

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Patriot. ANNAPOLIS, January 18, 1848. SENATE.

The first business taken up this morning was the House bill making valid a deed to Elizabeth Sherwood, which was passed. On motion of Mr. Matthews, Richard H. Hall was appointed a director on the part of the State in the Bank of Baltimore, for the present year. The following bills from the House were passed: Supplementary to the acts incorporating companies to construct turnpike roads in Baltimore county; for the relief of Douglas Green; for the relief of Arthur L. Fogg, of Baltimore city; and to protect the magnetic telegraph companies of the State. Adjourned.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES.

Messrs. Owens and Brady appeared in their seats to-day. Mr. Whyte is still absent, on account of severe illness. The following petitions were presented—By Mr. Cohen, from Emily E. Smith, praying a divorce. By Mr. Gallagher, from Richard R. Gaiter, praying a divorce. By Dr. Owens, from citizens of Anne Arundel, in reference to a new district in said county. By Mr. Chapman, from Isaac Wright, in reference to a certain road in Dorchester county; also from John R. Martin, in reference to Trustees in a certain school in said county.—By Mr. Donaldson, from Oliver Edge and others, against lottery grants. By Mr. Bantz, from the creditors of Walter B. Kemp, against the passage of a law in his favor. Leave was granted to the Committee on the Constitution to introduce a bill to repeal so much of the Constitution of this State as relates to the salaries of the Judges of the County Court and of Baltimore City Court, and to impose a tax on the same. Mr. Cox reported a bill to reduce the number of Justices of the Peace in and for the city of Baltimore, to change the mode of compensating them; and for other purposes, which was ordered to be printed.

The Ocean Steamers.—The steamer Britannia sailed from Liverpool for Boston on the 15th.—The propeller Sarah Sands left Liverpool on the 23d, and the French steamer Philadelphia, is advertised to leave Havre at the same time for New York. This hardly agrees with the announcement made in the New York papers that this line has been discontinued.

Romance and Reality.—The North American says that Dr. Niles, recently appointed by President Polk as Charge d'Affairs to Sardinia, married the widow of Eugene Sue's father, and their twin daughters are the originals of "Rose and Blanche" in the Wandering Jew.

An Unusual Circumstance.—Ten or fifteen years ago, six young men, one by one, left their native county, (Fayette, Ky.) in search of a livelihood abroad. They will all meet at the present session, as members of Congress.—Cincinnati Times.

WOMAN MUST LOVE.—Disguise or shun the fact as we will, woman must love with all her soul, or she ceases to be a woman. She may love an idea, or a cold-hearted selfish man, or one who gives the deep, passionate love of a warm heart in return; or she may love a child, or a lap-dog, or a bird, or some gold-fishes; any or all of these she may love, but love she must.

Deaths from Starvation.—The Philadelphia papers record no less than three deaths in the District of Moyamensing on Monday, from actual want and starvation. They were all colored persons. If such a thing had occurred in a slave State, what a hue and cry would issue forth from many of our Philadelphia friends, against the inhumanity of slave holders.—Clipper.

A Printing Office Mobbed.—Burleigh, the abolitionist, and editor of a paper at Hartford, Conn., made a gross attack through his columns, upon Lt. Woodhouse, for volunteering to go to Mexico, which so incensed the populace that they attacked his office, and would have lynched him had he not escaped.

The following shows a case of Rheumatism cured with only one bottle of Hunt's Liniment.—The letter is addressed to Mr. Stanton: Yorktown, June 18, 1845.

Sir,—Having cured me of a severe attack of Rheumatism, which had rendered me almost helpless, and at the same time made me suffer great pain, I would offer my testimony in favor of the great properties which your External Remedy, Hunt's Liniment is possessed of. I only used one bottle, and with that I consider I have been saved from a protracted and severe illness. I am now attending to my business regularly, which is that of a Farmer.

OBITUARY.

