Baltimore. ug. 23, 1852 at I have exe signed cergetable Tincgentlemes of . STAPLETON, and others. tanding of the bray, who, for ed the entire merchants and JEROME.

BILITY. es on himself, ering with the ty, constantly gh her whole health than for by the use of Baltimore st., six years; could in his limbs, His physiat Hampton's I. P. Thomas-rom Kentucky, er the eyehalls was cured by ase, Sc. custom house, hteen months, affected. He

th for 5 years, re or six phywas cured on-TINCTURE. Easton; Mans timore, and by nov 5--1 y Mixture.

the Blood.

y in it. rofula. King's staneous Erup-Face, Blotching Worm or nt and Pain of Ulcers, Lum-Diseases ari ercury, Impruas become celinary cures elced the proprifriends, to offer derful curative cates, selected stronger testiproprietors; and in their localiility, many of lixture admin nearly all the ever seen. AT CURE.-I n. I had seves of Quinine. ics advertised. ef. At last I two bottles of am happy to evers since. forld, and the ear Richmond. v of Richmond ffice, has such cy of Carter's ht upwards of y to the afflicnown it to fail n, and formerof Richmond. of instances the e, which were a case of Conthe good effects m of Drinker of Liver Comuse of two bot-

ALPE EDITORAL W. H. C

> VANCE, or TWO > CENTS if not pai
> of subscribing, or t feilure to notify as a new engageis

Take back, dea Thy gentle When I wa Take back-From which For, oh! beli Take ba

Then L e Tincture, af-have .

We a

an acc

Directors

reckless c

drunken st

Hnocked

men of pleadir

ted to gir

dog bu es

as the at bourn he chuck

. Flint, Cam-

ith the utmost ge Hotel, Riche has seen the ded, with the le says it is the had Ague and

FULA.—The an had a serSATURDAY MOBNING,

GRAHAM & JOHNSON. J. A. JOHNSON, EDITOR.

TERMS.

TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM IN AD-VANCE, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time of subscribing, or the renewal of subscription .-A failure to notify a discontinuance is considered as a new engagement.

Where the Press is Free-"Literature well or ill conducted is the Great Engine by which all Popular States must ultimately be supported or overthrown-

RELIGION purifies the Heart and teaches us our Duty-Morality refines the Manner Agriculture makes us Rich, and Politics provides for the enjoyment of all."

JOHN GOLDSBOROUGH.

TOST respectfully call the attention of the public to their very large and elegant assortment of NEW SPRING & SUMMER GOODS, which they are now opening at their old stand in Easton comprising all the new fabrics and most attractive styles of the latest importation, among which may be found for Ladies' wear Plaid, Fig'd, Plain and Changeable Glace Silks from Col'd Florences and Gru de Naps,

Plain Black and Gro de Rhine Rich Fig'd French Brilliantes (white and colored) beautifui for children, Barege de Laines and Chally Bareges, from

MHILE GOODS. Plain Swiss, Book, Tarlton, Mull, Jaconet and Cambric Muslins; Fig'd Swiss, in white and colors;

Sheeting, Pillow Case, Shirting and Irish Linen, Long Lawn. Bird Eye. Huckaback and Russia Diaper. Crask, Bleached and yublcached Table Damask. Table Clothe, White and Brown, Damask Table Napkins, Linen Towels, Linen Cambrie (very fine,) Linen Cambrie Handk'ffs, Embroidered & French Lawn, do.

Cambrie and Swiss Rufflings, Worked Undersleeves, Chimizetts, Cambrie, Swiss & Jaconet Edgings and Insertings. French Worked Collars in Jaconet. Cambric and Swiss, Imitations Honiton & Valenciennes Collars, Lace, do.

