NEW GOODS.

as a new engagement.

FAMILY

y the luxury

and is at the

to the eves,

and econony

tly free from

Manadement

mps. They

be reduced

the quantity

so long been

IA CHASITEON

if apparaics

realized in and fully a-

moun, viz:

description

ps. Chanda-

isily applied

cheapest oz.

most cestly

-four barner

in the reach

The light

rary in profures. The

the at a cost

eighbor will,

Tornia stell

ther known

non-expla-

is arranged.

sing through

me does not

alers of any other Gen-

ine) for the

ante perfect

burner, and

he varifac-

l of oil will ring at the

balf of the

dinary flaid

ing the fall

rance of a

for the rea-

ther abute

ting church-

ht, will re-

ment made

ng else, as individual

s a luxury

, and adds

rson, have nufacturing

ty and for th every-

AND DIS

pply to the SON.

nty. Md.

rner.

e Intenters

nious little amount of

e half the

t has prot-

light is te-

s with the y lico-tube

allest taper

ber light.

t effect its

g using 2

knowa 🙀

amps, ex-

or the en

in a very

ll who try

very com-

use these

Rights for

son, have

ufacturing

the oil.

r hour.

not tedeit:

han one cent

four ording.

friends generally, that we have just retirned from the city of Baltimore with a full supor of everything in our line of ousiness. We are on hand a good assortment of Domestic Dry Goods, together with a full supply of GROCERIES, HARDWARE, WOODWARE, TINWARE, QUEENSWARE. &c. All of which we are selling at prices to suit the times. We would advise all in want of goods in our line to give us a call. A. DODD & SON.

FRUET, CE. fattlE suscriber again informs his friends and customers that he has just returned from the eitr with a large assortment of GOODS, as fol-Fancy Goods, Toys. Books and Stationary, Fine Cutlery, Perfumery, &c., &c.

Raisins by the pound or box. Figs. Currants. Citron. Prunes, Pickles, Almonds, Pecan Nuts. English Walnuts, Apples. A large assortment of Plain and Fancy Candies. and a great many articles in the Fancy line too namerous to mention.

The subscriber feels very greatful to his friends his line. The public's ob't servant.

GHREDCE BEY ITHE subscriber has just received and keeps tively limited.

L constantly on hand a superior stock of family Groceries, together with a large lot of Glass and Queensware, Stone, Earthen.

Tin, Wooden and Hardware. Also a complete assortment of Fancy Articles.

stowed upon him.

Give him a call before purchasing elsewhere. Country Produce generally.

GOH-DE HO

IIIE unadersigned having fitted up a large store room near his residence, at the northern rad of Washington street and nearly opposite the my pins." Miles River Road, would respectfully invite the attention of his friends and the public generally to his well selected stock of DOMESTIC DR1 EYWIFA CHOCEBIES" WOODENWARE.

Lem bargains.

Traches, Eggs, &c.

manner and at reasonable paces. may 14-y S M

FIRST OF THE SEASON!

JAMES H. GRACE

Black Silks of all prices from 37 2 up. Colored Silks of newest styles and cheap, Berage Englais, Printed and Plain Grenadine, Crincline. Poplas Larellas,

Also a splendid assortment of Ladies' Embroidered Cillars, Gruntletts, Handle ffs, pecifally invited.

mar 17 JAMES II. GRACE.

IQUID RENNET - For making Slip and is is an elegant preparation of Rennet, in a con-Tenient form for immediate use. Accompanying baring the celebrated Devoushire Junket .-. f.ce 25 cents per vial. CAMPBELL & GOLDSEOROUGH.

CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS. REMEMBER that the place to buy good cst materials at low prices is in Easton at the F. Corner Dover and Washington Streets. ere every article in the Hardware line is sold Per than at any other store in the State. T. C. Nicols, JR.

will be sold cheap for cash or country Pro- of their maniae ravings. W. T HARDESTY pay cash or merchandise, frice will be paid in cash.

SUNRISE. BY J. E. CARPENTER.

Sunrise on the hills! A flood of golden light! A thousand guishing rills Reflect the glorious sight!

The song of many a bird Now echoes through the grove, And everywhere is heard The sounds of joy and love! The busy voice of day

The peopled city fills; Up! up! far, far away Tis sunrise on the hills. Sunrise on the hills!

