D'TILE. DOMESTIC do. pale, pale and dark being able to suit all, I ablic and my customers.

8. T. KENNARD. TACKEY,

HILADELPHIA LIQUORS, d dark French Brandies. prices; old Peach Bran-

Port, Pale Sherry, old nongahela Whiskey, difprices to suit the times I Jamaica Spirit, Old N. nd a large stock of com-Vhiskies, &c., which I ther house on the shore, iguots from one of the ling houses in Philadel satisfaction to all who ng and examining my elsewhere. W. P. MACKEY.

just returned from the good, and well selected table for CHRIST.VL1S a large lot of D. CANDIES. pound, Figs, Prunes. Al-Lemons, and a large PATIONARY ds and Toys. ssary to enumerate Artis friends and acquaintanr themselves. The above n at the lowest nett Cash on accommodating terms

nd buy a Christmas Presd't servant, IARLES ROBINSON. EAT shing to reduce his present will from this date offer inusually low-prices. He nd varied assortment of AND LIQUORS with a complete stock of ensware.

, also a large lot of HENWARE, AND HARDWARE, il at exceedingly low rates. ich from the credit system compelled in justice to himin all cases and earnestly ce of the patronage heretoim, feeling confident that ats of all and at lower prire in town. Call and ex-ng elsewhere at J. P. BLAKE'S, shington & Port Sts.. Easton, Md. L NOTICE. bted to the subscriber, are ted to call and settle their her notice as he is much in u 28) J. P. BLAKE.

THE SEASON!! ADB OPRIME RASIN hanks to the Ladies' and aston and vicinity, for the owed upon him since his (March 12, 1861,) and public to call and examine & SUMMER ewest styles, too numerous

VARE. WARE, NEWARE, WOODWARE, GROCERIES,

llars, Halters, Whips, Umckets, Rope, Traces, Ou

l kinds of country produce, n, Oats, Potatoes, Butter, Dried Fruit, Wool, Feath-c., for which the highest SHOWED DA

EBLE DISTILLED BAY eived, and for sale by PEELL & GOLDSBOROUGH. Extra and Family Flour, d for sale for CASH only.

J. H. Geach

a league of it.—Louisville Journal.

chance to be?

THE GAZETTE IS PUBLISHED EVERY. SATURDAY MORNING WILLIAM H. COUNCELL,

TERMS. bscribing, or the renewal of subscription-

The Old Banner.

BY JOSEPH BARBER.

... Not for a day, but for all time."

Raise, with cheers, on spire and roof,

Sing, with voices firm and strong,

As it mounts, the Banner Song.

From its azures, pearl and red;

Heroes, wrapt in smoke and flame,

Ne'er shall rebels trample on Freedom's glorious gonfalon!

Gave it to the land of Fame,

By their blood, in battle spilt,

By our hate of Treason's guilt,

By our History, writ in light,

By the land to which we owe

We'll the Nation's flag maintain

In its shadow broad and grand,

Sovereigns of ourselves we stand;

And shall we, at Treason's beck,

Of our all make hopeless wreck?

Drop our sacred standard sheet?

Never! Wave its folds on high,

For the Easton Gazette.

Keep it in its home, the sky!

may profit by it:

ling officers shall be as follows:

Prosperous, powerful, honored, free,

By our love of holy Right,

Paramount in her domain.

Heirs, trustees of Liberty!

Shall we, at Rebellion's feet,

The old banner, battle-proof;

Never shall a star be rent,

From the silken fiirmament;

Never shall a stripe be shred

as a new engagement.

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

VOL. XLIV.

EASTON, Md., SATURDAY, JUNE 29, 1861.

No. 31.

constituted their chief grievances, calling for vio- their subtle oracle. lent remedies, is so untitue in its character that They have achieved a passable success; they action based upon it deserves no sympathy what- have carried out the programme laid down for punishment.

been deliberately and systematically carried out, shadowing the madly ambitious men who have reason for a dissolution of the Union? after being temporarily delayed, we propose suffered themselves to be led astray by such wild briefly to show.

