

SATURDAY MORNING, - -- APRIL 19, 1862.

EASTON, MD.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

will be charged extra for advertisements out of :: their regular line of business.

Marriages and Deaths inserted free, unless the cibtuary make over ten lines-then a charge of appropriated shall not exceed in the aggrigate 50 cents per square (10) lipes, will be made.

"EVERY THING'S GOING ON RIGHT."-When the news claims." forlorn cause was not already sunk beyond all recov- plishing the same thing are the fanatices of ing through Federal sources, threw them into great Donelson but few prisoners were taken, the fight at government which protects him. With chester was a rebel victory, while the retreat from Manassas was a master stroke of policy, deranging sitions, rapidly "advancing backwards," closely persons as good accommodations as can be had in somewhat deranged from sickness. egetic movement' will be the surrender of Yorktown, soldiers sick with the measels, which were confined the jury :- Cambridge Herald.

Edenton, N. C. Winton, N. C. Bowling Green, Ky. Paintville, Ky. Nashville, Teun. Clarksville, Tenn. Columbia, Tenu. Dover, Tenn. Fayetteville, Ark. Bentonvilie, Ark. Martinsburg. Va. Leetown, Va. Levettsville, Va. Smithheld, Va. Bolivar, Va. Charlestown, Va. Harper's Ferry, Va. Big Bethel, Va. Paris. Tenn. Huttonsville, Va. Cedar Keys, Fla. Florence, Ala.

Elizabeth City, N. C. |Springfield, Mo. Eastport, Miss. Columbus, Ky. Leesburg, Va. Savannah, Tenn. Brunswick, Ga. Fernandina, Fla. San Augustine, Fla. Jacksonville, Fla. Manassas, Va. Centreville, Va. St. Mary's, Ga. Berryville Ga. Winchester, Va. Occoquan, Va. Windsor, Va. New Madrid, Mo. Point Pleasant, Mo. Hickman, Ky. Newbern, N. C. Beaufort, N. C.

tions, Ky.

The following Rebel forts and fortifications have also been captured since the 1st of Janu-

Fort Johnson, Va. Fort Beauregard, Va. Fort Evans, Va. Mill Spring fortifications Pig's Point Battery, Va. Ky. Shipping Point Bt'y. Va Roanoke Island Batter-Cockpit Pt. Battery, Va., ies. Fort Clinch, Fla. Fort Henry, Tenn. Fort St. Mark, Fla. Fort Warren, Fla. Fort Macon, N. C.

Elizabeth City Batteries Fort Donelson, Tean. Fortifications at St. Simons, Ga. Fortifications at Manas-Columbus fortifications. Batteries at Aquia Creek

Besides the above a number of forts on the Neuse river and Fort Pulaski might be added, and yet "evcrything's going on right."

The weekly prescriptions which we have ad ministered to the Star for some time past has occa- compare with any that has ever been brought to It is rumored that important foreign intelli- been slightly wounded in the arm. General sioned many distortions in the countenance of the this market. He guarantees satisfaction to all gence, of a favorable character, with reference to Halleck had arrived at Pittsburg Landing and aslife, and like all things emanating from a corrupt examine his stock to be pleased. source is necessarily nauseous and loathsome. We regret exceedingly that his past career has not alsource is necessarily nauseous and loathsome. We lowed us to prepare a more palatable potion, but as Goods of all kinds to suit all clases, tastes and all navy and joined the Rebels at the commencewe said before we must suit ourselves to his necessi- prices. She has the largest stock ever before ment of the Rebellion, and who was concerned ties and be has the consolation of knowing that it is brought to this market by her. She invites the with "the French lady?" in the piratical seizure intended for his pecular benefit. Like all sick men, ladies to give her a call. however, he is hard to please and whiningly protests against our frequent allusions to Long and the Post Office. This is rather surprising, as in his issue of a patriotic letter received from a gentleman formerly ly a resident of Florida. Tuesday week he complains that we had dropped of this county, but now a resident in Indiana. His the J. D. Long business. We served it up for him beart beats warm for the Union, and in order to show again and he now wants greater variety. He is evi- how he himself and the State in which he now re- ready commenced operations before Port Pillow, first seen, it came sweeping down with the cur- which you are at liberty to publish. will be able to please him entirely. We notice that sides estimates the worth of this glorious Union we will be able to please him entirely. We notice that in one of his paroxisms he calls us a "contraband." out the knowledge of the author: This is not to be wondered at. His thoughts are so STATE OF INDIANA, OOFFICE AUDITOR OF STATE, [variety enough for him. The editor of the Star | great astonishment to me that they are so, but ; varety. In his own editorials it is "abolitionism" will see their error. There are many in Talbot in the beginning, in the middle, and the end. There is even no transposition. It is one continual howl about abolitionism. We observe that he confesses his inability to answer a single charge we have made. There cession so ardently that it cools my feelings very materially. I am proud to say that Indiana has 60,000 men in arms, and further that no battle has been lost when her troops were engaged, and answering our "silly charges." We doubt not it good and true, and I can further say, we are not beat him from bush to bush until finally be has sur-THE EASTON GAZETTE beat him from bush to bush until finally be has surdition we commend him to the sympathy of his friends Parson Brownlow says "the Secessionists have The glorious intelligence is received, that Fort small engines below in the hold, intended to WHEAT—Good White, and the public generally.

