CHARLOTTE HALL SCHOOL.
THE Friends and Patrons of this Institution, and the Public in general, are respectfully informed, that the Boarding House belonging to the School, was thoroughly repaired in the month of August last, and that it is now ready to accommodate sixty boarders.
From the first day of the ensuing year, it will be under the direction of an experienced steward, Mr. John Kilgour.
The well known salubrity of this place, proceeding from an advantageous situation, pure air, and excellent water has evinced its superiority this year, by withdrawing the influence of a season, which proved uncommonly sickly
in many parts of the neighbouring counties, and of the state in general. Not one pupil of this school has been confined a single day
by sickness—a rare, and perhaps a singular instance.
The sequestered situation of Charlotte Hall, remote from the vicious examples and lures of populous cities and towns; the impossibility of indulging in habits of dissipation and extravagance, and the freedom enjoyed in healthful and manly exercise during the hours of recreation, must render this institution worthy of the serious attention of all parents and guardians, who set a just value on the literary acquirements, health, and habits and morals of youth.
Rates of Boarding and Tuition.
Board n^o. (to be paid quarterly in advance, the boarder finding his own bed, &c.) $28 7 6

The duties of the Mathematical Department of this School, are ably and diligently discharged by Mr. N. H. SHAW. The assistant teacher in the Classical Department, Mr. A.
RACON, adds uncommon industry to very useful talents.

THE WHIG.
"GIVE US BUT LIGHT."
BALTIMORE:
MONDAY, DEC. 3, 1810.

The Vice-President has arrived at the seat of government, as also Mr. Morier, the British charge des affaires.—Not more than ten or twelve members of congress are stated by the National Intelligencer to have reached Washington on the 1st instant—It will probably be two or three days before a quorum is formed.

Three hundred dollars have been remitted to Charleston, for the benefit of the sufferers by the late fire, by Messrs. Warren & Wood of the Baltimore and Philadelphia Theatres—a part of which was contributed from their private funds.

The census of the city and county of New-York, was on the 27th ult. returned to the corporation, by which it appears, that its population amounts to very nearly 94,000, making an increase of upwards of 20,000 inhabitants within five years.

With peculiar satisfaction we comply with the request of our correspondent to publish such passages from the prospectus of Mr. Walsh's "American Review," as will be most likely to exhibit the author and his work in their proper colors before the public. Had he not an overstock of impudence and egotism, he surely would not insult the American people, and solicit their patronage in the same breath. Hear what he says in speaking of his intended Journal:

"The sound doctrines and the elevated sentiments of which it may be made the receptacle, and which, together with the habits of profound investigation and rich fund of political science, belong to so many individuals in this country, may serve to convince the world that it is to ceases merely accidental that we owe the coarse texture of our legislative bodies, and the abject spirit of our administration."

After stating that in Europe, the most eminent men "co-operate ambitiously in Journals of this nature," he proceeds:

"The illustrious example just quoted should be here imitated by those whose proper stations in our political world have been usurped by the most incapable and contemptible men that ever presumed to be ambitious; by men who are no less devoid of the accomplishments of liberal and useful science than of all the distinguishing qualifications of real statesmen;—who are not the guides but the instruments of the people;—who are at once the shame and the scourge of their country."

And is it possible that this man, who can thus trample upon truth—who can thus become the miserable trumpeter of a disgraceful faction—can expect to receive the countenance and support of a single American. We shall indeed be surprised if the author and his work do not both sink into their original insignificance and obscurity.