MR. EDITOR :- The following qualifications and by-laws of the 'Tattle and Gossipping Society' in a speech, in which he said:

were published a few weeks since in your paper, but for fear that many of your readers did not we should be relieved of these burdens; the wealth to say whether they will assist in carrying out ed seven were citizens of Slave States, and of required him, they would wake him up by tak- "His majesty, the Emperor of the French, tasee them, we desire you to republish them with of our soil would accumulate in the hands of its the wild schemes of sectional and maddened am- the seven remaining three represented Southern ing out the plug, and allow the water to escape. king into consideration the state of peace which the accompaning piece of poetry, as an appro- natural proprietors, to be expended within our bition—whether they will not rebuke with deter- principles, and received the votes of the South- when he would pleasantly complain of the "loss exists between France and the United States of priate answer to those who are honoured memmonopoly of the valuable staples of cotton, to- them who would sully the fair fame of Maryland Presidents have been chosen who can be claimed 'Dr. Crook, a student of Sir Astley Cooper, trality in the struggle inaugurated between the bers or said society. The fact is notorious that bacco, sugar and rice, would insure us the chief by an alliance with such a conspiracy, -Balti- as the special champions of the policy and prin- once poisoned a dog, which immediately plung- Government of the Union and the States which the society has a very large and industrious mem- control of the commerce of the world. Our na- more American. bership in our town, and it is proper that its quali- tional facilities of intercommunication would infications and regulations should be known to be vite an extended internal commerce. Holding appreciated. I heartily recommend to the con- portant part of its navigable trunk, all the prosiderations of its members the accompaning piece duce of the non-slaveholding States which seeks of poetry ("Is it Anybody's Busines?") as an egress to the ocean through its channel would) antidote for their malady. I am quite sure that pay us tribute. Cuba, with her institution of if the disease has not eaten out all vitality, they slavery and kindred sympathies is ready to spring able letter from Joseph Holt, late Secretary of interfered with in a single case, is the law of the lond bones, boiled a long time in soft water, with other of the beligirents, will be permitted to entered by the contract of interfered with in a single case, is the law of the lond bones, boiled a long time in soft water, with other of the beligirents, will be permitted to entered by the contract of the law of the lond bones, boiled a long time in soft water, with other of the beligirents, will be permitted to entered by the contract of the law of the lond by the lond by the lond by the lond bones, boiled a long time in soft water, with other of the beligirents, will be permitted to entered by the lond by the lo mto our embrace, and a new of indentific exten-sion invites us south and west of the Rio Grande. War, discussing the present crisis of the country pledged to enforce it. That it will be loyally every day, have imparted to the water such harbors, during more than twenty-four hours, With these views of future wealth and grandeur in nervous and elequent language. Mr. Holt entered by the present Administration I enter- nourishing properties that the patient bathing except in case of stress of weather. Old men and young men, women and children, lighting up the path of our destiny, can you bear admitted as members, if they possess the follieve that we fear to tread it alone? When these points, barely noticed in my remarks, are fully piets the evils of rebellion, and urges the impor-1st. They must devote their whole attention claborated in all their amplitude before the South- tance of strengthening the hands of the Admin- Before proceeding further Kentucky should in rern Convention to assemble at Nashvine in June Istration. He declares that in this struggle for next, can you doubt the unanimity of the South?" the existence of our Government he cannot practing, and look well to the feet of her guides. Before forsaking a Union in which her people 2d. When they hear a scandalous report about So far as the Southern Convention referred to tice nor profess nor feel neutrality. The pro- have enjoyed such uninterrupted and such bounda neighbor or a friend, they must not eat, drink by Mr. Inge was relied upon as the body at that clamation of Governor Magoffin, forbiding the less prosperity, she should ask herself, not once in or sleep, until the chief officers of the society are time to do anything in the way of forming a passage of Federal troops through the State, Mr. but many times, why do I go, and where am I passage of the same. informed of the same.