White Crape Shawls from $5 to $25-White and Col'd Plain Barege de Cashmere, do-Large &

Marseilles and summer Quilts, Furniture Damask, Sleeve Preservers, Elastics, Grass and Corded Skirts. Tuck Combs, Bl'k Silk Lace and Fringe, Buff and Brown French Linguistic for curtains, white tion occurred two events, whose colossal pro-still, more impetuously drove the flames for- er in some greate citty laid waste by a cru- of God (it being on Sunday evening) which

They can offer a most beautiful assortment of Bl'k, Blue, Green, Brown, Mulbury and Claret Plague and Fire, which raged throughout On ye 5th day it crossed towards White- though fallen from its nich in the Royal Ex- a French boy singing love songs in that Cloths, Plain and Fancy Cassimeres, in great variety. Vestings of every material. Silk and Linen the metropolis of England—the former in half to the confusion there was then at change, remain'd entire, when all those of glorious gallery, whilst about twenty of the standard to the confusion there was then at change, remain'd entire, when all those of glorious gallery, whilst about twenty of the standard to the confusion to the c

Hardware, Queensware, Groceries & Tinware, Make their stock complete in nearly every branch. Being fully aware of the advantage of quick sales

Large and Handsome . Issortment of and respectfully solicits his friends and the public generally to examine them.

X E W SPRING & SUMMER AT EASTON.

IIIE subscribers have just received their full! supply of SPRING & SUMMER GOODS. BBA GBBB

GROCERIES. QUEENSWARE, HARDWARE, CUTLERY, GLASS, &c., &c. vite the attention of their friends and the public.

To an examination of which they respectfully in-SAMIL MACKEY & SON.

HAVE just returned from the city with an had the pleasure of exhibiting in this market, to treasury, his officers, Physicians and assis- as with the former three days consumption, that they had been the occasion of firing and a broken heart.' which added to my former stock makes my assort ment very complete.

My assortment of Ladies Dress Goods is very full and complete consisting in part of Plain and Fig'd Berages. Berage De Laines, Challe De Laines, Ginghams, Lawns, Plan and Fig'd Swiss Muslins, Plaid

Calicoes, Sc., Se., and a nice assortment of mourning Ginghams, Cashmeret, Tweeds, and other Coatings; Plain & not be the executor of so much inhumanity citty, was look'd on as a prophecy. Also a very large and complete assortment of White Goods, viz: Plaid, Cambric, Jaconet, Mull.

Book and Swiss Muslin. Bishops Lawn, Linen Cambrie, Se. egether with a fine selection of Cloths. Cassimeres. Drillings. Treceds and l'estings, for Men's wear; Cravats. Gloves. Handkerchiefs. &c., S.c. 339 Also, a complete and full assurtment of HARDWARE. QUEENSWARE, GROCERIES. Sec.

J. H. GRACE.

LATEST ARRIVAL.

I IIIE subscriber has just retained from Baltimore, with a new and select assortment of GOODS usually kept in his line: such as Be Gold and Silver Watches. Gold Guard and Vest Chains; Gold Keys, Pencils & Pens; Silver Butter Knives, Silver Fruit Knives: Albatta Table, Desert and Tea Sprons; Ladies' Breast Pins, Cuff Pins, Ear Rings, Finger Rings; Childeren's Gold Armlets:

Bracelets; Port Monies; Card Cases; a fine assortment of Pen Knives and Razors. and a large assortment of FANCY GOODS, too numerous to mention. Also, Fresh Candy, Nuts of different kinds, Oranges and Lemons.

les, Groceries, such as best Rio & Laguyra Coffee, Brown and clarified White Sugar, N. O. Molasses and N. Y. Syrup;

CIGARS & TOBACCO, Call and see for yourselves. All of the above Drillings. eash or on time to punctual customers. The public's ob't serv't.

CHAS. ROBINSON. that MANSFIELD & HARRISON can self-14 Lawns at 61 cents, worth 124. worth 25.

GOLDSBORGUGH & DAWSON

Fig'd and Plain Colored Challeys, very superior,

121 to 56 cents. American and French banns and Ustrandies Fig'd French Jaconets (delicate colors) French and English Chintz, Callicues and Ginghams 62 to 25

Victoria Lawn, Piain and Striped Swiss and Cambric Muslins, Plain and Fig'd Bobonets, Embroideted Curtains. LINEN & HOUSEREEPING GOODS.

EMBROIDERIES.

COLUMN AND THE SE

small Patterns, (very pretty.)

MISCELLANEOUS. Black Lace Falls, Green, Blue and Brown Barege and Tissue, Cloth Table Covers. Toilet Covers.

and Col'd Paper Cambries, Bl'k Silk Mits for Ladies and Misses. White and Bl'k silk Hose, Raw portions stand prominently out from the his- ward. Nothing but the Almighty power of el enemy: to which was added the stench this day se'n night I was witness of, the and rapid returns, they have determined to offer every article comprised in their stock at the lowest possible price, and nothing shall be wanting on their part to make every business transaction will those dealing with them satisfactory. Orders always attended to promptly.

