THE GOLDEN APOSTLES.

When his Prusian Majesty took pes session of Prague, he was surveying or c of the principal cathedrals, attended by one of the most dignified ecclesiasticks, and perceiving the twelve aposiles in tich geld haltes, he asked he priest what was the value of the giding? "Sir," replied the priest, "they are solid gold." "Gold!" suswered his mojesty, " then the apostles are put to a wrong use, for it was intended by their master they should travel all ever the face of the earth for the publick good, and behold in your church they are all confined, therefore, to foldi their master's orders.