THE EMANCIPATION ACT IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.—We see by Thursday's paper that very large and we are listening every day for ment took place and the Confederates surren- a couple of electric batteries and coils of submar-President Lincoln has signed the bill recently news of a startling character. God grant the dered the fort to the Union forces on the 11th ine cable. The concern seemed only a large Oars-Maryland. passed by Congress to emany:ipate negroes in zette and I will forward the amount soon, and our informant saw the statement in the Norfolk useless machines the Confederates have favored the District of Columbia. The bill provides three when you can put in a blow for the Union, strike Day Book of yesterday, two copies of which, science with lately. On the deck a sixty-four Merchants and others advertising by the year Commissioners to value the negroes, and in do- fearlessly and I trust that not only Takot coun- were brought up by a flag of truce from Nor- lay dismounted, its carriage shivered to pieces ing which they are compelled to be governed by ty. but the entire State may soon feel that the folk, one of which was forwarded to the military by a ball. the following clause: "That the entire sum so Government is not their enemy but their friend. authorities of this city. an amount equal to three hundred dollars for each person shown to be so held by lawful had made a sudden descent into Hampton-roads and question should continue to be agitated in Concaptured three small pungies the countenances of Se- gress. The country has sufficient now to consmiles and congratulations were exchanged, little the Federal army and the desire of the masses of groups assembled at the stores and different rendez- the people both North and in the border States is, vous', hands were grasped and the exclamation "Ev- to crush out the rebelion without interfering with erything's going on right," was passed from mouth to the institution of slavery any more than can be moral, social and political interests of Baltimore, mouth until it was adopted as a Secession motto. avoided, consequently it is to be deplored that and whereas, all should feel grateful for an es-It was amusing to witness the avidity with which Congress should allow so much of its time to be cape from anarchy and confusion to comparative liberty to pay more direct attention to Fort Sumtwenty-two guns, but few tents, and no properconsumption, John Oaks, aged 23 years. they clutched the slightest semblance of hope that their forlorn cause was not already sunk beyond all recorcry. Descataster descatand disaster after disaster have North more censurable than the fire-eaters of the was dear to us, to the safety which now that it learns with deep regret that after a gal- lent opportunity to notice and hear of the effects departed to the psychocal relms of the dim future. followed so thick and fast upon them that they are on- South for the injury the institution of slavery is surrounds our firesides; and whereas we believe lant defence against guns mostly superior. Fort produced by huge mortar shells. ly too happy when they lose but one victory aday .- now receiving? The present rebellion is ac-The slightest respite affords them all the relief imagina- complishing the very object that abolitionists deble. We are at a loss, however, to conjecture how sire and the very result they predicted. Had for the benefits and blessings conferred by the flor were benefits at the flor were bently and the flor were benefits at the flor were benefits at the the little incident in regard to the Merrimac should the Southern States remained quiet and her representatives continued faithful to the country and he owes supreme allegiance; therefore have afforded them so much more gratification than contended for their rights in the Union the emanthe great victory which they allege to have been a cipation act would never have passed for the Dischieved by Beauregard at Pittsburg Landing. It is trist of Columbia. The same thing has been un- invite the citizens of Baltimore, and ship mastrue their details of the bettle are rather scanty, be | der consideration for years, but until the Southing confined entirely to the Sunday's fight, but for ern States withdrew their representatives and their house-tops and shipping on the 19th of A- and also three of the casemate guns, leaving but many narrow escapes. that very reason we should suppose it a matter of re- Senators the act could never pass. But what pril, 1862, as a manifestation for our deliverance one gun bearing on that point. Three balls enjoicing with them. The first news of the battle com- do those that are in arms against the government, from the danger which threatened on that day tered the magazine, and a clear breach was at dinner, one of the great shells fell suddenly cut down. Mary A. Fairbank died March 21st, commotion. It was denounced as "a big Northern that are more Southern? We want no better the Capitol of the United States at Washington. It was denounced as "a big Northern that are more Southern? We want no better the Capitol of the United States at Washington. Claused when the Capitol of the United States at Washington. Of those of the United States at Washington. lic." Beauregard's despatch detailing the first day's evidence of their disregard for them than the fact engagement was eagerly seized upon and they deter- that those who sympathize with the rebel States mined it should not be altered or amended. Mon- gave expressions of joy when they heard that the Herald of Tuesday says: der was entirely blotted out from the calendar and bill emancipating slavery in the District of Colnot a man could be heard to say a word except a- umbia had been sighed by the President. While pany recently stationed here have been detailed bout the "great battle of Sunday." Notwithstand- this question was pending in Congress Mr. Crit- to guard the telegraph between Princess Anne ing all this, however, their countenances have relaps- with great ability, the most of them not doubting town. ed into their usual elongated shape. The painful its constitutionality but thought it impracticable | Capt. Watkin's company have left for Punga | truth is settling upon them that their great champi- to agitate the question at all, fearing that it might teague. We also learn that one of his men has fenders were killed and but four wounded. on has been badly beaten. Victorious armies rarely operate very materially against the border States. deserted, but we cannot vouch for the truth of it. retreat from the battle-field pursued by the enemy, It can be plainly seen therefore that those who Combridge Intelligencer. feature of the Secession mania that its dupes persis- in the border States, and in the face of the protestations of such patriots as Crittenden, that they give the blindest credence to every rumor of hereabouts as well as elsewhere, where they consederate success, however absurd or unfounded .- have a footing, are always ready to make a hobby The evacuation of Boling Greon, Columbus and Is- whereby they may entrap some one into their land No. 10 are spoken of as strategetic movements, e- miserable, sinking cause. Any man that takes vincing masterly skill. At the surrender of Fort sides with them is a rebel at heart against the

