The faculty unite in recommending the celebrated External Remedy, Hunt's Liniment.

The following letter from the highly eminent physicians who have been attached to the Mount Pleasant State Prison for many years is the best evidence, of the value of this celebrated Liniment.

Sing Sing, December 26, 1845.

My Dear Sir:—I received your note of yesterday, asking my opinion in relation to Hunt's Liniment, as prepared by George E. Stanton. Knowing its composition, and having frequently used it, I can recommend it to you as a safe External Remedy, and in my opinion, the best Liniment now in use.

Very truly and respectfully yours,

A. K. HOFFMAN.

OBITUARY.

Departed this life on Tuesday afternoon, the 12th instant, at her residence in Cambridge, after a brief, but severe illness, Mrs. ARAMINTA LECOMPTÉ, wife of Samuel Lecompte, in the 61st year of her age.

This bereavement of a husband and four children, and a long list of friends, in the wise disposition of Providence, cannot but produce the most painful emotions, though she has left to them the bequest that the dying can bestow upon the living, the best assurance that while the body sleeps in the grave, the spirit rejoices in the cessation from grief, and anticipates in the glories—unfading as the eternity of a new-born immortality. 'Twas vain to attempt to tell to those who have not experienced them, what consolation this thought affords; how it fills the soul with sweet contemplations, and opens to its prospect of reunion when, with her, 'This corruptible shall put on incorruption, and this mortal shall put on immortality.'

The subject of this notice has been for about forty years, a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and though we may not undertake to say, since God only knows, how faithful she has been to her profession, yet we do feel perfectly assured that the one great object of her life has been to glorify God on earth and secure for herself in Heaven the "Crown of righteousness." That He, whose love she had thus sought, was ready to receive her into everlasting habitations, we could desire no surer proof than the consolation He furnishes in the dying hour, when with a mind as calm and collected as she ever enjoyed she expressed over and over again the assurance, that to die was better than to live; when over and over again she gave utterance to her joy in the language of the Psalmist, "Bless the Lord, oh my soul!" and again, "To thee, Lord, I come, I come," and many others, breathing out confidence, and hope, and joy—and a deep and abiding thankfulness, that the Lord had spared her life to see her children—the objects of her tender and constant affection,—pursuing after the same glorious things.

She had been, during all her married life, to her now stricken husband, a confiding and affectionate wife; to her beloved children, an indulgent, fond, and kind mother; to her friends gentle and sympathizing; to her Christian neighbors, confiding; to the weary and weak, forbearing; in all the relations of life, a Christian; and well may she sleep in death with the consolations of religion, and well may we exclaim in bidding her adieu until the resurrection morn—

"In holiness complete, and in the robes
Of saving righteousness, array'd for Heaven
How far in a day, among the fair she stands,
How lovely on the eternal hills she steps."

"Let me die the death of righteous, and let my last end be like his."

In this place of congestive fever on the 11th inst. Miss R. WATSON ONINS, daughter of Rev. J. D. Onins. Aged 7 years 4 months and 25 days.

"Even so them also which sleep in Jesus shall God bring with him."
"Sweet he that rest till he bid her arise
And nail Him in triumph descending the skies."

STANTON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY
CALLED HUNT'S LINIMENT.

Is now universally acknowledged to be the INFALLIBLE REMEDY for Rheumatism, Spinal Affections, Contractions of the Muscles, Sore Throat and Quinsy, Issues, Old Ulcers, Pains in the Back and Chest, Ague in the Breast and Face, Tooth-Ache, Sprains, Bruises, Salt Rheum, Burns, Croup, Frosted Feet, and all Nervous Diseases.

THE TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS which has attended the application of this most WONDERFUL MEDICINE in curing the most severe cases of the different Diseases above named, and the HIGH ECONOMY that have been bestowed upon it, wherever it has been introduced, gives me the right to call on the AFFLICTED to resort to once to the ONLY REMEDY THAT CAN BE RELIED ON.

From the New York Mirror.
HUNT'S LINIMENT.—This invaluable Remedy of the many "ills that flesh is heir to" continues to shed its untold benefits upon all classes of society.—We have seen a Certificate from some of the most respectable, intelligent, and influential citizens of Westchester, where the Proprietor resides, who are above all attempts to mislead the public in reference to any medicine, remedy, or preparation; and as this testimony is at once spontaneous and uniform in commending this truly excellent Medicine for Rheumatism, and various other diseases named in the advertisement, there can no longer be a reasonable doubt entertained of its extraordinary success and triumph over the maladies in question.
Sing Sing, May 13, 1845.
We, the undersigned, do certify that we have used Mr. George E. Stanton's External Remedy, called HUNT'S LINIMENT, and have proved it to be fully equal to the character he gives it. Its healing properties are truly extraordinary; and we most confidently recommend it as one of the most certain external remedies that has yet been discovered.

Farm for Sale.

