with them or (inch. 21:00

15 ~ 761

nov 3

ds,

our Yankee stood. OLDSBOROUGH. large lot of Brk d-also Cayenne J. H. GRACE.

TERMS.

Wasted Time.

Alone in the dark and silent night,

When evil deeds come back to sight,

Alone with the spectors of the past,

The shadow of Wasted Time.

The chances of happiness cast away,

The opportunities never sought,

The good resolves that every day

There glooms one shadow dark and vast,

Have died in the impotence of thought;

The slow advance and the backward step

When we talk with Wasted Time.

What are we now? what had we been

And knowing no Wasted Time?

Who shall recall the vanished years?

Who shall hold back this ebbing tide

And washes away all things beside.

Who shall give us the strength e'en now,

To leave for ever this holiday rhyme,

And battle with Wasted Time?

The years that pass come not again,

The things that die no life renew;

And makes each year out do the last,

There is no Wasted Time.

runs through the settlement.

A golden truth is glimmering through;

And turns away with strength sublime,

A TRUE STORY.

on a beautiful prairie billow.

the appearance of having been pasted on.

"Good even'n', sur."

this heouse?"

"Yes-r."

"Yes-r.'i got rum ?"

"Yes-r."

of heart-rending agony:

brown weather-beaten cheeks.

That to him who learns from errors past,

Striving our meed to win,

as a new engagement

EASTON, MD., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY, 15 1862.

[From the Springfield Journal.]

WENTWORTH ON DOUGLAS.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

In the rugged path we have striven to climb; How they turrow the brow and pale the lip, parcel, and within that a handkerchief, carefully prayer suitable to the 'casion, and commenced Congress, to which my colleague (Mr. Ficklin) pinned, and within it a package done up in a "Now I lay me down to sleep;" but by Jewdas, has alluded. I shall never forget the hour-that newspaper. On opening the newspaper I found I couldn't pray for cussin'. I just swore, bull or great hour to me, when he arose on that floor What are we now? what had we been

Had we hoarded time as the miser's gold, land warrant for 160 acres of government land, ticular spot; but every time I put my head above that great effort, with reference to which Gentless of the stump. The stump, the bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump is the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump is the stump is the stump. The bull pitched at me and but the level Lackson of the stump is the s

Shrinking from nought that the world could do; extravagant joy of the Yankee. The moment with his eyes as green and blazin' as fire, and found his own full justification till he read it in sex. Commander Porter; Carondelet, Comman-the saw that his land warrant was safe and sound, the foam droppin' from his mouth. I was bob the speech of Judge Douglas. That speech made der Waiter; Cincinnau, Commander Stenabel; he gave a perfect howl of delight, and snatching bin' up and down so continerly that I was a him a leader in the House of Representatives. St. Louis, Lt. Commanding Paulding; Conestoga, gard to the true state of affairs here, that would it from my fingers, he pressed it to his bosom, bout half the time in the stump and half cout, And well do I remember the great celebration Lt. Commander Phelps; Taylor, Lieut. Commander De calculated to further their interests, and to inas he might have done Sarer Ann, had she been and at last I felt the stump begin to give way of the democracy on the 8th of January, 1844, ing Gwinn, and Lexington, Lieut. Command-duce the people and their governments to favor present, and with tremendous strides commenc- under the thumps the infernal ole brindle was in honor of the passage of the bill refunding Gen. ing Shirk—after a severe and rapid fire of one the Confederate cause. In Europe, as in this That leaves us remorse, and shame, and tears,

"Glory to God!" cried he; "glory to the most heow pretty quick, but jist at the minit I raised full glory on a festive occasion. I think I see his staff and 60 men as prisoners. highest! Sarer Ann, all our savin' an' scrimpin' my head to jump out and run, the ole cuss came the stars that composed that galaxy of talent and The surrender to the gunboats was uncondition have no doubt averted to aint in vain! Go on with your tork-plan an' at me, with his head deown and tail up, at loco-patriotism now shining before me. There were tional, as we kept an open fire upon them until a great extent of their aid. To shake off this sloth from heart and brow, kalkerlate! Take little Jed on yer knee and sing! motive speed, and as I dodged deown be struck Silas Wright, Col. Benton, Levi Woodbury, their flag was struck. In half an hour of after In the ev'nin,' when you go out to milk, look the stump, tore it up at the roots and shot me General Gaines, the late Vice-President King, the surrender I handed the fort and prisoners oto'rd where the sun is goin' an' think-thar I've cout like I was a bumbshell clean over the bank Judge Wilkins, Senator Sevier, Gen. Dodge, ver to General Grant, commanding the army, on the great powers, and also of the threata happy home! Your Peleg's thar; he'll hev into the creek; and arter me come stump, bull and, in fine, every one of that glorious old band his arrival at the fort in force. The things that die no life renew;