LOCAL ITEMS.

all the plans of McClellan. Under all these circum- Tur, Union Horre. —We have been requested by self on Monday evening last in his quarter. He Communication cut off. stances however, the main fact is apparent that the Mr. T. P. Wollaston to say that his house has been was easy in circumstances, and no reason is as-Rebelarmy is being driven from all its important po- thoroughly renovated and that he is prepared to give signed for the rash act, but that he has been the reclamation of Virginia and the suppression of entirely to two or three rooms They have all been the rebelion. We heartily concur in the assertion gone for some time and those who may favor him with "itch," "small pox," &c., is in every particukeeping. His furniture was nearly all saved from the flames but it was considerably damaged. The significance to the subject than would otherwise house belonged to the heirs of Saml. Grace. The be extended to it. We give it, however, as one origin of the fire is not known.

THE FEUIT CEOP .- From present indications the speeduly be determined:

Bowling Green icrtificaures for this county.

in our columns next week.

pectfully ask the public to give them a call.

which he is compelled to undergo in the process of Jesse Hughes has also laid in his stock of Boots partment. It is believed that the Emperor Na. report puts our killed at 1,500, and our woundrecovery. The bitterness of the draft is doubtless and Shoes. Any one desiring such articles as poleon is about to reconsider his recognition of ed at 3,500. Our troops had advanced eight owing to the nature of its ingredients, being compos- are kept by him he respectfully invits them to the rebels as belligerents, and in view of the fact miles inland from Pittsburg Landing and anoth ed chiefly of incidents and reminescenses of his past | call as he feels confident that they need only to | that the United States flag floats in every State | er battle was eimminent.

bowever is the last person to complain of a want of I hope the time is not far distant when they Having failed so signally, he announces his intention if necessity should require I think the governin the future not to give himself any trouble in ment could look to her for 60,000 more men, we desire to restore the Union, and if slavery re- Fort Pulaski, after a furious bombardment by ers, and one or two rifles, books and bundles of ceives any injury it will be secession that has the Federal forces, surrendered on the 11th inst. letters. done it, so they can blame no one but themselves. The particulars have not yet transpired.

Yours, very truly, riot took place in Baltimore, known as the "Bloody ticians, in which patriotic soldiers were attacked and the North to enter their harbors. brutally murdered while on their way to protect the The effect of the bombardment, we learn, measures for their immediate comfort being tak. James H. and Henrietta Wharton, in the 12 year

Whereas, The 19th of April, 1861, was a day the loveliness and sacredness of our homes, and that Government under which he lives, and to which

Assigned to Duty .- The Princess Annel

We learn that Capt. John C. Henry's com- had exploded within the fort."

HUNG HIMSELF .- We regret to inform our citizens, Mr. William Mills, aged 70 years, liv-

Monday night, April 14th, 1862.

