

THE EASTON GAZETTE. throngs.

SATURDAY MORNING, ... MARCH 8, 1862.

EASTON, MD.

ions which have graced the columns of the Star lization of the army and the continual disorderly termined to offer for publication the following. for the last few months, the article of Tuesday manifestations in the city is given as the reason shall occasionally prepare a brief communication last may be said to cap the climax. We can for the proclamation. Another order had been (with your approbation,) giving any little items well imagine the feelings of the disappointed and issued requiring all persons to deliver up arms. The rains and togs, damps and snows of a amortified treason sympathizers, when the news of every description under penalty of having them dreary and inclement winter still continue, reof the glorious victories achieved by the federal seized. Great excitement, amounting to a panic, tarding all manner of agricultural operations peforces came rolling in upon us, promising an prevailed in that city. During Sunday night culiar to the season of the year, and our farmers torces came rolling in upon us, promising an privated in that city. During Sunday might complain of being unavoidably behind with their early settlement of our national difficulties, and the Union element made a significant demonstrative work. It is usual for farmers in this section of take summary action to ferret out the traitors in the union of the un can readily appreciate the baffled rage of the en- tion by writing on the walls and fences pithy the county to commence hauling compost on their their midst, and to put down these conspirators emies of our government, where they see all sentences rejoicing over the expected advance of corn cultivation in December or January, but as by the prompt use of the halter. their scherges fustrated and their fine cherished the National forces. The arrest of leading citi- yet, owing to the saturated condition of the On the same day a proclamation was issued hopes blown to the winds. The future has no prospect for them. The restoration of the U-nor Botts, and some twenty other prominent lion day,) and during the whole of December cinity. The arrest of all leading and influenced current of the U-nor Botts, and some twenty other prominent lion day,) and during the whole of December cinity. The arrest of all leading and influenced current of the U-nor Botts, and some twenty other prominent lion day,) and during the whole of December cinity. The arrest of all leading and influenced current current of the U-nor Botts, and some twenty other prominent lion day,) and during the whole of December cinity. nion consigns them to eternal political infamy. men were arrested. Cols. Corcoran, Wilcox, Under the circumstances it is not to be wondered and other Federal officers and soldiers had reach-At that the editor of the Star and his co-partners ed Richmond from South Carolina, but their imin treason bitterly denounce every demonstration mediate release was doubtful. One report was of patriotism and love of the Union. This is the hostages for Generals Buckner and Tilghman, rupting the progress of all sorts of out-door-work, against them, but it was thought if a counter batteries, still the gua carria- since they have heard how our boys use the patriousni and love of the Chiou. This is the hostages for Generals Buckner and Tilghman, repling the progress of an sorts of our door-work, against them, but it was thought if a counter ges which remained presented a similar appear "cold steel," is very evident from the anxiety to rendering the roads in some places almost improve of the occasion of who the Rebels believe are to be held as political rendering the roads in some places almost intended that these men would ges which remained presented a similar appear "cold steel," is very evident from the anxiety to ance to mounted guns. the celebration of the 22d of February by the offenders. The successful running of the blockcitizens of Easton, and his gratuitous fling at ade off Cape Fear river by the privateer Nashthe ladies who were present. It was truly no Georgia, states that Tatnall's fleet had another place for him or his associates. Had they been engagement with our batteries on the Sarannah present and heard the warning words of the river, and was again forced to retire. Father of his country, their cheeks would have paled and their knees trembled, as with guilty dence were wanting of the pacific disposition of fall, in consequence of which the wheat crop sas. The order for martial law prohibits entire-only who have not heretofore taken sides in favor consciences, each would have felt the force of the the British government, it might be found in the does not present a very healthful appearance; ly the manufacture and sale of all spirituous or against secession. The remainder, from three accusation "thou art the man." The miserable faction in this vicinity which still hangs on to Jeff. Davis and his rotton Confederacy are dismayed at the slightest Union demonstration .-They would as soon stand a cannonade as to stand the reading of Washington's Farewell Ad- dency to retrenchment. dress. Every shaft enters their quivering consciences, and afraid to trust themselves within its hearing, they content themselves with abus- tion on Wednesday, elected Hon. Reverdy John- houses and hearthstones are made desolate and ing every one else who engages in the time-hon- son as United States Senator from March 4, 1863. wives and daughtes disconsolate—the hearts of ored custom. The allegation has been made This is a most excellent choice, in view of his for the sound of familiar footsteps, to which they it a partizan matter? Those who followed the man in the State could fill the position with more of our doorways are hung with deepest mournthat it was a partizan matter. Now, who made distinguished ability and unfaltering loyalty. No will never listen again; when so many thousands custom of seventy years or those who refused dignity than Mr. Johnson. to participate in it? These cavillers are like the dog in the manger; they will neither celebrate; the day themselves, nor permit any one else to do it. They will neither sing the "Star Spangled; Banner" themselves nor let any one else sing it. They have repudiated Washington's birth day. the National Flag, the Declaration of Independence, the Fourth of July, every national emblem. WE are indebted to a couple of gentlemensacred tune and patriotic device, and can't bear one from St. Michaels, the other from Bay Hunthe slightest exhibition of loyalty or devotion to dred, for local letters. We hope they will conthe Union. The sight of the Stars and Stripes, tinue to supply us ,with local items from their Church, in St. Michaels has just been brough; city. or a few strains of the Star Spangled Banner districts. will as effectually put them to flight as if a regiment of Zouaves were after them. Talk of free- be worked up to a considerable pitch over ru- stitution and government, many others, of all adom of the press, liberty of speech, suspension of the habe as corpus and "subjugated Margland!" Fancy a set of unprincipled demagogues, disconstituting themselves the "State," and calling are subjugated and the people are their masters. Freedom of the press! The very article in the Star is an example, not only of the freedom of the press, but of the forbearance of the Government in permitting such pitiful effusions to be