Died on Sunday morning 16th instant, JOSEPH RICHARDSON, Esq. in the seventy-eighth year of his age.

The death of this aged and useful citizen has cast an unusual gloom over our community. His sterling virtues, the strict integrity which marked his whole life, his active benevolence, for which he was so well known, endeared him to his fellow citizens; whilst his age, his wisdom, and his public services secured him the veneration of all. Capt. Joseph Richardson was a man of remarkable intellectual vigor; his mind was capacious, comprehensive and discriminating; his judgment sound and clear. To the wisdom acquired by an excellent education, he added an extensive knowledge of the world, and an unusual mass of miscellaneous information, gained by close observation, and much study, during years of foreign travel. Thus informed his society was always instructing, always agreeable. And it gave him pleasure to unfold his store of knowledge for the delight and advantage of his hearers. His counsel was often sought by the young, the inexperienced and the friendless; his advice was always bestowed with cheerfulness, and if necessary, accompanied by a more substantial gift.

For nearly thirty years, Capt. Richardson was the Clerk of Caroline county Court. All who had occasion to transact business with him in his official capacity well remember his obligingness, his promptness, faithfulness, and strict devotion to the interests of the public. All the duties of his office were performed with the greatest skill and the utmost promptitude.

But if he was respected for his public usefulness what shall we say of the esteem and veneration inspired by the virtue he displayed in private? A zealous christian, he lived up to the doctrines he professed, and worshipped God in strict conformity with the tenets of the church of which he was a useful and prominent member. At no time, and under no circumstances, would he hesitate to acknowledge the goodness of God, and the consolations of Religion. Firm in his belief of the christian doctrine, he endeavored to inculcate the precepts and follow the example of its divine founder. His church will deeply feel his loss.

But why continue this eulogy? His virtues will live after him, and his good example encourage and stimulate others to pursue the paths of virtue, honor, and piety. In him, his native country has lost an excellent citizen; his wife, a kind and affectionate husband; his sons, an indulgent fond father; his servants, a generous master.—Requiescat in pace.

To all Concerned.

IN consequence of Mr. Jordan having determined to leave Cambridge on or about the first of March next, with whom my Books and all connected therewith has been entrusted, it is desirable that all persons having accounts with me should come forward for settlement by payment or by giving their notes. It is particularly desirable that this should be attended to, least difficulty occur in consequence of Mr. Jordan's absence. The public's ob't serv't., JNO. BRADSHAW. Cambridge, Jan. 29, 1848.

Languages.

MR. W. CAMPBELL has been induced to propose the formation of Private Evening Classes for the instruction of Ladies and Gentlemen in the LATIN, FRENCH and ITALIAN Languages, by means of a system calculated to ensure speedy and lasting improvement in those studies, and at the same time to promote an accurate knowledge of the English Tongue.

Terms will be such as to afford the strongest inducements to all who appreciate the value of such acquirements.

The lectures will be commenced as soon as a sufficient number of Pupils shall have been enrolled. Ladies and Gentlemen desirous of joining any of the classes are, therefore, respectfully requested to communicate at their earliest convenience, their wishes to Mr. C., at Mrs. Susan Eccleston's. To Travellers.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has taken that large and commodious tavern in Cambridge, known as the

"DORCHESTER HOUSE," formerly occupied by William H. Yates and John Farvin, Esq's., where he is prepared to accommodate all who may favor him with a call. The house is in complete order, with every necessary comfort and convenience, and the subscriber is determined to spare no effort to promote the comfort of those who may be sojourning at his house. His tables shall be at all times supplied with the best the market can afford—his bar furnished with the choicest liquors—his granaries filled with provender, and his stables in thorough order, and attended by careful and attentive ostlers. The subscriber feels no disposition to indulge in idle boasting—he is determined to keep a house inferior to none on the Eastern Shore, and only asks a trial in order to convince every one that the "Dorchester House" is emphatically the "traveller's home." The subscriber respectfully solicits a portion of public patronage. The public's ob't. serv't. JOSEPH BRADSHAW. January 8, 1848.—if Notice.