NEW C. H. HAMMOND

Dry Goods, Groberies, GLASS. TINWARE, &c., to which he solicits an examination of his friends.

ance of the same. BEAUTIFUL STOCK!

AMERICAN MAINUFACTURE. I WHE subscribers have just returned from the part as follows: Striped Challi do; Barege de Laines, Tissues, Plain, striped and Dotted Swiss, Plain & Fig'd French Chintzes.

Cashmere, and Marseilles Vestings. Heavy assortment of DOMESTIC

GOODS, togher with HARDWARE, GROCERIES, QUEENSWARE. 'GLASS, TIN, &c., &c.

Feeling thankful for past favors, we hope by publics' ob't serv'ts. MANSFIELD & HARRISON.

St. Michaels. RICH, NEW, & BEAUTIFUL!! him to be to an examination of which the public are most re- Spring and Summer Goods,

FRENCH, GERMAN, & ENGLISH IMPOLITATION AMERICAN MANUFACTURE.

Thompson & Kersey they cannot fail to please. In their stock of DRY GOODS will be found every variety of DRESS GOODS: Plain and fig'd Dress Silks; Black Dress Silks; Embroidered Barreges; Plain Barreges; Figured Barreges: Plaid Barreges; Challi Barreges; Barrege De Lanes; Fig'd Silk Tissues; Swiss Dresses, plain, dotted and sprig.

GLOVES, &c. G. Powder, Imperial and Y. H. Teas; fancy CASSIMERES; satin, silk, cassimere, Va-

NANS! FANS!!-A very large and complete gration

EASTON, MD., SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1854. WILLIAM P. DAWSON. THE BLOOM HATH FLED THY CHEEK, MARY goods floating, all the barges and boates la- vaulted roof falling broke into St. Faith's, found in London a sufficient number of good But, look on me, the prints of grief · Still decper lie.

Farewell ! Thy lips are pale and mute, Mary, Thy step is sad and slow, The morn of gladness hath gone by Thou erst did know; 1, too, am changed like thee, and weep For very woe. Farewell!

It seems as't were but resterday When murmured sighs and joyous tears, Dropping like rain, Discoursed my love, and told bow loved I was again.

'Twas not in cold and measured ----We gare cun passion name; Our beart's fond flame And long imprisoned feelings fast In deep sobs came. Farewell!

Would that our love had been the love That merest wordlings know, . When passion's draught to our doomed lips Turns utter woe, And our poor dream of happiness Vanishes so!

But in the wreck of all our hopes, There's vet some touch of bliss, Since fate roles not our wretchedness Of this last kiss; Despair, and love, and madness meet

Farewell!

Farenell!

In this, in this.

Written for the Easton Gazette. ? JOHN EVELYN. [CONTINUED.]

the Plague, war was declared against the of solmany houses as might make a wider and air, smoke and fiery vapour continued were compelled to retire from the court. Dutch, and Evelyn appointed one of four gap than any had yet been made by the or- so intense that my haire was almost singed, Of many of these Evelyn had been for years N. EMORY has just returned from the city and is row on the cities of Philadelphis and large and carefully assorted stock sicians, Surgeons, and other officers, and to engiles, this some stout seaman proposed. The bie lanes and narrow streets were quite were no longer in authority they discovered by whole fill'd up with rubbish, nor could we have ed him to be the firm and unchanging friend with remarkable industry. He had just ob- mis blermen, &c. would not permit be some Church or Hall, that had some remarks third war margin or the sick and wounded, can melt houses must have been of the kapte tower or pinacte remaining. I town was the frequent visiter of Clarendon, when when the contagion began to spread fearful- first. It was therefore now commanded to went towards Islington and Highgale, where that admirable man was abandoned by the and the public. He asks the especial attention of silanimous fear of death, in whose hearts larly for the Hospital of St. Eartholomew ranks and degrees dispers'd and lying along in his disgrace felt the size ity of Evelyn's the Ladies to a large and well selected assertment self had merged all the nobler qualities of neere Smithfield, where i had many woun- by their heapes of what they could save friendship, and wrung friendship, and wrung friendship, and wrung friendship. GOODS of DRESS GOODS. In this department of his humanity, fled precipitately from the city; ded and sick men, made me the more dili- from the fire, deploring their losse, and the when (as it afterwards appeared) he had rebusiness he flatters himself he can please any and regardful only of their own safety and pro- gent to promote it, nor was my care for the ready to perish for hunger and destitution, solved upon suicide with an earnestness either sick or wounded. To Lord Comber- ruines by neere a furlongs space. ry he thus writes: Fancy Cassimere; Silk, Satm and Valentia seech your honor, It us not be reputed bar- giving warning what might probably be the made the whole Court amaz'd, and they did The Intelligencer says: barians, or if at last we must be so, let me issue of suffering those shops to be in the with infinite paines and greate difficulty re- Pistols were freely used, stones flew in wealth of the indies.' says and dangerous to see so many coffins miser and poverty. exposed in the streets, the streets thin of . In this calamitous condition I return'd Such was the great fire, in comparison to atoms.