Ition measures introduced into Congress. Wait to the adjoining State. Their assent was obtain another day spread its cheerful rays upon the They set the bridge on fire, and the citizens until abolition measures are passed. It we were ed and no objections were heard until the next lifeless bodies of the drowned. The appearance put it out. to chronicle every thing done, said and threatened by such men as Sumner, Lovejoy and their was going on, made it their special business to (resembling drifting snow) blown into it by the day and congratulated the officers as to their miserable cabal we would have our hands pretty converse pretty treely with some of the privates lorce of the wind, and indeed so thick at times, qualities. full. They and their predecessors have done the of the company, making them believe that when that Poplar Island, situated about two miles dissame for forty years and every test vote in the they reached the rail road station at Bridgeville, tant was invisible, and along the entire shore. The Secession element preponderates. present Congress shows them to be getting the melves en route for Washington, and from ance of solid foam, caused by the dashing of the Tennessee river bridge Strong quards have been detailed, and private chronicle their sayings and doings and to frigh- land of Dixe. * Those men, or at least a to the air. Swan and other wild fowl were driv- gion. ten people with an exagerated idea of their impor- portion of them, having tired of playing soldier,' en into the fields adjacent the shores, and all na- The committee of citizens from Nashville tance. The editor of that sheet has for years ed in a summary manner from the service and While thus viewing the raging of the storm, that place, receiving good treatment. A Union this property belongs to the Rebel army, and if it the existance of the Whig party it was his par- brought about their present difficulties These ter a hard struggle. A few minutes afterwards prisoner is there. ticular thunder; in after years during the American excitement, he was literally swollen with deserters himself upon the street in this place the land. She realed and tossed fearfully and would the military authorities on account of the destrucknow-nothingism and abolitionism, like a puffed day before his arrest." toad; and for the last twelve months has been en- Whether the statement of the deserter is true to reach the harbor, carrying away her wheel- Over a million of dollars worth of railroad and his administration were going to set them at to a just punishment.

This is the man who is opposed to celebrating the 22d, opposed to the National flag, opposed to "Union" of our fathers. We don't wonder that listen to a more pleasing discourse than the lecwell Address would doubtless have given him on Tuesday night last, by Rev. T. D. Valliant. arm as a signal of distress to those on the shore lation in Columbus in reference to the fate of the A Despatch from Commodore Foote a worse firt of the shakes, than that experienced His subject was "Religion and Patriotism" who witnessed the melancholly affair. His jaw Rebels captured at Fort Donelson. The leaders Washington, March 4.—Secretary Welles a worse into the shakes, that that experienced at "Camp Kirby." As it is, he and others who He clearly and forcibly argued that there can be ed by blows received from the row best which and there be had massapublican institutions, and as such will be known ington, Franklin, Everett and others, among the while turning Kent Point, and blown twenty feet sentations as these. and recognized by every true and loyal citizen. purest patriots that ever graced our land, such

-GEN. BANKS FORCES IN VIRGINIA .- On MODsion of Harper's Ferry; a substantial pontoon were perfectly delighted. bridge was thrown across the stream, and on Wednesday Gen. Banks' column moved over in force and took possession of all the surrounding urday night, about 11 o'clock, a young man by the captain, who must have perished ere the set. country as far as Charlestown. Reconnoisances the name of Adam Jones, of Company H, of ting of the sun. Five bodies have since been see prisoners are in tavor of discontinuing resis- and abattis. have been made towards Winchester, where the Col. Wallace's Regiment Home Guards, died at found, recognized by the captain, and were but ance to the Federal authority. Bebels are supposed to be in force, having late.