The Jury of Inquest over the body of William that "everythings' going on right," and as an evi- with their patronage need have no fears of any con- Mills, found hanging by the neck, in the quarter dence of the fact, publish the following statement of tagion, and that the reports put in circulation by of the Shoal Creek farm, are of opinion that the Federal victories achieved since the beginning of the dieigning persons that his house had been infested deceased came to his death from suicide by hanging and from strangulation.

A Strange Rumor.

The position and influential relations of the editor of the Press, at Washington, gives more as they approached. of the stirring excitements of the day-the correctness of the facts alluded to will no doubt fruit crop this year will be much better than it has A startling rumor comes to us from Washingbeen for a number of years in this section of the coun- ton, which, if true, will cause unanimous retry. Fears were entertained that the cold spell which joicing through all the loyal portions of the land. has just passed off, would seriously injure its bud- and prove a new blight to the rebel prospects. ding, but the cold was not severe enough nor of suf- which are dismal enough, for all purposes, already. It the on dit can be believed, the Emperficient duration to cause the buds to drop off, neither or Napoleon, in view of the fact that the stars panied by two gunboats, went up the Tennessee Morehead City, N. C. has the germ of the fruit been injured so far as we and stripes float over the soil of every rebellious river to Eastport, Mississippi, and destroyed two State but one, will reconsider his recognition of bridges of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad at Bear objection on the part of any one to receiving Mr. I HIHE subscriber hereby gives notice that all the rebels as belligerents, and perhaps extend to Creek. The destruction of these bridges is im-THE Commissioners for Talbot county on the Federal Government such aid and comfort portant, and cuts off the Bebels at Corinth from Tuesday last, appointed Mr. Josoph Newnam of this in suppressing the rebellion as may be compati- railroad communication with Alabama. town, keeper of the Standard of weights and Meas- ble with his position as the representative of a Arrival of Gen'l Halleck-Gen'l Grant's leading European Power. It is said that the OF A POEM, entitled "the Floral Mania;" "A information to this effect, and that England will burg Landing seem to clear away all doubts as Dream," has been received and shall have place follow the example of Napoleon in the matter. to the results of the conflict. Our losses are put a soldiers' paper, published at Berryville, Vir-More New Goods .- Added to the late arri- cepted by Congress. Foreign intervention in killed than we did. 1,200 of their wounded quested to call and settle immediately, as we pro- Thursday next, the 24th inst. For balvals of new goods may be found the stock of our domestic affairs, however henestly proffered, were left on the field, and about one thousand pose closing up business here, and locating in ance of freight apply to the Captain on board or kindly meant, is inconsistent with the policy unwounded captured. Over two thousand of Richmond. Messrs. Cheezum & Emory. Their stock is which the State Department has inavariably ob- their dead had been buried by our forces. Our well selected and will be disposed of to suit the served, and is moreover uncalled for by the troops retook on Monday al! the artillery they times. They have in store goods of every varie- necessities of our position. Still, as an expres- lost on Sunday and captured in addition twelve boat Fitzburg came up the river with prisoners ty and quality to suit the season, and they res- sion of good will-as an assurance of moral sup- of the enemy's guns. On Tuesday General port-and as an indication that the intent of Beauregard sent in a flag of truce requesting prisoners cried "Hurrah for the Union." except Mr. Saml. T. Kennard has just opened his our struggle has not been misconstrued abroad, permission to bury his dead. He states that he one; who shouted "Hurran for Hell." There stock of Spring and Summer goods. Notwith- the foreign news, if true, is vastly important, retreated because of the heavy reinforcements standing his late misfortune he has by persever- and will be hailed with general gratification. received by our side and the fatigue of his men, > our Government, is received by the State De- sumed command. General Grant in his official except one, to give such aid to our Government of the steamship St. Nicholas, of this port, is among the prisoners captured at Island No. 10. The following extracts have been taken from He was formerly of Maryland, but more recent.

> Commodore Foote and Gen. Pope have al- 7 mottar boats were in position and had opened supposing an attempt probable to run the blockfire on Monday night. Gen. Pope's command ade, immediately manned their guns. Eight occupies the Arkansas side of the river. | cannon could be counted upon it, all bearing di-

LATE WAR NEWS.

Fort Pulaski Taken.