But e'en from the rust of his cankering chain the land and will be happy yit! The steers is and all. The fore feet, or one on 'em, of the bull of Democrats who adorned that day; but the most blockade, is no doubt mainly predicated upon the consequence of the steers is and after blockade, is no doubt mainly predicated upon the saved! the shoat is all right! the haffer aint, an' struck me rite on the back-and I recon that's of whom have, with General Jackson, preceded fighting most effectually for two-thirds of the acold Barney's bound to count! Oh. fellers! you what tore the carpet bag-nockin' me clean Judge Douglas to their final destination. On thou, was obliged to drop down the river, as I see in your midst a happy head of er famerly— deown to the muddy bottom of the creek. that occasion, ever to be remembered, there was hear that several of her crew were scaled to reader can judge of how much importance they Tell yer the hull story in er minit-give the hull long and short on't. perticklors—a full ackount! Jewdas! what a narrer escape that quarter section did hev." "Well, but let us have the story."

section of the country called the Wapsinoenoc "Never mind that-tell us how you got so the stump till everything jingled.

heow, leetle Jed, an' Sarer Ann, ken I meetyou?" would be a widder in less'n tew hours. I tried ed on my ears to this hour, and I hope never but I know they are now satisfied with the plans; half through the fight, and crowding steadily a- The bands of music in the army cost the Gov-This outburst from the tall Yankee took us all to cipher out which would be the most becomin' will, while God gives me strength to put a vote McClellan has been before them. The President gainst the enemy, a ball went into her port side, ernment, in pay alone, besides subsistance and surprise. We could not imagine what he cipher out which would be the most becomin' will, while God gives me strength to put a vote McClellan has been before them. The President gainst the enemy, a ball went into her port side, ernment, in pay alone, besides subsistance and strength to put a vote McClellan has been before them. The President gainst the enemy, a ball went into her port side, ernment, in pay alone, besides subsistance and the could not imagine when the port side, ernment, in pay alone, besides subsistance and the could not imagine when the port side, ernment, in pay alone, besides subsistance and the could not imagine when the port side, ernment, in pay alone, besides subsistance and the could not imagine when the part into her port side, ernment, in pay alone, besides subsistance and the could not imagine the could not imagine the could not imagine the could not imagine the part into her port side, ernment, in pay alone, besides subsistance and the could not imagine the could not image the c that he might have an opportunity to study the gave me a clue to the mystery, and taking up stumick like a bag o' shot. "Glory to God," lact is, no man ever studied books as little. H his carpet-bag, commenced bauling out shirts, said I, "I may live to purtect the widder and bad an intuitive sagacity, that grasped every le- THE SURRENDER OF THE FORT-FIVE THOUvests and handkerchiefs, all thoroughly water- fatherless yit!" I felt for a minit as if I didn't gal question the moment it was submitted by a soaked, till at the bottom I found a carefully rolled, keer for all the yaller jackets between the Missis- member of the bar. He knew what the authorsippi and Missouri-but, the blessed Jerusha! I ity ought to be, and I can safely say that, unpop-

the stump, the bull pitched at me and hit the eral Jackson afterwards took his hand and com. How. Given Wells, Sectary Navy:

"When I riz, the fust thing I seed wur the no man more highly complimented by all pres- death, including the two pilots. She, with oth- are, when he remembers the strong language of "If you will excuse my interrupting you, sir, old feller's tail, and as I couldn't swim a lick, I cut than Judge Douglas for his efforts in the er gunboats, officers and men, fought with the Lord Russell, in reward to the satisfactory relamade a grab for it and made him tow me ashore. Hatls of Congress. The Elijahs marked him greatest galantry.

When we got there, I let go and run one way, out as the Elisha upon whom the mantle was man killed and eight wounded—two seriously. cated on the settlement of the Trent question. The Downeaster and the Bull. come into this sorry pickle?', "Excuse the question? Sarting, sarting?— When we got there, I let go and run one way, out as the Elisha upon whom the mantle was "Excuse the question? Sarting, sarting?— while the bull run the other, and that's the hull soon to fall. I knew Judge Douglas well at the man killed and eight wounded—two seriously. bill, but not for him or for his emolument. Illi- the most determed gallantry. nois stocks had previously gone down very low. and our State been almost brought to the very I have sent Lieut. Commanding Philips and EULOGY PRONOUNCED BEFORE THE verge of regulation. It was understood that three gunboats after the Rebel gunboats. the bill was to pass the next day. A stir was made in lobbies and among hangers on about! Mr. Wenworth. Mr. President: I was not a. Congress, with the idea that a good time was Despatch of Gen. Halleck Announce "Yes, sarting! Well, you, back hur, bout a ware of the programme of this atternoon. I did coming, and many started to New York to spec-It was in '52 (and that part of lowa was then mild beyant Nockyernoseoff Creek, I wur walk- not suppose that there would be any remarks ulate in stocks. Judge Douglas had the same -creek; literally white-earth-creek,) and situated drove o' cattle jist one side. I wur admirin' anything until the sentiment fell from the lips so as any man that ever adorned American hisheow fat and slik they wur, and lookin' at their of the gentleman from Shelby, (Mr. Thornton,) tory. He was ambitious, but it was not so much Some half-dozen travelers and villagers were good pints, when an almighty great brindle bull namely:—"The good that men do, lives after as the ambition of his friends in his behalf.— them." bar-room; for, though the settlers had only a few his all-fired great curly head, and beller, and The remarks concerning the lite and character With them there was no place that ought not to mail, give this explanation of the discussion, and, pects, and whether there was likely to be a large deown, Sal," an' other good chumes, thinkin' as in American politics, which has now gone to the ways the place for Douglas, and now was al- capture of Fort Henry.