Mr. Wallaston's hotel, in this town, where he passed a schooner in a sinking condition and on impression that they will advise their friends to evening occupied by four hundred of the Second Sarah Ellen Harden—all of this county. Clellan was present during the crossing and then clock on Sunday morning the detachment under ing gone to the bottom, carrying all on board, as returned to Washington. The movement was accomplished without opposition beyond the charge. The deceased formerly resided in Broad driving off and conture of small bodies of Robel.

Major Kirby marched in town, presenting a vereports that off Kent Point he saw a sloop sink within fifty yards of him having ladies on board lumbus. scouts, and an ineffectual attempt by the Rebels the military to the edge of town, where they paid into the cabin as the sloop was going down, supto shell a railroad train whilst passing Berlin .- their last tribute of respect. The corpse was posed to be in a fainting condition. He also re-This movement of Gen. Banks' column will the place of interest by a guard and carried to place that portion of Virginia, from Harper's Ferry to Hancock, under the control of the Union forces, and enable the immediate repair and the County Commissioners appointed Wm. B.

further objects, beyond the restoration of the rail- advantage of the public. The appointment is when the squall first came on. The captain of The evacuation commenced on Thursday last, ants Commanding Paulding, Thompson, Shirk road, will be developed in good time. Our forces also a proper acknowledgment of the zeal with this vessel reported passing several ressels cap- but all the Rebels did not leave until a late hour and Phelps. (the latter being in command of the passed over in fine spirits and received General which Mr. Clark, has served the cause of the U- sized. McClellen with the most abundant enthulasm nion in its late struggles in this county. They were greeted with joy by the Union rest- We learn that Mr. Clark will continue the were dressed as sailors are generally. dents, and the refugees, driven from their homes practice of his profession, and in order to give in that Section of Virginia, were returning in auditional facilities to all who may have business

103- Br way of Fortress Monroe interesting items of Southern intelligence have been received. Jeff. Davis has published a proclamation placing Richmond and the country ten miles around under martial law, and troops were pick-Or all the malevolent and spiteful effus- eted through the city. The prevailing demora- acceptable to the readers of the Gazette, I have dewas ordered, and during the day Hon. John Minor Botts, and some twenty other prominent men were arrested. Cols. Corcoran, Wilcox, and other Federal officers and soldiers had reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and other Federal officers and soldiers had reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and other Federal officers and soldiers had reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and other federal officers and soldiers had reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and other federal officers and soldiers had reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and other federal officers and soldiers had reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and reach in many places were very dusty. On the first and reach in the vision had been evacuated and occupied by our troops, the gunboats were cleared to only asking that they may be protected in their property—in both instances, the "creatures" of Louis were the incendiaries. In North Carbon, and moved down the river in line of large the control of the first and reach in the vision had been evacuated and occupied by our troops, the gunboats were cleared to only asking that they may be protected in their property—in both instances, the "creatures" of Louis were the incendiaries. In North Carbon, and moved down the river in line of large the control of the c > fact that the navy estimates for the ensuing year, but upon a close examination of it, I find less liquors and supersedes the civil authority alto to five hundred in number, have fled, leaving as prepared for submission to Parliament, exhibit thrown out by the frosts than I have known for gether. Troops with bristling bayonets were their houses and stores, where not destroyed, oa very large reduction from the scale maintain- many years before. The same may be said of picketed throughout the city, and gloom and despen. ed for many years past. It is also understood In a time of almost unmitigated woe, when elso that the army estimates will show a similar ten- business is prostrate, commerce checked, public ed to make mention last week that Mr. Wm. J. Roberts had been re-appointed armorer at this ladies and gentlemen of the Bay Side, in the appointed wood-corder in Baltimore.

