CHARLOTTE HALL SCHOOL.

THE Friends and Patrons of this Institution, and the Public in general, are respectfully informed, that the Boarding House belonging to the School, was thoroughly repaired in the month of August last, and that it is now ready to accommodate sixty boarders. From the first day of the ensuing year, it will be under the direction of an experienced steward, Mr. John Kilgour.

The well known salubrity of this place, proceeding from an advantageous situation, pure air, and excellent water has evinced its superiority this year, by withstanding the influence of a season, which proved uncommonly sickly in many parts of the neighbouring counties, and of the state in general. Not one pupil of this school has been confined a single day by sickness—a rare, and perhaps a singular instance.

The sequestered situation of Charlotte Hall, remote from the vicious examples and lures of populous cities and towns; the impossibility of indulging in habits of dissipation and extravagance, and the freedom enjoyed in healthful and manly exercise during the hours of recreation, must render this institution worthy of the serious attention of all parents and guardians, who set a just value on the literary acquirements, health, early habits and morals of youth.

Rates of Boarding and Tuition.

Boarding, (to be paid quarterly in advance, the boarder finding his own bed, &c.)	£ 28 7 6
If not paid regularly in advance	30 17 6
If the steward furnishes a bed, &c. and is regularly paid in advance	31 15 0
If he furnishes a bed, &c. and is not regularly paid in advance	33 17 6
Tuition, per annum	10 10 0
Additional for French	2 10 0

The duties of the Mathematical Department of this School, are ably and diligently discharged by Mr. N. H. SHAW. The assistant teacher in the Classical Department, Mr. A. REEVE, adds uncommon industry to very useful talents.

Insurance against Fire.

The President and Directors of the BALTIMORE

FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

at their Office, No. 12, South-street, continue to make insurance on very moderate terms, not only on buildings and houses of every description, but also on goods, wares and merchandise, contained in any building, and on ships and their cargo lying in port, for any term at the option of applicants.

Goods to an immense amount have lately been imported into this city. How easy is it for the holders of this property to secure to themselves an indemnity for any loss or destruction, that may happen to it by fire, which so frequently occurs, by making insurance on the same? Those persons who may sustain such loss during the winter, will not fall to reproach themselves, if they shall neglect to guard against it by insurance, means the most simple and easy, and suggested to them by every dictate of prudence and foresight.

Persons desirous of making insurance, will be furnished with the forms of application, by calling at the office.

By order, THEOPH'S F. DOUGHERTY, Secretary. coDt

"GIVE US BUT LIGHT."

BALTIMORE:

FRIDAY, NOV. 30, 1810.

The Bill to prevent fraud, brought forward by Mr. Bland, was negatived in the House of Delegates on the 27th instant.

The bill to incorporate a Banking Company at Elkton, (Md.) specifies that the capital stock of the Bank shall consist of three hundred thousand Dollars, divided into six thousand shares of fifty dollars each.

A Bill to assist Thomas Murphey, of Kent county, in establishing a Woollen Factory, by leasing him money, is now before the Assembly, and will most probably be passed. We are glad to find our legislature so willing to second the endeavours of individuals in erecting factories of this kind—and do not think the public money could be put to better use.

James Caldwell and Elias Glenn, Esqrs. are elected directors of the Union Bank of Maryland, on the part of the state.

From the National Intelligencer.

Our navy, although small, is actively useful. We have heard, with great pleasure, of many instances of truly laudable conduct on the part of our navy officers, and of the effectual assistance they have afforded to our merchant vessels in distress.

The active exertions of commodore Rodgers, in assisting several merchant vessels in the harbour of New York, during the late gale of wind, are already known. But for the assistance afforded them by the commodore, it is said several of them would have been inevitably lost.

The following letter addressed to Oliver H. Perry, a lieutenant in the navy, commanding the United States' sch'r the Revenge, will, it is hoped, afford pleasure to our readers.

Savannah, August 10th, 1810.