might be next.' Following close upon the tread of the in my litte Zoar, safe and sound." tinued its ravages an entire week, leaving difficilty, made his way on foot from White- women alike bore themselves bravely and was going on. the great city a mass of undistinguished ru- hall ta London Bridge being obliged to clam- went about, with hopefullness, the task of Jackson Fowler, mate; shot in the left side. ins. Various circumstances conspired to ber ofer the ruins, and often losing himself reparation. It is remarkable that the Mcr. James Russell, pilot; shot in the arm. AVE just returned from the cities of Phila. favor the rapid progress of the flames. It in places the most familiar. The ground chants complied with their fereign corres- A man, whose name we did not learn, redelphia and Baltimore with the largest and was a season of unprecedented drought and was a hot as to burn the soles of his shoes pondence as punctually as if no disaster ceived a stab in the back, under the left best selected stock of goods ever offered by them, a fierce wind from the east continued to to a disp; while the various obstructions to had happened and not one failure was heard arm, the point of the weapon coming out Time and care have been expended in the select blow for several days with increasing fury. his pagress rendered the passage at once of! Two plans for a new city were sub- of the left breast.

tent. Billows of fire dashing against a dun bout the Graff, prevented a catastrophe in some points, superior to that of the dis- were closed, and remained closed during sky threw a fearful glare on the towers and which would have completely destroyed the tinguished achitect of St. Paul's. It is a the afternoon and evening. dwellings which continued to survive the bridge sunk the shipping in the river, and fact for the speculation of the moralist that As nearly as we can learn, three men are general wreck, and lighted up the quiet as spreid death and devastation over the sur- the reaction following overwhelming cas already dead from the effects of wounds rebodes of the cottagers for many miles around. sounling country. In continuation Evelyn lamities, both in individuals and commu- ceived in the riot, and two are not expec-A great variety of SHAWLS, HOSIERY. The energies of the inhabitants were para- observes: FRENCH CLOTHS, all colors; black and lysed by the overwhelming suddenness and At my return I was infinitely concerned mation. The events sent by Providence to At a rough estimate there are not less extent of the calamity. Every where could to find that goodly church St. Pauls now a chasten and subdue us often fail of their than fifty or sixty houses, chiefly hish dog-Soda and Wine Crackers; best | lentia, linen and Marseilles VESTINGS; Cassi, be seen men, women, and children rushing sad rune, and that beautiful portico (for intended effect and leave as deeper in sin. geries of the lowest order, badly damaged mere, Tweed and Cashmerett COATINGS; distracted through the streets and lanes, or structure comparable to any in Europe, as and further from grace than before. De and their contents destreyed. To estimate and a great many articles too tedious to mention, white and brown, plain and plaid Liners and rending the air with fruitless lamentations, not lorg before repaired by the King) now Foe complained of the wickedness of the the loss we are unable, but should guess it Great public edifices which had stood for rent in pieces, flakes of vast stone split as people immediately opon the cessation of not much short of $50,000. All this, begoods have been selected with great care and Their stock of Groceries, Hardware, years, and had begun to be regarded as alsunder, and nothing remaining entire but the plague, but the state of London merals sides the murder and maining, was the work bought on the best terms, and will be sold low for China, Glass, Queensware, &c. is also most indestructable, toppled and fell upon the inscription in the architrave, showing following the great configuration was even of but a few hours. The police force was out to the fields, which for many carried thither for safety, they were all a profligate court how beautifully shone the miles were strew'd with moveables of all consumed, burning for a weeke following. virtues of John Evelyn! His public 25 and tents erecting to shelter both peo- It is also observable that the lead over ye well as his private acts were executed in ple and what goods they could get away. - altar at ye cast end was untouched, and a- the fear of God, and with a single view to the miserable and calamitous spectacle! mong the divers monuments, the body of the good of his countrymen. Sorrow strickthe since the foundation of it, nor to be out- A remarkable coincidence between the ingly stalked abroad before him. With edone till the universal conflagration. All the burning of St. Pauls in London and that of ven the fashionable follies of the day he skie was of a fiery aspect, like the top of a a church of the same name in Baltimore re- had nought to do. Gambling he deprecated; bursing oven, the light seen above 40 miles cently consumed, is to be traced among the the bloody sports of the Bear garden he reround about for many nights. God grant my incidents attending these conflagrations .- garded with pieus horror; even the Theatra eres may never behold the like, now seeing. The body of one Bishop, as we are inform- was rarely visited by him, and never except see, and the sire all about so hot and in- Paul and Saratoga streets in ruins.