3d. No person shall become a member unless "separate Southern Confederation," it was a Holt denounces as in no sense a neutral step, but be dafficult to answer the first branch of the inbe or she is a person of leisure; and can loaf a- failure. The spirit of patriotism was not yet one of aggressive hostility, and he argues that quiry: but to answer the second part is patent fuse matter for removal by bathing and evapora- belligerents. bout town, or make seventeen calls a week, and dead in the region where General Jackson had our troops have as clear a constitutional right to to all, as are the consequences which would fol- tion. A dry, light powder, mixed with sweat of the region where General Jackson had our troops have as clear a constitutional right to to all, as are the consequences which would fol- tion. A dry, light powder, mixed with sweat of the region where General Jackson had our troops have as clear a constitutional right to to all, as are the consequences which would fol- tion. A dry, light powder, mixed with sweat of the region where General Jackson had our troops have as clear a constitutional right to to all, as are the consequences which would fol- tion. A dry, light powder, mixed with sweat of the region where General Jackson had our troops have as clear a constitutional right to to all, as are the consequences which would fol- tion. A dry, light powder, mixed with sweat of the region where General Jackson had our troops have as clear a constitutional right to to all, as are the consequences which would fol- tion. A dry, light powder, mixed with sweat of the region where General Jackson had our troops have as clear a constitutional right to to all, as are the consequences which would fol- tion. watch the actions of the people generally; and be ready to report at head-quarters the slightest injust been consigned to his last resting place, and pass over the soil of Kentucky as they have to rial and moral resources to the support of the support of the pores. As all parts of the cuticle have pores, in violation of the law of nations, might be deem-so, although the utterances of the Convention march along the streets of Washington. He southern Confederacy Kentucky might prolong as well as the face and arms, all the body should ed hostile to either of the parties, and contrary to umation of a report.

The following are some of the by-laws and regulations of this society:

1. This society shall be known as the Tattle and Gossipping Society. The principal and ru and Gossipping Society. The principal and ru and their connects to disperse without any overt and their compects to disperse without any overt and their competence without any overt tration against the charges of intended subjugation. It was evident. ing officers shall be as follows:

One great liar and two lesser ones, three tatact "precipitating" revolution. It was evident, tion of the South and outrage upon its people.—

She would abandon a government strong and thrown overboard. In the midst of terror and 1825, and Articles 84 and 85 of which might be off from the rights and privileges of this society.

1. If any member of this society shall see, or tell of, or even suspect that a young man vaited on a lady twice, he must report them.

citizens, as Commander-in-Chief of said society, upon what she understands to be her constitution-and shall be looked upon as such by all its mem- al privileges."

If a person on the sidewalk, whether great or in Is it anybody's business where that person means | constitutional Federal Republic is now converted in reality into one as absolute as that of the can we permit it to be destroyed by others. Autocrat of Russia, and despotic in its tendency Is it anybody's business what his business may The substance of our query, simply stated, would as any absolute Government that ever existed."

* "It is a great mistake to suppose It.

If 'tis, we'll join the rabble, and act the noble whole fabric falls as under." learns learns

learns learns

learns

years and more since this was uttered, a steady of revolution, how that it has expanded from orange of the progress has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the progress has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the progress has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the progress has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the progress has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the progress has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the progress has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the progress has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the cean to ocean, has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the cean to ocean, has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has been made in snapping asynder the cean to ocean, has been made in snapping asynder. The Chicago Times says that the Abolitionists

The work they entered upon their most bitter.

The work they entered upon their most bitter. The Chicago Times says that the Abolitionists are in league with hell. They are in league with hell. They are in less than a league with hell. They are in less than a leasure of the control of the cont revilers were made to serve as their potent allies. or even of irregularity, may have arisen, will monster. Sincerely yours,

The Beginnings of the Revolution. | Every fresh blast from the Abolition trumpet find its justification in the pressure of the terrible! The idea the Secessionists have so earnestly was hailed with new delight, as that which might necessity under which the Administration has sought to promulgate, that their revolutionary aid still further in throwing down the walls of been called to act. When a man feels the poig- gives sounder reasons for the practice of frequent vantages does that government possess over the movements have been prompted by a sudden and this citadel of free Government, and nothing, ly to consult the law books as to the true mode ject we have ever met with. Indeed we see sightest gain, but we do see clearly that the moindignant conviction that the few Northern States, from first to last, from the destruction of the Dem- or measure of his rights of self-defence. What nothing for it but to give the plumber a job forth- ment a State secedes, that moment confidence in which passed unconstitutional laws against the ocratic party to the election of Mr. Lincoln, but rendition of fugitive slaves, and the difficulties a- was made to "enure" in some degree to the purbout the right to take slavery into the Territories, poses so sternly sought, so long prefigured by ever at the hands of the civilized world. The them nearly fifty years ago, and what have the sudden attempt also to make the success of a Cotton States, with South Carolina at their head, Northern candidate for the Presidency a reason for gained by it? Is Cuba likely to "spring to their secession is apart of the same programme. All embraces," and will the area of slavery gain 1860 the Fugitive Slave law was executed more action taken by them has been the result of a Nay, is not the civilized world declaring unmis- ring the preceding ten years. Since the installadeliberate attempt to break up the Government takably against it, as another South Carolina tion of President Lincoln not a case has arisen virus. ses, lest they should visit upon the conspirators Will the mighty Northwest consent to "pay tri- to be the policy of the present Administration to their indignant scorn, or subject them to condign bute" to the Gulf States at the mouth of the enforce the provisions of this law has caused a Mississippi river?

visions. The columns of every daily print teem | That the Slave States are not recognized as e-

A PATRIOTIC LETTER. A SOUTHERN MAN DEFINING THE ISSUE.