Night's veil is torn aside. The welcome day light fills, Creation far and wide, No more the sailor steers His ressel by the star, No hidden rock he fears-The land is still afar;

While whistling at his plough The earth the peasant tills; The world's awaking now. The sunrise on the hills! For the Easton Gazette.

Maryland Farming in Texas.

It has been some time since I have occupied a. continue to patronise him at the old stand, where not now trouble you again, but for the simple! they will find a complete assortment of goods in fact of having met, or rather found, in my extensive horseback travels thro' the great South west, CHARLES ROBINSON. | the gigantic State of Texas,-a most worthy man, located in the North eastern section, who is a native of this State and county, and whose STORE industry and perseverance, is indeed worthy of Beckman. Dutchess county, N. Y., died on Mon-

With no little pleasure, I can assure you. dropped upon my kind triend, Mr. Leaverton, one bright evening, some two months pastsought the soul-cheering influence of his warm tic forests, the comparatively unsettled eastern division, of this great southern State:

It was with no little pleasure, I looked upon the similing appearance of every thing, that re- tweety years ago, he and another man (both then ty approved of the match, but the intended huslle also keeps constantly on hand a full supply of minded me so foreibly of my dear old native LIQUORS of various kinds, to which he invites Shore-granting that she is yet, in a measure, cut off from the great outside world. The even-The above Goods having been selected with ing repast, spread so temptingly to the wearier great care and purchased on the most reasonable and hungry traveler. The delicious Maryland lay, murder, and then rob him, when they should the next morning to give him the result of his teems, will enable him to sell them at prices to bread, the biscuit so white, light and healthy: bury him in the woods, and carefully remove set the times. Thankful for past favors, he trusts where will you find its equal? The corn bread, diligence and strict attention to business to so different from the "Dodger," coarse meal mixment a continuance of the patronage heretofore be- ed with cold water, placed in the oven in the his pack upon his shoulder, and singing gayly shape of a man's fis . miserably cooked, and called "corn dodgers." Outside of Maryland or J. P. BLAKE. | Virginia, you rarely meet with corn bread that is N. B -The highest market prices allowed for entable; they have not the first idea of how to fings. Wool, Feathers, Eggs. Dried Fruit, and prepare it; and coming to this Maryland settlement. I was charmed to find delicious breas manufactured from this great staff of life. It is though but a poer staff, in the hands of the ignorant and indifferent settlers of the great west and several weeks. I became, if you will pardon the enough had already been said by him, as to his ed his proceedings, and seen their results, he Douglas and Mr. Buchanan. fashionable phrase, very weak, and "groggy on associate in crime, and the place where Lee was

The confial reception I received from the GOODS, together with a general assortment of was so different from what I had been receiving from the good-trires, in my tour through the wilds of eastern Texas (whom, with all due re-Spect to the sex in general, have not half the gen-appearance. nine feeling of the men-! have several times! QUEENSWARE, STONEWARE, been turned from the door by them, to sleep in The public are respectfully invited to give me once more like one of the human species, and THE ACCUSED, &c. scall; as I sell for cash only I think I can sell very soon became renovated, and myself again. It has now been about two months since Jack- self, and, to tell you the truth, you will then wanton and wicked on the part of the Secretary! The highest price will be given for Rags, Feath- premises; the rose bush trained with much taste and his brother, of the oyster sloop Spray, was tal, and your head are fit for, and will be a bet- that Mr. Douglas would feel that he had been 13. Wool, Dried and Green Hides, Dried Apples. up the sides of the house, to fill with perfume arrested. Immediately after his examination in ter and happier man than ever." Old Bakewell "neglected," and by reminding the Governor of every room; the well kept plat of grass, and Jersey city, he was taken in charge by one of the used to tell this story with great glee, and de- the fact, would call the more marked attention W.T. HARDESTY. | broad spreading oaks and pecans casting their United States Deputy Marshals, and conveyed clared his friend left as much stock and capital of the other "candidates" to what he had in re-P.S.-All kinds of CLOTHING cut as | dark shadows over its surface, and the rich pro- to the Newark Jul in Essix county, N.J., where upon the 250 acres as he had ever had upon the serve. and made at short notice in a fashionable and fusion of flowering shrubs and plants scattered he new remains. tured in lelibly in my heart, that I could scarce- for several weeks, after which he was taken and than a large ill-cultivated one. It O O I ly restrain a shout of pleasure when I first rode placed in the cell on the first floor of the hall. up, coming as I did, from the settlements of the The cell is ten feet by five, clean and airy, THE JAPANESE WITH SIGNOR BLITZ. the Governor, "and I shall be obliged to tell a Three long weary years have I waited for this; rough log-cabin, and everything appertaining to with which Jackalow appears to be well satisfi- The visitors having witnessed Signor Blitz's story to illustrate your chances. When I was a Now, if you'll pop the question I'll surely say yes.