his name for the next. denominated "but'nut," with an oil-cloth cap "I looked abcout fur suthin' tew climb, but I desire to apply that text to the age, to the day, most ardent friends and admirers in all those ters. drawn so tightly down upon his head that it had there I wur in the cussed prairie an' not a pea to the very hour, to the scenes by which we are measures in which he walked in the footsteps of Every ear was strained to catch the Flag Of- on Federal Relations: countable was, that he was wringing, dripping blasted prairies. I gin a glance over my shoul- Judge Douglas died poor. He had filled all over and above all others, I ever desired to see be said, to be the only man whom personally, action. the divers miniature water courses across his lay deown, and I let n.y legs count another notch. had been a politician. He was a partisan him- It is dangereus to be so, for we should always Flag-Officer Foote,) and next the Essex. forehead, and down his nose; water dripped from The chase wur nip and tuck till I got near the self among partisans and competitors; but never follow principles rather than men. But when I the claw-hammer tails of his coat and from the creek, when I see the bull wur makin' a leetle in the severest contest in his career was it charg- almost adored him I agreed with him in princi- length ahead, when, at 12.30 the Cincinnatio- direct conflict with the sentiments of the great wrist bands of the same. On his back he carried grain the best time—he wur only 'beout a huned by the most bitter of his opponents that he ple. Our separation continued for several years, pened the ball, and immediately the three acmajority of the people of this State, and it is not an oil-cloth carpet-bag, securely fastened by dred yars behind me. Lord Jehossyfat! but I had put his fingers too far into the public treasu- upon our disagreement touching the propriety of companying boats followed the example, and only important but right and proper that the State the extension of the Ordnance of '87, to all new the enemy, no ways backward, gave an admira- of Maryland should, at this critical juncture, be Marching into the middle of the room with an it give me sitch a skeer that my heart 'peared Never was he the richer for any position he territory. But when he made his last speech in ble response. immense clatter of cow-hide boots, he halted and to dissolve in dish water, an' my legs kinder lost ever held. A poor boy he came into your Leg- this Hall and in the Wigwam at Chicago, I reclooked back, and, the suffering Moses! if the bull He went into Congress. He sat in his seat there ter those speeches the last particle of animosity works, we came to a stand and poured into ryland, That the Hon. James Alfred Pearce and warn't in twenty feet o' me, his eyes all green, session after session, while untold millions were in my bosom and in the bosoms of my political them right and left. "Heow d'ye dew? Be yew the landlord o' an' his nostrils looked like I might a put my passed upon; but whoever said, much less, who associates died out. I thought I saw that the enhead in 'em, an' as red as a bolt o' new flanin'! evered believed, that one cent of public money emies of our Republic's existence reasoned well and drifted away from the scene of action, leav-I got almost to the creek, when I found the tim- went wrongfully into the hands of Stephen A. for the furtherance of our designs, when at ing the Cincinnati, Carondelet and St Louis a Charleston they declared it necessary to destroy lone engaged. feller hur, nor give him a bite o' suthin' fur sup- the bull so close I could almost feel his breath on Douglas !

Like Clay, Webster, Benton and other great Douglas before they could destroy the constitu- their colors and such cheering my back. I thort of my famerly in that offel and honest men, he died poor. How many are tion of their country. From the property of a enemy struck their colors, and such cheering time; sez I—"Farewell, little Jed, and you Sarer there now within the sound of my voice, who mere party, Judge Douglas, by these speeches, and such wild excitement as seized the throats, enemy here. We can't withdraw any consider- Gen. Tilghman appeared disheartened. He fore us, says the Albany Ecening Journal, a flinders! Oh. Sarer Ann, little knowest that we "When I that I made a offel plung to paign in a manner to secure him a proper degree ed il they can force our centre. Trust, my dear Commodore Foote replied: "You do perfect-"teaching the young ideas how to shoot" in the thou art a beggar! Oh I remarks git cout o' confeounded den; but the cussed bull of personal comfort. All his success depended sir, to the skill of men quite as anxious for vic- ly nght, sir, in surrendering, but you should have right direction, from the classic pen of Jefferson thou art a beggar! Oh, Jerewsalem! Heow warnt mor'n six feet off, and the minit he seed on his talent. Well do I remember when I partory as either you or I can be, with more knowl- blown my boats out of water before I would have Davis: shill I ever meet yoeu, sin' this destruction hev my head he come at me full chisel. The fust I ted with him at Chicago, after he had made his edge of the means by which it can be attained. Surrendered to you."