What Ex-Secretary Holt says.

Is it Anybody's Business?

Is it anybody's Business, if a gentleman should last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of those last of those last of the Stars and Strings in the midst of those last of the sentiments contained in one of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of those last of the Stars and Strings in the midst of those last of the sentiments contained in one of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of his great efforts on the floor of the United last of those last of the sentiments contained in one of the Stars and Strings in the midst of those last of the sentiments contained in one of the United last of the Stars and Strings in the midst of those last of the sentiments contained in one of the United last of the Stars and Strings in the midst of those last of the sentiments contained in one of the Stars and Strings in the midst of the Stars and Strings in t ld last of his great efforts on the floor of the United unfurl the Stars and Stripes in the midst of those who should have stood between her bosom and States Senate. It was made on the 4th of March, who long to look upon them, and to restore the every foe. Kentucky may read her own.

has become disloyal because of what the Admin- twenty degrees below zero:

The fellowing are pungent extracts: FUGITIVE SLAVES.

The census returns show that during the year Free States, and they have been escaping in That the plans upon which the Secessionists We need not answer these questions, or dwell multitudes to Canada, unpursued and unrehave acted have been long laid; that they have upon the sad results every day more darkly over- claimed by their masters. Is there found in this the Supreme Court has decided that the citizens of hydrophobia by holding them in water.

AN APPEAL TO KENTUCKY. to other people's business, and entirely neglect ern Convention to assemble at Nashville in June istration. He declares that in this struggle for measure well the depth of the gult she is ap-

One great har and two lesser ones, three har precipitating and four gossippers; any one of which will the constitute a quorum, and shall have power to transact business at any time.

2. If any member of this society shall be found

2. If any member of this society shall be found

3. In the midst of terror and throw overboard. In the midst of terror and the profess of the rebellion, and shall have power to the transact business at any time.

3. If any member of this society shall be found

3. In the midst of terror and throw overboard. In the midst of terror and that is weak and that anguish, the negroes cried out. "Let us do as the negroes cried out. "Let us do as the profess of the provisions of the transact business at any time.

4. If any member of this society shall be found

4. If any member of this society shall be found

5. If any member of this society shall be found

6. In the midst of terror and that is weak and that anguish, the negroes cried out. "Let us do as the provisions of the transact business of the rebellion, and demonstrates that the rebels have insulted throw overboard. In the midst of terror and that anguish, the negroes cried out. "Let us do as the provisions of the provision guilty of knowing more about his own business than that of his neighbor's he shall be expelled forthwith.

Telegraph, of that date:

"Telegraph, of that date:

"Telegraph, of that date:

"The South is aroused. Her banner is on their object is the permanent dismemberment of the feder-their object is the permanent dismember object is the feder-their than that of his neighbor's he shall be expected forthwith.

3. Any person belonging to this society makes a practice of telling the truth two or three times shall be expeiled without a hearing.

*The South is aroused. Her banned dismensement of the Federal troops from the unjust aspertice of the Federal troops from the unjust aspertice. Or logic, or mean person belonging to this society who makes a practice of telling the truth two or three times shall be expeiled without a hearing.

*The South is aroused. Her banned dismensement of the Federal troops from the unjust aspertice of the Federal troops from the unjust aspertice. Or logic, or measures, of the federal troops from the disease left them and they were the confederacy.

**His majesty dectares, in addition that he disease left them and they were the confederacy.

**His majesty dectares, in addition that he direct the outward wall and the cry is still fully come. The South is dectared.

**His majesty dectares, in addition that he direct the outward wall and the cry is still fully come. The following the friends and placed them in the sun-legation divided, when the disease left them and they were the confederacy.

**His majesty dectares, in addition that he direct them and they were the confederacy and the outward wall and the cry is still fully come. The federal troops from the unjust aspective.

