

were opposing candidates in the spring of 1869 for a seat in the Senate of Maryland. Mr. Goldsborough's majority was eighty-eight and not sixty-eight as stated. These are I know unimportant matters and are now alluded to only for the purpose of showing how reckless this author has been, and while on this subject I venture the opinion that at the time and under the circumstances of this election, no other man in Dorset could have got a majority so large over Mr. Stewart as did Mr. Goldsborough. Again, he asks why was he Mr. Goldsborough preferred to Col. Groome, Dr. Williams, Ricard and Lookerman, and then answers his interrogatory himself falsely as before, saying, because it was well known that he was identified in every respect with that part of the whig party known as the Court House Clique, at the head of which is the Hon. Reverdy Johnson and Gov. Pratt. Now here, this man, remarkable only it seems for assertion without truth or proof to bear him out, is at fault, for it is notorious, and a fact known to all who enquire after (or that will hear and remember) truth, that the gentlemen named and those maliciously termed the Court House Clique, desired and preferred the nomination of another gentleman, and not Mr. Goldsborough as is erroneously asserted, and these gentlemen did as they had the right to do, prefer another, and neither Mr. G. nor any one had a right to condemn them for so preferring another. All the candidates were gentlemen and meritorious men, and while we admit that all were so, will not admit that any were more so than Mr. G., and if the author of this wonderful communication thinks he has injured Mr. G. by this array, I can tell him he is mistaken and had better try again, as the gentlemen who he intends to hit, that he may wound Mr. G., tho' opposed to Mr. Goldsborough, or rather preferring up to that time another, are all highly respectable and influential men, and all good whigs, and the author with all his flourish will compare with them but as the Jack O'lantern to the blazing sun at meridian height. To show yet a little more, that the object of this bright genius is to misrepresent or that he is wholly ignorant as to facts, at the very moment he says Mr. Goldsborough has declined to canvass the State in order to give his fellow-citizens a chance of becoming acquainted with him. Mr. Goldsborough is traversing the State and mingling freely and unostentatiously with the people as has always been his custom from a school boy; and although he may not, as he says in his reply to Mr. Thomas, canvass in the way indicated by Mr. Thomas, he is now canvassing in a way that the people have been pleased to say, where he has been, is a very acceptable way to them. Mr. Goldsborough has too much good sense, doubtless, to believe that the people at this enlightened day are to be played upon by pretty glossy speeches. Oh no. We have heard enough of these things in by gone days. The people think for themselves and act for themselves; and what we most want is the solid, reliable, sensible and pure man, such as the neighbors and countrymen of Mr. Goldsborough will testify that he is.

Mr. Thomas is, we admit, what is called a lawyer, and may go before the people and make long speeches; this no doubt he has learned, and is, I suppose, sometimes fied to make speeches.—I imagine it is part of his living; but in this county the people have no particular fondness for or remarkable confidence in lawyers generally. Mr. Thomas' friends may think him superior to Mr. Goldsborough because he is a practising lawyer; if so let them enjoy the opinion and be comfortable, as we are willing to take a plain farmer of good sound sense, well educated if you please, and possessing the excellent moral character that Mr. Goldsborough does and having the confidence and personal esteem of his neighbors of all parties, he is good enough for us in this part of the State and is so I doubt not in all other parts of the State. Many of our Governors have been plain men, sensible farmers if you please, viz:—Lloyd and Martin, of Talbot; Thomas, of St. Mary's; Veazey, of Cecil, and Grason, of Queen Anne's. Francis Thomas Sr., of Frederick, and co-worker with Francis Jr. of Talbot, who is now a candidate, I know was a practising lawyer, and his history is late and notorious, and if young Frank can make anything out of his connection with old Frank I have no objection, and close my hasty review of Dorchester's Cecil communication by asking those who really wish to know Mr. W. T. Goldsborough's worth and merit to enquire of his neighbors and countrymen of all parties, leaving out demagogues, as there may be a few of them in Dorset.

PORT DEPOSITE.

CHOLERA MORBUS.—During the intense heat of summer, and before the process of digestion is completed, our food is often spoiled or putrified in the stomach; hence bad breath, sour belchings, costiveness, pain of the stomach, dysentery, cholera morbus, and other dangerous complaints.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills are certain to remove all the above unpleasant complaints; because they cleanse the stomach and bowels of those putrid humors which are the cause not only of all diseases of the bowels, but of every malady incident to man.

Four or five of said Indian Vegetable Pills, taken every night on going to bed, will in a short time completely rid the body of every description of suffering; at the same time the digestive organs will be restored to a healthy tone, and the blood so thoroughly purified that Cholera Morbus, or any other disease, will be literally driven from the body.

Beware of Counterfeits of all kinds! Some are coated with sugar; others are made to resemble in outward appearance the original medicine. The safest course is, to purchase from the regular agents only, one or more of whom may be found in every village and town in the State.

The genuine for sale by NEWTON & CREIGHTON, who are the only authorized agents for Cambridge.