THE subscriber would respectfully inform the citizens of Dorchester county, that he still continues to manufacture COFFINS at his old Stand, in the village of Tobaccoctock, where he has every convenience and is prepared to manufacture all kinds of Coffins. He has just returned from the city, and besides procuring other material, he has laid in a first rate stock of mahogany. As he has a great number of workmen, all orders can be attended to at the shortest possible notice. Having a good hearse and horse, he is prepared to carry coffins to any part of the county, free of additional charge. He deems it unnecessary to say any thing in commendation of his work, as he always has and still wishes it to speak for itself. Price of making plain mahogany coffins $15—a reasonable charge for extras. The public's ob't. serv't., JAS. BROMWELL. Jan. 8, 1848. if

$200 Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, living near Tobaccoctock, Dorchester County, Maryland on Tuesday the 28th ult. a negro man, by the name of TOM RITTER, aged about 21 years, of a bright chestnut colour, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high. He took with him a black cloth dress coat; as he will doubtless change his clothes a description of them here is thought unnecessary. It is supposed that a certain negro woman by the name of Nancy Ennalls, belonging to Mr. Vachel Keene, absconded about the same time, and may be together. A reward of one hundred dollars will be given if the said boy is taken in this county, or two hundred dollars if taken out of the county or out of the State; in either case to be secured in Cambridge or Baltimore Jail, free of charge. HUGH MAGUIRE. January 8, 1848. 3w

The Delaware Journal will copy the above 3 weeks and forward bill to this office for collection.

$150 Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on Tuesday the 28th ult., a negro woman by the name of NANCY ENNALLS, about 23 or 24 years old, about 5 feet high, of a dark chestnut colour, and pleasant when spoken to. She took away with her a variety of clothing, a description of which is thought unnecessary. I will give $50 if she is taken in the county and secured in Cambridge jail; one hundred dollars if taken out of the county and in the State, or I will give the above reward if taken out of the State and secured in Baltimore Jail. CAMBRIDGE ACADEMY.

CAMBRIDGE, E. S. MARYLAND.

THE subscribers, a Committee appointed for that purpose, beg leave to inform the public that the Classical department of the Cambridge Academy will be opened on the 3rd day of January next, under the direction of WILLIAM CAMPBELL, Esq., a Graduate of Dublin University.—At the late Election of Mr. Campbell, the Trustees received such testimonials of his literary and classical attainments, that this committee do not hesitate to hold out to Parents and Guardians of young Gentlemen, the strongest assurance of a rapid advancement in Education; and that those who may have the benefit of such Instruction as can be afforded in the Cambridge Academy, will be qualified to enter the higher classes in the Colleges of the country or into professional and other pursuits. This committee appeal especially to the Citizens of this county to sustain an Institution in their midst. It was the intention of the Legislature in appropriating funds for Schools and Academies in each county, that the benefit of a good Education might be brought within the reach of every citizen. The Academy is divided into two departments, the Classical and the English. The English department is under the direction of GARDNER BAYLEY, Esq. It is needless for this committee to speak in commendation of Mr. Bayley, he has been an Instructor of youth for many years in Cambridge and has few superiors in moral and intellectual worth. His experience in the art of Instruction is recognized in the fact that his school whether in connection with the Academy or otherwise has been at all times well sustained.

The locality of this Academy gives it strong claims upon the public. The acknowledged healthfulness of Cambridge, the facility of access, the refinement of the society and the cheapness of living, afford every inducement for Parents and Guardians to send their sons or wards to this Academy. At the next meeting of the board, some one or more of the Trustees will be appointed as monthly or quarterly visitors, whose duty it will be to visit the Academy and report upon the advancement of the scholars.