35- The citizens of Caroline county appear to for the purpose of fighting in defence of our conmore that have been circulated in reference to ges, sexes and colors, have enlisted under the urday, stating that he (Buell) would be within saved by the untiring exertions and the coastant) the tate of the soldiers who descrited Captain and the devil," in defence of the cause of the Number's Company when they crossed the Del- great captain of our salvation. appointed in their efforts to betray the people, aware line. It is reported that the strict letter of unlitary rule will be carried out and efforts have themselves "subjugated Maryland." Well. they been made in their behalf on the part of their the particulars in regard to the storm of Monday matter will be fairly investigated by a court-martial and decided accordingly.

daily thrown before the people. Under any other company commenced their march for Bridgeville came on the wind blew from the westward and government under heaven the perpetrator would orders were received at Camp Kirby for one of continued to blow from that point until night, ready to face the enemy again. lose his head or be consigned to a felon's dun. the companies at that place to proceed to Lau- when it veered a little to the north of west, and CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 22 .- Our troops rel, Det. Knowing the destination to be beyond continued to rage until near day-break of the are in possession here, 1,500 in number. the limits of the State, the officers and privates following morning (Tuesday,) when the storm | There is a fort here which the enemy have e-We are reminded that we do not publish abc- were consulted as to their willingness to go in- cloud ceased its fury, and the mild sunshine of vacuated, leaving four guns. day. In the mean time sercial of the enemies of the Chesapeake was as if it were a field of Cave Johnson (formerly Postmaster General of the Government about Easton hearing what snow; the air was completely filled with water, of the United States.) visited the gunboats yester- arrived. weaker and weaker. We leave it to the Star to thence they would soon find themselves in the waves against the banks, bursting and flying in- is also burned, as are also all bridges in this rebelieved this a suitable opportunity to be releas- ture seemed to bow to its giant strength. past revelled in Abolitionism; it has been his acting upon the instructions received by those I espied two vessels trying to make Poplar Is sentiment is there decidedly apparent. food by day and his dream by night. During whom they supposed to be their friends, have land harbor which they finally accomplished af- General B. K. Johnson, heretofore reported are the facts summed up in brief, and so stated, a steamer made her appearance, scudding stern This place (Clarksville) was unanimously purpose of attacking the place. though not in the same language, by one of the foremost before the wind also making Poplor Is- Secession, but the people are greatly incensed at deavoring to create sedition and foment discord or not we are unable to say, but if it be correct among the slaves by proclaiming that Lincoln such parties ought to be ferreted out and brought

LOCAL ITEMS. LECTURE.—Seldom has it been our fortune to he staid away; the reading of Washington's Fare- ture delivered at the Methodist Protestant Church of the shore and was distinctly seen raising his The most extraordinary stories were in circuderide that sacred day and refused to participate no genuine patriotism where proper respect to was tossed so fearfully by the force of the waves. believed by any one except the ignorant, who Sir :- Columbus is in our possession. My WHEAT-Good white, in its exercises, stand branded as enemies to re- christianity is not paid, and quoted from Wash- One of the crew was picked up from off the deck entered into the rebellion by just such misrepre- armed reconnoissance, on the 2d inst., caused a passages as showed that the principles of christianity directed their course of life. We could lashed himself to the main-boom. The schooner tions of the South, would be assassinated. not give even an out-line of the lecture without came so near the bank that Mr. Chas. E. Porter St. Louis, Feb, 25.—The steamer Daniel G. er with a large number of torpedoes. day week Colonel Geary's regiment took posses- doing injustice to the speaker. All who heard it

DEPARTURE OF ANOTHER SOLDIER .- On Satly been reinforced from Manassas. Gen. Mc- has been sick for some time past. About 91 o'- taking a second view, she was lost to sight, hav- lay down their arms. driving off and capture of small bodies of Rebel Creek Neck, and his remains were escorted by -all hands lost; he saw a woman fall headlong APPOINTMENT OF CLERK.—On Tuesday last, reopening of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, Clark, Esq., of this town, Clerk to the Board .long the prey of the wanton vandalism of the Mr. Clark has the swavity of manner and gen- though one of the men is badly frosted. The Columbus, which is the strongest Rebel position lives of the garrison.

pertaining to county affairs, he will remove his law office to the room in the Court House, all times be accessible to those who require his

ST. MICHAELS, March 1st, 1862. MR. EDITOE: As a short news letter from some distant section of the county is sometimes i.

in many places were very dusty. On the first ed, was also ordered, and in the course of the day battle. They soon however descried the glor olina, the same may be said of matters and things Friday night in January a little snow fell, and John Minor Botts and twenty other gentlemen lous Stars and Stripes which were proudly wav- there, as well as in Virginia, and no doubt at since that time the rains and snows have contin- of position and character were arrested and conmediate release was doubtful. One report was used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthat the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission, seriously interthan the two Colonels were to be retained as used almost without intermission. There was not alleged to be any charge guns in the water batteries, still the gun carrie. passable, and keeping people within doors with be dangerous from their wealth and influence, ance to mounted guns. little else to do than to brood over hard times and might be held as hostages for the good beand to deplore the unhely war which is laying bavior of their Union friends. waste some of the fairest sections of our beloved country, and deluging her fields with some of dency to retrenchment.