zation and prosperity. Goods ever brought to this market-among and without; the spotless linen of the bed cham- ment men. bich will be found a large and beautiful assort ber, and the spotless cloth that covered the hos- Jackalow will strongly protest his innocence, The familliar trick of the cups and little balls. judgement, skill, and neatness he had been ac- respect.

cultivation. His cotton was just peeping above several hours for recreation. fencing, &c., &c., was much after the Maryland terested.

simply state, that he clears up more in the course ry. number accomplishes here, in this county.

a choice lot of LIQUORS and Groceries, doubtedly king of the civilized world, regardless the prison.

WOOL! WOOL!!-5,000 lbs. crop, great attention is given; thorough tillage, with various crimes. Among the number are culty. of Wool wanted, for which I will the picking season comes, which begins somethe New York police. The former was arrested Niphonese gentleman described Philadelphia as on the plantation is put at it, children that can to and robbing a clothing store in Newark. Their population of the latter as eight millions. INTEREST TO WOOL GROWERS pick from 50lbs upwards. Men practiced in the trial will come off at the next term of the Oyer am again in the market for the purchase art, can pick from 250 to 300lbs and upwards.— and Terminer. descriptions of Wool, for which the highest The force on a place, generally gets during the e where not so favorable, of course not so much-, to receive proposals, every where though, they generally make more! than they can pick. I am not perfectly certain of Mr. Leaverton's average crop of cotton, but from what he told me, it is exceedingly profitable. more so than corn, for which, he generally realizes $1,00 per bushel, and makes generally between forty and fifty bushels per acre. His plan-he is doing exceedingly well. I was much pleased with Mr. L. and his farming operations although a stranger, he received me, and treated me with much kindness and friendship. His indefatagable industry, patience and perseverance, is highly commendable; he went there poor, but with a heart and mind that knew no fear, he persevered and conquered. He has partly reared a family, cleared up a large self and negroes, capacious outbuildings, and is do likewise; there is a plenty of room. In penning this hasty article, it is with no intention to electioneer for the south-west-but simply, as an acknowledgement of the kind atention shown me by this worthy planter from !. Maryland. Yet. if Missourians should go down, and look, and then return, sell out go back, and purchase and settle; and if Virginians, Kentuckians, and the whole long list should go and do likewise, it appears to me, laying aside my own information, that there must be strong inducefor their custom heretofore, and hopes they will place in the columns of your paper, and I would ments. Texas is not a Maryland, but twelve Marylands combined: Nor can a man expect to see this great State, by merely touching at and examining a few small points.

> Near Trappe, June 11th, 1860. A DEATH-BED CONFESSION OF MURday last, after a long illness. The Tribune says: Before he expired he appeared in great agony, something apparently weighing upon his connot die without making a confession. Five or planning to him his position, and at the same time | cheering.) Eastern Shore hospitality, after having under- six persons who were in the house at the time gone some severe trials in the deep, dark, gigan- at once came around the bed of the dying man, when he commenced with the account of a terrible deed of blood.

Lie proceeded to state that, some eighteen or employed in the Beckman Iron Factory) were in the factory woods one afternoon, when a peder named Lee was seen coming in that direction. and it was at once agreed between them to way. all traces of the deed. This was accordingly done, the unconscions pedier truiging along with when the murderers rushed from their hiding place, struck him senscless to the ground, and then deliberately dashed out his brains. He was at once taken up and buried in the factory wood when, as agreed upon by them, all traces of the deed were carefully obliterated, after which they took different directions and returned to the vil-

Before the conscience-stricken wretch couled. The man whom Harrington accused as being implicated with him in the deed. left Beekfrom that time to this has never been heard from for seen. Lee, is remembered by many of the citizens, who also recollect of his mysterious dis-