In the engagement to the series of the means by which it can be attained. In the engagement to the series of the means by which it can be attained. In the engagement to the series of the means by which it can be attained. In the engagement to the series of the means by which it can be attained.

skrewin', an' sinchin', an' turnin', an' turnin', an' twistin'; and hadn't mor'n touched bottom before I felt I asked him what I could do for him. He said: last few weeks. It was erested by those oppos- lead and flying the Flag Officer's pennant, which ted us in the bond of common language, I place arter sellin' old Barney an' the steers; arter sellin' and hadn't mor'n touched bottom before I telt I asked him what I could do for him. He said: last lew weeks. It was elevated by those opposition of the steers; arter sellin' another offel keen bite in my leg. I made a rush "Keep the issue plainly before the people."—ed to the manner in which the war has been con- was the chief mark. Flag. Officer Foote and the good old Spelling Book of Noah Webster. the tew-year-old haffer an' the nine shoats; an' to get out agin, but the cussed internal bulldrove. And when I asked him what he considered the ducted. I opposed it, but that was among my Capt. Stemble crowded her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other arter thou, oh, Sarer Ann good the contract of the considered the ducted. I opposed it, but that was among my Capt. Stemble crowded her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered the ducted. I opposed it, but that was among my Capt. Stemble crowded her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered the ducted. I opposed it, but that was among my Capt. Stemble crowded her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered the ducted. I opposed it, but that was among my Capt. Stemble crowded her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered the ducted. I opposed it, but that was among my Capt. Stemble crowded her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered her difficulty into the teeth. We have a unity of language which no other manner in which the considered her difficulty into the teeth. calker, we're a busted famerly! Of the enemy's guns. She got thirty-one shots, people possess, and we owe this unity, above all issue? He took a pencil and wrote: Shall our mistakes. It has done good; the plans of the of the enemy's guns. She got thirty-one shots, people possess, and we owe this unity, above all else, to Noah Webster's Yankee Spelling Book." caliker, we're a busted famerly! Oh, Jerewsalem! All, all lost—gone in a minit! Oh. I would er bet a gallon o' rum that Sarer Ann ernment of people?"

Words that have never disclosed with the plans: half through the fight, and crowding steadily a the took a pencil and wrote: Shall our mistakes. It has done good; the plans of the chemy signis. On the chemy sign was probably but one man in the country more bulkhead and going squarely through one of her has been introduced to discharge them from the that he or Mr. Seward or General McClellan and Paymaster Lewis, were standing in the di- people poor but honest; why don't they some-

The Stars and Stripes Waving in Tennessee. " Fort Henry Captured.

MORTARS TAKEN.

SAND REBEL INFANTRY CUT AND RUN LEAVING EVERYTHING BEHIND THEM IN THEIR FLIGHT. DER OF THE FORT, WITH ONE HUN-DRED OTHERS TAKEN PRISONERS. WASHINGTON, Feb. 7 .-- The Navy Department, at two P. M. to-day, received the following highly important despatch:

time of the passage of the Illinois Central Rail- The fort, with twenty guns and seventeen road bill. There was money at that time in that mortars, was desended by Gen. Tilghman with editor's report, is the true state of the case: I will write as soon as possible.

A. M. FOOTE, Flag Officer.

ing the Victory. St. Louis, Feb. 7 .- The following is just an-

"Fort Henry is ours! The flag of the Union is re-established on the soil of Tennessee, and it will never be removed." By command of MAJOR-GENERAL HALLECK. W. W. Smith, Capt. and Aid-de-Camp.

days since finished their harvest, the evenings switch his tail, and paw the sile over his back. of the distinguished statesman which have falen be filled by Douglas With them the old pro- Cincinnati, Feb. 7.—The Gazette and Com- doubtless, from weil-advised information on the were somewhat cool, and a small fire was ne I concluded it best tew let on likes ef I warn't from the lips of honorable gentlemen at this time | verb that there is a time and place for all things mercial's Cairo correspondents give the follow-spot. The foreign banking interest here is sencessary to perfect comfort—talking of their pros- afeared, an' so I begin tew whistle "Rake her have beed confined almost to a single question was entirely set aside. With them here was al-

