To Travellers.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken that large and commodious tavern in Cambridge, known as the formerly occupied by William H. Yates and John Parvin, Esqrs., where he is prepared to accommodate all who may favor him with a call. The house is in complete order, with every necessary comfort and convenience, and the subscriber is determined to spare no effort to promote the comfort of those who may be sojourning at his house. His table shall be at all times supplied with the best the market can afford—his bar furnished with the choicest liquors—his granaries filled with provender, and his stables in thorough order, and attended by careful and attentive ostlers. The subscriber feels no disposition to indulge in idle boasting—he is determined to keep a house inferior to none on the Eastern Shore, and only asks a trial in order to convince every one that the "Dorchester House" is emphatically the "traveller's home." The subscriber respectfully solicits a portion of public patronage.

A severe sprain entirely cured with one bottle of the Liniment.

New York, June 19, 1845.

Dear Sir:—It affords me pleasure to comply with your request, and add my testimony to the excellency of Hunt's Liniment as an outward application for the cure of sprains, bruises, &c.—Last winter I sprained my ankle badly, and was sometimes confined to the house. The injured part was very much swollen, and the pain intense; after trying a variety of remedies, I made an application of your Liniment, and found from its use speedy relief. Speaking from my own experience, I can confidently recommend it as a valuable medicine in cases like the one in which I tested its efficacy.

Yours respectfully,
JOHN G. MAGHER, 44 Wall Street.

CAMBRIDGE ACADEMY.

CAMBRIDGE, E. S. MARYLAND.

THE subscribers, a Committee appointed for that purpose, beg leave to inform the public that the Classical department of the Cambridge Academy will be opened on the 3rd day of January next, under the direction of WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Esq., a Graduate of Dublin University.—At the late Election of Mr. Campbell, the Trustees received such testimonials of his literary and classical attainments, that this committee do not hesitate to hold out to Parents and Guardians of young Gentlemen, the strongest assurance of a rapid advancement in Education; and that those who may have the benefit of such Instruction as can be afforded in the Cambridge Academy, will be qualified to enter the higher classes in the Colleges of the country or into professional and other pursuits. This committee appeal especially to the Citizens of this county to sustain an Institution in their midst. It was the intention of the Legislature in appropriating funds for Schools and Academies in each county, that the benefit of a good Education might be brought within the reach of every citizen. The Academy is divided into two departments, the Classical and the English. The English department is under the direction of GARDNER BAYLEY, Esq. It is needless for this committee to speak in commendation of Mr. Bayley, he has been an Instructor of youth for many years in Cambridge and has few superiors in moral and intellectual worth. His experience in the art of Instruction is recognized in the fact that his school whether in connection with the Academy or otherwise has been at all times well sustained.

The locality of this Academy gives it strong claims upon the public. The acknowledged healthfulness of Cambridge, the facility of access, the refinement of the society and the cheapness of living, afford every inducement for Parents and Guardians to send their sons or wards to this Academy. At the next meeting of the board, some one or more of the Trustees will be appointed as monthly or quarterly visitors, whose duty it will be to visit the Academy and report upon the advancement of the scholars.

This committee are safe in saying that the Board Tuition and incidental Expenses of a scholar will not exceed $150 per annum, and there are three large private Boarding Houses in Cambridge.

DR. THOMPSON'S MEDICATED SYRUP OF CASTOR OIL.

THE subscriber would most respectfully inform the Citizens of Cambridge and the Public generally, that he has succeeded in making Castor Oil perfectly agreeable; and while it is rendered agreeable to the taste, the Cathartic properties are very little if any diminished; and by the medication all that acrid quality of which oil is generally possessed, which rendered it inadmissible with some persons, especially with infants, is entirely destroyed.

It is well known that Castor Oil is almost an universal medicine—entering into the use of every family, and administered in the treatment of almost every disease—and would be much more frequently prescribed by physicians, was it not for the great aversion patients have to its use.—But in this preparation, the subscriber can assure physicians and patients, they will find it so perfectly agreeable to the taste, that infants and ladies of the most delicate stomachs can take it without the least inconvenience. Indeed it is so perfectly palatable that should it be found necessary to take a little more in a dose it will not be found objectionable to the patient.

The Medicated Syrup of Castor Oil may be had at the subscribers Laboratory or of Mr. Solomon Rutter. Wholesale and Retail orders from a distance promptly attended to.

TO THE WHIGS OF DORSET.

The undersigned, proprietor of the "CAMBRIDGE CHRONICLE," wishing to give his Journal a larger circulation in order that its efficiency as an advocate of Whig principles may be thereby increased, respectfully appeals to the Whigs of Dorchester to sustain him by their patronage. He pledges himself to spare no pains to make the "Chronicle" a useful and interesting sheet—ardently devoted to the maintenance of Whig principles, and at the same time furnishing an interesting summary of COMMERCIAL, AGRICULTURAL and LITERARY intelligence. The ensuing year promises to be one of almost unprecedented importance.—The deep and momentous questions growing out of the Mexican war address themselves to the heart of every patriot—are such as menace the stability of our Union, and should be thoroughly understood by the people. Congress will probably be in session at least eight months of the year, and in that body questions will arise and be discussed and settled that it behooves every man to understand. It will be the constant aim of the undersigned to furnish the subscribers to the "Chronicle" with full and reliable information upon those vital questions, and with the latest news. Independently of this, every man is concerned in the local news transpiring in the County, and to keep pace with that would of itself be sufficient compensation for the small outlay required to pay for the paper. Again, it is the manifest duty of the Whig party to render a liberal support to its press. Without its powerful aid no party could long exist, and surely the Whig party is not so unreasonable as to require the aid of a party paper without a fair equivalent. Every man who believes the principles of the Whig party to be the true principles of the government, and who desires their success should aid in supporting a Whig paper. The sum required is small—nothing in fact compared to the benefit he derives in return. And the subscriber trusts that his efforts to advance the glory and honor of the Whig party will be met in a proper spirit by its members, and that they will come forward and attest their devotion to Whig principles by subscribing to the "Chronicle."

TERMS:—$2 per annum, if paid in advance, or $2 50cts. if not paid until the end of the year.

The following is selected out of a vast amount of testimony, showing the great value of Hunt's Liniment in cases of Rheumatism

To Geo. E. Stanton, Esq.—Sir—Having been afflicted with the Rheumatism for upwards of five years in my ankles and feet, and at times so painful that I could not walk, and had to be assisted to dress and undress myself; and having been under the care of four or five different physicians, and having tried almost every remedy I could hear of, but not to much effect, I had given up all hopes of ever being cured, until I heard of Hunt's Liniment, I tried one bottle of it, and found immediate relief. That is about four months ago, and in that time I have used about one dollar's worth, and feel almost as well as ever I did.—My family, as well as myself, can testify to its value; and I would advise all who are afflicted with pains and aches, to use Hunt's Liniment Esteemed Friend:—Thy letter of the 29th ultimo is received. In my reply I would say, that I have been troubled with a lame knee for several years, during which time it has distressed me much. I procured a bottle of Hunt's Liniment at thy store, early last spring, and I have used it freely, and I can say since that time I have had little or no trouble with my knee. A friend, to whom I sent a bottle, informs me that it was a great benefit to her in a rheumatic affection. I have no hesitation in recommending it to any persons needing an external remedy.