This committee are safe in saying that the Board Tuition and incidental Expenses of a scholar will not exceed $150 per annum, and there are three large private Boarding Houses in Cambridge.

Table with columns for Tuition, English, Per annum, and Board of Trustees. Includes names of Dr. Joseph E. Muse, Pres't., Joseph E. Muse, Jr., and A. H. Bayly, M. D. Mr. Campbell will give Instruction in French and Italian, upon such Extra terms as may be agreed upon between him and those desirous of having their sons or wards taught. Cambridge, Md.—Dec. 25, 1847. 6w

THE WEEKLY.

National Whig.

ONE of the largest newspapers in the United States, is made up from the columns of the Daily National Whig, and is published every Saturday for the low price of two dollars per annum payable in advance. A double sheet of eight pages will be given whenever the press of matter shall justify it.

THE NATIONAL WHIG is what its name indicates. It speaks the sentiments of the Whig party of the Union on every question of public policy. It advocates the election to the Presidency of ZACHARY TAYLOR, subject to the decision of a Whig National Convention. It makes war to the knife upon all the measures and acts of Administration deemed to be adverse to the interests of the country, and exposes without fear or favor the corruption of the party in power. Its columns are open to every man in the country for the discussion of political or any other questions.

In addition to politics, a large space in the National Whig will be devoted to publications upon Agriculture, Mechanics, such other useful arts, Science in General, Law, Medicine, Statistics, &c. Choice specimens of American and Foreign Literature, will also be given including Reviews &c. A weekly list of the Patents issued by the Patent Office will likewise be published—the whole forming a complete family newspaper.

CHARLES W. FENTON, Proprietor of the National Whig, Washington, D. C. P. S. All daily, weekly and semi-weekly papers in the United States are requested to insert this advertisement once a week for 6 months, noting the price for publishing the same at the bottom of the advertisement, and send the paper containing it to the National Whig Office and the amount will be duly remitted. Our editorial brethren are also requested to notice the National Whig in their reading columns. C. W. F. Nov. 13, 1847. [$15] 6m

DR. THOMPSON'S MEDICATED SYRUP OF CASTOR OIL.

THE subscriber would most respectfully inform the Citizens of Cambridge and the Public generally, that he has succeeded in making Castor Oil perfectly agreeable; and while it is rendered agreeable to the taste, the Cathartic properties are very little if any diminished; and by the medication all that acrid quality of which oil is generally possessed, which rendered it inadmissible with some persons, especially with infants, is entirely destroyed.

It is well known that Castor Oil is almost an universal medicine—entering into the use of every family, and administered in the treatment of almost every disease—and would be much more frequently prescribed by physicians, was it not for the great aversion patients have to its use.—But in this preparation, the subscriber can assure physicians and patients, they will find it so perfectly agreeable to the taste, that infants and ladies of the most delicate stomachs can take it without the least inconvenience. Indeed it is so perfectly palatable that should it be found necessary to take a little more in a dose it will not be found objectionable to the patient.

The Medicated Syrup of Castor Oil may be had at the subscribers Laboratory or of Mr. Solomon Rutter. Wholesale and Retail orders from a distance promptly attended to. Nov. 13, 1847.—6m. A. C. THOMPSON. The Democrat will copy 3 weeks and charge.

A severe sprain entirely cured with one bottle of the Liniment. New York, June 19, 1845.

Dear Sir:—It affords me pleasure to comply with your request, and add my testimony to the excellency of Hunt's Liniment as an outward application for the cure of sprains, bruises, &c.—Last winter I sprained my ankle badly, and was sometime confined to the house. The injured part was very much swollen, and the pain intense; after trying a variety of remedies, I made an application of your Liniment, and found from its use speedy relief. Speaking from my own experience, I can confidently recommend it as a valuable medicine in cases like the one in which I tested its qualities. Yours respectfully, JOHN G. MAGER, 44 Wall Street.
