Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicine in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no Shore and fully as low as the retail prices of the sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received "trom any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others. I do this the more readily in regard to "Hooflan's German Bitters," prepared by C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for years, under the impresssion that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq.,