FOR THE WHIG.
Messrs. Irvine & Barnes,
I have just finished the prospectus of a work, to be entitled "The American Review of History and Politics, and General Repository of Literature and State Papers"—to be conducted by Robert Walsh, Junr. whose Book on the Genius and Spirit of the French Government, has already rendered him contemptible in the eyes of all men of reflection and judgment.—This work is professedly commenced for the "propagation of sound political doctrines"—but the style of the prospectus shows that it is instituted from different motives and upon different principles. The author who appears to have prostituted his genius to the views of the disaffected British party in this country, takes frequent occasion to condemn in the most coarse, vulgar style, the present administration—and, (as is commonly the case with men who wish to make their productions more plausible by hypocrisy) he eulogises Washington and his administration. We have seen Washington's name too often prostituted to the vile purposes, not to be guarded against insidious sycophants.
This man expects by his talents to raise the literary character of the American people—what, by defaming and vilifying their government? I trust the public judgment will convince this self-imagined prodigy of literature, that his exertions against the present republican system of government, must sink him into contempt and oblivion.
It might be well to publish a few extracts from the prospectus, in order that the public might not too precipitately afford encouragement to a work, which, after investigating, they must condemn—for this purpose, I enclose you a copy, from which you can select such passages as your own judgment may suggest.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.
(EXTRACTS.)

TUESDAY, November 27.
Mr. Randall delivered a bill, entitled a further supplement to an act to incorporate companies to make several turnpike roads through Baltimore county.

Mr. Comegys delivered a bill entitled an act to tax Bank Stock and other monied institutions for the establishment and support of district schools in the several counties of this state, and in the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis.

On motion of Mr. Warfield leave given to bring in a bill to regulate and confine the duties of constables.

On motion of Mr. T. B. Hall the following order was read and agreed to: "Whereas it is requested by Z. Hollingsworth, Esq. that commissioners be appointed to take the depositions of certain witnesses who are unable to attend at the bar of the house; and therefore, Ordered, that John Gill, notary public of the city of Baltimore, Unit Angier of Kent county, and John Moores of Harford county, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners with full power to examine and take the depositions on oath or affirmation of any witnesses who may be brought before them, or either of them, on the part of the said Zebulon Hollingsworth, Esq. or of this house; and the deposition so taken, to be by them, or some one of them, certified and transmitted to this house on or before the 10th of December.

The bill to confirm an act passed at November session 1809, to alter all such parts of the Constitution as make it lawful to lay an equal and general tax for the support of the Christian religion, was read the second time and passed.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 28
On motion of Mr. Bland, leave given to bring in a bill to revive an act to lay out and establish a turnpike road from the city of Washington to that of Baltimore—referred to Messrs. Bland, Warfield and Marriot.

The house proceeded to ballot for two Directors in the Union Bank of Maryland, and on counting the ballots it appeared that James Caldwell and Elias Glenn were elected.
THURSDAY, Nov. 29.
The house proceeded to the second reading of the bill to establish a bank and incorporate a company, under the name of the "Elkton Bank of Maryland"—and on the question being taken, shall the said bill pass? it was determined in the affirmative—yeas 55, nays 10.
Mr. Bland delivered a petition from the Athenian Society of Baltimore, praying to be incorporated—referred to Messrs. Bland, Harryman and Randall.
On motion by Mr. Archer, the following order was read and assented to:—Ordered, that the Speaker issue subpoenas for Wm. H. Winder, R. G. Harper and Walter Dorsey, to give testimony on the part of this house against Z. Hollingsworth and Thomas Jones, esqrs.—which subpoenas shall be made returnable on the 10th day of December next.
Extraordinary instance of Abstinence.
The following extraordinary instance of abstinence has recently occurred at Chelmsford, in Essex.—On the 4th of September last, James Jackson was committed to the House of Correction at that place as a vagrant. For the first five days after his commitment he was not observed to take any substance whatever, nor was he once observed to open his eyes. On the 6th day he walked in the prison yard and drank plentifully of water at the pump, and continued to do so till the 17th, but constantly refused to take any kind of food whatever, and from the seventeenth day of his confinement to his death, which happened on Tuesday last, he even discontinued taking water. The constable, in whose custody he was for three days previous to his being committed to the House of Correction, states, that during that time he took nothing but one pint of beer, so that it appears that from the 1st of Sept. to the 2d Oct. the day on which he died, he took no other nourishment but one pint of beer, except water, of which it is stated he drank plentifully during twelve days of the time he was in prison. (London paper.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.

