Last eventure, wheat half past & ecleck, the Station at the corner of South How-ard and German streets, were discover-ed to be on fire, which is supposed to have originated from the carelesmess of the hostler in leaving a lighted candle in the stable. The fire communicated to the house of Dr. Carrol, fronting on German st. and to a two story frame house on S. Howard, both of which received const-derable damage. We have understood that the horses in escaping from the sta ble, run over several persons, one of whom (a black man) it is said, was kil:-The favorableness of the evening, and the activity of the citizens prevented that extensive row of buildings belong ing Messrs. M'Donald & Ridgely from receiving any i jury.
