Offer to Druggists, Country Merchants, and Physicians, a very extensive and fully assorted Stock of DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, OILS, DYE-STUFFS, &c., at prices as low as they can be bought in the United States. The most particular attention is given to procure articles of the best quality; and from their long experience, and the attention they have bestowed in acquiring a knowledge of the Chemical and Pharmaceutical, as well as the general Mercantile departments of the Drug business, they feel confident that they are qualified to supply their customers with pure medicines, and other goods of the finest kind. H. H. SLATTERY.
Baltimore, —Dec. 26th 1846
From the N. F. Star
Among the mass of worthless articles and humbugs that are poured forth at the present day upon the country, it is really refreshing to find something of real practical utility, something simple, speedy, and effectual in its operation, and at the same time free from those injurious effects which generally attend powerful remedies. Hunt's Liment, prepared by Geo. E. Stanton, of Sing Sing, though it has been but a short time before the public, has already obtained the confidence, not only of our most wealthy and influential citizens, but of our most eminent physicians. All acknowledge it to be a sovereign balm for many of the ills that flesh is heir to, soothing the aching limb, and by its genuine stimulating influence, banishing disease from the system.
Mr. Stanton,—Seeing your advertisement of Hunt's Liment, I was induced to try its effects on my son, who had been crippled with a lame back from an infant; and it is with gratitude I bear testimony to its wonderful healing properties. My child who is now five years of age, is now in a fair way of recovery.
Yours, &c.

DEMMON C. NICKERSON,
Post Office, Towers, Putnam Co.
I certify that I am personally acquainted with the above named child, and think the father would be safe in saying his son is almost well.
JAS. W. DYKMAN, Deputy Post Master.
November 5, 1845.
P. S.—I would also state that I have been for a number of years subject to frequent attacks of the Rheumatism, when in many instances prevented my attending to my business. Two or three applications of the Liment invariably remove all affections of the kind. In cases of bruises, sprains, and sores too numerous to mention, it has in this vicinity proved a certain remedy. Its value can only be estimated by those who have given it a fair trial.

HANCE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF MOREHOUND—FOR THE CURE OF
Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Spitting of Blood, Pains in the Side and Breast, Bronchitis, Croup, Asthma, and all diseases arising from a disordered condition of the lungs or neglected cold.
The following sonnet was addressed to the proprietor by a Young Lady who was cured of consumption:
Ho! ye who pant with failing breath,
And pine away and die;
HANCE shall "put away" your death,
And light anew your eye.
How sweet it melts upon the tongue,
How grateful to the breast!
A glorious theme for poet's song,
Soothing his cough to rest.
HANCE! favored of the Gods, art thou!
A blessing to thy race,
Let laurels flourish on thy brow
And wealth these laurels grace,
When heroes are forgotten; kings
Define; or, ceased to reign;
Gory, for thee, shall flap her wings;
Thou conquerer of pain.
Price 50 Cents per bottle or six bottles for $2.50.
