Fifty Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, living three miles from Hagerstown, Washington county, Maryland, on Saturday the 20th of October last, a Negro Man named JOE, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, between 35 and 40 years of age, a stout well made fellow, walks very straight, smile a little when spoken to; he is an artful fellow, and plays the fiddle extremely well and is very fond of it. He went off in company with a Negro fellow, by the name of Harry, who was hired to Peter, Michael and Daniel Malott, of said county. I expect he will endeavor to pass for a free man, and make for the state of Pennsylvania. He is somewhat of a yellowish cast, has a sharp nose, his hair is rubbed off on the top of his head about the size of a dollar, and has large whiskers. He was raised in St. Mary's county, Md. Had on when he went away, a blue cloth coat half worn, one pair black velvet pantaloons, one pair olive corduroy ditto, one black satin waistcoat, one black velvet ditto, one white Marcellite ditto, one coarse shirt and one fine, a dark mixt cloth surtout about half worn, three white cambrick handkerchiefs, one black silk ditto, one blue silk ditto, with white spots; one pair white and one pair black stockings, a pair of boots newly bottomed, one pair of fine shoes, and a new black fur hat. Whoever takes up and secures said slave, so that the subscriber may get him again, shall have, if taken in the county, Ten Dollars, and if taken out of the county and confined in any jail, the above reward.

Tickets will be sold by the Managers, or such persons as they may authorize to sell them.

The subscriber respectfully informs his friends, and the public generally, that he has re-commenced and intends carrying on the WEAVING BUSINESS, at his manufactory near Market-street bridge, in Ploughman-st. where Weaving of the following descriptions will be executed with neatness and dispatch, to wit:—Common Carpets, without a seam, large enough for any floor; Diaper, double or single; Bed Covers; Counterpanes; Towels of every description; and all kinds of Linen, Cotton or Woollen Cloth, or any pattern of Bed Ticks. A number of the inhabitants of the city and county of Baltimore being so well acquainted with the abilities of the subscriber in the above line of his profession, he declines it unnecessary to trouble them further than to pledge himself that every exertion shall be used to give entire satisfaction, to those who may be pleased to favour him with their commands; and he flatters himself that from his knowledge of the business, his attention and close application to expedite all orders he may receive, to merit the approbation of a generous public.

CITY OF ROME.

Extract from the report of the commissioners appointed to lay out and survey the plot contemplated to be called the "CITY OF ROME"

At a meeting of the counsellors of the City of Rome, held in the city of Philadelphia, the 30th of October, 1810, the following extract from the report of the commissioners, was ordered to be published in two or more newspapers of the said city.

"The commissioners report, that agreeably to the order of the counsellors, they have proceeded to the city of Rome, where they arrived on the 21st day of October, 1810, and on that day fixed upon the site and marked the most eligible spot for and determined the course which the streets are to run. They have measured the distance from the bridge across the Lehigh on the turnpike leading to Wilkesbarre, and found the distance from said bridge to the centre of said city of Rome, called Union Square, to be five miles. Said bridge is about 100 miles from the city of Philadelphia, and 17 miles and an half from Wilkesbarre, on the east side of the Susquehanna. The centre of Union Square aforesaid, is situated on a gentle rise of ground, gradually elevated a few feet above the adjoining squares. The quality of the land contained in the plan of the city of Rome, throughout the whole extent, appears to be excellent, abounding with streams of wholesome water, the principal of which is called "Trout Creek," which affords water sufficient to turn mills of any description. The timber is valuable, consisting of Sugar Maple, Black Cherry, Black Birch, White Ash, Spruce and Beech.

The road (which is now engaged to be cut from the turnpike to Union Square), is surveyed through a pleasant tract of country, and a survveyor is now engaged to lay out all the streets.

Persons in the different mercantile branches of business, disposed to retire from the city of