Furious Bombardment.

proceedings of the Rebel Congress, in which a destroyed. On all sides they lay-some capa- county. message from Jefl. Davis is given, recommend- ble of being saved, others, the upper decks only From the fact that one year ago to-day the ing the rivers, and especially the James river on visible. The John Simonds, a fine Memphis the Southern coast, to be blocked up with stone and Orleans packet, was broken in too. The and by other means, to prevent the passage of Admiral had been a hospital boat, and on board came on Saturday evening last that the Merrimack It is very much to be regretted that the slavery 19th," instigated by designing and unprincipled poli- an iron-clad fleet which he said is preparing at were a hundred poor wretches, half dead from capitol of the nation, the city Council of Baltimore were terrible before the surrender took place. en by Col. Buford. On shore were crowds of of her age. [Baltimore and Centreville papers cessionis: a which had for a long while presented amost lugubrious aspect, suddenly became contracted, action of rabid men. We believe the design of with the fort, an immense quantity of cannon with the fort, an immense quantity of cannon profusion and stores. and ammunition; and as they have been preparfraught with important events as affecting the ing for a long siege, there was probably found in the inscription-"Equal Justice to each Partner the fort a vast amount of commissary stores.

This is a great stroke, and leaves our forces at ANOTHER ACCOUNT. it to be the duty of every patriot and philanthro- Pulaski surrendered at two o'clock P. M. yester- Holes, as if animals had burrowed, are visible som his head, in his infant days has often been pist to acknowledge in some way his gratitude day (the 11th.) Corporal Law, of the Pulaski where the missles fell without exploding, and pillowed, and affectionate relatives to weep, but after the flag was hauled down, brings intelli- fuse proved true, and they did burst, the destruc- ness, where blooms perrental life. gence of the sorrowful event. The surrender tive properties are apparent-timber for a hun-Resolved, by both Branches of the City Coun- was unconditional. Seven large breaches were dred yards around bearing scars. and hollows DEATH OF THREE SISTERS AND A I. That the Mayor be respectfully requested to made in the south wall by the Federal battery being scooped out of the earth. Yet from the of eight Parrott guns at King's Landing. All great precautions taken by the enemy, only three How mysterious are the ways of Providence

The Republican publishes this as a postcript men and officers in the fort at the time of its surrender. It says, however, that none of its de-

FEARS FOR RICHMOND. The Richmond Whig contains an editorial are anxious for an active field. They prefer go- result it proposes that the channel of the James ing into the regular war contest, to remaining river shall be obstructed. Stone, it says, is either in Eastern Maryland or Eastern Virginia. abundant for the purpose and should be used at a change has been made among the preachers Many the trials they have passed through below, readers that one of our oldest and most esteemed Huntsville, Alabama, Captured appointments announced at the close of the Victory, victory, thus on the wing.

ing on Shoal Creek farm, near town, hung him- The Rebels line of Defence again Broken and their been for some time considerable diversity of sen. Closed are their eyelids and quiet thier hearts, 11th inst., by General Mitchell without much Church, and never varied from in this station. Angles are singing the havenly birth, William Rea Esq., held an inquest over the resistance. Two hundred prisoners were taken. What gave use to this diversity of of opinion is pressed by the Union forces, and that the next "strat- the town. A short time ago there were a number of body, and the following verdict was rendered by and fifteen locomotives and a large amount of the unnecessary to be repeated here. At the aprolling stock of the railroad.

> two expeditions were started from Huntsville, opinions of the opposing parties in regard to his Alabama, with the captured cars. One under return—the former in tavor, the latter against .-Col. Sill, of the Thirly-third Ohio, went east Stevenson's Junction of the Chattenooga Rail- Bishop's name was put down for Talbot Cirroad with the Memphis and Charleston Road. which point they seized, a force of 2,000 of the FIRE IN ST. MICHAELS.—On Monday night last the The Philadelphia Press, edited by Mr. For- enemy retreating without firing a shot. Here residence of Mr. Thos. J. Warren, in St. Michaels, ney, the Secretary of the United States Senate, they captuerd five locomotives and a large atook fire and was entirely consumed. Mr. Warren contains the following important intelligence, mount of rolling stock. The other expedition. lost all of his meat, with that of some of his neighbors, which is published very prominently in the edi under Col. Turchin, of the Nineteenth Illinois. who had placed theirs' in his meat house for safe torial columns of that paper of yesterday morning, went west and arrived at Decatur in time to resolutions, and approint a committee to bear the save the railroad bridge, which was in flames forces in Tennessee and Mississippi continue to make the other necessary changes. be of gratifying and encouraging character. On Saturday a force of five thousand troops, accom-

FROM SOUTHERN TENNESSEE.

Rebels Severed by the Federal Troops.

