MR. BUCHANAN.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia North American makes the following statement of facts concerning Mr. Buchanan's conduct in the last Presidential canvass ---

During the Presidential canvass, various analignant imputations were cast upon the rep ntation of Mr. Clay by the press in Pennsylvania and other quarters, some of which were alleged to have been made on the authority of Mr. Buchanan. What was his course on that occasion? Instead of demanding an immediate retraction of the fabrications and denouncing their authors, Mr. Buchanan seats himself in his Senatorial chair and addresses Mr. Clay, assuring him that the Democratic Journals had is prepared to supply BREAD and CAKE of every vatalsified in using his name as authority and that he was innocent of any knowledge or participation in the statements. Meantime the slanders were multiplied and disseminated out of meals. Grapes, Citron, Fruit of every variety, in its doors. Mr. Buchanan permitted all the public scason. Also Perfumery, Soaps, Colognes, &c., &c. injury that could result from such calumnies, to affect Mr. Clay while secretly he endeavor. Paste. Weddings and Parties will be furnished to affect Mr. Clay, while secretly, he endeavored to deceive him by protestations of esteem, and on the most reasonable terms. He has a few us fulsome as they are false. That letter is boxes of Appleby Cigars which he will sell low by now in possession of Mr. Clay! Will Mr. Buchanan call for it? There are facts which have reached me from a source that James Buchanan dare not confront "

Speaking of liquor, there are several gentlemen in the Seventh Congressional district who are anxious to step into Felix's shoes; but we can say this of the candidate from Beaton, that he will never step into Felix's habits, unless the people in Washington city are very hospitable, or the grocers there keep a very cheap article of Rot-gut.

The increasing popularity of Dr. G. Benj. In short, they are an intended fraud upon the community. A min ister who at first had an interest in an imitation Su gar Coated Pill, manufactured at Albany, N. The same party are now industriously circulating re ports calculated to injure Dr. Smith and to affect the reputation of his valuable pills; but rather than notice them in public, Dr. Smith is about to institute legal proceedings against them for their slanders, as he has in another case against a similar party, in which he recovered a large amount of damages.