emigration pass through to California in the heave I'd slip past the blasted old cuss; but jist as court of final resort. It may be settled by battle, ways the time for Douglas. Many have assert- Yesterday, at 12 o'clock 30 minutes P. M. the Europe, since the receipt of their correspondence Spring to buy their surplus feed and other pro- I got opperzit, he gin a snort, and begin tew walk to morrow, or the next day, or not for years. ed that he would have been President but for his gunboats Cincinnati, St. Louis, Carondelet, and by the two or three last mails. The last mail is duce, when a new character burst upon the stage. to'rds me, stoppin' once in a while to fetch a We are all anxious for its settlement, upon the lessex—the Tayler, Conestoga and Lexington, understood to have brought a renewal of certain As the door was flung open, all eyes were fixed rake in the sile with his fore feet. I put in a immutable principles of justice. And there is no gallant Clay, it was not his over-anxiety, but bringing up the rear, advanced boldly against the American credits from one or more eminent Enin a stare of astonishment and wonder upon the few quick steps 'beout then, but was afeared tew one that doubts such settlement will have to a that of his friends. Scarce was one Presidential Rebel works, going to the right of Painter Creek glish firms, which had been suspended since Norun, cos I knowed ef I did he'd feel encouraged. bide the fate of this war. I leave it with the fate election decided before they began the contest in Island, immediately above which on the east vember on account of the Trent affair." shore of the river stands the fortification. Keepjawed individual, with flaxen locks straggling a- then I let out in a kinder canter. Then he riz I propose to speak of other traits of Judge Mr. President: I make these remarks as due ing out of range till at the head of the Island, The following joint resolutions requesting the bout his shoulders. His long spindle legs were tew a lope, an' seein' it wur no use a waitin' Douglas's character than those that have been from one who opposed Judge Douglas in the latencased in blue jeans, and he wore a coat of the for him to quit, I jist loosened these ere legs of enumerated. I propose to enlarge upon the ter part of his career, so far as related to the extext, "The good that men do, lives after them." tention of human slavery, but from one of his we steadily advanced, every man being at quarstick tew be seen nearer than a mild ahead- surrounded, in which we now live, and to speak the fathers of our Constitution. Indeed, he may ficer's signal gun for the commencement of the

Our line of battle was on the left, the St. Lou- were elected prior to the commencement of our wet. His whitish-yellow car locks were pasted der an' see the everlasting cuss, with his nose most every position in public life—all but one to made President. I never wish to become so is next, the Carondelet next, the down to his cheeks, and streaks of dirt marked down an' his tail up, comin' jist on the dead which he had aspired; but he died poor. He strongly personally attached to any other man. The office to the grave issues that threaten the dis-

The fight raged furiously for half an hour, but Senators whose hearts shall beat responsive to cast an inquiring glance around the circle occu- their feelings so I couldn't run. But I could see lature; and a mere boy he went out of your Leg- ognized him no longer as a partizan, but as a we steadily advanced toward the enemy, receiv- the throb of devotion to the integrity of the Union pying the benches in front of the fire. Bagley, a lot of trees ahead a leetle ways, an' ef I could islature—the richer for no charter that passed it; patriot, fighting for the same constitution, the left getting within three hundred yards of the enemy's looked back and the suffering Mosest it he half for no scheme of private speculation or plunder. same flag and the same country as myself. At.

duration. He died the great man of the time, that the Rebel infantry encamped outside of the into the Major's melon patch, and filled his pockwhich Judge Douglas shines as conspicuously his place? And to recur again to that sentiment cut and run, leaving only an artillery company his handkerchief, and was about decamping when

> Our shots dismounted two guns, driving the come here and rob your uncle, when you might enemy through the embrasures. One of their have had all you wanted for the asking. When > nfled 32-pounders burst during the engagement, you want cucumbers or melons don't steal 'em; The Rebels captured claim to have had but want. Only ask for them whenever you want eleven effective guns, worked by fitty four men, 'em."

Hon. A. S. Divin, of New York, in a letter to the number, all told, of the prisoners taken .-They lost five killed and ten badly wounded.

ADVERTISEMENTS,

Of one square (10lines,) inserted one or THREE. TIMES for ONE DOLLAR and TWENTY-FIVE cents for each subsequent insertion. Longer ones in proportion. A liberal deduction to yearly advertisers. Advertisements not marked the number of insertions desired, will be continued until A forbid, and charged accordingly.

Merchants and others who advertise by the year, will in no case be allowed to insert any advertisement not connected with their regular business, without an additional charge.

All orders addressed to the editor, post-paid, will receive prompt attention.

the steam jumped overboard and were drowned. The Cincinnati had one man killed and six

The Essex had six seamen killed, two officers and seventeen men wounded, and five missing. There were no casualties on the St Louis and A LARGE NUMBER OF CANNON AND Carondolet, though the shot and shell fell upon them like rain. The St. Louis was commanded by Capt. - Leonard Paulding, who stood upon the gunboat and fought his guns to the last. Not a man flinched, and with cheer upon cheer sent shot and shell among the enemy.

