

photos coming forward to assert his rights to the throne.

The late convulsion in the mercantile world has given rise to a project of a new Joint Stock Company, with a capital of five millions, under the title of "The Commercial Loan and Interest Company." It is to be divided into three branches.

- 1. The Deposit Branch, for a general accommodation of real property, the profits of which to accumulate at compound interest.
2. Interest Branch, by which persons may deposit small sums, and receive the company's bills bearing interest.
3. Credit Branch, by which subscribers may draw at 183 days, 9 and 12 months date on the company, for three-fourths of the amount of the stock, upon his cognovit to provide for the same 3 days before the period of his bills—by this his capital is to be made active.

The plan has many details; and it is said, that three of the first characters in this city patronize the plan.
NEW SILVER COINAGE.
We are happy to learn, than in addition to ten millions of 5¢ bank dollars which are now stamping by Messrs. Watt & Bolton, a new silver coinage of half crowns, shillings and sixpences, is in a state of great forwardness. When these are issued, those in circulation are to be received at the Bank of England only according to their weight

Aug. 15, half past 7, P.M.
To day we have no arrivals from either France or Holland; but we have some information from the latter, by two Dutch gentlemen who left that country by the last conveyance. It is impossible to express, unless influenced by the same passions, the indignation which the conduct of L'ouparte has excited. The turpitude of Louis has awakened the same feelings; and he is said to have embelozed the sum of 20 millions of ducats, which has been transmitted to Germany.

AUSTRIAN DECREE.
The prohibitory laws interdicting the admission of colonial produce, have not been found sufficient. A new decree has been signed by the emperor, commanding that coffee shall, under no pretence, be received into private houses, or used for domestic consumption; and penalties are enacted on those who shall dare to transgress that mandate.
It is supposed that some relaxation of this decree will be applicable to cases hereafter, where coffee and other colonial produce shall be obtained through the medium of France.

BRITISH ARMY IN PORTUGAL.
The trading ship George has reached Falmouth from Lisbon after a passage of 14 days. A gentleman from that capital has favoured us with some acceptable intelligence. The number of British troops, according to the latest returns, appeared to be 28,000 effective men, not including the 7th regt. which had just arrived from Halifax, and which was composed of remarkably fine seasoned troops. The Portuguese regulars, and even the volunteers, were well clothed, and made a respectable and soldierlike appearance. With general Hill are several native regiments. Some of the Hidalgo who had commanded under him, had been put under arrest, on account of their offensive deportment on one or more occasions, when they manifested less temper and discretion than warmth and courage. The vast embouchure of the Tagus was full of shipping, for the reception and convey of the army, should necessarily require its embarkation. The northern bank was lined with batteries, but the southern shore was destitute of a single gun—and there was none mounted even on the ramparts of Almada, which was constructed to protect the navigation. Just before this person passed the bar, a large transport with convalescents was proceeding up the Tagus, that they might resume active duty in the camp. By the ship to which we have referred, we are favoured with the following communication:—

" LISBON, August 8.
" News of no later date than the 31st has reached us from the army, though we might have had it later by at least a day. You may easily conceive what anxiety we feel. The letters received here communicate no news; and indeed every one seems careful in describing particulars relative to our army "

GLASGOW, August 28.
Letters from Dunkirk of the 13th instant state, that the French government will not grant licenses for the importation of colonial produce until the 2d of November, when it will appear what has been the determination of the British government in consequence of the conditional revocation of the Berlin and Milan decrees—the operation of which will cease (on the terms specified) to have effect the 1st of the same month.

The Dutch have hitherto had a mild and considerate sovereign. Bonaparte is now going to Amsterdam to show them the difference!

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTIONS.
A general election was held yesterday in the different congressional districts for members of the 18th Congress, and in each county and city for members of our House of Delegates.
Such was the apathy or disgust of the people in this (the 5th) district, that they made no nomination. There were however four candidates, two old and two new, self nominated, who had made their grand tour, haranguing the people of the city and county. Many reputable and firm republicans did not vote for members of congress. The following is the result as far as we have learnt:—

Table with 4 columns: WARDS, M'Kim, Barney, Little Moore. Rows 1st to 8th, with numerical data.

Table with 4 columns: WARDS, Blunt, Martin, Stuart. Rows 1st to 8th, with numerical data.

The preceding list furnishes a strong protest against submission, from the citizens of Baltimore—although the moral integrity of Mr. Moore and Mr. M'Kim is undoubted.
We sincerely rejoice at the success of the Assembly ticket. It proves that the people of Baltimore can unite on the shortest notice, in support of a regular nomination.
The following is the return from Murray's:—

It is a sovereign, speedy, and effectual remedy in catarrhs, shortness of breath, tickling in the throat, tightness in the chest, whooping cough, sore throats, wheezings, congealed phlegm, spitting of blood, soreness of the breast and stomach, &c. asthma and consumptions, and all disorders of the breast and lungs.
