THE following, handed to us by a friend, is a true! HARD TIMES.

"Hard Times" is now on every lip, And breathed from every tongue; The Banks are cursed by one and all, The aged and the young. The merchant has to close his doors,

Such times he vows were never seen By any mortal eye. The shopmen quit the counter's side For customers are so very few, The times are now so very "TIGHT"

And throw his ledger by;

It makes them all look "blue." The citizen in vain essays To make more than his bread; A pound of which he now declares Won't weigh a pound of bread!

There's not a day but some one fails, Some house that goes to smash; And names that once stood high on CHANGE, Are out for want of Cash, Those whom we tho't were MILLIONAIRES, And rich in shares and stocks,

Their "MILLION HEIRS" now disappoint Fail and leave no "Rocks." "Hard times! hard times! Was ever seen Such times as hard as these?" This is the cry from morn till night,

In which each one agrees. . A remedy I think I've found, Say, how do you think 'twill do? "Pull off your coat, roll up your sleeves, And work these hard times through !"