Official Report. State Department at Washington has received Further particulars of the great battle at Pitts-It is improbable, in our opinion, that offers of as- down as follows: Killed, 1,500; wounded, 4,- ginia, has the following in his last issue: sistance from abroad, if extended, would be ac- 000; missing, 2,500. The Rebels lost more in "Notice.-All persons indebted to us are re- leave Easton Point for Philadelphia on ance and strict attention to business been enabled The New York Express makes notice of the not deeming it prudent to renew the battle. The Striking Change Effected by Hoof-

The floating battery, formerly the Pelican am in the enjoyment of perfect health. And all dock, at New Orleans, drifted down to Madrid, this I owe to your invaluable Bitters. I there- the largest assortment ever before kept by and was secured five miles below there. When fore think you are entitled to this certificate, her. Having selected her stock with great intent on the "nigger" that in his moments of blindness, he thin ks everything outside as black as his INDIANAPOLIS, Apr. 7, 1862.

Is hould have sent for the Gazette of graves in the vicinity of Manassas are said to perceived the battery had been deserted, and

For sale hy druggists and storekeepers in evethe M. E. Church and the Odd Fellow's Hall.

| several hours, got the battery to shore. It was | full of water, the enemy having tried hard to sink it, and dragged the immense auchor attachin the beginning, in the middle, and the end. There county that I esteem very much, but I hate Se- GLORIOUS VICTORY! ed very easily. The hull is one hundred and eighty feet long and sixty wide, built like that of a large steamer, decked very strongly, and the guns mounted all along the side and the ends.— Is invaluable for cleansing and preserving the TEETH and GUMS, for the relief of TOOTH. To counterbalance the weight there was a quanti- ACHE and all NEURALGIC affections of the face. ty of heavy ballast on the outer side, and also It imparts a delightful open to the breath. the ammunition, with baggage, &c., of the crew. Prepared by J. N. Baird D. D. S. For sale by FORTRESS MONROE, April 14.-Information There were several trunks filled with good clothhas proved a troublesome business to him. We have abolitionists, we have no sympathy with them; has reached here, through Southern papers, that ing and articles of private comfort, some revolv-

> A most curious feature of the battery was two stolen more negroes since the war broke out, in Pulaski, the strongest fortification on the sea work a couple pumps, and fill at pleasure the Tennesse, than the Abolitionists had in 40 years." coast, next to Fortress Monroe and Sumter, has affair with water. There was also, by way of Our army in the Southwest is surrendered to our arms. A furious bombard- cargo, eighty torpedoes, hundreds of skyrockets, Corn-White, struggle may soon be over. Send me the Ga- inst. No turther particulars are received, but specimen of the thousands of novel infernal and disease and neglect. They were kindly cared for 7th inst., of scarlet fever, Laura V., daughter of Three flags were captured, one of which bore in the new Firm."

On Island No. 10 there are five batteries and ty, except cannon balls, that can be made valu- As the dying irradiations of twilight, the silable. The Island was abandoned by all but the very remains of the departed sun, or the fading The Savannah Republican says substantially gunners a week since. There is now an excel- corruscations of the shapeless metior, his spirit they will arrive before many days.

and a victorious commander still more rarely asks favor the rebellion would receive with open arms Captain Henry's Company.—We learn from exhibiting considerable fear for the safety of their thoughts are admirably disguised. They through this slumber I shall go and be with him for permission to bury his dead. It is a singular any act, let it be ever so destructive to property letters direct from Captain John C. Henry's com- Richmond. It intimates that the Monitor, the state that when the Confederate Government forever, where all is heaven and joy and peace. pany, that we were misinformed in stating last Naugatuck and Galena, all armored vessels, decided to make a stand at Island No. 10, it was Thus lived three sisters, united in life and death tently deny every current fact and incident which might have a tendency to gain a few weak retheir invulnerability and powerful guns take and victorious in time to reinforce the former positive the souls that go hopding away.