A gentleman of high standing in the society of Friends, speaks as follows of the great remedy, Hunt's Liniment:

Newcastle, 11th month, 1st, 1844.

George E. Stanton,

Esteemed Friend:—Thy letter of the 29th ultimo is received. In my reply I would say, that I have been troubled with a lame knee for several years, during which time it has distressed me much. I procured a bottle of Hunt's Liniment at thy store, early last spring, and I have used it freely, and I can say that since that time I have had little or no trouble with my knee. A friend, to whom I sent a bottle, informs me that it was a great benefit to her in a rheumatic affection. I have no hesitation in recommending it to any persons needing an external remedy.

FROM the first of September next we shall DECLINE THE SALE OF LADIES' WEAR, and thereafter shall keep no Goods, except such as are connected with the Gentlemen's Drapery line.

Having, for many years back, taken the lead in the sale of these articles, even when connected with other business, our present enterprise has necessarily given us many additional advantages, the benefits of which the buyers will enjoy. A business of the kind, which we have now undertaken, THROUGH THE FIRST AND ONLY ONE IN THIS CITY, has long been tried in the larger northern markets, with evident satisfaction to sellers and purchasers.

Keeping no Goods but such which are always current, we are not under the necessity, to charge additional profits on them, for the sake of making up the loss on other leading articles, or the depreciation of Fancy Goods; a fact well worth the attention of country Merchants and Merchant Tailors visiting our market.

We have made arrangements in Europe and in this country, always to be supplied with the newest and choicest Fancy Goods for Pantaloons, Vestings, Scarfs, Cravats, Suspenders, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, as well as Gentlemen's Under-Dress of every kind.

OUR STOCK CONSISTS OF French, English, Belgian, German and Domestic CLOTHS and CASSIMERES, of every color, shade and quality, found in the best manufactories, and we guarantee to sell these goods fully as cheap, by the piece or case, as they can be purchased at by the Agents in New York, or no sale.

FOR OVERCOATS, SACKS AND CLOAKS. Tweeds, Pilot, Beaver and Duffile Cloths, of foreign and domestic make.

OUR FANCY CASSIMERES & VESTINGS, will be the choicest lot ever offered in this market, as we ordered these goods this season, without regard to cost, from France, England and Scotland.

OF HEAVY DOMESTIC WOOLENS.—A full and splendid assortment of Sattinets, plain and fancy, all colors and qualities—heavy Negro Tweeds and Sheep's Grey Sattinets; Fulled Linseys, Kentucky Jeans, Negro Kerseys, Flannels and Blankets of every kind.

CHILDREN'S WEAR, of all and every kind, ordered expressly for the purpose.

BILLIARD CLOTHS, two yards wide, of the celebrated factory of Iwan Simoni.

MILITARY COMPANIES AND COLLEGES furnished with Cloths for Uniforms, at factory prices, also, with Military and Naval Trimmings of every description.

TAILORS' TRIMMINGS, of superior qualities, viz:—Black and colored Silk Velvets, do. do. Silk Serges, do. do. Satin do., do. do. Alpaca do., plain Alpaca and Bombazines, Silk sleeve Linings, Plaid Cloak Linings of the newest styles. Venizios Sewings, Rubinnaccis do., black and coloured twist patent Threads, Buttons, all kinds, Worsteds and Silk Bindings, &c. &c., Canvass, Paddings, Silesias, Hollands, Wiggins, white Muslins, colored do., Waddings.

FOR COACHMAKERS.—Silver drab and blue Cloths, drab Silks for Curtains and Linings, Worsteds Damasks, Buckrams and drab Velvets.

FOR SHOEMAKERS.—Cloths and Cassimeres of the ruling colors for Gaiters, and Lasting, black and col'd., of the best quality.

☞—Samples sent to any part of the country, and orders will be punctually attended to. Cash Buyers, and responsible men, will find our stock as represented, and prices as low, and our terms as liberal as in any market in the Union. To such and such only, we give a cordial invitation to examine our goods when in the market.

RANAWAY from the Subscribers on Wednesday last, the 11th inst. two negro men, VINCE and ANTHONY CORNISH. VINCE is about 28 years of age, of a dark chestnut color, about 5 feet 9 inches high. He had on when he left a kentucky jeans roundabout with a velvet collar—blue shirt—a pair of striped pantaloons; and as he has a variety of clothing there is no doubt but what he will change them. ANTHONY is about 25 years of age of a light chestnut color, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, walks proper, and has a good form. He had on when he left a pair of dark pantaloons—a summer coat of dark color, and took many more that are not now recollected.

For the Justice of the peace and Constable it may in some measure stand in the place of a law library—to the merchant and man of business, and to the property holder either in town or country it is very valuable, as it treats of matters of almost daily interest to all classes of the community.—All the laws which affect the duties of the Justice of the Peace passed up to December session 1846 inclusive, have been noticed in this edition, and various improvements in the arrangement of the different subjects treated upon have been made.