**His majesty dectares, in addition that he dir 4. Any inember who does not report regularly which would include all South of the Northern what his neighbors residing within three doors which would include all South of the Northern what his neighbors residing within three doors which would include all South of the Northern three doors which which would include all South of the Northern three doors which which would include all South of the Northern three doors which which would include all South of the Northern three doors which which would include all South of the Northern three doors which which would include all South of the Northern three doors which which was all three doors which which was all three doors which which was all three doors which w roots, and gives them over a prey to the caprices. frequently, and never slept at night in any of . The Minister of Foreign Affairs, E. Thouvenel.

hear tell of, or even suspect that a young man Desperate diseases require desperate remedies." Iment at once offered their services to suppress Kentucky, occupying a central position in the and died.

Those volunteers have been denounced by Kentucky, occupying a central position in the Cold was has waited on a lady twice, he must report them Another South Carolina paper, the Miscellany, it. These volunteers have been denounced by Union, is now protected from the scourge of forto be married soon, or already married, or he shall be looked upon as no tattler and shall be looked upon as no tattler and shall be fined to the full extent of the law, for any such misdemeanor.

The feeling in favor of a withdrawal of the southern States from the Great Confederacy, who would "rather filth a handkerchief than their discipline and bearing are most adhout may be disregarded, is certain however much it may be disregarded, is certain the word of the trouble to circulate a bout the offspring of excitement or impulse, but a looked the propose, which she is fully determined that a larger amount of social position, culture, fortune and elevation of character has never the control of the populace."

The feeling in favor of a withdrawal of the who would "rather filch a handkerchief than the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation," but the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation, who would "rather filch a handkerchief than the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation," but the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation of the populace."

The feeling in favor of a withdrawal of the dregs and offseourings of the populace."

The feeling in favor of a withdrawal of the woon who would "rather filch a handkerchief than the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation," but the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation of the search the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation," but the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation," but the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation, and which the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation, and who would "rather filch a handkerchief than the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation," but the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation, and who would "rather filch a handkerchief than the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation," but the towns and cities upon our coasts or the computation, and who would "rather filch a handkerchief than bout town scandalous reports which they know leep senter parps, that is not to be false, shall be deemed by all respectable of the execute, rather than submit to aggressions ture, fortune and elevation of character has never ture, fortune and elevation of chara country. If they go to the South, it will be as in infatuated and misguided Virginia that is not "Dr. Currie used fresh water generally, and fishes and bread. Now let us come back to Mr. Calhoun him- friends and protectors, to relieve the Union senti- filled with the alarms and oppressed by the ter- by long and careful experience, he found that

AN EARNEST EXHORTATION. While a far more fearful responsibility has would not have the rivers of their prosperity in foreign lands, borrowing money for any pur- man did, "What I kept I lost, and what I gave that disunion can be effected at a single blow.— fallen upon President Lincoln than upon any of shrink away, as to unfed streams beneath the pose, and exercising those functions that alone away I have."—Florers of Spring Time. Is it anybody's business what another's business The cords which bound these States together in his predecessors, it must be admitted that he has summer heats—to rouse themselves from their belong to a general government. No; it was the one common Union are far too numerous and met it with promptitude and fearlessness. Cice- lethargy, and fly to the rescue of their country intention of the States, when the constitution

The Philosophy of Bathing.

nard of the destroyer at his bosom, he is not like- bathing than any other writer on the same sub- one we now have? We cannot discover the is true of individuals is in this respect equally with, so we may tumble out of bed into a cold her future good behaviour ceases; peaceful citizens true of Governments. The man who thinks he water bath, even though the temperature be feeling a sense of insecurity, either flee or rush fore. But for what has been done Washington to the square inch, and one-eighth of an inch in permanent injury is inflicted upon all the intermight ere this have been a smouldering heap of depth-making twenty-eight miles of human est of the State. In short, secession is rum; and "Five-eights of all that is eaten passes off ever enjoy the same amount of prosperity and through these pores, and but one per cent. of all security under any attempted new government; this is designed to hide the fact that the whole aught by the fearful commotion it has raised?— faithfully and successfully than it had been dutire body in from six to seven years. If this old bility and permanence, and to maintain themmatter be retained it causes disease—it is a real selves as a power to be respected at home and deliberate attempt to break up the Government takably against it, as another South Carolina for other causes—causes so inadequate that they would not bear presentation to the patriotic masexpelled through the skin; tobacco, opium and and instead of feeling relieved by reason of semercury have been thus exuded. Whatever cession, the burdens of the people will be aug-

perfect panic among the runaway slaves in the through the skin the body can expel, it can ab- mented, and their abilities to resist oppression . Hold the end of your finger in spirits of will, in a great measure, be swallowed up.turpentine—it is absorbed; goes through the sys- | Scientific . Imerican. tem, and may be detected by its odor. Constant handling of arsenic has produced death by ab- France and the United States-Decree "The doctor relates an account of a gentleman