THE undersigned being authorized, will offer at Public Sale, on MONDAY February 1st, 1847, at the Court House door in Cambridge, at the hour of 12 o'clock (if not previously disposed of at private sale) all the valuable farms situated on Fishing Creek river (which abounds with oysters, terrapins, fish and wild fowl) formerly the home of dwelling of Nathan Griffin, dec'd. The improvements are a single story dwelling with two rooms on the lower floor and which is immediately located on the river, the yard running down to the shore—also a cook house, barn, &c. There is on the Farm some excellent fruit trees, apple, peach, &c., with two excellent wells of good water, and a quantity of shingle banks for the use of the whole farm, a part of which has already been mined. There is in the farm 136 ACRES, and fifteen perches, a sufficient quantity of which is in timber.

Persons desiring to purchase will of course view the premises previous to the day of sale, which will be sold free and clear of all incumbrances. The terms will be one-sixth cash, the balance in 12, 18 months and two years, with interest from day of sale, to be secured by bond approved and possession given at once.

MAGISTRATE'S BLANKS, of every description printed and for sale by the PROSPECTUS OF JAMES W. CONYER'S Classical School for Boys, CAMBRIDGE, MD.

LOCATION.

THE situation of the School is retired. The room large, well ventilated, and will be comfortably furnished. It possesses the advantage of a yard, which gives ample room for exercise and distant from street exposure.

COURSE OF STUDY.

The choice and arrangement of the studies, the mode of recitation and text-books adopted, shall conform with the custom of the best seminaries; associating the two great elements of sound scholarship—order and completeness. The course of study embraces the various branches of education, necessary either for business, or for college course. Great labor will be bestowed upon Declamation, Composition Criticism and Penmanship.

DISCIPLINE.

The Discipline of the School is designed to be, as much as practicable, mild but strict. As much care will be taken of the moral and religious conduct and habits of the scholars, as of their intellectual advancement. The intercourse between the professor and his pupils is designed to be frank and unreserved. A brief lecture will be delivered at the opening of the school every morning upon subjects connected with their future welfare, &c. The design of this is to engage attention to study by inculcating a firm and intelligent conviction of duty. A short account of progress and deportment will be sent quarterly to each parent. Patrons and any who may feel interested, are invited to visit the school on any day during its session between the hours of 10 and 12 A. M. or 3 & 5 o'clock P. M.

SESSIONS.

The scholastic year will be divided into two sessions:—the first beginning on the first Monday in January, and closing the last of July—the second commencing on the first Monday in September and ending about the 21st of December.

TERMS.

For the common English studies, per session $12.00
For the higher branches of English Literature, 16.00
No deduction will be made for absence except in case of protracted illness.

Chancery Sale. A RARE SITUATION.

Y virtue of a decree from the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale, in the village of New Market, on SATURDAY, the 30th day of January, inst., between the hours of 10 o'clock, A. M. and 4 o'clock, P. M. the Ground whereon the late Joseph Ennals resided; called, or known by the name of "Indian Land, No. 1," and "Indian Purchase," containing about 253 1-4 Acres.

This situation is regarded as one of the most eligible in the county, being finely situated on the Choptank River, and combining advantages that are rarely to be procured. Among these are a very good Mill privilege, an abundance of fish, oysters, and Ducks, a most delightful neighborhood, together with proximity to New Market, one of the principal towns in the county, from which it is only 2 1/2 miles distant.—

The HOUSE is of brick, and very capacious, having two large rooms and a large passage below stairs, with a good cellar, and three rooms above; requiring but little improvement to make it a fine mansion. The internal resources for improving the land are good and abundant. A good orchard of APPLES and PEACHES, good drinking water; and a sufficiency of timber for the supply of the farm.

This situation is about 11 miles from Cambridge. The above property will be sold free from all incumbrance whatever.

The terms of sale are, one fourth cash on the day of sale, and the remainder of the purchase money in 6, 12 and 18 months, all secured by bond and security approved by the Trustee, with interest from the day of sale. On payment in full of the purchase money, a conveyance will be made to the purchaser.

Farm for Sale.

THE Subscriber will offer at public sale, on a reasonable credit at Bradshaw's tavern, Cambridge, on Monday, 16th January—if not previously disposed of, the farm in Transquakin, between the lands of Dr. William H. Muse, and Dr. Phelps, containing 315 acres—230 of which, is in cultivation, and 85 in valuable timber.

This Farm, from its variety of soil—possessing a clayey loam, and a siliceous loam, and intermediate grades, is adapted to a variety of crops; and the invaluable prospect of a future growing, and permanent demand for our Breadstuffs—especially, Indian Corn, in foreign markets, offers a strong incentive to agricultural energy and enterprise, which, for many years have been paralyzed. Endless resources of manure are presented on this Farm to make it a rich investment, by a moderate share of skill and attention. It has a neat small and nearly new dwelling house, two rooms on each floor; also two corn houses, one of them lately built and in the best manner, and will hold 3000 bushels;—the other 2000;

A well of pure, soft water is directly at the door, and many fine springs, elsewhere on the land.
