this delay, and who are willing to pay in zuvance, will receive an abatement of one half per cent, per month.

"The duty of fifty per cent. on the value, will be collected according to the schedule annexed to the present decree. They however, who will deliver in their declarations before the 15th August, will pay only forty per cent instead of fif y—that is to say—four of the duty imposed by the taiff.

" Such colonial produce as shall not he declared before the 1st of September, the term fixed by our decree of the 9th July, shall be seized and confiscated. Every proprietor or depository, who shall not have made the prescribed declaration, shall be subject to the payment ever and above of a sum equal to the value of the merchandize."