From the N. V. Commercial Advertiser. the forest with the wild beasts; but never in a THE SLOOP SPRAY TRAGEDY-VISIT had not. "Then," said Bakewell, "you must having had the distinction to be classed with the following to his lady love: ROPE TRACES, &c. single instance, by man-) that I began to feel TO JACKALOW-INTERVIEW WITH give up another fourth of your farm, and keep aspirants, was, of course, a close observer of the

The tidy appearance of everything about the alow, the supposed murderer of Captain Lecte have just such a farm as your stock, your capi- and was purposely made with the conviction such a condition of things; far back in the wil- ed. On either side of his cell, at the top, the display of magic in the Academy in Philadela., demess, where man first paves the way to civili- walls are covered with cuts from the various he determined to bring them into close quarters weekly illustrated papers. At the head of the with his familiar spirit, and on Wednesday even-TAS just returned from city with the largest But if pleased the first evening, on beholding cell there is a large lithographic cut of the John ing, in the presence of about ten of the eleverest and prettiest stock of Ladies' Dress the comfortable residence, the neatness within Brown execution; also, cuts of several prom- of the Japanese, assembled in the upper parlor, uated in Newark. Attached to the main building the trifleing assistance that was asked. To you, who have never witnessed a field of are work-shops and the cooking department .--Whey, from fresh milk in a few minutes. the first germination bursting the alluvial soil, with the Board of Freeholders, and the prison-perfumery establishment on Chestnut street, and putting on its star shaped leaves, attaining the ers are obliged to enter the shops each day and were shown through each department. The size of a considerable bush, and then bursting in perform their regular work. The principle arti- spent some time in examining the perfumes an there are also times, when great losses are ex- have fresh meat twice a week; hash in the morn- of American cities and scenery. They made

AGRICULTURAL.

From the Country Gentleman. OATS AND CARROTS TOGETHER.

Messes. Editors-I notice in the Co. Gent. azine has the following extract from a famous of May 17, Reporter wishes to learn the expe- Union speech, reported by T. Hulbert Under- close, when one morning a rough sort of a cusrience of those who have tried the experiment of | wood: tation is not located in the best cotton growing raising oats and carrots together. As it is a rainy day I feel tempted to comply with the rebroadcast by hand, and the carrot seed by a seed something. He said: sower. The oats were very heavy, and some of them lodged. After harvesting the cats, the solvin' the Union; you can't do it! That's that portion of his originally wooded tract, purchased horse and small plow were passed twice between ar' flag a wavin' up thar' called the Star Spangthe rows, which were about the distance we u- led Banner; how'ye goin' to divide that, he!now undoubtedly in affluent circumstances.— suany plant com. The carrots were then care-fully hoed and weeded by hand, and a little the stripes to the Souf? No sir-ree, the thing home-made poudrette applied to each plant, and can't be did. (Cheers.) the poudrette covered with a little loose earth. Little or nothing more was done to the carrots un- a playin' out thar, called Yankee Doodle; how'ye til harvest. Product 51 bushels. do not think oats a profitable crop for me to raise Souf? I say boldly; the thing can't be did! mowed one season.

LARGE AND SMALL FARMS.

The following anecdote of Bakewell has been can't do it. (Cheers.) dd before we believe, but never in better form, lished at London :-

band expected some portion, and he had nothing ! to give him. Should be mortgage his estate, or what should be do? Mr. Bakeweil begged of in and fell from the platform. him to spend the night with him, and promised cognitations. Accordingly, the next morning. must do in this case as he had done before; he performed a variety of his simplest feats.