Sir,—The ship Diana of Wiscasset having arrived at this place in safety, and sailed again upon her destined voyage, we avail ourselves of the opportunity to inform you thereof, and to tender to yourself and to the gentlemen of the squadron in the river St. Mary's, under your command while there, in behalf of ourselves and of Messrs. Moses Carton, junr. and Abiel Wood, junr. owners of said ship, our and their warmest thanks for the zeal and anxiety manifested by you and them for the honour and prosperity of the American flag, evinced in the case of that ship. And we particularly request that this our letter of thanks for the services rendered on that occasion, may make part of your dispatches to the Secretary of the Navy, as an evidence of the high sense we entertain of the readiness evinced to protect the trade and commerce of the country: We should feel a delicacy in requesting you to transmit this to the Navy Department, were you alone the subject of it; but we trust you will not permit your delicacy to withhold it, since it is intended not only as a mark of respect to yourself, but to lieut. Hoyt, to whom we feel much indebted, and to all the other officers whom you had the goodness to permit to aid in restoring that ship to the honour of the American flag.

We cannot close this letter of thanks without availing ourselves of the opportunity to express our admiration of the firmness and decision, properly tempered with moderation, evinced by you, when it seemed probable, from the reports in circulation, that a hostile course might have been adopted against the Diana, then under your protection, (reports which, though then credited, it now appears were ill founded) and of the complete state of preparation, witnessed by the writer of this, in which you constantly held yourself to repel any attack upon the sovereignty of the United States.

We remain, sir,

With great respect,
Your obedient servant,
SAM. & CH. HOWARD.
O. H. PERRY, Esq.
Of the U. S. sch'r Revenge.

[The following biographical sketch of Mr. COOKE is extracted from the Theban Dictionary. This gentleman is now performing in New York, where he meets with the greatest applause and admiration.—Added to his abilities as an actor, he is represented to be a man who in private life, is "the gentleman, the scholar, the friend, the life of every party, an enemy to schand and detraction, and benevolent even to imprudence."]

"GEORGE FREDERICK COOKE, actor, was born in Dublin, 1756, his father being a subaltern in one of the regiments that composed the then garrison. He was brought to London during his infancy, and, when seven years old, was sent to school in the North of England. Here he remained eight years; during which time he imbibed a passion for the stage. His first theatrical attempt was in a private play with his school fellows, when he performed Horatio, being obliged to resign Hamlet, the character he desired, to a senior boy; but his triumph was ample compensation for his disappointment, as Horatio, that night, ran away with all the applause from Hamlet. In 1771, he went to sea, and afterwards was put out to a business; but when he became his own master, he indulged his inclination, and made his first appearance on a public stage in Castello. (The Orphan)—at the Haymarket theatre, for the benefit of Mrs. Massey, with so much success, that he resolved to make it his profession. Accordingly, he joined a provincial company, and, having acquired a competent knowledge of stage business, became the hero at York, New Castle, Chester, Manchester, Liverpool, &c. &c. In 1794, he was engaged by Mr. Daly, the then Dublin manager, where he performed a season with such considerable success, that he repeated his visit in 1797, and remained three years with the new manager, Mr. Jones. Having then received an engagement from Mr. Harris, he made his first appearance at Covent Garden theatre, Oct. 31, 1800, in King Richard III which he repeated several nights, with so much success, that the manager increased his salary, and gave him an early benefit.—His Shylock, Sir Archy M'Sarcasm, Iago, Kitey, Sir Giles Overreach, Macbeth, &c. having given much satisfaction.

This actor, during his theatrical career, has experienced both the frowns and smiles of fortune. The play of Richard the Third was intended for the opening of Covent Garden in the season, 1801; but the deputy manager's letter, which was addressed to Mr. Cooke, at Manchester, apprizing him thereof, was not received in time, in consequence of his departure from that town, and the very night that was announced for his performance at Covent Garden, he played for his own benefit at New Castle, when, in consequence of his exertions, he is said to have broken a blood vessel, which retarded his return to London.—On his re appearance at Covent Garden, he made an apology, which was well received. A kind of rivalry took place between him and Mr. Kemble, then at Drury lane, in the character of Richard, which produced two pamphlets, both partially written, the one in praise of Cooke, and the other of Kemble. Each gentleman has peculiar merit; so had Sheridan, Mossop, Quin, Henderson, Smith, &c. who were also competitors to this part with Garrick. This rivalry, however, has terminated, as Mr. Kemble belongs now to the same theatre, and affairs are so amicably arranged, that Mr. Cooke retains his characters; while at times, both performers frequently play together."

HILLSBOROUGH BANK.