Our Poreign Relations.

The great difficulty with England is no sooner settled, than other firebrands are attempted to be thrown about to create excitement. Secesh early took the precaution to send to the principal capitals of Europe, talented but unprincipled ed pacing back and forth across the room. It given it, and I swear my hair riz straight on end. Jackson's fine. It was the last time the United hour and a quarter, have captured Fort Henry, the Contederate cause. In Europe, as in this seemed impossible for him to be still an instant. I made up my mind to git cout o' that, some. States democracy of America ever assembled in and have taken General Lloyd Tilghman and country, there are plenty of editors whose palms can be greased for the use of their columns, and

The latest intelligence in regard to the inten-

The following, from a New York commercial

"The foreign news by the "Africa" was also partially discussed, and different views expressed as to its bearing upon the future of the market. So far as friendly intervention in our domestic war by the Great Powers of Europe as hinted at, the opinion obtains that while this would scarcely be practical in the present state of the rebellion, the mere attempts to mediate would not necessarily be productive of financial mischief. The dust raised in Paris and London in regard to the stone blockade of Charleston is due mainly. no doubt, to the indefatigable and desperate efforts of the emissaries of the South since the settlement of the Trent affair, to create some new complication between our Government and France and England.

Mr. Eichelberger, and referred to the Committee

Whereas. The Senators representing the State of Maryland in Congress of the United States memberment of the Union; and whereas, the po-We advanced in line—the Cincinnati a boat's sition they occupy in reference those issues is in represented in the Senate of the United States by > the Hon. Anthony Kennedy be and they are hereby requested to resign immediately their positions as Senators in Congress. Be it further resolved. That the Governor be respectfully requested to communicate forthwith a copy of these resolutions to said Senotors.

> > I Want' em Now.

Somewhere near the Saco river, in the pine tree State, lived Major Warning. He raised After the surrender, which was made to Com- heaps of melons, cucumbers and other garden the hand of the Majer was laid upon his shoul-The fort mounted seventeen guns, mostly 32 der, and Joe stood. The Major spoke:

come and ask for them, and I'll give you all you Joe felt very melon-choly, but managed to cry out: "Well, I want 'em now."

STRONG TESTIMONIAL IN BEHALF OF THE U-ON WEBSTER'S SPELLING BOOK .- We have be-

"Above all other people we (the Americans) are

I dasent hardly think on't! There's poor, Sarer bark and dirt; so decown I bobbed again fur snaiks. To Chicago to hold court, where we had then, as him.

TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM IN AD-VANCE, or TWO DOLLARS AND FIFTY CENTS if not paid within one month of the time of subscribing, or the renewal of subscriptiona falure to notify a discontinuance is considered; VOL. LXV.

And good deeds rise with a welcome cheer, city, then the capitol of the State, and Muscatine name is Peleg Snodgrass, son of Mr. Snodgrass, city, a flourishing town on the Mississippi, in a from deown in Maine-"

Ann, feelin' so proud, an' talkin' to little Jed a- I now begin to get bites offel trequently, and in now, some of the ablest lawyers in the Union.

bout our fine new home in the prairies; jest like bad places; the whizzin' got louder, and squirm- I remember an agreement which was made alone in the dark and silent night, me an' her us't often to dew, an here, Oh, Jew- ed and twisted, and screamed at a fast rate, and mong his political friends: It was, that they with the heavy thought of a vanished year, das! is a hull quarter section of the neatest land in grabbin' round I ketched somethin' and got a would not disturb him during the evenings, so hite in the hand in lowa gone to eternal smash!" bite in the hand. The poor fellow's feeling now completely mas- "I held my holt on to it and holded! It prov- grave questions of law which might come betered him, and he hid his face in his hands and ed to be nothin' but a yaller jacket! When I fore him for determination. But I never found That come with the old year's dying chime, sobbed like a child. His last words, however, found wasn't snaik bit, I felt sumthin' lift off my him with a law book in his hand. The

> Mr. Yankee had now controlled his grief, and hadn' seen one there to where I see a thousand ular as he was with the bar when he came to GENERAL LLOYD TILGHMAN, THE COMMANstood near, with his hands on his knees, bending in another minit! The whole holler of that Chicago, he went away the most popular Judge over me in breathless suspense. Unrolling a stump got yaller with 'em. I couldn't stand it we ever had in that circuit. hickory shirt, I found within a large brown paper long that way. I tried to think o' some kind o' We met again, and that was in the American

Through the summer's heat and the winter's

It is almost useless to attempt to describe the stump jist like a maul; he looked offel ferocious, plimented him, by saying, that he had never agitate and keep agitating in the newspapers of you witness a joyful human-" and it is a fair question." said I, "how did you made a grab for it and made him tow me ashore. Halls of Congress. The Elijahs marked him greatest galantry.