Confidence destroyed and the best energies of the people paralyzed—when thousands of eyes are clouded and gushing with deepest griet—when clouded and gushing with deepest gri ing, and when the mind and heart becomes wea- VILLE BY FEDERAL TROOPS. ry with painful contemplation of the ruin that AFFOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR .- We fail- threatens our once glorious Republic, a moderate indulgence in some of the follies of the world becomes a pleasant relief, and many of the young giddy maze of the round dances or the exhilera-Capt. Wm. Beckwith of this county has been bon of the quadrille, crushing out all bitter animosities and every remembrance of differences. of political sentiment, find a grateful forgetfulness of the many sad calamites which now almost daily, by the hand of grun visaged war, citizens appealed to Gen. Pillow to stop the outbe all our unhappy country.

> to a close-and while many of our young men have enlisted under the "Star Spangled Banner. banner of the cross, "to fight the world, the fles.

MR. Epiron: Thinking perhaps that you would like to be made acquainted with some of triends and relatives. We presume that the week, I thought I would give you a few items. About lo o'clock in the morning a dense and fearful looking cloud obscured the western horizon and continued to increase in magnitude un-The .Imerican Union of Thursday says that: ul it poured forth one of the most violent storms "A day or two before the one on which the that I ever witnessed. When the storm first occasionally disappear; she however, managed tion of property. house (but not her stack-pipe, as has been here- property was destroyed here, and all commun tofore reported.) Shortly after a vessel was seen cation cut off in this vicinity. coming around Kent Point in a distressed condi- CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 25 .- The boat which went the enemy's rearguard. tion, and was driven ashore near the residence down with the flag of truce brought back Mrs. the water.) five of the crew attempted to escape captive lords. to the shore by means of a row-boat, and were Mrs. Gen. Buckner had learned at Columbus from the vessel and sank immediately, making The most violent hatred was manifested at number of guns and carriages, ammunition and Corn-New White, six persons drowned from one vessel. The cap- Columbus towards Pillow and Floyd, who, if stores; a large quantity of shot an' shell; a con tain, whose name is Teet, was saved, he having they should make their appearance in some sec- siderable number of anchors, and the remnant of Oars-Maryland.

(and much credit is due him for his daring ad- Taylor arrived from the Cumberland river to-day, venture.) drove out to the schooner in a horse with over one hundred hogsheads of tobacco, and stroyed. cart, while the spray was flying and completely arms and other articles captured at Fort Donelenveloping him in a sheet of water and rescued son. ports passing another sloop turned bottom upto the left, he saw nothing but disasters of the most horrible character.

A vessel hailing from Herring Bay, Captain Crandle, was also blown ashore just below the first mentioned vessel. Her crew was saved,

Rebels, towards which end active measures are eral ability which render him admirably suited captain tears that his vessel will be a wreck, as in the Valley of the Mississippi, has been evacu-Receis, towards which end active measures are eral ability which reduct him about of the position he occupies, and we entertain no already in progress. The movement of our forton to the position he occupies, and we entertain no large of the office will be discovered by the first progress. The movement of our forton to the position he occupies, and we entertain no large of the office will be discovered. So included a structure destroyed. So included a structure of the distinguished Aid and Engineer of Gen. Halter of the same place. She has since moved off with in their work of destruction except a portion of leck—Gen. Cullum—I must add that Comman. permanently holding the ground occupied. Its charged to the credit of the incumbent and the out injury, save the tearing of her sails to atoms private property.

been dressed in uniforms. Such is false, they on Friday, and the conflagration, raged with great nobly performed their duty.