CHANGE OF MINISTERS .- Since our last issue Victory, Victory, homeward we rise. of Easton District of some importance to several Many the seasons of trial and wo, charges, and differing considerably from the Many the doubtings they never should sing, Conference. It is widely known that there has There lies the wearisome bodies at rest iment and feeling in relation to the continuance But the glad spirits on pensions of light, of the Rev. Wm. Bishop as pastor of this charge Victory, Victory, singing in their flight. Huntsville, Alabama, was occupid on the a second year, as is the usual custom of the While we are weeping our friends gone from earth proach of Conference, two papers were present-GEN. MITCHELL FOLLOWING UP HIS ACHEIVEMENT. ed to the appointing power, known as the "ma-NASHVILLE, April 14.—On Saturday morning jority" and minorty reports," setting forth the Victory, Victory, shouting in death. When the appointments were read out Mr. Singing as upward they spring from the tomb, cuit, Md., and the Rev. H. R. Calloway, of that place, named for Smyrna. The friends of Mr. Bishop, disliking his remov-. particularly the manner that it was brought !. about determined to call a meeting of the Leaders and Stewards and express more clearly their interests of their souls. He avas the son of Joresolutions, and appoint a committee to hear the same to Brshop Morris. The meeting was ac- I IME-No. I Lime for Whitewashing, al-Gen. Mitchell now holds about one hundred cording held on Wednesdey night last, and a ways on hand, and for sale by the Bushel miles of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad. committee appointed, who proceeded the next or bbl, at day in quest of the Bishop, who was presiding over the Newark Conference at Newton, N. J. After one or two interviews the Bishop yielded large assortment and for sale low at Another Important Rallroad Connection of the to their request, and they accordingly brought the necessary instructions to Presiding Elder The activity and success of the National Quigley to retain Mr. Bishop at Smyrna, and It is expected that Mr. Calloway will be sent to Chestertown, (Kent circuit) and Rev. J. E. Smith, appointed there, will take the place of

Mr. Calloway, at St. Michaels. There was no Calloway-the question was the removal or re- | B persons having claims against Capt. John tention of Mr. Bishop, and as the question has Ozman, deceased, are requested to file their been decided by the highest authority, it is to be claims with the Register of Wills for Talbot counhoped that there will be an acquiescence in that ty. decision, and the Church move on in its wonted: apr 19-3t course.—Smyrna Times. GETTING READY .- The editor of the Old Flag.

37-The Louisville Journal says as "the steamlast Saturday, on nearing West Point, all the seems to be but two parties now—one for hell and land's German Bitters.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1862. Dr. C. M. JACKSON. DEAR SIR: - I had suf- Dresses and other garments which she will cut fered so long from Dyspepsia and Liver Com- and make at short notice and in the most tasteplaint, in their most aggravated forms, that I al- ful style. Her place of business may be found most despaired of finding a cure, when, in com- on "Market Space," in the rear of Mr. James pliance with the advice of my physician. I had Norris' store, where she will be glad to see her recourse to your German Bitters. I had taken friends. Feeling thankful for past patronage she as he can to suppress the rebellion. England Puther of the Surrender of Island them, with a marked improvement, for two is determined to spare no pains to render entire months, when my husband, who is captain of satisfaction in the future. Additional particulars of the Capture—The Fa- voyage. His first exclamation on seeing me, FASHIONABLE MILLINERY. mous floating Battery-What was found upon was, "Why, Margaret, what have you been it-IV holesale destruction of Steamboat property taking? You look five hundred per bent. better RS. E. A. MASON has just returned from by the Confederates-Interesting incidents, ect. than when I left." And well might be say so. It the city with all the latest A correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, and care-worn, and my complexion of a saffron writing from Island No. 10, on the 9th, says: | color; while now I have regained my flesh, and

Yours truly, MARGARET ROWLAND. 118 Queen Street, Southwark. Be sure and ask for Hoofland's German Bit the same Ladies to do her Bleaching and Pres-

DR. BAIRD'S ODONTINE

CHARLES ROBINSON. feb l-ly

MARKETS.

BALTIMORE, April 17, 1862. Sales as follows: 1 25a81 35 1 50a 81 55 1 28a 81 30 58a60 cts Yellow.

MARRIAGES.

WILLIAMS-ADAMS.-In Baltimore, on the Passing Island No. 10, the most noticeable 8th inst., by the Rev. Mr. Cooper, Isaac J. Wil-In the same paper, we learn, is published the token of war's ruin is the steamboats sunken and lians to Miss Jane E. Adams, both of Somerset

DEATHS.

WHARTON .- In St. Michaels, on Monday, the

"Lonely and sad the hours Since thou, sweet Laura art gone, But oh, a brighter home than ours. In Heaven, is now thine own."

Oaks -In St. Michaels, on the 9th inst., of leaving a fond mother upon whose heaving bo.