of melten lead, so as no horse nor man timber unconsumed, nor many stones but awful close of the drama! was able to tread on them, and the demoli- what were calcined white as snow. The I can never forget the inexpressible luxtion had stopp'd all the passages, so that no people who now walked about ye ruins ap- ury and profaneness, gaming and all dis-toric page of London and cast a shadow broad God was able to stop them, for vaine was that came from some poore creatures bodies, King sitting and toying with his concubines, 1664-and the latter in 1666. The graph- that courte! It pleased his Ma'ty to com- ye Kings since ye conquest were broken to great courtiers and other dissolute persons ic and powerful pen of De Foe has faithful- manufme among ye rest to looke after the pieces also, the standard in Cornehill, and were at bassat round a large table; a bank ly pourtrayed the ravages of the Epidemic; quesching of Fetter Lane'end, to preserve 2, Elizabeth's effigies, with some armes on of at least £2000 in gold before them, upon and the unequalled conflagration which fol- if possible that part of Holborn, whilst the Ludgale, continued with but little detri- which two gentlemen who were with me lowed, on the fatal night of the second of rest of ye gentlemen tooke their several ment, whilst the vast yron chaines of the made reflexions with asionishment. Six September, sixteen hundred and sixty-six, posts for now they began to bestir them- cittie streetes, hinges, barrs and gates of days after, all was in dust!" found in Evelyn who was an eye witness selves, and not till now, who hitherto had prisons were many of them mealted and re- The accession of James brought with it of the appalling scene, an eloquent descri- stood as men intoxicated with their hands duced to cinders by ye vehement heate. many changes. Some of those who were in acroste) and began to consider that nothing I was not able to pass through all the nar- power during the reign of Charles experi-In the same year of the breaking out of was tikely to put a stop but the blowing up row streets, but kept the widest, the ground enced the reverses of fickle fortune and

. His Hospital duties were performed city of this same tenacious and avaritious known where we was, but by we roines of In their adversity his affectionate sympaly around him. Many, penetrated by a pu- be partied, and my concern being particu- one might have seene 200,000 people of all swarm of summer following. Clared too tection. Evelyn trusting in the Providence Saroy lesse. It now pleased God by aba- yet not asking one penny for relief, which that showed there was something in the Thankful for the liberal patronage Peretofore and goodness of God,' stood firmly at the ting the wind, and by the industrie of ye to me appear'd a stranger sight than any I would from which he could not part without extended to him, he assures his friends that nothing post of danger-exhorting the Medical staff people, infusing a new spirit into them, that had yet beheld. His majesty and council a painful effort, and a feeling that unmanand provost Marshalls tota faithful perfor- the fury of it began sensibly to abate about indeede tooke all imaginable care for their ned him. Se, also when Arling on's formance of their responsible duties; and ani- noone, so as it came no further than ye relief by proclamation for the country to tunes were on the move, Evelyn dwells in mating the sick and dying with tones of Temple Westward, nor than ye entrance of come in and refresh them with provisions. his journal with delight upon the better SPRING & SUMMER GOODS tenderness and encouragement. No man, Smithed North. But continued all this in youngest of the same trying attitude could day and night so impetuous towards Crip-sion, there was, I know not how, an alarme his griefs to Evelyn when he embarked with have exhibited more in his conduct worthy plegate and the Tower as made us all des- begun that the French and Dutch, with a determination of seeking death in battle. the admiration of all after time. Truly per- paire: it also broke out againe in the Tem- whom we were now in hostility, were not and thereby compelling those to do justice plexing were the cares of his official rela- ple, but the courage of the multitude per- onely landed, but even entering the citty. to his character who had exposed it; and it cities and are now prepared to offer to the tion to the government. Possessed of ex- sisting, and many houses being blown up, There was in truth some before great sus- was into Evelyn's ear that Ossory breath'd public, the best assortment of Goods we have ever ceedingly scanty supplies from the public such gaps and desolations were soon made, picion of those 2 nations joining; and now, the last overflowings of a wounded spirit which we call especial attention. We name in tants swept away by the malignant disor- the back fire did not so vehemently urge the towne. This report did so terrifie that der, he found himself with the care of 25000 upon the rest as formerly. There was yet on a suddaine there was such an uproare