What I am going to relate, happened in Muscatine county, Iowa, midway between Iowa "Yass, sarting, sarting! Well, gents, my Settlement, from a creek bearing that name which wet." thinly settled.) that I found myself one evening in' along as happy as lark, lookin' abeout over made here, except, perhaps by the mover of the opportunity through moneyed friends as others, anounced from head quarters: at the Eagle Hotel. In West Liberty, a village the prairies, and thinkin heav beautiful the great resolutions; consequently nothing was further but it was his boast that he never would make a of some five houses, about one mile east of Wapsi- All Bein' had made the world, an' what awful from my intention than addressing the Conven- cent through his political position. noenoc Creek. (Whapsi-white, nac-earth, noc taters this sile would raise, when I saw a big tion on this occasion. Nordid I conclude to say Douglas was naturally a great man, as much The stranger was a tall, raw-boned, lantern- Putty soon he begin tew come on the trot, an' of the war.

Then what appeared most strange and unac- beow I did want to stop right there and cuss the of facts with which we are all familiar. "Want t'know? Rekcon ye couldn't keep a ber wur all on the opposite bank from me, and Douglas?

"Ye mean to say ye ken bed 'an breakfast?" Ann, my gentil companion!" Jist at that in have had business with Stephen A. Douglas, and like those of Patrick Henry in the Revolution, arms and caps of the four or five hundred sailors stant I see a stump on the bank of the creek, and where is the man that ever dared to broach the roused his countrymen as one man to the defence of the gunboats cannot be imagined, much less "Gol darn' glad to hear on't—an' if yeou kin made a spring for it expectin' to get on the top proposition to him, that with his success with of their flag. He at once culminated in the ze-described. jist mix a feller a little suthin' hot an' strong, on't but it happened tew be holler, an' I landed this or that legislative enactment, he might pos- nith of universal admiration; but in the mystewith a good deal o' rum in't an' but leetle water, inside. I just had room tew squeeze deown in sibly be the richer? And how few of our public rious workings of that Providence who overrules his fort in the most determined proper we found. it and get my head below the top, an' not a darn lie men in this corrupt age, can thus be spoken all things for good, that culmination was of short his fort in the most determined manner, we fould off, was given to stealing. One night Jee crept bit too soon wur in; for as my topknot went of? "Strong, mid, a good deal o' licker. You've deown, Mr. Bull's head came up whack against There is another evil of the times, with respect and whom have we, as a popular leader, to take fort, numbering four or five thousand men, had ets with cucumbers, tied up a lot of melons in "You'd better b'elieve I felt thankful I wur as he does in the matter before alluded to. It is upon which my remarks have been predicated, in command of the fort! While the landlord was preparing his rum the housed at last; and the old cuss of a bull wasn't the fashion now-a-days when a man attains pub- may the good that Stephen A. Douglas did live stranger stood in front of the bar, with the pack he disappointed! Lord how he did raive round lie position, to drag all his relatives into office af- after him; may his dying advice to his children and 34-pounders, one being a magnificent 10-inch and 34-pounders, one being a magni still on his back, evidently bent on seeing that that stump, switch his tail, paw the sile, and ter him. It is a noted fact in the history of man- be engraven upon all our hearts, and be the in- Columbiad. the correct thing was done in the rum and and beller! I peeped up at him, jist to see how kind that greatness do'nt appertain to a whole centives of all our actions. water mingling. Then having imbibed a "regu- he wur gettin' on, but I kalkerlate I peeped deown family; that when a large amount of brain is lar snorter," he asked the landlord to assist in again offel suddent! for hadn't mor'n got my concentrated in one head, it is very often taken removing his pack. This being done, he was a head up when his horn come a straddle of it, an' in the same proportion, from the heads of others eral McClollan.

The Position of the President and Gen-wounding the guaners.

The Rebels captured claim bout handing his carpet-bag over to the landlord his skull hit the stump like a maul. That little of the same family. Judge Douglas, when electo put behind the bar, when he caught sight of incerdent convinced me that the best thing I ted to office, considered that when the people vo-