NEPHEW.

ters in port, to hoist the American flag from the barbette guns on that side were dismounted. men were killed, although the prisoners tell of and his doings past finding out. My mother gave birth to eight children and they have all lived care for the border States, further than to secure to destroy our city and State on the occasion of made in it. The balls used were conical, pro- among them, crashing through the table. All in the fifty-fifth year of her age. She died as them as breastwarks for the protection of those the passage of troops through the city to protect Pelled with such force that they went clear scattered, and got safely away before it exploded. she lived—calm and peaceful. Elizabeth Fair-Olmstead, who was in command, telegraphed mounted a gun, and burst, but all on board were, of her age. She passed triumphantly away, the previous evening that no human being could at the moment, down below. The Confederates saying in her last moments, glory, glory, I am stand upon the ramparts for even a single mo- regarded their huge visitors as curiosities, and happy, and continued to do so until her voice ment, and that over one thousand large shells tragments were put away, in many tents, care- was lost in death. Rebecca Fairbank died April the 3d, in the sixtieth year of her age. She has It now becomes a question how to dispose of been a consistent member of the M. E. Church to a part of its edition, and makes no comments, the prisoners, and every exertion is being made for forty odd years, having joined the Church untenden and others of the border States opposed it and New Church, Va .- Headquarters at New- nor gives any particulars as to the number of to ship them immediately to St. Louis, where der the ministration of Williams and Scull .-She suffered much pain in her last hours, but The officers are in unusually good spirits this her work was done. She did not wish a longer evening; they state they have long been wishing stay but desired to depart and be with Christ .to go North for their health, and are glad of the Being asked if the Saviour was with her she re-

Happy the souls that go bouding away, Singing as upward they haste to the skies, Welcome, oh, welcome to our happy shore Victory, victory, weep ye no more. How could we wish them recalled from home Longer in sorrowing exile to rome. Safely they passed from their troubles beneath. Then let them slumber till Christ from the skies Bids them in glorified bodies arise, Victory, victory, Jesus hath come." Alexandra Fairbank died March the 22d, in the 9th year of his age. "The child shall die a hundred years old." This was fullfilled in Alexandra, for though so young heexhorted his father and brother to embrace Christ and attend to the

J. RASIN'S. WHITE WASH BRUSHES all sizes, a

J. RASIN'S.

FLOWER POTS, a general assortment of the different sizes, in store and for sale low at I. RASIN'S. NOTICE.

JAMES BARTHLETT, Adm'r of Jno. Ozmon, dec'd.

For Philadelphia.

HHE schooner "Elizabeth Jane," or to H. M. Nicols & Co., Easton, or

THOS. C. NICOLS, JR. In Philadelphia to Jas. L. Bewley & Co.. 326. South Wharves. [apr 19-tf MANTUAMARING.

RS. A. E. AUSTIN would most respectfully inform her old customers and friends generally that she continues to carry on the Mantuamaking business in all its branches. She has just received from the city the latest styles, for

SPRING STYLES

Millinery and Fanecy Goods, pains and on the very best terms, she thinks all

She will also inform the public that she has ness, he thinks everything outside as black as his some time ago, but not having seen it I was fear-exceed over three thousand. The rebels, from ceased. This occurred the evening previous to ry town and village in the United States, West Being desirous of returning thanks for the libown soiled and begrimed conscience. When he reful it was tinctured with the epidemic, as I know estimates made, lost by disese at this famous enthe evacuation and surrender of the Confederates. Indies, and Canadas. Price 75 cents per bottle, eral patronage heretofore bestowed she solicts a

Lapr 19 S .Two transports, with great difficulty, after Principal Office, 631 Arch Street Philadelphia, Pa. continuance of the same, will be pleased that may favor her with their

RISH P S MOKIN

A PETI

missioners f H. Leonard portion of th of said Leon have determ cause to the apr 19-4t

THE Conselected as the day u lector to coll 1862, or a C ty to collect cations for e quested to fi of this Boan ed day, stati willing to co apr 19-2t

PPLIC county Commission to construct of the road k near the "! will hold sa TUES. during which of the privile sidered, and trary be sho granted in a apr 19-4t 8

FOREIC HAVE . fine stock which have usual, and w ed by any or variety:-

Old Otard B

" Cognac of

" Monoage

LIQU

· Holland " Apple B make. " Peach B ' Jamaica " N. E. Rt Super old M: " " Sh " " Li " " M: and the very Champagne I also for o Whiskies and to suit my getting the sa gallon. I als dies, Wines.

bbl and keg. who may be mentioned, I (ap 18— LA' SPRII

the cit with a beauti SUMMERG very pretty as アヤカッモ Challie Delar Berage Del Berages Pl'n a Irish

C T. KEN

In gentlem: assortment, c Plain and Pla Plain and fi Plain and Bl'k F Plai In heavy se stock. I mer Plain and Tw Plaid and p Plain hea

Farme

Twi

I also have Groceries, Hard

I have adde of COAL OI both of which er figure than by the single gallons at 37 customers and tion of my sto feeling confidence and terms, as ed with more DOCK SA low by CPONGE.-

D pieces, fo for sale by VIRGIG O new crop, jus HEWING ← Eldorado Smoking Tob

apr 5 4 COME very D low-cas