Yours, &c.,

The Writing on the Wall.

present occupied by the Board, where he will at ed "The Writing on the Wall." This article them unmolested. proceeds to call the attention of the Government | Everything which they could not carry away | The news by last night's mail is not of special authorities to certain significant writings on the with them they either burned or threw into the importance. Instead of comfirming the "underwalls and fences of the city, which had been river. placed there during Sunday night. It enumer- A great many cannon of the most effective ates nine different phrases which had been se- range have been dismantled and sunk in the riv- day or two-the latest that 17,000 of General lected from different sections of the city, some of er. In one place I saw five heavy guns, and in Bank's forces had been captured—his forces are which are as follows:

"Union men, Attention!"

"The Hour of Our Deliverance Approaches!

"The Comforter is Coming!" "Watch and Wait!"

"The Union Forever!" "The Day is Dawning!"

"The Campbells are Coming!" &c.

EXCITEMENT IN RICHMOND.

the best blood of the nation. Owing to the mild- with the announcement of the evacuation of not burn, and a lady told me that when the Reb- pay twenty-five Dollars for their clothing. ness of the winter none of our ice nouses are fil- Columbus, had caused the greatest panic in els found they could not destroy this bacon by ENGLAND ON A PEACE FOOTING.—If any evi- led, and many have not yet the first load in them. Richmond, coupled as it was with the rumored fire they sprinkled poison over it. Farmers were unusually late in seeding last approach of the army of the Potomac on Manas- But few persons remain in the town, and those door below Virginia street.

little ones, pained, saddened and heavy-praying The War Against Secession.

CAPTURE OF LARGE QUANTITIES OF

COTTON, &c., &c.

CAIRO, Feb. 25 .- Gen. Pillow finding he could stones there which could not be carried off. His ruthian followers, having had infused in miles distant.

them a destructive spirit by his example, commenced to burn Nashville. Thousands of the rages, and it was with the greatest exertions The "Protracted Meeting" of the M. E. could restrain the Texans from destroying the mey would no longer obey the commands of

It was probably through fear of being assassinated by some of the cit zens that Pillow was in duced to interfere. that there would be no resistance to his occupa | temoralized condition would thus be made known | at malair. __sun, Philadelphia, Pa. tion of the city.

The Federal troops occupied Nashville on Sunday. Three gunboats from Fort Donelson are also at Nashville.

doubtedly saved the city from utter destruction. word to his wife. as Pillow could not have saved it from the desperadoes if a Federal force had not been in the returned and captured twenty Union men, who effects of their late exposure, and would soon be port that one hundred Federal wounded are at grain, &c .. - will be protected. It is suspected

Mr. Jno. W. Kemp. When the vessel near- Gen. Buckner, Mrs. Col. Hanson, and Mrs.

ed the breakers (her mast-heads being then in Capt. Mayberry, who were looking after their the row-boat until he was within a hundred yards ture, for treason, and would be immediately hung.

The Guns Dismantled and Thrown into the River.

PROVISIONS. 19,000 REBELS UNDER BISHOP POLK RETREATING.

tury until Sunday. Even now large portions of I have my flag on board the Cincinnati, comthe enemy's barracks, magazines and other quar- manded by the gallant Commander Stembel. ters are still burning, sending up heavy clouds of Gen. Sherman remains temporarily in comsmoke and ashes.

The Rebels did not destroy the fortifications The Richmond Dispatch has an article head- which have cost them so much labor, but left high bluff on the bank of a river. But in their visions to the amount of $20,000. descent they had been stopped by the trees which overhung the stream below.

cannon the Rebels bave thrown into the Missisder them useless to us.

o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Commissary and Quartermaster's stores, and in one lot burned six thousand bushels of corn.— We are authorized by friends in the One building, containing a large quantity of ba-The recent news from Tennessee, concluding con, being very much soaked with water would Hundred and Twenty-Five Dollars, and in addition,

There were, at the time of the evacuation, nineteen thousand troops in and around the place. F. | not here, but was hourly expected, his arriving Sections until the same is paid. having been delayed by his attack of sickness. The Rebels, when they evacuated Columbus, selves of the facilities offered by twenty trans-The Railroad track was torn up for six miles, and the bridges burnt. Where the railroad crosses the Ohio river, the bridge was burnt, but what not only went by railroad, but also availed them.

other destruction was accomplished, is not yet would soon be surrounded and starved out, and their superiors. Gen. Polk and the officers generally had be come unpopular, because, as the troops remark .d. they have done nothing but fortity. Th Gen. Buell sent a letter to Gen. Grant on Sat. Jown had been fired several times, and was only

Ex-Mayor Sharpe was suspected of treason HOMOr to William Homor is Dile. to the so-called Southern Confederacy, and was seized before they left, and carried off a prisoner. Gen. Buell's timely arrival at Nashville un without being allowed even to address a parting l

Yesterday morning a force of Rebel cavalry had come to town, knowing it to have been e-Things were quiet at Forts Henry and Donel | vacuated by the Rebels, and expecting to fine son. Our men were fast recovering from the our troops in possession.

