The Public are now presented with a Scheme of a Lottery, for the rich and abundance of its Prizes, and the public utility contemplated in the application of the money to be raised, is almost without a parallel—2 prizes of 10,000 dollars each, besides 2 of 10,000, 2 of 5,000, &c.

The Managers contemplate a rapid sale of the Tickets—either the prospects of making a fortune by drawing the high prizes, or promoting the completion of a free road to one of the most flourishing cities in the world, will be inducements which they think sufficient to prompt the generosity, or ambition of all who are desirous of wealth, or desirous of travelling on a complete free road to and from the city of Baltimore.

The drawing will be commenced so soon as a sufficient number of tickets are sold to warrant the same.

Tickets will be sold by the Managers, or such persons as they may authorize to sell them.