On Monday last, the 26th inst. the Tammany Society, or Columbian Order, in commemoration of the 27th anniversary of the evacuation of this city by the British troops, met to celebrate that great event, in their Great Wigwam, No. 1.

After going through the ordinary business of the day, the society partook of an excellent entertainment provided for them on the occasion by brother Marling; at which the following toasts were drank, interspersed with music

1. The day we celebrate—While it brings to our recollection the extreme sufferings of our countrymen, our memories are furnished with their unexampled virtues in the cause of liberty, which secured our happy independence.—Song, Lithoe.

2. The departed heroes of the revolution. Monuments are vain, they live in the bosoms of the free. Song, the death of Warren.

3. Thomas Jefferson—While liberty survives, his deeds will retain a place in the hearts of freemen. He planned the campaign, and conquered a new world to liberty without the effusion of blood. 3 cheers.—Song, Free Commerce.

4. James Madison—His talents and integrity have confirmed the wisdom of the people's choice. 6 cheers. Song, Hail Great Republic.

5. General George Washington, the father of his country.—Hypocrites and apostates have removed the crape from his urn, and covered from their view his farewell address. It exhorts to union, and they have already traced the line of separation on the bosom of the Hudson.

6. The United States of America and the connected territory of Louisiana—May their union be eternal, and their liberties endure forever. 6 cheers.

7. The State of New York, and Daniel D. Tompkins its Governor—May he never flinch in the day of trial—Great applause—6 cheers.

8. The Vice President of the United States, and the republican members of both Houses of Congress—The pillars of a great and growing republic; our prosperity, at this eventful period, greatly depends on their magnanimity, firmness and republican virtues. 3 cheers.

9. South America—"To be free, it is only necessary that a nation will.—3 cheers. Song, War Band.

10. A well trained Militia—The only safe and legitimate defenders of any country. 3 cheers. Song, Capture of Cornwallis.

11. General John Starke—crowned with honor; adorned with all the virtues of a republican, a citizen, and a soldier; in worth surpassing a pyramid of gold, and high in the estimation of his countrymen. 6 cheers.

12. The Loom and the Shuttle—More terrible to the British Lion than all the floating castles in the universe. 9 cheers. Song, Friendship.

13. Torpedo—May that little child of science, the spring of an American artist, teach hostile powers a lesson of prudence. Achilles' spear vanishes when compared to that production of mechanism. 3 cheers. Yankee Doodle.

14. American Tars—Intrepid, generous, and brave—May they always meet a liberal support by their employers, and the constant protection of their country. 3 cheers.—Song, Jolly Tars.

15. John Bull—He is at length caught by the horns, and nothing will do now, but a free commerce or a bull baiting. 9 cheers.—Song, Whip—O—Well.

16. The Brotherhood of Tammany—Their chain of union increases, and every link continues strong and bright.—17 cheers.—Song, Alphabet.

17. Our Squaws and Papposes—Our Wigwams and Cowfields—May they all be protected, and receive the smiles of the Great Spirit.—9 cheers.

VOLUNTEERS.
By the Grand Sachem—The soldiers of the revolution, who by their firmness, perseverance and valor, after a long and arduous contest, forced the British troops to abandon our shores, and thereby secured to us Liberty and Independence—May we be always ready to defend what they have so nobly obtained.
By Major McClure—General Armstrong—The American Achilles, not vulnerable even in the heel.
Music—"The bonny bold Soder." By the Father. France and England. The croaking of the Frog, and the roaring of the Bull, can never frighten the Eagle of Freedom.
By a Brother. Political apostates, whose philanthropy never extended beyond dear self—May they be disappointed in their attempts to divide the unsuspecting and credulous part of the great republican family.
By Jacob Frank. The memory of Patrick Henry—The American Demosthenes. Music—Mass is Man, and who is more.
By Brother Conlin.—Thomas Paine—The undaunted assorter of the Rights of Man.