pitable board, I was equally as well pleased the and tells the same story, "Me no kille Captain; achieved under the very noses of the watchful next morning, on inspecting the cotton planta- he good man." Mr. Ritchie, the warden of the audience, clicited a chorus of exclamations, and tion, with its broad acres, teeming with fertility. prison, says that Jackalow is the most harmless when full sized lemons were substituted for the and flowing in undulating beauty around. In prisoner he ever had. Whenever he visits Jack, cork pellets, they were astonished, and anxious this peculiar department of the man, the his- the latter is always glad, and has a great habit to have the experiment repeated. The performbandman. I found everything in excellent condi- of placing his foretinger straight in front of his ances in ventraloquism are entirely new to them. Hoyles, Schwabe and Jamisons' English Prints, tion. He had a promising field of corn, and the forehead, which, we understand, is a mark of and articulate sounds issuing from closets, half opened doors; up stairs and down stairs, amazed customed to exercise in his native county, was Since his confinement he has evidently grown them greatly. They crouched in listening attithe same there. Many have an idea south, that fat, upon which he prides himself. Every Sat- tudes, and roared with laughter when the collothe newest styles and the largest assortment this crop can be raised, regardless of the tilth, urday afternoon the warden allows Jack the pri quies ceased. The tricks with cards were sucthe brought to this market and lower than ever and for this reason, never use the roller in its vilege of walking the large hall of the prison for cessful in completely mystifying the company. Each wonderful discovery of hidden paste-Also an elegant assortment of KID the ground, and I can say nothing of his present. His counsel, Win. Voorhies, Esq., visits han board was the signal for an explosion of mirth. crep; but more of the cotton crop presently. His frequently, and with him Jackalow is deeply in- The Signor was overwhelmed with thanks and congratulations. Little gifts were produced and Rufflings, Cambric & Swiss Edgings & plan, but his mode of clearing up land far sur- His mial is set down for the next September thrust graciously upon him. Although one, at Insertings, Infants' Worked Bodies, plaining here, the "modus operandi," I will the capital charges of murder, piracy and robbedisplay of his skill, and he seemed to entertain a To an examination of which the Ladies are rest of the year with his force, than five times the The Jail in which Jackalow is confined is sit- son of awe towards Blitz, hesitating to give him

THE JAPANESE A SHOFPING .-- On Thursday cotten at any time, growing in the south; from Mr. Peter Hagden, of New York, has a contract morning a portion of the Embassy visited a large the vial is a recipe for making slip; also one for all the beauty of its rich purple flowers, looking cles manufactured are buckles of various sizes. fancy goods. The surgical instruments, which something like a field of roses, before producing From the cooking department to the main hall- form a special feature in this establishment, were the large, round, swelling boll that very soon way there is arranged a small sliding trough, on peculiarly attractive. After purchasing a varied matures and opens, to reveal its snowy treasure wheels, in which is placed each prisoner's ration. assortment of articles, they withdrew, evidently with the purity at first of the snow-flake, a few At meal time, the required number of tin dishes pleased with the visit. Another company called remarks upon this subject may not be uninter- is placed in this through and passed through; at Peterson's bookstore, and thoroughly overesting, in concluding this brief, hasty, and im- when the prisoners, being drawn up in line, each hauled the stock. Colored pictures, illuminated perfect communication. There is not perhaps in takes his dish, and proceeds to a stationery table title-pages, seemed to afford them the most the vocabulary of agriculture, a more beautiful, running the entire length of the spacious hall, pleasure. "Standard works" were passed by interesting; and profitable crop grown than cot- where, at the sound of a whistle, they all sit with the utmost indifference. Their chief purton. Sugar it is true, at times, pays better; but, down and partake of their food. The prisoners chases were dictionaries, guide-books, and views perienced; therefore, cotton has become even in ing and mush and milk at night. The greatest second call at an opticians's and bought optical instruments of various kinds. Dropping into a say, for he was as uncouth a looking cur as ever the natives of Terra del Fuego and they inspected the models and pagodas. They have had at various times ROCERIES.—Just received from the city, the sugar districts, the great crop; and is un- attention is paid to the rules and regulations of instruments of various kinds. Dropping into : There are now confined within this prison, with much gratification, and appeared to read went unlicked, his suit prospered and they were in the course of instruction at the Mission station. In the preparation of the soil for this beautiful 140 persons, 24 of whom are females, charged the inscriptions on the tea-chests without diffi-times the last of July-in Texas, everything a few days since in Jersey City, for breaking in- small, and Jeddo as large. He set down the

A black republican, who imagines that the ed- you itor of the Harrisburg Telegraph has done him R. B. Dixox. season, from 10 to 15 bales to the hand, in the Why is a young lady just from boarding-school injustice, demands of the editor to 'do him just more." MAGISTRATE'S BLANKS FOR SALE AT great cotton districts. (worth 850 per bale)—but like a building committee? Because she is ready tice.' The editor replies that he cannot, on account of the high price of hemp.

