

Mr. Mitchel presented the petition of sundry manufacturers of salt in Tyoga county, N. Y. praying to be relieved from paying the duty on 25 salt pangs imported from Liverpool, for the use of their manufactory. Referred to the committee of Commerce and Manufactures.

Some debate was had on the bill suspending for three years longer a part of the act regulating foreign coins; it was not passed but ordered to lie on the table.

The house was occupied some time with the bill for fixing the ratio of representatives, according to the late census; but nothing was finally decided on.

The bill relative to foreign coins was also some time under discussion; but the house adjourned without coming to any decision.—(1 o'clock.

DOCUMENTS, ACCOMPANYING THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

MR. PINKNEY TO MR. SMITH London, April 8, 1810.

SIR, In a short letter of the 2d instant, by Mr. John Wallace, in the British packet, I had the honour to acknowledge the receipt, on the 31st of last month, (by Dr. Logan) of your letters of the 20th of January and the 16th of February, and to inform you, that I had, in consequence, an appointment to meet Lord Wellesley on the third.

At the interview that took place in pursuance of that appointment, I explained to Lord Wellesley the nature of the powers now confided to me, and, as far as was necessary, the subjects to which they related. The result of the conversation which ensued, was an understanding, that we should begin with an attempt to settle the affair of the Chesapeake, and that attempt being successful, that we should proceed to consider next the subject of the orders in council, and lastly, the commercial and other concerns, embraced by the commission of 1806, to Mr. Monroe and myself.

In conformity with this understanding, it was agreed, that I should immediately follow the conference with a note, stating my authority to adjust with the British government the case of the Chesapeake; and I have accordingly prepared and sent to Lord Wellesley the letter, of which a copy is inclosed. I have not since heard from his lordship, to whom, of course, it now belongs to make proposals.

It will not, I trust, be thought, that my letter, which is simply an official notification, in civil terms, of my power to receive and act upon such overtures, as this government may choose to make, goes too far.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. (Signed) WM. PINKNEY. P. S. April 19th. I have just received from Lord Wellesley a note, of which a copy is inclosed, inviting me to a conference on Thursday next, (the 12) doubtless on the affair of the Chesapeake.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. (Signed) WM. PINKNEY. MR. PINKNEY TO LORD WELLESLEY. Great Cumberland Place. (Without date.)

MY LORD—I have the honor to state to your lordship, in conformity with my verbal explanation in a recent reference, that I am authorised to adjust with his majesty's government, the case of the attack on the American frigate Chesapeake, in the month of June, 1807, by the British ship, the Leopard.

It will give me sincere pleasure to communicate with your lordship on this interesting subject, in such a manner, as shall be thought best calculated to lead to a fair and honorable arrangement of it, preparatory to the restoration of kindness and beneficial intercourse between the two countries.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. (Signed) WM. PINKNEY. LORD WELLESLEY TO MR. PINKNEY. The marquis Wellesley presents his compliments to Mr. Pinkney, and will be happy to have the honor of seeing him, at the Foreign Office, Thursday next, at 2, P. M. if that hour should suit his convenience.

Foreign Office, April 10, 1810. MR. PINKNEY TO MR. SMITH. London, April 9, 1810. DEAR SIR, I have, upon full reflection, thought it necessary to prepare a letter to Lord Wellesley, reciting the French minister's official statement to general Armstrong, of the conditions, on which the Berlin decree would be recalled; and inquiring whether there exists any objection, on the part of the British government, to a revocation (or to a precise declaration that they are no longer in force,) of the blockade of May, 1806, and of that of Venice, especially the former. As to the answer to this letter (upon which I wish to converse with Lord Wellesley before I deliver it) will not probably be very prompt. I have, in the mean time, sent Mr. Lee to Paris, with two letters to general Armstrong, of which copies are enclosed.

at an end; being merged and comprehended in an order in council, issued after the date of the edict of Berlin.—I am, however, about to obtain a formal revocation of that blockade, (and that of Venice) or, at least, a precise declaration, that they are not in force. A it will not be possible to obtain under the one or the other very soon, (if indeed they can be obtained at all.) I will not not detain Mr. Lee, but will send another messenger, (Mr. Craig, of Philadelphia) in the course of three or four weeks, with the result of my endeavors. In the mean time, such use can be made of my communication, of the 27th ultimo, as you may deem advisable.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. (Signed) WM. PINKNEY. Gen. John Armstrong, &c. &c.

MR. PINKNEY TO MR. SMITH. London, 2d May, 1810. SIR, I had the honor to inform you in my letter of the 9th of last month, that I had, upon full reflection, thought it necessary to prepare a letter to Lord Wellesley, reciting the French minister's official statement to general Armstrong, of the conditions, on which the Berlin decree should be recalled, and enquiring whether there exists any objection on the part of the British government, to a revocation, or to a precise declaration that they are no longer in force, of the blockade of May, 1806, and of that of Venice, especially the former.

I have now the honor to transmit a copy of the letter, which, in pursuance of that determination, I have just sent to Lord Wellesley. I am not able to say, what will be the nature of the answer to it; but, if it should be satisfactory, I will lose no time in communicating it to general Armstrong.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. (Signed) WM. PINKNEY. Hon. Robt. Smith, &c. &c. MR. PINKNEY TO LORD WELLESLEY. Great Cumberland Place, 5th April, 1810.

MY LORD, The French minister for foreign affairs has stated, in an official note to general Armstrong, the minister plenipotentiary of the United States at Paris, that "the only condition, required for the revocation, by the French government, of the decree of Berlin, will be the previous revocation, by the British government, of her blockades of France, or part of France, (such as that from the Elbe to Brest, &c.) of a date anterior to the date of the aforesaid decree."

I had supposed, that the blockades of France, instituted by Great Britain before the date of the Berlin Decree, were already withdrawn, virtually, though not formally, by reason of the restrictions, which they established, having been provided for and comprehended in certain orders in council, issued after the date of that decree; and your lordship's letter to me, of the 26th of last month, certainly seems to confirm that supposition, with regard to the blockade of May, 1806, although it proves to be erroneous with regard to the only other blockade, which falls within the description of the French minister's communication, namely, the blockade of Venice, established in July of the same year.

As I am anxious to neglect nothing, which may have a tendency to produce the repeal of the Berlin Decree, and of such other decrees and orders, as the government of the United States has, from time to time, complained of, I beg to inquire of your lordship, with a view to the terms of the abovementioned note to general Armstrong, whether there exists any objection, on the part of his majesty's government, to a revocation, or to a declaration that they are no longer in force, of the blockades in question, especially that of May, 1803.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. (Signed) WM. PINKNEY. The most noble the Marquis Wellesley, &c. &c. MR. PINKNEY TO MR. SMITH. London, May 3, 1810.

SIR, I enclose a copy of a letter which I am about to send to Lord Wellesley, concerning the forgery in England of American ships' papers, for the purpose of giving to English vessels the character of American bottoms.

In conformity with your letter of the 3d of November last, which came to hand on the 10th of January, I mentioned the subject to Lord Wellesley, as soon as I thought it expedient to do so. He gave no opinion upon it; but when I observed that it would perhaps be better to lay the matter before him at once in writing, he expressed his approbation of that course. As there is nothing in the subject itself, or in your letter, to forbid it, I shall send him my paper to-day or to-morrow.

I have the honor to be, &c. &c. (Signed) WM. PINKNEY. PORT OF BALTIMORE. From the Merchants' Coffee-House Books. CLEARED, December 11.
