Mrs. M. Lee & Co.
I have taken but two doses of your Anti-Bilious Pills, and I am relieved from that sickness of the stomach, giddiness, &c. which has troubled me for so long time. I do recommend them to all my friends in similar cases.

Mrs. M. Lee & Co.
The high opinion I have of your Bilious Pills, and a desire to make known their utility for the benefit of mankind, I wish you to publish the following:
For two months past, I have been afflicted with violent sickness at the stomach, an inclination to vomit, and loss of appetite—by taking two doses of your Pills, I am restored to a perfect state of health, which I ascribed to your Pills, and which was attended with the same good effects, being now able to attend to my domestic concerns. In my opinion, the medicine is established in stomach and bowels, and is not being attended with that griping pain, common to other medicines.

LEE'S
Worm-Destroying Lozenges.
THIS Medicine, which is as innocent and mild as it is certain and efficacious in its operation, cannot injure the youngest infant, and no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping, clear the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal diseases.
Mrs. M. Lee & Co.
My daughter, now six years of age, was troubled with difficulty in breathing, (from thin phlegm rising in her throat) restlessness at night, loss of health, &c. From those symptoms I was convinced she had worms, and having procured a box of Lee's Worm-Destroying Lozenges, she used the same for twenty-three large worms, which gave him immediate relief—he now enjoys a good state of health, and I believe I can no longer experience any that Lee's Lozenges are the most efficacious remedy for worms now in use.
THOMAS PEETERS,
of the late firm of Peters & Johnson.
Baltimore, July 1, 1810.

Mrs. M. Lee & Co.
A child of Mr. Henry Grimes, near Mr. E. Betz's nail factory, was for upwards of 18 months entirely afflicted with sickness, which appeared to proceed from worms, the symptoms were restlessness at night, debility, pains in the legs, loss of flesh, &c. After having the advice of an eminent physician, and trying a variety of medicines without success, the afflicted parents were advised to try Lee's Worm-Destroying Lozenges, which expelled during the operation of the medicine, a great quantity of large worms, some of which measured 12 inches—the child now enjoys a good state of health.
Baltimore, June 8, 1810.
Edward Higgins, South-street, Baltimore, administered Lee's Lozenges to a child of 14 months old—the first of which expelled a worm measuring 20 inches long and near half an inch thick; the second dose expelled another 16 inches long and the same thickness, and a quantity of small worms mixed with slime, &c. The child enjoys a good state of health.

LEE'S ELIXIR.
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, catarrhs, asthma, sore throats, and spitting up consumption.
Mrs. M. Lee & Co.
You are at liberty to use my name in the testimony of Lee's Elixir, as from repeated trials I have found it an excellent remedy for colds, &c.
RICHARD BARRY
Balt. June 24, 1810.
Mrs. M. Lee & Co.
I was at one time with a most violent cold, a severe cough and pain in the breast, which contained a growth of worms, during which my appetite failed, and my voice ceased so much that it was with the utmost exertion I could pronounce a single sentence louder than my breath. Some of my friends had observed to me, that much good had been done by the use of Lee's Elixir, and I procured a bottle from Messrs Warner and Hanna, which I accordingly did—said to those persons acquainted with the merits of this medicine, it will appear a long time that three doses would remove the pain in my breast, and the use of one bottle restored me to perfect health.

LEE'S
Infallible Ague & Fever Drops
For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.
I can testify of their being cured by the use of the Drops after the bark and every other medicine had proved ineffectual, and not only in a hundred cases but also to take more than one, and numbers out a half a bottle.
Mrs. M. Lee & Co.
I think it my duty to inform you, that from experience I am convinced your Ague & Fever Drops is a most efficacious and safe remedy for agues, remittent and intermittent fevers, and the attendance of an eminent physician advised me to try the country, which also failed, and it appeared to all that saw him, impossible for him to recover—When Mr. George Hays advised me to try Lee's Ague Drops (observing that they had cured him.) A bottle was procured and given according to the directions, which effected a speedy cure, and he has not had a return thereof since.

By the simple application of this fluid, night and morning, it will remove the most cancerous and unbecoming scurf in the face. It is perfectly safe, yet powerful, and possesses all the good qualities of the most celebrated cosmetics, without any of their doubtful effects. It is therefore recommended as a certain and efficacious remedy, and a valuable and almost indispensable appendage to the toilet, infinitely superior to the common trash—Creams, Powders, and Milk of Roses—Suffice it however to say, it has been administered to many thousands in the U. A small bottle at 75 cents, will be found sufficient to prove its value.
