I entered this place yesterday with Forty-secand Regiment of Ohio. Foueteenth Regiment Kentucky, and three hundred of the Second Virgiara Cavalry. On hearing of my approach, the main Rebel force left their strongly-entrencheri camp, and fled. I sent my catalry to the mouth of Jennis, where they attacked and drove the Rebel cavalry, which had been left as a vanguard, a distance of five miles, killing three and wounding a considerable number. Marshall's whole army is now fleeing in utter confusion. He had abandoned and burned a large forts, articles of clothing, 2 bottles of camphor, a amount of his stores. We have taken fifteen ing. J.