HUMOROUS.

A Great Union Specch. The May number of the Knickerbocker Mag-

During the exciting campign of 185-. in Ilquest, and give my experience upon the subject. linoise, a prominent politician made a disunion he put the question. It is some six years ago May 1, that, after sow- speech at Quincy. After he was done, and being a piece of oats, I sowed about an eighth of fore the crowd had dispersed, a man who styled an acre to carrots, by way of experiment. The himrelf "The Aforesaid M. D." was called for. ground was a sandy loam, in corn the year be- He was lifted upon the platform; so "elevated" fore and well manured. The oats were sowed that he could not stand without holding on to Gentlemem and ladies, you're talkin' of dissually plant corn. The carrots were then care- Are ye gom' to give the stars to the Norf. and on the charge of stealing a large sum of money And thar's that good old toon that the band's a goin' to divide that, ch? Are ye goin' to give I have not continued the practice, because I the Yankee to the Norf, and the Doodle to the except where I wish to raise clover or other. And thar's that stream of water a runnin' grass seed. I seldom fail to get good clover af- down thar called "the father-o-waters;" how are ter oats, and I am pretty sure to get good herds ve a goin' to divide that? Are ye a goin' to of grass and red top after clover, unless it is dam it up with Mason and Dixon's line? I say ! some dry, sandy plain. Clover fails after being ye can't do that thing? wal ye can't. (Cheers.) And thar's the railroad laym' out thar, how re goin' to divide that, ch? Are yer goin' to tie it up with Mason and Dixon's line? You!

than in a lecture by Mr. John Beasley, just pub- here; how are ye goin' to divide them? old hos- do anythiny dirty; I got drunk on it myself the The late Mr. Bakewell of Dishley, was not em East, and run 'em West? (Cheers.) only an eminent agriculturist and breeder of stock, And thar's all the handsome wimmin round Court! but a very wise and shrewd man, and his neigh- here; how are ye a goin' to divide them? Are bors were in the habit of resorting to him for coun- you goin' to give the old ones to the Norf, and sel and advice. On one occasion an old friend the young ones the Souf? Wal you don't! If science, when he at last exclaimed that he could went to pay him a visit, for the purpose of ex- you go to thunder you can't do li? (Immense) begging that he would recommend him what to And thar's all the feathered tribe and other He had lived all his life upon his own farm birds a flyin' about here, and the chickens and of 1000 acres; he lived very well, but he had egg-nests, and the yaller-legs and the black-legs; that's been owing for over three years and a never saved a shilling. He had three daughters, how are you goin' to divide them. ch? Are yer and the eldest was about to be married; he high- goin' to give the pullets to the Nort, and the | cocks to the Souf? (Tremendous cheeping.) Our reporter could hear no more, for the rears of laughter which ensued as the "Doctor" caved

JUDGE DOUGLAS ON HORSEBACK. The present condition of Mr. Douglas as a !. when they met at breakfast, Bakewell said. "I candidate for the Presidency, and the pertinacity have made up my mind what you ought to do: with which he demands a nomination, without give your son-in-law one-fourth of the farm, keep | regard to the consequences to himself or his parthe remaining three-fourths, and do not part with Ity, recall an incident which occurred at the dinany portion of your capital and stock, and work her table of the late Secretary Marcy, and had a the remaining three-fourths with it. Do it bet | run among the good things of that day. It was ter than you have hitherto done, and your income in the year 1856, after the return of Mr. Buch-Il be rather increased than diminished." His anan from London, and before the Cincinnati dull of seeing a pun. One day, being at a dintriend followed his advice; but at the end of two Convention. Secretary Marcy gave what he or three years, another daughter would be mar- humorously called "a dinner to the candidates." ried, and the perplexed father again resorted to All those whose names had been spoken of in his friend Bakewell for advice, under this new connection with the "glittering bauble" were mon use? finish his confession, death sealed his lips, but difficulty. Bakewell coolly said, he had watch- present, and prominent among them were Mr.