The fortified works are very extensive, as the reach from the iron banks above the town arous to the chalk bluffs below, probably four miles in extent. Every prominent bluff on the river and around the town is fortified.

Secessionists, living near Wheeling have been. since the evacuation, carrying off in wagons. State and to the nation! valuable stores not already destroyed, and were arrested with their teams, as soon as our troops

As soon as the "Stars and Stripes" were discovered on the Rebel works, the crews of the different gunboats gave hearty cheers, which were answered with a will from the fortifications. vignette head of Government Hicks. The transports were then signalled to come down | Easton District-Joseph Rasin, Dawson & Bro. Strong guards have been detailed, and private property-under which head may be mentioned Trappe-Isaac W. Jump, Thomas C. Worrell, large quantities of sugar, molasses, flour and proves true, will be seized by the Government. Flag Officer Foote and Generals Cullum and Bay Hundred-Dr. William Dawson, Robert Sherman were with the forces which left for the St. Louis, March 4.—The following is a copy of a telegram from Gen. Halleck to Gen. McClel-To Major Gen. McClellan :- Sir-The cavalry from Paducah marched into Columbus vesterday, at 6 o'clock, P. M., driving before them The Flag of the Union is flying over the boas- LIOUID DENTRIFICE ted "Gibraltar of the West."

to evacuate or surrender. Large quantities of artillery and stores were captured. (Signed) H. W. HALLECK. Major-General Commanding.

COLUMBUS, Ky., March 4, 1862.

hasty evacuation, the Rebels leaving quite a the chain Intely stretched across the river, togeth-Most of the huts, tents and quarters were de-

The works are of very great strength, consist- 19th ult., in the presence of the Mayor, by ing of formidable tiers of batteries on the water Friends' ceremoney, Edward Woodall and Miss Several superior officers among the Tennes- side, and on the land side surrounded by a ditch

General Sherman, with Lieutenant Command-Illinois Cavalry, while on a scouting party sent Sarah Ellen Harden-all of this county. by Gen. Sherman from Paducah, made a bold greeted by the hearty cheers of our brave tars and of this county.

The force consisted of six gunboats, four mor Rev. Saml. Sparkfin, Thomas H. Sheets of tar-boats and three transports, having on board Queen Annes county, to Miss Frances Barrett, two regiments and two battalions of infantry, of Baltimore. [Centreville Times please copy. under the command of Col. Buford-Gen. Cullum and Gen. Sherman being in command of the troops. The former, leaving a sick bed to go ashore, discovered what was evidently a magazine on fire at both extremities, and immediate-COLUMBUS, Ky., March 4, 1862, via Carro. - ly ordered the train to be cut, and thus saved the rison, on the 20th ultimo, Louisa Harrison, 12

The drowned men are reported as having The torch of the incendiary was first applied the Ordnance Corps of the United States Army.

mand at Columbus.

(Signed) A. H. FOOTE, Flag Officer.

ground" news, which has been afloat for the last another seven, which had been thrown from a progressing and his Division have captured pro-

THE CHIVALRY .- Notwithstanding all the It is as yet impossible to ascertain how many boasting of the South of their chivalry, and dysippi, supposing that in so doing, they would renand all such stuff, it is very evident the people Lieut. Col. Hogg, of the Second Illinois Cav- have no such idea of gratitying the tyrants who was the first to enter the enemy's works at five people sent for our troops to come and take pos-Our gunboats and transports reached this place session. Nashville surrenders without a blow. at eight o'clock to-day; but the officers not know- only asking that they may, be protected in their The Rebels entirely destroyed their barracks, get substitutes at any price, a sample of which for the War. We will, therefore, give for such, Two Persons desirous to enter the service in that capacity, will please call at our Office on Cary, second

L. WALLER & CO. CHURCH NOTICE .- At a meeting of the Trustees of the M. E. Church, on Wednesday, the 26th ult., the following resolutions were adopted and ordered to be published: Resolved. That the Secretary permit no graves The panic at Norfolk had somewhat subsided the entire force commanded by General (Bishop) to be opened in the M. E. Church Burial Ground for any person who is in arrears for graves or Resolved. That no graves shall hereafter be opened in said yard unless the cash is paid or

Resolved. That the Secretary proceed to have all debts now due for Sections or graves collected according to law.