One of the most clearly defined plans put forth with accounts of the frightful crimes they have been the crimes the Confederacy has for several years in Barbadoes, who was in the habit of daily inbeen the cry of demagogues and conspirators .- toxication, and had constructed a tub. with a The Moniteur, efficial journal of the French by that school was that developed upon the floor caused, of the wide-spread ruin of which they But what is the truth? Not only according to pillow to accommodate his head, and when in Empire, published this morning at the head of of Congress by Mr. Inge, of Alabama, in 1849, are the authors. Warned of the causes which the theory, but the actual practice of the Gov- this state was placed therein, and the tub was its columns a very important declaration; whose have led to this, it is for the people of Maryland ermnent, the Slave States have ever been, and tilled with cold water, in which he reposed for principal features will doubtless reach you by "Under a separate Southern Confederation, who have yet their destinies in their own hands of the fourteen Presidents who have been elected and invigorated. When his wife or family then as follows:

> ciples of the Free States, and even these so on- ed into a neighboring river, and remained for claim to form a separate Confederation. ly in a modified sense. Does this look as it the some time with his body entirely submerged, af- 'In consequence, His Majesty, considering South had ever been deprived of her equal share ter which he left his watery hospital and ran Art. 14 of law of April 10th, 1825, Arts. 84 of of the honors and powers of the Government? home cured. Dogs have been repeatedly cured the Penal Code, 65 and following of the Decree into all the Territories of the United States; and even in salt water, the salt, probably, being ex- Napoleon, declares: The Louisville Journal publishes a long and this decision, which has never been resisted or cluded during the process of transudation. Mut- "1. No ship-of-war or privateer, of one or the therein daily, and taking nothing save a few tea ... No sale of objects resulting from prizes spoonfuls of tea twice a day, and one tablespoon- can take place in our said ports or harbors. ful of tonic syrup, gained 151 pounds in as many ... All Frenchmen are forbidden to take a weeks, simply by absorption.

> the body, and the exertions, cutaneously fore- for privateering purposes, or to engage, in any ed. may from some parts of the surface be re- manner, in equipping or arming a ship or war addinitted to the circulation, and it posionous or or privateer of either of the two parties. injurious, whenever the blood visits it, it must ... It is also forbidden to all Frenchmen recarry disease. Nature keeps her side of the in- siding in France or abroad to enlist or take serterior clean and soft, and demands an unobstruc- vice either in the land forces or on board vessels ted exterior, and exudes to the surface the re- of war or privateers of one or the other of the

To wait upon a lady, if the lady don't refuse?

To wait upon a lady, if the lady don't refuse?

To wait upon a lady, if the lady don't refuse?

Or, to speak a little plainer; that the meaning all stanybody's business, if a lady has a beau? Is it anybody's business, if a lady has a beau? Is it anybody's business when that gentleman does call?

The wait upon a lady, if the lady don't refuse?

No wonder, therefore, that she has been so flag that bears them to the forts and arsenals from the overlaid to unite her fortunes with which disloyal hands have torn it. Their mismose of the Southern reconsting meaning all those of the South, and to lay down the bodies of her ehivalrie sons as a breastwork, behind which the Southern people may be sheltered.—

The "learned blacksmith" acquired some knowledge of nearly fifty languages by saving the arrived the arrived some stime to the forts and arsenals from the ovenling that the arrived blacksmith acquired some stime to the one of people to take up arms against the Federal govennment. The simple of the Fourth blacksmith acquired some stime to the overlaint and taken the arrived blacksmith acquired some stime to the original fifty languages by saving the sought in unit to the terminant the overlaint and the terminant the arrived blacksmith acquired some stime to the original fifty languages of the south, and in the eventy down the bodies of the south, and to lay down the bodies of the Southern people to take up arms against the Federal govennment. The simple the sum of the straint and the south and the south and the which disloyal hands have torn it. Their mission which disloyal hands have to mit to make the arrived blacksmith" acquired to the countries.