when the price of one good subjects' life is The poore inhabitants were dispersed as troops of soldiers and guards to cause them Morgan and Green streets and Washington rightly considered of more value than the bout 't. George's Fields, and Moorefields, to retire into ye fields againe, where they avenue, and on the whole front of the Lelas far as Highgate, and severall miles in were watch'd all this night. I left them vee, from Cherry street to below Locust. Ten thousand were now dying weekly, circle some under mis- pretty quiet, and came home sufficiently were more or less injured. In the whole yet everywhere throughout the city, in the erable hats and hovells, many without a block on Morgan street between Main and most infected districts and among the most rag orany necessary utensils, bed or board, little calmed, and the affiright abated, they the Levee, there is not, on either side, a strict attention to business and an effort to please, malignant subjects, this excellent man was to who from delicatenesse, riches, and easy now began to repaire into ye suburbs about drinking house of which the front is not ento ment a continuance of the public favor. The be seen daily in the discharge of his official accommodations in stately and well furnish- the citty, where such as had friends or op- tirely destroyed, as far as it is capable of and humane duties. 'A dismal passage' he ed horses, were now reduc'd to extreemist portunity got shelter for the present, to which destruction, and in many instances, the

They take occasion here to return their thanks their paths; and they who had recently be- by whom it was built, which had not one more to be deplored. The scenes of the entirely insufficient, and for nearly three to their friends and the public generally for the held the dead at every door in the city, letter of it defaced. It was astonishing to burning week were merged in oblivion— hours the excited multitude had full sway. TOTICE -If startling it is nevertheless true liberal patronage heretofore bestowed upon them, saw in this new calamity sweeping over see what immense stones the heat had in a the finger of God was no longer visible in After the appearance of the military coinand hope by constant attention to business and un- them, but another proof of the vengeance of manner calcin'd, so that all ye ornaments, the work of destruction—and men forget- parative order was restored, but to the hour tiring efforts to please, to merit a continuance of Heaven. Evelyn describes very minutely columns, freezes, and projectures of massive ful of the past and reckless of the fature of going to press this morning, there were

ADVERTISEMENTS,

Not exceeding one square, (12 lines) inserted THREE TIMES for ONE POLLAR, and IWENTY-FIVE CENTS for each subsequent insertion. Longer ones in proportion. A liberal deduction to yearly 2dvertisers. Advertisen ents not marked the number of insettions desired, will be continued uniff forbid, and charged accordingly.

Merchants and others who advertise by the year, will in no case be allowed to insert any advertisement bot connected with their regular business, without an additional charge.

