Balto. July 29th, 1840. MR. JAMES M. HAINES-Halisa de denti dia My Dear Sir:

I presume before this reaches you that you have been made acquainted with the fact, that I some two or three weeks ago sold out my interest in the store occupied by me, to Wylie & Welson. I have opened again in the same place and have associated with me in business my Brotherin law Win. Clarke. Enclosed you wil' please find our card. I would here say to you that should you want any thing in our line we will be pleased to sell you. I understood that you were somewhat out of humour with me about something that I should have said, but when I see you personally I am satisfied that such a thing cannot be established. However I have as much respect for you as ever I had, and would do as much to serve you. I have no disposition to be at expected. No discrimination can be made by variance with any man, it is not my principle, and as the executor; and in every case of default-suit I before said, if the whole story was fully sifted up, it could not be established that I said so. The report JOSEPH I originated from what the officers said. If you want any thing in our line send your order. Resp

M'DOUGALL & CLARKE,

57, S. Calvert st. Now you perceive from the loregoing letter, that Mr. M'Dougall positively denies having said any thing derogatory to my character in any respect; but says the report originated from what the officers said, he means the Police officers, they observed "that it was very strange it I had los, my money in Balt., that they could not find it." We all acknowledge that they are a very vigilent set of men; but not always successful in their efforts to obtain lost or stolen property, there fore, that could not be any evidence that I did not loose my money. Then you perceive, that the foun dation upon which this report rests, is what the officers said, according to what Mr. M'Dougall says in his letter.

And now, all I have to say is, that if there shall have been any prejudicial impressions made upon the mind of any person, or persons respecting me, from any thing that may have been said about me, or my business transactions in Cambridge, or elsewhere -I am perfectly willing, that either my friends, or my onemies, or both, if they see proper, should enter into a minute examination of the whole, for their own per sonal satisfaction. And I conscientiously believe that they will find upon the closest inquiry that I have ac ted according to the rules of justice in all things, as far as it was possible so to do, "my enemies themseives being judges." And if I have failed to comply with any of my promises in business matters, it was because I was disappointed by others, or was surrounded by uncontrolable circumstances, which prevented me from doing so. And I sincerely depricate the evil, and ask forgiveness in all such cases, as it was not my intention in any instance to deceive. And further, if it be necessary I can furnish testimonials of character, and standing in society from gentlemen of high standing, in Maryland, Delaware, and Pennsylvania, that have known me (some of them) from my childhood. And in view of the whole matter, let me say, that if any of my fellow-citizens of Cambridge, shall have departed from that golden rule of the Gospel, "doing unto others as they would that others siguid do unto them? by saying, or doing any thing that was calculated to injure me in any respect, I forgive them, and humbly pray that God may forgive them, who will soon try the hearts of all men. And though I have been unfortunate, and have saffered much in mind, on account of the various false reports that have been put into circulation by different ones, I hope yet by the blessings of God, to survive all my misfortunes, and troublesand see better days.

In addition to the aforegoing letter of Mr. M'Dougall I have been advised to publish the following affidavit of my sister Rebecca H. Haines, having been informed that some have doubted whether I had th sum of money which I announced that I lost.

Maryland, Dorchester County, set: Be it remembered and it is hereby certified that on this 16th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, before me the subscriber one of the State of Maryland's Justices of the Peace in and for the County aforesaid, personally appears Rebecca H. Hames of the County and State aforesaid, and makes outh on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that during the month of April last (she thinks the 2nd. of April) she was in the apartment of her brother James M. Hames at the residence of his Father, in the town of Cambridge,—when he was making his arrangements preparatory to his leaving for the cities to purchase goods and that he had with him in his apartment a large sum of money amounting as he stated to her to be some twenty one hundred dellars, and that she the said Rebecca H Hames assisted her said brother in counting the said money-that she counted herself the sum of five hundred dollars in bank notes, and also one hundred dollars in specie, both of which last mentioned sums of money as also that which was counted by her brother the herself placed in the trunk of her said brother, e specie being in a short bag and the bank notes in his procket-book.) The said Rebecca il. Haines further makes outh that since her brother's return from Bal o., he has been in deep dis ress of mind in consequence of Nie loss which he stated he met with in that cny, and that he has ever since to her certain knowl edge been much straightened for money to meet the pressing demands of his creditors. HEAD QUARTERS, 12th Brigate 2d Division M. M. Easton, July 24th, 1846.

NOR the purpose of making the necessary arrange ments for the equipment and discipline of the Volunteer Companies which are now organized in the 12th Brigade, it is desirable to ascertain at the earliest period the precise number-location, and description of said companies. The commanding officers of Re giment and Battalions and the Captains who have been elected to command such companies, will therefore make an immediate report to the Brigadier General, of every Volunteer Company in which it has been positively ascertained that there will be at least 32 men in uniform rank and file.

These reports will state as nearly as possible the whole number of men of which the companies will probably be composed—the kind of arms they will re quire—the place of Company meeting, and the time at which they will be ready for Inspection. The uni form of such companies will be required to consist of substantial materials, suitable for service at any sea

The certificates of Inspection will in all cases con tain a description of the uniform; they will also state the Regiment to which the company is to be attached and the corps to which it belongs; whether Artillery, Cavalry, Inlantry or Riflemen Thos: companies which have not adopted their