S. HARPER, Secretary.

ANY of our readers afflicted with the Scrofula or Scrofulous complaints, will do well to read A lady resident informs me that the troops who like remarks in our advertising columns respectdo nothing at Nashville, destroyed all the military left by the river were destined for Island No. 10. ling it. But little of the nature of this disorder thirty miles below, and for New Madrid, forty has been known by the people, and the clear ex-The capture of Fort Donelson and occupation position of it there given will prove acceptable o Nashville had disheartened them; and the men, and useful We have long admired the searchbecoming demoralized and reckless, said they and able manner in which Dr. Ayer treats every subject he touches; whatever has his attention at all, has a great deal of it; he masters what he undertakes, and no one who has a particle of feeling for his afflicted fellow man, can work with indifference upon his labors for the sick. Read what he says of Scrofula, and see in now few words and how clearly he tells us more nine miles of Nashville on Saturday night, an vigilance of the officers, who feared that their man we all have known of this insiduous and fa-

N opportunity will soon be afforded the loyal citizens, of this county, to contribute to me Hicks memorial. It is intended to be a sub stantial token of the people's regard to their late patriotic chief magistrate, and no man who remembers and appreciates as he should the noble services of THOMAS HOLLIDAY HICKS can be sitate to furnish his name and means to so commendable an object. When the future Historian shall relate the events of this day he will place no name above that of the old Roman, who has just relinquished the cares of State for the repose of his own home, in a neighboring county. Long may his life be spared to the Collectors to receive contributions to the memorial have been appointed, as tollows, in the various Districts of the county. Each person subscribing One Dollar, or more, will be entitled to a handsome printed certificate, with a fine son, John Harper.

David Kerr. John Goldsborough.

T. Larrimore, Dr. W. N. Pindell. The above named collectors will report to

SAML. T. HOPKINS Treasurer, Easton. DR. BAIRD'S

ODONTINE

Is invaluable for cleansing and preserving the Finding himself completely turned on both TEETH and GUMS, for the relief of TOOTHsides of the Mississippi, the enemy was obliged ACHE and all NEURALGIC affections of the face. It imparts a delightful open to the breath. Prepared by J. N. Baird D. D. S. For sale by CHARLES ROBINSON. feb 1-1 y

BALTIMORE, March 5, 1862. Sales as follows: 1 55a 81 60 1 20a81 50 Inferior prime, 1 28a 81 33 60a 65cts.

55a59 cts. 34236 cts. MARRIAGES.

Woodall-Wilson-In Philadelphia, on the Annie Wilson, both of this county.

BYRON-HARDEN .- At the residence of the bride's father, in this county, on the 4th inst., by

DADDS-THAWLEY .- At the M. E. Parsonage, dash to the shore and hoisted the American flag in Easton, on the 4th inst., by Rev. E. Miller, on the summit of the bluff. Its appearance was Amos W. Dadds to Miss Rebecca Thawley, all

SHEETS-BARRETT .- On the 6th inst., by the DEATHS.

HARRISON.-At residence of Wm. H. Harthe 66th year of her age.

brass cone year. 3d. The the use of another § a year, sa be had of cents. F mar 8 HOUN noe.

wide. Has top, crean

ored botto

MACA

Coal

THE

per, know was on the

by mutual

P. S.—

Dean has St. Mic

Charles R.

Trustee of

Robert H.

others, cr

Chas. G

O RDE

confirmed

on or befo

a copy of paper prii

May next

mar 8-3

WHA

CONES.

lst. On light. The 2d. Yo small,) fre

secure said proporty a I hereby ed to me, of the Stat ty, that his up and see stem to ste a ring at cream cole bottom; ar land, Tall

3d day of bill to this

EASTER

1

mar 8-3

Indiv

the follow every Tue Ferry, and Annapolis Every I er, Cambr River as h on Thursd Landing a For Ans and return on Monda All freig James Ho FLUWER ROM sale l mar l

Every S

Cambridge

PHOTO ticle, mar 1 STR

A. wer

N order shall e all winter mar 1 N Brick

mar 1

LANDI DEN, KI FIELD S mer. Als LAND and Garde mar 1

FE ha sell low, o may 25 DRUG diffe gits just re jan 25

BENT gons voice direc Store of nov 16

Cand feb 1 66 DAG

INION arp 11