keep the orginal capital and stock. The father and occasional veiled satire, which was one of it would please her very well, and gave it as tolseeined somewhat puzzled, but as the first ex- the charms of his social intercourse, took up the lows: in this case also. Last of all the younges: daugh- scriatim, and very much to the entertainment of mon use?" ter was to be married, and, in utter despair, the party, except the anxious individual sitting the poor father paid another visit to Dishley to at the inement for his portrait, proceeded to dis- replied, to her amezement and amusement: explain his perplexity. "Well," said Bakewell, cuss the chances of each for a nomination. He "When she is a little buggy!" "tell me honestly whether your income has di- appeared to have got through the list, and the minished by having reduced your farm by one- "Llttle Giant" had not been noticed. Our inhalf?" The father acknowledged he thought it formant, who was one of the guests, and who, honey-flowing river of matrimony, indites the your house and the remaining 250 acres for your- scene, shrewdly suspected that his omission was one thousand, and, as he believed, made a better ing, but certainly unintentional. neglect," said ing the following: boy, in my native town in Massachusetts, standing one day by the roadside, talking with a neighbor, a horseman, riding at the top of his speed. lows: his steed frothing at the mouth, and with tlanks The man without courage to do his own wooing. bloody with the rowel, suddenly stopped in the May do his own washing, and baking and sewing. road before us, and hurriedly inquired the distance to the next town. "Ten miles," said my companion. "And how long do you think it will! take me to get there?" demanded the excited lowing: ted horseman. "Why, look here, my good friend, AN AWFUL WARNING.-We heard yesterday, d-n, you never will ge! there."

years ago .- New York Tribune.

SIMPLE DIVISION.

was about time to get married. He went to a take warning? neighboring village, and was introduced to the daughter of Judge B- .. "Dang fine gal," said the embryo speculator to his friends, who were gaining him an entrance among the elite.

"How much might Judge B- be worth?" "And how many children has he got?" continued P----"Only three."

"Three into ten goes three times and a third ! brothers and sisters. Startled at so many names he thought should not be in the catalogue of re- sive characteristics of the Indian. lations, one evening at tea he said : "My dear, I thought there were but three of "So there are, but Pa's first wife had eight cruelly killed with clubs and stones. "Eleven into ten, no times and nearly over," said the astonished P-, who had jumped up spoke? Nobody knows.

ADVERTISEMENTS

Of one square (10 lines,) inserted one of THREE TIMES FOR ONE DOLLAR and TWENTE CENT forbid, and charged accordingly.

, will in no case be allowed to insert any advertisement not connected with their regular business, without an additional charge.

All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid will receive prompt attention.

and kicked over a chair, and groaned in perfect agony. "I'm sold! and a sight cheaper than an old bell-wether, at that."?

GUILTY-BUT DRUNK .- The Court in tomer was arraigned on a charge of stealing .-After the clerk had read the indictment to him "Guilty or not guilty ?"

"Guilty, Lut drunk; your benor." answered "What's the plea?" asked the Judge half dozing on the bench.

"He pleads guilty, but says he was drunk," "What's the case?" "May it please your honor," said the prosecuting attorney, "the man is regularly indicted "He is, hey? and pleas_" "He pleas guilty, but drunk." The judge was now fully aroused, "Guilty but drunk—this is a most extraordinary plea.— Young man, you are certain you were drunk?"

"Where did you get your liquor?" "At Sterrett's." "Did you get none any where else?"

"Not a drop, sir." "You got drunk on this liquor, and afterwards stole the money ?"

"Mr. Prosecutor," said the Judge, "do me the favor to enter in that man's case a nolle prosequi. And thar's all the fast Hosses standin' round The liquor at Sterrett's is enough to make a man ses! Are ye a goin' to run 'em North and run other day, and stole all Sterrett's spoons! Release the prisoner, Mr. Sheriff. Adjourn the

> A MODEL GRAMMER CLASS .- "Did you ever "I did. sir."

"What case is Mr. D .___?" "He's an objective case."

"Right. What's a noun?" "Don't know; but I know what a renown is."