ther with what some had time and courage which being filled with the magazines of men to shield the city from divine vengeance. to lare, as, on ye other, ye coasts, &c. car- books belonginging to ye stationers, and In the midst of the contagious immoralities of above 10,000 houses all in one flame: the ed, survived the wreck of the former; that to witness the exhibition of some transcription of people, the fall of Toyers, uninjured by the devouring tent which stage. The conduct of Charles, whom he laid the noble edifice at the corner of St. loved, penetrated his your with a grief too flaimed that at last one was not able to ap- 'Thus lay in ashes' continues Eevelyn, and prayed for him but without avail.proach it, so that they were forced to stand 'that most venerable Church, one of the Charles ever listened respectfully to one still and let ye flames burn on, weh they most antient pieces of early piety in ye whom he esteemed for his unsulied public did for neare two miles in length and one Christian world, besides necre 100 more. - worth and private virtues, but no change in bredth. The clouds of smoke were dis- The lead yron worke, bells, plate, &c. meal- for the better occurred in his deportment.mail and reached upon computation neere ted; the exquisitely wrought Mercers Chap- Evelyn lived to witness the end of a reign 50 miles in length. Thus Heft it this after- ell, the sumptuous Exchange, ye august which for its gross immoralities has been noon burning, a resemblance of Sodom, or fabriq of Christ Church, all ye rest of justly centured. While he dropped the last day. London was, but is no more!" the Companies Halls, sumptious buil- tear to the memory of the King who On rushed the storm of fire. Street af- dings, arches, all in dust; the fountaines had ever treated him with kindness and after street inflamed in rapid succession .- dried up and ruin'd whilst the very waters fability, he could not but be painfully mind-Fleete, the old Baily, Ludgate Hill, War- remained boiling; the vorago's of subterra- ful of the many errors which stained his life. wick Lane, Paul's chain, Natling street, nean cellars, wells, and dungeons, formerly As a political economist he had seen much were already reduced to ashes. Heated warehouses, still burning in stench and dark to disapprove, as a christian much which he stones flew in every direction, while over clouds of smoke, so that in 5 or 6 miles felt it his duty fearlessly to denounce. the red and glowing pavements ran rivers traversing about I did not see one load of What a sad picture does he paint at the

(To be continued.) Plain, Fig'd, & Plaid Silks: Black Lustring Silks; prisoners, fifteen hundred of whom were no standing neere the burning and glowing and tumult that they ran from their goods, RIOT AT ST. LOUIS-THREE MEN and taking what weapens they could come Killer.-The St. Louis Intelligencer gives The coale and wood wharfes and maga- at, they could not be stopped from falling a detailed account of a fatal riot in that city Our prisoners beg at us as a mercy to zines of oyle, rosin, &c. did infinite mischief. on some of those nations whom they casu- on the evening of the 8th inst., originating do. do Lawns. knock them on the head, for we have no so as he invective which a little before I ally met, without sense or reason. The in a quarrel at or near the Fifth Ward poll. French Cloths, various colors and prices: Bl'k and bread to relieve the dying creatures. I be- had dedicated to his Ma'ty and published, c'amor and published, c'amor and published, c'amor and published it in which an Irishman stabbed an American.

his Mat'vs inclination also invited them. houses are riddled and the furniture broke people, the shops shut up, and all in mourn- with a sad heart to my house, blessing and with which history has few calamities of Joseph Arnol or Arnold a Frenchman. ful silence, as not knowing whose turn it adoring the mercy of God to me and mine, equal extent to record. According to Ev- working on the canal boat Burlington, and wholf the midst of all this was like Lot. elvn the citizens, at first panic stricken, be- just arrived from Chicago; killed. He was came calm and resigned when the sad work not in the affray, and was shot down almost Pestilence came the great Fire which con- On the seventh day Evelyn with great of destruction was at an end. Men and immediately on leaving the boat to see what tion, and they flatter themselves, from their long At ten o'clock at night the fire broke out in tedices and painful. The Tower was regar- mitted, one by Evelyn and the other by Wounded men were constantly borne up experience in buying goods for this market, that Fish street; thence extending to the water- ded ith intense anxiety, containing as it Doctor (afterwards Sir Christopher Wren.) from the Levee to Broadway, during the side in Southwark; involving, in an in- did the large powder magazines of the Gov- The proposition of the latter having been time of the fight, and such terror reigned in credibly short period the bridge. Thames ernmint. His majesty by a timely exit first presented was adopted, aithor the the neighborhood that the stores on Broadstreet and Cheanside through its whole ex- and the demolition of several buildings a- scheme offered by Evelyn was regarded as way and on Fourth for some distance down.

nities, is not always that of healthy refor- ted to survive.

the various incidents of this awful confla- Portland stone flew off, even to ye very plunged into every excess of levity and small squads moving here and there, but roof shere a sheet of lead covering a great crime. But the spirit of vital piety was apparently without ability to do further misthe ruines of the not wholly extinct, and there was still to be chief.