Last Friday came on before the Superior Court at Amherst several suits brought against the ex stockholders of the Hillsborough Bank, by persons who had been kept out of their dues from that bank. Notwithstanding the explicit terms in the bill of charter of the bank, some of the stockholders have presumed to raise objections to either the letter of the bill or its constitutionality, and think to screen themselves from responsibility. The late gov. Smith has been engaged as their counsel, with a fee of one hundred dollars, and will probably lay the whole weight of his influence and his ingenuity against the righteous claims of an injured public. If the whole proceedings of the directors of the Hillsborough bank since its first organization were laid open, a scene of fraud and knavery equal at least to that which has doomed many a culprit to the gallows or state's prison for life, would be developed. Not contented with issuing paper probably to more than ten times the amount of stock originally invested—the directors must have their sworn secrets among themselves—must take as much money as they pleased for the purposes of their own private speculation, extorting from many in low circumstances enormous per centage, some of them without ever having deposited a cent in the bank—while those who had invested their property, and some of whom were directors, were not permitted to know the situation of the bank, or to reap any advantage from their novel management.

It was expected that the discussion of the question would occupy a considerable length of time. The counsel were able on both sides. We cannot anticipate what the decision will be; but we may be permitted to indulge a hope that unprincipled men, even though they be of high degree, may not be above all responsibility, and sport with the property of laborious industry without any remedy to the injured. The house, according to the order of the day, proceeded to the second reading of the bill to subject lands to the payment of debts; and after some amendatory alterations by Mr. Handy and Mr. Dennis, the question was then put, on motion of Mr. Bowie, that the further discussion of said bill be postponed to the 1st day of June next!—and carried—yeas 46—nays 16.

The bill relating to Servants & Slaves, was read the second time and passed.

Mr. Groome delivered a bill to establish a bank and incorporate a company, under the name of the Elkton Bank of Maryland.

Saturday, Nov. 24.

The clerk of the senate delivered the bill authorising Rasin Gale, late sheriff and collector of Kent county, to complete his collection;—the bill authorising Isaac White, late sheriff and collector of Washington county, to complete his collection; and the bill authorising Daniel Ballard late sheriff of Somerset county, to complete his collection; severally endorsed "will not pass." The bill to lay out and make a public road in Anne Arundel county; and the bill for the benefit of the infant children of J. W. Perry, of Montgomery county, deceased, endorsed "will pass with the proposed amendments;" read, agreed to, and ordered to be engrossed. A bill to authorise the sheriffs and collectors of the several counties of this state to complete their collections, endorsed, "will pass."

On motion of Mr. Herbert, leave given to bring in a bill to provide arms for the use of the militia of this state; Messrs. Herbert, Wilson, Perry, Bowles and Groome, were appointed a committee to prepare and bring in the same.

Mr. Perry delivered a report of the visitors of Allegany county school, praying a further donation; referred to a committee appointed to bring in a bill for establishing schools.

On motion by T. B. Hall, the following order was read and agreed to,—viz. that the speaker, upon application, issue subpoenas for any witness which Z. Hollingsworth and T. Jones, esquires, may consider necessary for their defence, and that such subpoenas be made returnable on the 10th December next.

The further supplement to the act, entitled an act for amending and reducing into system, the laws and regulations concerning last wills and testaments; the duties of executors, administrators and guardians, and the rights of orphans, and other representatives of deceased persons,—was read the second time.—After several alterations and considerable discussion, the question was put "shall the said bill pass?" Determined in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Bowie, ordered that the clerk of this house forward immediately to the clerks of Baltimore and Harford county courts, a copy of the order requiring them to forward extracts under seal, from their records, respecting the facts stated in said order; and that he also forward to Z. Hollingsworth and T. Jones, esquires, a copy of the order authorising the speaker of the house to issue subpoenas in the case therein mentioned.

From the Evening Post.

A CARD.

A citizen who, for what he supposes a sufficient reason, is not a member of any fire company, would respectfully recommend to the Ladies of Baltimore, to have candles placed in their windows fronting the streets, if fire is proclaimed in the night, unless a bright moon should make it unnecessary. This is peculiarly necessary in the neighbourhood of a fire as well as in all populous parts of the city at the commencement of one, so that our skilful firemen may not be impeded in their efforts to suppress the calamity.

The printers of other papers are politely requested to give place to the above.

Capital Prizes.—No. 12875, which came out the Capital Prize of 12000 dollars on Tuesday last, the 13th day of Drawing of the Philadelphia Vineyard Lottery.—No. 7429, a Prize of 2000 dollars, first day—No. 1356, Prize of 1000 dollars, sixth day—and No. 17907, Prize of 1000 dollars, eighth day, were all sold at G. & R. Waite's truly fortunate Lottery Office.