The black matter is the first of the arrived blacksmith and the went of the count Is nanybody's business when that gentleman does call?

Or when he leaves the lady? or if he leaves at all?

Is nanybody's business when that gentleman does call?

Or when he leaves the lady? or if he leaves at all?

Is nanybody's business when that gentleman does call?

Or when he leaves the lady? or if he leaves at all?

It is in vain for the revolutionists to exclain the baser passions of the ignorant. The simple their pathway.

It is no vain for the revolutionists to exclain the baser passions of the ignorant. The simple their pathway.

It is in vain for the revolutionists to exclain the baser passions of the ignorant. The simple their pathway.

It is in vain for the revolutionists to exclain the baser passions of the ignorant. The simple the baser passions of the ignorant. The simple the baser passions of the baser passi all?

Or is it necessary that the curtain should be of not submitting to "numerical" majorities citizens are subjugated. The people of the South Rut amultine mutations incident to such a helpor is it necessary that the curtain should be drawn,

To save from further trouble the outside lookers

To save from further trouble the outside l would have to be tested. There is a subdued are our brethren, and while we obey the lawsentone in his language which seems to sorrowfully tone in his language which seems to sorrowfully acted by our joint authority, and keep a compact would soon find herself adhering to a mere fragery tone in his language which seems to sorrowfully acted by our joint authority, and keep a compact would soon find herself adhering to a mere fragery Federal and State Judge when about to lump that amounted to more than $100! on?

Is it anybody's business but the lady's, if her Is it anybody's business beau Rides out with other ladics, and doesn't let her know?
Is it anybody's business but the gentleman's if she Should seem to the said:

A single section governed to the said:

The required to do one same. We beauth the presence of tiers of Free support and uphold, under oath, the constitution that their safety demands this, we know that ours business that the Very organization of the United States. The very organization of that their safety demands this, we know that ours business that the Very organization of the United States. The very organization of the United States with populations exceeding by many millions her own. Feeble States thus separated from the Federal government was based upon the lions her own. Feeble States thus separated from powerful and warlike neighbors by ideal boundaries, or by rivers as easily traversed as rivulets, are held in subordination to this supreme that their safety demands this, we know that ours business with populations exceeding by many millions her own. Feeble States thus separated from the United States. The very organization of the United States. The very organization of the United States are with populations exceeding by many millions with the United States. The very organization of the United States are with populations exceeding by many millions with the United States. The very organization of the United States are very organization of the United States. The very organization of the United States are very organization of the United States. The very organization of the United States are very organization of the United States. The very organization of the United States are very she Should accept another escort, where he doesn't ers of the system. A single section, governed ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is theirs; and that unity both of country and ours is their to be crushed. The reers of the system. A single section, governed by the will of the numerical majority, has now, of government which the providence of God and by the will of the numerical majority, has now, of government which the providence of God and corded doors of multitudes of such has left us a by the will of the numercial majority, has now, in fact, the control of the Government, and the in fact, the control of the Government, and the the compacts of men have created we could not warming too solemn and impressive to be disreor in fact, the control of the Government, and the the compacts of men have created we could not entire powers of the system. What was once a conserver, without self-immolation, destroy, nor ourselves, without self-immolation, destroy, nor garded. withdraw at pleasure, then there could be no pos- It is as right to be economical and saving as it Could my voice reach every dwelling in Ken- sibility of making and faithfully carrying our is wrong to be miserly and mean. Sare to give, tucky, I would implore its inmates—it they treaties with foreign powers, protecting citizens and gire to sare. Then you will say as a good

know,

For we're certain, if it it isn't there are some who

know,

For we're certain, if it it isn't there are some who

know,

For we're certain, if it it isn't there are some who

know,

Know,

For we're certain, if it it isn't there are some who

know,

For we're certain, if it it isn't there are some who

know,

Know, How well the subtle intellect that dictated this how much greater should be that of him who throughout the land. It is a time in which the trying to do. It says to the Southern people, part