an immense rent in it, and therefrom protruding could do was, in the langwidge of Squire Wheel- ted for him, they did not vote for the whole famthe corners of articles of clothing within it. The er, to "lay low, watch black ducks, an' chaw ily of Douglases, and their collaterals. Never one of his constituents, says: from his hande his is a deep to specific formal poke-root." Jist as I'd made up my mind not did Stephen A. Douglas in his life put his hand a life from his hands, his jaw dropped, and for a few to put my head up again, I tell the offelest pain upon a recommendation for one of his relatives. 15th of December. I will make a very short re-their flight and a vast deal of their plunder has become the story of the put of the put of the put of the plunder has become a story of the put of the put of the plunder has become a story of the put of the put of the put of the put of the plunder has become a story of the put of seconds he stood the very image of despair. At take me in the leg I ever see, and at the same I know it is true he had relatives in office, but ply: First, as to why our army does not strike fallen into our hands, including a large and valualength he roused himself and the leg I ever see, and at the same I know it is true he had relatives in office, but ply: First, as to why our army does not strike fallen into our hands, including a large and valualength he roused himself and the leg I ever see, and at the same I know it is true he had relatives in office, but ply: First, as to why our army does not strike fallen into our hands, including a large and valualength he roused himself and the leg I ever see, and at the same I know it is true he had relatives in office, but ply: First, as to why our army does not strike fallen into our hands, including a large and valualength he roused himself and the leg I ever see, and at the same I know it is true he had relatives in office, but ply: First, as to why our army does not strike fallen into our hands, including a large and valualength he roused himself and the leg I ever see, and at the same I know it is true he had relatives in office, but ply: First, as to why our army does not strike fallen into our hands, including a large and valualength he roused himself and the leg I ever see, and at the same I know it is true he had relatives. length he roused himself, and striking his clench- time somethin' commenced to whiz, whiz, down they acquired those offices as the acquired his at some other point than the stronghold of the ble quantity of ordnance stores. ed fist against his forehead, he howled, in a voice in the bottom of the holler stump. I tried to own intrinsic merits. look down to see what on airth could it be, but My first acquaintance with Judge Douglas able force from the army of the Potomac without thinks the capture of the fort is one of the most somewhat antiquated copy of Webster's Ele-"Ruined! ruined! Teetotally busted the holler was so narrer I couldn't get a chance was during his campaign with John T. Stuart. weakening our line, and we have a vigilant foe damaging blows of the war. On surrendering mentary Spelling Book, on the fly-leaf of which in smash! One hundred and fifty acres of the to look, and all onct it popt into my head that He was then as poor as he was when he died. ready to take advantage of any movement of the to Com. Foote he remarked, "I am glad to sur- we find the following emphatic endorsement of the look, and all onct it popt into my head that He was then as poor as he was when he died. The population and its influence in best lond that every lay out'e door, rippled all to there wur a rattlesnake in the stump.

bin wroughted? After all our skrimpin', an' knowed I had dodged back inter the stump agin first speech there. He was leaving on horse back. A joint committee has been in session for the In the engagement the Cincinnati was in the one, and above all other books which have uni-by surprise. We could not imagine what had for a Christian, to be pizened to death by a offel in the ballot box for the old Jacksonian princi- stated the other day, in my presence, that there through one of her has been introduced to discharge them from the happened to cause him so much alarm and gnef, great snaik, or have my in'ards slung to the four ples. for the tears were flowing plentifully down his winds by a cussed brindle bull. I thought of He stood on that issue, and no man did as anxious for a battle than himself, and that man boilers, the escaping steam scalding and killing service on the 1st of March next. the martyrs-of Amos biled in ile, Elizer smeer- much to supplant the sub-treasury principle in was McClellan. He repudiated in words of several of her crew. "What in the world has happened to you, sir, ed with honey, and Joseph tempted by Pottifer's the hearts of the American people as Stephen A. withering rebuke to those who make the charge, Capt. Porter and his Aide, S. P. Button, Jr., "Pa," said a lad to his father, "I often read of cause you so much distress? You are standing in the dito cause you so much distress? You are cer- wife, and concluded that I ort to profit by their Douglas. to the control of the first over that rent in example, an' grin an' bear it no mattir how much that I ort to profit by their Douglas.

The next time I saw Judge Douglas, he came were tampering or delaying out of any considered that I ort to profit by their Douglas.

The next time I saw Judge Douglas, he came were tampering or delaying out of any considered the shot struck him on said his father, "nobody would believe them." your carpet bag?" asked I, advancing to where it went agin the grain. But I got jist then a to Chicago as one of our Supreme Judges, who eration for Rebels or Rebel institutions, or that the centre of the group the shot struck him on said his father, "nobody would believe them." offel bite or tew, and to save my soul couldn't then performed circuit duties. He was ridicul- they indulged any thought of ending the war by the top of the head, scattering his brains in every "Oh, no, no! Holy Jerewsalem, ef 'twas help stickin' up my head, and the bull bein' on ed as the "baby Judge," and especially was he any means other than conquest on the battle field. direction. The escaping steam went into the A Horgyun.—"Tommy, my son, what is long to the battle field. direction. The escaping steam went into the A Horgyun.—"Tommy, my son, what is long to the battle field. Discount of the battle field. Discount of the battle field. Discount of the battle field. Bride, gitude?" "A clothes line daddy." "Prove it." nothin' elst but that! Oh, murder, murder, murder, murder, hand, let drive and filled my eyes chuck full of ridiculed for his presumption in daring to come I wish every man in our land could have heard pilot house and instantly killed Ford and Bride, gitude?" "A clothes line daddy." "Prove it."