* The fortunate holders of the above tickets may, at a very moderate discount, receive the cash for them immediately, by calling at either of Waite's offices in New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore.

NEW-YORK, Nov. 24.

LATEST FROM CADIZ.

Captain Wilson, of the ship Charles and Harriet, informs us, that on the 18th of October; at midnight, a colonel of the British forces arrived at Lisbon express, with dispatches from Lord Wellington to Lord Wellesley, giving an account of the defeat of Massena's army in Portugal about the 9th; in consequence of which Cadiz was all alive, and on the 19th a general salute took place, beginning at Isla, which is head quarters, and where the grand cortes is held, and so to Puntal and the city of Cadiz.

The Spaniards and French exchange a few shot and shells daily, but without doing any injury. The former have lately been successful in Catalonia.

Admiral Keats, in the Millford of 74 guns, commands at Cadiz Bay; and Gen. Graham is at the head of the British land forces.

Captain Johnson of Philadelphia, and captain Smith of New York, had just arrived at Cadiz from San Lucar, where their vessels and cargoes had been condemned by the French.

[Mr. Jarvis, the American consul, who has arrived at Osson, left Lisbon on the 20th of October, at which time it was not publicly known that accounts of a negotiation had been received there.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.

The sch'r Eclipse sailed from Smyrna the 16th of Sept. and the Castle the 17th, in company with the brig Expectation, captain Kitts, with whom we parted on the night of the 20th off Corigo. On the morning of the 24th, about a league to the westward of Malta, experienced a hurricane, which blew with great violence for an hour. 28th, fell in with the armed ship Lewis, Laurence, of Boston, from Smyrna for Liverpool, with whom we kept company 10 days. Capt. Laurence informed us that on the 20th Sept. he spoke a brig 4 days from Malta, the captain of which informed him, that by the most recent accounts from Sicily, the French had not landed on that island, but were waiting for a favorable opportunity with a large force on the Calabrian shore, say 70,000 men. On the morning of the 8th of October, the rock of Gibraltar being in sight, made sail and left said ship; at the same time discovered several vessels ahead, standing up the Mediterranean, which appeared to be a convoy; at the meridian, one of the ships, a frigate, gave chase to us, and at four miles distance or upwards, fired several shot, but observing she did not near us, we stood on, and she hauled on a wind for the convoy. On the morning of the 10th of October, off Cape Sparte, fell in with a British frigate, who after coming within half a mile of us, bore away without speaking, apparently for Cadiz.

About the 1st of August, 4000 Janissaries with the Governor of Smyrna at their head, left that city and neighbourhood to join the army of the Grand Seigneur which had previously marched from Constantinople to oppose the Russians, said then to be within 200 miles of that city. News was some time afterwards received at Smyrna, that the two armies had met, and, that the Russians received a check. Nothing further of the campaign when I left Smyrna.

Left at Smyrna the armed ship Roxana, capt. N. W. Skillings, of Boston, to sail in 4 days for Malta, and from thence to a port in England. Also the brig Jane & Maria, Moore, loaded principally with wine for Boston, to sail with the Roxana, and a ship under American colors called the Cincinnati, loaded with wine for the north of Europe.

The Expectation and Eclipse, were the only vessels when we left Smyrna, which had sailed from thence this season for the United States—and we left none there then bound home, except the brig Jane & Maria above mentioned. On the 15 inst, in long 70 W. spoke the brig Warren, 61 days from Leghorn, bound to Boston.

Married, on Wednesday evening last by the Rev. Dr. Roberts, Mr. Pitt E. Bowen, to Miss Mary Bailey, both of this city.

Left the Halize the 1st Nov.—This completes the fourth voyage the Clifton has made within the last 12 months. Nov. 11, lat 24 45, off the coast of Florida, spoke ship Indian Hunter, of New York, 35 days from Belfast for New Orleans; informed us that the same day they had spoke a brig from Havana for Philadelphia, who had on board the crew of the brig Passenger of New York, (lost.)—20th lat 32, long 77, spoke ship Navigator of New York, 2 days from Charleston for Liverpool. 21st, off Hatters, ship Pennsylvania, from Philadelphia for Charleston. 25th, lat 35 46, ship Georgiana, Chamberlain, 41 days from Norfolk for Bristol.