Of taulers and defamers who throng the public language comprehended the best grounds to be to be the mistress of the world?" So it may be the field you wall be about a strain in which the trying to do. It says to the Southern people, workshop, the office, the counting-house, and "Obey the laws, and you shall have, as heretoentered upon for accomplishing the purpose of said of the glory of that statesman or chieffain duty that is upon the counting-house, and "Obey the laws, and you shall have, as hereto-the field may well be abandoned for the solemn fore, all the protection to life and property that But if not, we'll act the teacher, until everybody disunion let passing events declare. In the ten who shall snatch this republic from the vortex bring treasure, not for ourselves, but for the spoil- it seeks to do no more; and all this talk about subprogress has been made in snapping asunder the cean to ocean, has become the admiration of the with our every earthly interest, but obey the laws, as the great States of New progress has been made in shapping assumer the world, and has rendered the fountains of the embarked in mid-ocean on the same common York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a lives of thirty millions of people fountains of handless than the same common and the same common of the lives of thirty millions of people fountains of handless than the same common and the same common of the lives of thirty millions of people fountains of handless than the same common and the same common of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a lives of thirty millions of people fountains of handless than the same common of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a lives of thirty millions of people fountains of handless than the same common of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of thirty millions of people fountains of handless than the same common of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of thirty millions of people fountains of handless than the same common of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of thirty millions of people fountains of handless than the same common of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsylvania are now doing, not a live of the laws, as the great States of New York and Pennsyl A Good Hir.—A colored gentleman who does

Note that the lightning's red glare is painting hell on the lightning hell on the li landscapes in white, displays a handsome sign in the neighborhood of Sixth and Arch-streets, Philadale is proper and the Professor Singlaton. The vigorous measures adopted for the safety under the lashings of the waves, the cry is heard quota of Representatives. Federal judges will The neighborhood of Sixth and Arch-streets, was too glaring, no alliance too hateful, so that Philadelphia, inscribed: "Professor Singleton, was too glaring, no alliance too hateful, so that Seem open to criticism, in some of their details. The state has a seem open to criticism, in some of their details. all would contribute to separate them from that seem open to criticism, in some of their details, that she has sprung aleak at many points; and execute the laws, the mails will be carried as

ADVERTISEMENTS, Of one square (10 lines,) inserted one or THREE forbid, and charged according!

Merchants and others who advertise by the vear, will in no case be allowed to insert any adcertisement not connected with their regular business, without an additional charge.

All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid, will receive prompt attention.

the Federal government just as good as the gov-Dr. Mayo G. Smith, in the following article, ernment of the Confederate States? What adto arms, business stops, property of all hinds istration has done, will probably discover, after a "There are in the human body 2,700,000 sinks in value, the State bonds become almost close self-examination, that he was disloyal be- glands and 7,000,000 pores, from 2,000 to 3,000 worthless, anarchy and confusion prevail, and a venture the assertion that no seceded State can perspirable matter concists of solid substances .- besides, the very theory upon which the Con-The change in the muscles, tissues and bones federate States have organized a provisional govoccurs in from one to three years, and in the en- ernment is destructive of every principle of staabroad, the people must undertake to support a of Napoleon. [Correspondence of the Balitmore . Imerican.]

Paris. Tuesday, June 11, 1861.

America, has resolved to maintain a strict neuof March 21th, 1852, 313 and following of the of the Slave States can, at will, take their slaves "Thirst has often been relieved by immersion. Maritime Penal Code, and Art. 21 of the Code commission from either of the two parties to fit "Perspiration is eliminated from all parts of out vessels of war, or to accept letter of marque

Save the Fragments.

"Many a little makes a mickle," is a good old "Cold water is used and prescribed much Scotch saying. There is another that sounds more than formerly, though many would think English-like: "Take care of the shillings, and a physician not worth sending for who should the pounds will take care themselves." But It is by LITTLES that men become rich and great, and good. The wealthiest man in America became so by taking care of the pennies .-The "learned blacksmith" acquired some knowl-

We heard one of our bachelor friends singing

Can't she love a feller! Her eyes are black. And pink her smeller, And, goodness! Can't she hug a feller! Her cheeks are red. Her hair is yeller,

And, goodness! Can't she kiss a feller. "Ma, get down on your hands and knees a.

"What on earth shall I do that for, pet ?" "Cause, I want to draw an elephant."

LORS. may be found the most ex-delphia Imported Brandies, aica Spirits, Peach and Apherry, Madeira, Malaga and and fancy Liquors, of any having been purchased for of the financial criss,) reat inducements to cash customers. A call from ally invited, and orders for h shall receive prompt at-

JOS. RASIN. PURE EXTRACT OF EET, for producing in a liant and nutritious Jelly, is and Gravies. In packet

BELL & GOLDSBOROUGH.

e by the bushed on barreley

J. H. Grace.