"Well what is it?" "Running off without paying the printer, and getting on the black list as a delinquent." "Good. What is a conjunction?" "A method of collecting outstanding subscriptions in conjunction with the constable-never ployed by printers until the last extremity." "That's right. Go to your scat and quit shooting paper wads at the girls." A TRIFLING DIFFERENCE .- Judge II. of Detroit, although celebrated in his profession; was noted among his acquaintance as being very ner party, the following conundrum was given by one of the guests : "When is a young lady like a vehicle in com-

"When she is a little sulky." The Judge, like all the rest of the company, Governor Marcy, at intervals in the conversa- thought it first-rate. The next evening, paying buried, that but little more could have been add- must give up another fourth of his farm, and the table, and in the vein of quiet humor a visa to Miss Belle C—, the Judge thought

"good wife" of the house, although a stranger, and in the deed, left Beek- periment had succeeded, he determined to try it candidates, or those he chose to consider such "When is a young lady like a vehicle in com-Miss C-, having given it up, the Judge

"One of the boys," about to jump into the

"And when the reverend sir shall say. "My son take thou this daughter?" I'll answer him in fearless tones.

"I shan't do nothing shorter!" "Will you my son support and nourish, This flower I give to thee?". I'll give my new white kids a flourish, And answer, "yes sir-ee!"

And sure enough, the "Little Giant," after LEAP YEAR SENTIMENT .- At a public around, presented a picture so home like, so like When Jackalow was first incarcerated in pris- income out of it. This may be a somewhat ex- waiting impatiently for some one else to notice "Tea Party," recently held in one of our counthe sweet, quiet, domestic hemesteads of dear on, he occupied a cell on the fourth tier on the laggerated statement, but of this I am sure; a small omission, was finally compelled to say, "Well, try towns, where "sentiments" were in order, a old Talbot, so like the almost sacred spots, pic- easterly side of the prison, what do you think of my chances?" timid bachelor was bold enough to remind the "I beg your pardon, Mr. Douglas, for the seem- ladies that Leap Year was upon them, by offer-

To which a lady promptly responded as fol-

The bachelor looked despair.

&The Baltimore Clipper contains the fol-

if you ride any way decent, it will take you just from an entirely reliable and responsible source, about two hours. but if you go like h-l and the particulars of an occurrence which can only be looked upon as an instance of Divine rebuke Of course the pertinence of the Governor's for taking the name of the Almighty in justificastory, which had been provoked by the over tion of a talschood. We refrain from mentionweening anxiety of the "Little Giant" to be no- ing names through consideration of the parties, ticed, set the table in a roar, and soon obtained who are respectable persons, residing in the south western section of the city. It appears A year ago, Mr. Douglas stood very well that a few days since the aunt of a young girl a-South as well as North. But he was uneasy and bout eighteen years of age, accused her of baymounted the "Harper" hobby; and he has been jing been guilty of some misconduct, which sheriding it ever since, at a speed quite equal to that positively denied, and on being accused, she callwhich was the point of Gov. Marcy's story, four ed upon God to strike her blind if she was not telling the truth. In a moment after, according to her own statement, a film seemed to pass before her eyes, and in the course of five min-A Southern planter named I'-, pretty well jutes she was totally blind, and has continued. to do in the world now, was some twenty years sightless ever since. The afflicted victim of her ago a poor boy on the Eastern Shore of Mary- own impiety confessed that she had called upon land. One of the most marked traits of his char- her Maker to justify her in what was a falsehood. acter was an inordinate love of money. In the May not this be considered as a terrible instance course of time P- was of age, and thought it of Divine wrath, and may not the thoughtless.

FROM EUENOS AYRES. MURDER OF MISSIONARIES IN PATAGONIA.

Brenos Arres, Tuesday, April 10, 1860. One of the most deplorable events that may occur in an age, has just transpired in Patagonia. "About ten thousand dollars," was the reply. There is a cluster of Islands to the eastward of Terra del Fuego, occupied and perhaps owned by Great Britain. There is found there all the political machinery of a colony. The islands are numerous and healthful. The Patagonian, over,"mentally ciphered P--. Here was a Missionary Society has taken one of these islands chance, and he improved it too. He made love by a lease, and they occupy it as their capital. to the beautiful and unsophisticated daughter of while they endeavor to extend their influence. married. The honeymoon passed off as all honeymoons do, and they were happy. The bride been in England. One of them has been somewas lively and chatty, and made allusions to her what educated, but never lost wholly the offen-

A short time ago the mission ship was on the coast, and Capt. Fell, who was a Baptist preacher, and six of the crew being on shore for service, were attacked by about 200 indians, and all were'

What were the first words Adams and Ever

th evea. For he town of informing ches. 1/2 e in Easton work will well as IE

lerable ex

hree coats rkmanlike derate and